Asked whether Askew would favor Flamingo Park as a campsite, Pride answered, "I think he would consider that a possibility, or also Lummus Park."

ASKEW RETURNED to Tallahassee after Sunday's meetings and does not plan to be back in the Miami area this week, Pride said.

But Earnie Seiler, chairman of the governor's committee of business and civic leaders, said "the governor's talking to some of them (Beach officials)" and that the committee itself will prepare "a definite recommendation trying to get the city to reconsider."

Seiler said he's hopeful that the council will listen to protest leaders at its meeting Wednesday. At least two groups plan to attend and ask for reconsideration of the campsite question.

"We (the committee) had a very understanding meeting with them (the protest groups)," Seiler said.

"THAT'S WHY our committee was so anxious to have the city at least make a trial run for the Democratic Convention with one campsite, so we'll have some idea what will happen for the Republicans."

Mayor Hall, who along with Councilman Leonard Haber cast the only two votes for a Beach campsite, said Monday he thought it might be "premature" to ask the council to reconsider at the next meeting Wednesday — but that he will "very possibly" ask for another vote at the subsequent meeting, July 5.

Meanwhile, Hall said, he has coined a slogan, "bridges instead of barricades," and has scheduled a meeting in his office July 7 between non-delegate leaders and Hubert Humphrey, "to discuss the possibility of his getting the nomination."

Noting that most protest groups are thought to favor George McGovern over Humphrey as the nominee, Hall said he wants to bring Kennedy and non-delegate together "so there will be peace and harmony."

HE SAID HE will try to schedule a similar meeting with another contender, Edmund Muskie.

As the campsite question continued to swirl, controversy popped up concerning a third possible convention — the non-delegate gathering proposed by the People's Party, which has asked for the Convention Hall immediately following the end of the Democratic Convention, July 13 or 14.

O'Key said Beach officials are open to the idea but are bound by a contract giving the Democrats use of the hall for two additional weeks.

And Democratic Convention Chairman Richard Murphy shot down the People's Party requests that the Democrats get out earlier.

"OUR CONTRACT runs through July 29. We need that amount of time to move out of the hall and we intend to take it," he said.

Last January, the Beach Council unanimously approved use of the convention hall for a summer convention of the People's Party, a national coalition of peace activist groups.

In February, the party voted to go to St. Louis instead, on grounds that "the Miami Beach atmosphere in July will be that of a circus and fiasco."

Recently, however, the party renewed its request for the convention hall, deciding to hold its meeting here after all as a "movement response" to the Democrats.

Since the party hopes to involve all non-delegates attending the Democratic Convention, the two-week delay could be crucial if some or most protesters leave town shortly after the Democratic meeting ends.

"WE MAY HAVE to demonstrate against the Democrats if they don't negotiate with us," People's Party spokesman Bob Kunst of Miami said.

O'Key said he'll make a recommendation on the matter to the council Wednesday "if I have sufficient information."

In Washington, meanwhile, the Department of Housing and Urban Development raised to $100,000 its funding of Miami Model City programs for black youth during the conventions.

Sports, workshops, youth fairs and other activities are being planned for some 2,000 youths, ages 14 to 21, a spokesman said, explaining:

"The best way to avoid trouble in the black community similar to the disturbances during the 1968 Republican Convention is to have an adequate number of well-planned activities available."

The governor "feels that some provision should be made for campsites right on Miami Beach, because otherwise we may be faced with the prospect of having to move people out who decide to camp there anyway."

Askew: Provision for non-delegates in Beach still 'could be made'

By RICK EYERDAM
Miami News Reporter

Gov. Reubin Askew decided this weekend that "some provisions for a campsite for non-delegates expected during the Democratic National Convention July 10 could be made in Miami Beach," his press secretary told The Miami News today.

Askew's press secretary said the Guard has requested and received permission from Miami Beach on Friday to use Bayshore Golf Course, the par-3 municipal golf course and the Miami Beach High School athletic field. The governor has decided that the Guard should keep those sites for use as "staging areas."

These three sites had previously been requested by the Conventions Coordinating Committee for use as non-delegate campsites.

As a result of the meeting, Askew concluded that "a site on Miami Beach and a site on Watson Island or some other combination of a site on the beach and some other location would make sense," Pride said.

Askew made the special unannounced trip to Miami this weekend following the Beach council's action denying non-delegates any campsites in Miami Beach and suggesting instead that such sites be set up seven miles away from the convention hall at Haulover Park and four miles away at Watson Island.

10 ordinances urged by Pomerance

Beach to weigh tough protest law

By ED TAYLOR
Miami News Reporter

A set of tough ordinances signed to control demonations at this summer's litical conventions will be sented to the Miami ach City Council Wednesy.

The 10 ordinances were ommended by Beach Po- Chief Rocky Pomerance er he consulted police offiis from other cities.

If approved by the council, eight of the ordinances would make it illegal to:

- Participate in any "riot, rout or unlawful assembly."
- Remain at the scene of any "riot, rout or unlawful assembly" after police officers have ordered dispersal.
- "Incite to riot" or other unlawful conduct.
- Willfully and maliciously "challenge to fight" or use vulgar and abusive language.
- Sing or speak obscene songs.
- Engage in disorderly conduct in streets, avenues, parks and other public and private places.
- Make derogatory remarks to a police officer in the performance of his duty.
- Use profane, indecent or obscene language in public.

The ninth ordinance would give the Beach mayor or chief of police the power to declare a state of emergency in the city and to establish a curfew "during the existence of the state of emergency."

The 10th ordinance would give Beach police the power to rope off an area involved in a disturbance. No one could cross such police lines except those approved by Pomerance or an officer at the scene.

Maximum penalties for violating any of the ordinances would be a $1,000 fine for 90 days in jail or both.

Beach City Attorney Joseph Wanick called the ordinances "very tough."

"They are designed to be tough," he said. "These are not 'namby-pamby' ordinances. They are to meet the conventions' needs — they are all convention ordinances.

"We are giving them all a good go-around," he said. "So far, I haven't found any successful challenges to any of them anywhere else."

Wanick said the ordinances were presented to him by Pomerance.

The Beach police chief could not be reached for comment.

A spokesman for the department, Sgt. Peter Corso, said Pomerance designed the ordinances after consulting with police officers from other cities including Theodore Zanders, deputy chief of police of Washington, D.C.

Zanders is a recognized expert on handling mass demonstrations.

"These ordinances are in keeping with our doctrine of being prepared for the worst and having the tools at our disposal," Corso said. "Hopefully, we won't have to use them."

Miami Beach City Manager Clifford O'Key said the ordnances are "the kind we will need to have on the city books to allow the police to handle the situation."

The ordinances, if passed, will join another convention inspired ordinance passed two weeks ago by the council, requiring permits for parades in Miami Beach. The parade ordinance was designed to require demonstrators to get permits before marching in the city's streets.

The proposal of the latest ordinances comes on the heels of a Beach council decision Friday to deny the use of Beach parks as campsites for non-delegate groups coming to town for the conventions.

Leaders of the non-delegate groups had previously warned the council that if they voted against campsites they would be increasing the possibility of trouble this summer. The non-delegate groups have consistently stated they do not want trouble and to prevent it have attempted to work with local officials.

Pomerance has said he is attempting to create an "effective and humane" policy of policing the conventions.

The seven-member council will consider the ordinance at its regular 10 a.m. meeting Wednesday.

Officials map plans for 2 campsites

Without formal announcement, arrangements are being made to turn Haulover Park and Watson Island into campsites for non-delegates to the Democratic convention July 10-13. However, some of the tenants on Watson Island are unhappy about the move.

John Van Wezel, County Manager Ray Goode's chief of convention preparations, met yesterday with park officials from the City of Miami and Dade County to plan for the expected encampments.

Haulover Beach Park is about seven miles north of the Miami Beach Convention Center in unincorporated Dade. Watson Island, on the MacArthur Causeway, is in the City of Miami about four miles southeast of the Convention Center.

Goode and Miami City Manager Melvin Reese have been given authority by their commissions to make arrangements for campsites. Reese has agreed to let Goode's office handle the details.

Van Wezel said he and the park officials had discussed the available water supplies, sanitation needs and power supplies at the two locations.

Meanwhile, owners and workers at Miami Helicopter Service and Chalk's Flying Service, two tenants on Watson, were miffed because they were not consulted about campsites.

"We've got seven planes here with a lot of costly and dangerous fuel. We're the minority and the officials didn't even call us to get our feelings," said Louise Franklin, vice president of Chalk's. "The blimp's out of town but we may have to move some of our planes."

She said 9,000 gallons of gasoline is kept on the island by Chalk's. More fuel is stored there by the helicopter service.

Frenchie Duvall, a pilot for the Miami Helicopter Service, said his line was discussing the possibility of moving its four helicopters to either Dodge Island or Opalocka.

The Vietnam Veterans Against the War, one of nine organizations actively planning demonstrations during this summer's political conventions, said they are willing to accept Watson Island as a campsite.

Scott Camil, VVAW's southeast coordinator, who has been negotiating with the Miami police regarding the specific uses of the site, stated that although the island was a "bad location" the VVAW would be willing to camp there as long as "ac-

Slate challenge hearing tonight

The challenge to Florida's 81-member delegation to the Democratic National Convention will be heard at 8 tonight in Washington by the Convention's Credentials Committee. Time of the hearing originally was 9:30 a.m. tomorrow.

The challenge, filed by the Florida Women's Political Caucus, claims the delegation should have more than the 34 women it now contains.

State Democratic Chairman Jon Moyle said today he has heard informally about the time change, but had no official word.

cess to Miami Beach is guaranteed at all times."

One detail troubling Goode's planners is transportation from the campsite areas to the vicinity of the Convention Center.

Goode said last week that he is counting on Miami Beach — which refused Friday to grant campsites within its city limits — to provide transportation for the non-delegates.

Goode said at that time that if Beach officials decided against campsites, the Beach should provide the transportation.

Beach officials haven't publicly discussed any plan to move the non-delegates to and from the campsites and the officially designated "cultural bazaars and free-speech areas."

Sy Gelber, an assistant state attorney assigned to aid the Miami Beach police for the conventions, said he felt buses would have to be used.

"Of the many things that will be overlooked the problem of transportatin ought not to be one of them," Gelber said.

In addition to buses, the possibility of moving non-delegates by boat from Haulover Park to a location nearer the convention hall has come up in the discussions of convention planners.

Pomerance wants only 2 protest laws

By RICK EYERDAM
Miami News Reporter

Miami Beach Police Chief Rocky Pomerance has told The Miami News he does not favor all of the tough anti-demonstration proposals scheduled to be considered at tomorrow's Beach City Council meeting.

In a memo to City Manager Clifford O'Key yesterday, Pomerance asked that eight of the 10 proposed ordinances be dropped from the agenda.

Pomerance had been reported as favoring all 10 proposals. He called the entire matter an embarrassment and said he would take full blame for the mixup.

The eight proposed ordinances which Pomerance wants abandoned would outlaw:

● Participation in a "riot, rout or unlawful assembly."

● Remaining at the scene of a "riot, rout or unlawful assembly" after police officers have ordered dispersal.

● "Inciting to riot" or other unlawful conduct.

● Willful, malicious provocations or challenges to fight, or the use of abusive or vulgar language.

● Singing or speaking obscene songs.

● Engaging in disorderly conduct in streets, avenues, parks and other public places.

● Derogatory remarks when made to a police officer while in the performance of his duty.

● The use of profane, indecent or obscene language in public.

Pomerance said he wants the proposed ordinance which would give the Beach mayor or police chief the power to establish a curfew in case of emergency.

He said he also wanted a law allowing police to rope off a trouble spot and limit access to the press or other people approved by the police.

City Attorney Joseph Wanick said yesterday that Pomerance had presented the 10 proposals to him. A spokesman for Pomerance, when asked about the legislative package, said that it could be traced to the chief.

Pomerance explained, "We asked police in Washington and Los Angeles to bring us their ordinances which relate to demonstrations.

"The package was given to us and we turned it over to the city attorney for analysis," Pomerance continued. "But he forwarded it as a recommendation from the police to the city manager and he (the city manager) put the whole package on the agenda."

The chief said it appeared that each department had assumed that the other wanted all the proposals put on the agenda.

"The city attorney acted in good faith," Pomerance added. "It was the police department's fault. All we wanted him to do was analyze the ordinances."

Pomerance said that when the proposals were finally scrutinized, the only ones he wanted were those on the curfew and the police lines.

Abernathy tells plans for 'City'

The Rev. Ralph Abernathy, head of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, said today his group would begin building Resurrection City II on July 5 here.

He said the shanty community, similar to the one built in Washington, D.C., in 1968 to focus attention on the plight of poor Americans, would provide an encampment for 300 to 400 people.

The site of Resurrection City II, Abernathy said, is still being negotiated, and will be announced later this week.

He also said a mass rally will be held at Manor Park in Miami July 9 and will feature such people as Coretta Scott King, widow of Martin Luther King, and singer Harry Belafonte.

Speaking to the Tiger Bay Club today, Abernathy said the two protest events "would challenge the Democratic Party to speak forthrightly and clearly on the issues of concern to poor people and other progressive voters.

"It is urgent to remove from office the present administration but equally urgent to replace it with an administration sensitive to the problems of the country," he said.

Abernathy urged the Democratic candidates to "speak more specifically and openly with less emotion" on such issues as busing, welfare, education, employment and tax loopholes.

Tenant group plans rally

By NICOLETTE HANDROS
Miami News Reporter

Members of the Florida Tenants Association, disgruntled with what they call mass evictions of low income tenants, plan demonstrations for July 8 in Miami Beach.

The demonstrations will come two days before the opening of the Democratic National Convention in Miami Beach and after rallies throughout Florida, said Eufaula Frazier, president of FTA.

She said the organization has about 10,000 members in Dade alone, and will form a coalition with the National Welfare Rights Organization, the Southern Christian Leadership Conference and the National Tenants Organization. These groups have not announced plans to participate in the demonstration, however.

Demonstrations will protest mass evictions from public housing, prices of housing to low income families and conditions of low income housing.

Mrs. Frazier cited eviction of 18 families here earlier this month when the roof of a three-story, 20-unit apartment house at 1321 NW 61st St. collapsed.

Dade's Housing and Urban Development Department moved the families temporarily into the Hampton House Hotel, 4200 NW 27th Ave., until they can be placed in public housing units.

There have been block evictions in Sarasota, West Palm Beach and Sanford, and other scattered examples, Mrs. Frazier said.

"All such evictions should stop. Some people are evicted when two weeks behind in their rent — and then charged $100 for the eviction," Mrs. Frazier said.

Gables Vote Clears Way For Mobilizing of Police

The Coral Gables Commission Tuesday approved measures to provide maximum police protection for the city during the Democratic and Republican national conventions.

The commissioners:

● Authorized the city manager to put the entire 119-member police force on 12-hour, seven-day a week duty if necessary because of any demonstrations that might occur while the conventions are in session.

● Approved a mutual aid agreement with the Dade County Sheriff's Department and Miami Beach Police Department for the period from July 1 to Aug. 31, subject to approval of the city's liability insurance carrier.

● Passed a resolution accepting liability for military equipment including gas masks and teargas grenades that is being loaned to Dade County by the U.S. Department of the Army.

"We are preparing for the worst and hoping for the best," Gables Police Chief William Kimbrough said.

All vacations and annual leaves have been canceled for the city's police force during the next two months, he added.

Kimbrough, who attended a morning convention planning session for all of Dade County's law enforcement agencies' heads, said the city may be asked by Gov. Reubin Askew to assign as many as three fifths of its police force to duty on Miami Beach during the convention week. No specific request has been made yet, he said.

Commissioners estimated the cost of overtime during the convention could run between $70,000 and $117,000.

ACLU Plans Challenge Of Beach Parade Rule

By ROB ELDER
And WILLIAM AMLONG
Herald Staff Writers

On behalf of protest groups here for the national conventions, the American Civil Liberties Union is preparing a court challenge of the new Miami Beach parade-permits law, an ACLU attorney said Tuesday.

Two additional police proposals probably will be contested if enacted by the Beach City Council today, said Bruce Rogow of Miami, ACLU special counsel.

At its regular 10 a.m. meeting, the council is expected to vote on requests by Police Chief Rocky Pomerance for a curfew law and an ordinance making it illegal to cross police lines.

IN A SUIT filed by Rogow last week, U.S. District Judge William O. Mehrtens already has struck down two other Beach ordinances outlawing female impersonation. That case was argued on behalf of Gay activists who plan demonstrations during the conventions.

The suit against the parade-permits law — enacted by the council June 7 — is expected to be filed in federal court Thursday on behalf of Vietnam Veterans Against the War, the Youth International Party, the Miami Women's Coalition and the National Coalition of Gay Organizations, Rogow said.

The challenge, he said, will be based on the ACLU's contention that "these ordinances arrogate all power to the chief of police" and are "overbroad and vague."

Meanwhile Beach Mayor Chuck Hall said he does not expect the council to reconsider at today's meeting its refusal to grant the demonstrators campsites within the city limits.

BUT HALL met with protest representatives and encouraged them to continue their bid for such a site, and said the council's July 5 meeting may be the "proper time" for a reconsideration.

When the council voted five to two against campsites last Friday, Hall and councilman Leonard Haber cast the only votes in favor.

In other developments Tuesday on the campsite controversy:

● White protest representatives, after meeting with Hall and Democratic Party officials, said they are now convinced "there will be a place for people to sleep on the Beach."

● The Rev. Ralph David Abernathy, whose black Southern Christian Leadership Conference plans a Resurrection City encampment in Flamingo Park, met with Pomerance and Beach City Manager Clifford O'Key and later said he "got the impression they are with us."

Abernathy said he'll attend today's council meeting to urge approval. But O'Key said that as of late Tuesday, "I'm not of a mind to go to the council and recommend a change."

● A spokesman for Gov. Reubin Askew's office confirmed that officials there have studied a suggestion that the campsite be located on U.S. Army Corps of Engineers property at the south tip of the Beach.

But a spokesman for the governor said that property "appears to be committed" for federal military use.

Askew is still in favor of a Beach campsite but believes the council should designate the location, the spokesman said. The proposal to use the federal land was understood to have come from Beach Councilman Jerome Greene, who voted against a campsite Friday.

IN ANOTHER convention-related development, county Manager Ray Goode's office warned the cities of Miami Beach, Miami and 14 other Dade municipalities that Washington will require reimbursement for federally loaned police equipment damaged during the conventions.

Since the county cannot pay for it, the cities will have to guarantee payment for such equipment as gas masks, bull horns and other police gear will not be suppplied, Goode said in a letter to city officials.

Supplied by military sources, the equipment is being loaned to local governments through the federal Law Enforcement Assistance Administration.

Goode asked each city to guarantee repayment before Sept. 8 for all damaged or unreturnable supplies. North Bay Village is the only municipality from which such an assurance has been received, an assistant to the county manager said.

OTHER OFFICIALS, meanwhile said police planning for the conventions now calls for creation of three highly mobile strike forces, each of which could cross jurisdictional lines and go to any trouble spot within the county.

As government officials struggled with these and other convention preparations, the Youth International Party outlined their plans for demonstrations during and before the Democratic Convention.

Jerry Rubin, Abbie Hoffman, Ed Sanders and other Yippie leaders emphasized their attempts to befriend and even include Miami Beach senior citizens in their plans.

They will begin, they said, with a march at 2 p.m. Thursday from the Convention Hall to Par Three Golf Course, the site where the Yippies insist they will camp during the convention.

RUBIN SAID the purpose of Thursday's march is to "show Miami Beach it has nothing to fear" from demonstrations. He said the marchers will be greeted at the end of their trek by senior citizens who will present them with "a key to the city."

Other plans announced by the Yippies include a "free share picnic" with senior citizens Sunday July 2 at Lummus Park, and another celebration July 9 "near convention hall" which will include "a big watermelon feast of Richard Nixon, which we will eat."

Along with the Yippies, representatives of the Zippies, Vietnam Veterans Against the War, the Miami Conventions Coalition, the Miami Women's Coalition and the National Coalition of Gay Organizations met with Hall Tuesday to discuss the campsite question.

At Hall's request, Democratic Party officials also attended the meeting and reaffirmed their support for a campsite on the Beach.

"I WOULD certainly hope the council eventually will come to a position of providing a campsite," Richard Murphy, the party's convention arrangements chairman, said later.

The young non-delegates appeared cheered by the support. Their spokesman, Shari Whitehead of the Miami Conventions Coalition, said following the meeting:

"We have confidence now that when the convention comes around, there will be a place for people to sleep on the Beach."

Abernathy appeared equally encouraged after his meeting with O'Key and Pomerance.

"I ALWAYS did have faith in the city officials of Miami Beach," he said. "I feel even more encouraged now."

The black civil rights leader said he assured the city officers that Resurrection City "is not meant to disrupt the convention in any way or disturb the people who live in the vicinity of Flamingo Park."

Hauling a tent in the trunk of his car as he traveled about the city Tuesday, Abernathy also spoke to the Tiger Bay political club. There, he ruled out use of county-owned Haulover Beach Park, which is eight miles from the Convention Hall. Along with City of Miami-owned Watson Island, Haulover has been offered as an alternate site.

"Eight miles away is too far for poor people," Abernathy said. "There's no way they can get in to make their challenge, to deliver their message."

ABERNATHY and his aides said they would consider Par Three Golf Course, the Miami Beach site sought by the Yippies and other white groups.

Confirming the ACLU plans to file suit against the parade permit law, Rogow said he was aware that Pomerance has said the police will use such ordinances with restraint.

"I appreciate Rocky's sensitivity," Rogow said. "But law enforcement is not left to the sensitivity of the policy chief. It's got to be specific."

He added:

"There are proper parade permit laws. But you cannot just pass these fantastically broad laws which leave everything to the police chief and the review of Clifford O'Key."

POMERANCE HAS defended his convention-related proposals as identical to those now on the books of Washington, D.C. and other cities.

The parade permit law will probably get its first application today, Pomerance said, when police officials act on the request of the Yippies for a permit for Thursday's march.

"We'll march with or without a permit," said a spokesman for the Yippies. "We're fighting these laws in the courts and in the streets."

As city officials worked on the myriad non-delegate problems, carpenters continued preparing the interior of convention hall for use by convention delegates.

One observer inside the hall summed up the work there cogently.

"This," he said, "is where the non-protesters will be."

RE: MIAMI CONVENTIONS COALITION
(MCC)

The MCC was formed at a national meeting in Washington, D.C. on May 20, 1972, as a coalition of groups planning protest activities at the Democratic and Republican National Conventions. The three groups involved in the MCC are the San Diego Convention Coalition (SDCC), the Florida Peoples Coalition (FPC), and the Miami Liberation Front (MLF).

The SDCC is a group comprised of representatives of various radical organizations in San Diego which was formed for active opposition to the U.S. Government through "serious, determined and long-term social upheaval."

The FPC, also known as the Florida Peoples Platform Coalition, is a statewide organization established as a pressure group to demonstrate at the Democratic National Convention on Miami Beach during July, 1972.

The MLF is a local coalition of students, women and young workers who share a common opposition to racism, sexism and imperialism. This coalition was organized around the concensus that there must be coordinated non-violent opposition and confrontation at the Democratic National Convention to be held at Miami Beach in July, 1972.

RE: MIAMI CONVENTIONS COALITION (MCC)

As a result of a meeting of the National Coordinating Committee of the Peoples Coalition for Peace and Justice (PCPJ) in Louisville, Kentucky, June 16 through 18, 1972, a contingent of PCPJ personnel was allocated to Miami to establish a temporary office. This office is to be used as a base of operations for the PCPJ in order to implement cooperation and support of the MCC in planning the actions of the MCC against the Democratic and Republican National Conventions, July and August, 1972.

Miami Herald
March 1, 1971

The National Peace Action Coalition (NPAC) was founded in 1970 by members of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP). Its basic objective is to unite masses of people including labor unions, GIs, and the black community in the struggle to end United States intervention in Southeast Asia through orderly and peaceful tactics. The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

In addition to [redacted] a member of the PCPJ, has arrived in Miami Beach to assist in preparing for PCPJ and MCC cooperation. [redacted] is expected to arrive in Miami about July 1, 1972, for the same purpose. b6 b7C

June 26, 1972

The MCC appears to have taken itself out of the picture with regard to planning of demonstrations for the Democratic National Convention in July, 1972. The MCC is attempting to reserve its limited resources for the Republican Convention in August, 1972. The MCC expects to participate in the activities surrounding the Democratic Convention only to the extent of staging a cultural exhibit to be presented in the vicinity of the convention complex during the convention.

MM T-3

RE: MIAMI CONVENTIONS COALITION (MCC)

At a meeting of the MCC Steering Committee in Miami on June 21, 1972, the overall scenario for protest activity at the Republican National Convention was altered. The new plan, placing more emphasis on opposition to the Vietnam War, was as follows:

First Day:	A Vietnamese cultural activity called "Let Vietnam Live", anti-war speeches to be made by a number of Vietnam citizens brought in for this activity.
Second Day:	A "gauntlet of shame" will be formed from each major hotel to the convention hall. This will consist of demonstrators wearing white "death masks" lined up on both sides of the street which will be called "a street without joy." This will be intended to represent Highway 1 in Vietnam.
Third Day:	Major demonstration to be conducted at the Doral Beach Hotel during a meeting of the GOP National Committee. Later, demonstrators will march in a continuous circle around the convention in a "march against murder", to culminate in "unstructured" acts of massive disobedience.

June 22, 1972

Following the arrival in Miami of PCPJ representatives, they attended to work closely with the MCC but it became apparent [redacted] that tension was developing between the two groups. The MCC [redacted] were resisting what they considered to be a take over by the PCPJ. The MCC was opposed to a national call for support of the constituency groups at the Democratic National Convention but found themselves powerless to prevent

b6

RE: MIAMI CONVENTIONS COALITION (MCC)

the issuance of a national call which the PCPJ insisted was a necessary step. The national call issued by the PCPJ advocated support for various black groups especially the National Welfare Rights Organization (NWRO) and the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) who appear to have formed their own informal coalition, at least in spirit if not in fact.

The MCC, in order to prevent a complete rift between itself and the PCPJ, and to avoid the appearance that it was being dominated by the PCPJ, agreed to go along with the national call but was really only going through the motions. In reality, the MCC will do nothing more than issue propaganda and continue to organize locally for the Republican National Convention.

The representatives of black groups have not attended recent meetings of the other protest groups planning convention activities, apparently because they feel that the MCC and the other groups are not giving enough attention to the negotiations with the power structure of Miami Beach for camp sites for non-delegates. The attempt to present a united front in negotiations with the Miami Beach authorities has been shattered by these internal dissensions, combined with their lack of success so far in obtaing camp sites in Miami Beach.

NWRO is a nationwide organization of welfare recipients formed to seek increased government support.

The MCC has scheduled a meeting for 8:00 PM, June 29, 1972, in the Flamingo Ball Room on the second floor of the Student Union at the University of Miami (UM). The purpose of this meeting is to attempt to attract support of MCC activities by local people. Plans call for a slide show dealing with the war in Indochina.

RE: MIAMI CONVENTIONS COALITION (MCC)

On June 27, 1972, the MCC was concentrating its efforts on getting out a mailing. The mailing included a letter from the MCC urging everyone to come to Miami Beach for the August demonstrations in connection with the Republican National Convention. The mailing also included the seven point peace program proposed by the North Vietnamese which is advocated by the MCC; a description of the cultural exhibition known as Expo 72; a call for women to participate in the demonstrations on behalf of women's lib objectives on August 21, 1972, a prototype fund-raising letter which MCC hopes that other groups can use to solicit funds; a description of Miami and Miami Beach and a list of the following telephone numbers for people to call when they arrive in the area:

Also included in the package to be mailed was a scenario for demonstrations during the Republican National Convention captioned "Wind Nixon Down" as follows:

August 14-23, 1972	A peoples fair called Expo 72.
August 20-21, 1972	"From Moonrise to Moonrise" women will have their day. Womens demonstration sponsored by the Miami Womens Coalition.
August 21, 1972	A "moving cultural event" for Miami Beach senior citizens, presented by "Vietnamese who live in the U.S." with participation by Vietnam veterans. This will also include a live telephone hookup from Paris with Madame BINH of the North Vietnamese People Delegation.
August 22, 1972	Morning: A mock court or peoples tribunal, putting on trial the Nixon administration; this will include testimony from veterans, blacks, gays, ex-prisoners, senior citizens and welfare people. Afternoon: A "street without joy" involving demonstrators who will be lined up on both sides of the route from Miami Beach Hotels to the convention center. They will display posters and other visual aids bearing anti-war slogans. Evening: A march to the convention center led by unemployed veterans. This march will culminate in an encirclement of the convention hall.
August 23, 1972	Prior to Nixon's acceptance speech a march to the President's headquarters at the Doral Hotel where the people will demand a response from the President or a high official of his administration as to why Madame BINH's peace proposals have not been accepted

The attached literature was distributed in the vicinity of the Baltimore City College, Loch Raven Boulevard and 33rd Street.

The leaflet, printed by the S.D.S., urges people to attend demonstrations at the Democratic and Republican Conventions in Miami, Florida. The Democratic Convention is scheduled for 11 thru 14 July 1972.

SOMETHING DOWN

On July 11-14 the Democratic Party will hold its convention in Miami to choose its presidential candidate. Right now it looks as if McGovern will win the nomination. Most workers and students in this country hate the war in S.E. Asia and the government's policies towards working people in this country. George McGovern is putting himself forward as the solution to all of our problems. Students for a Democratic Society doesn't think he is.

We feel that any president elected under this system of government, no matter how good a man he may be, will not really serve the interests of the great majority of people. We feel that he or she will be prevented from doing so by the power and self interests of the big corporations and by the vast government bureaucracies which, because of their very nature and massivemenss, would be almost impossible to move away from their present political direction.

McGovern says he is a friend of the workers and against foreign wars, but without major changes in the capitalist system that we live under, those changes will never happen. That is why SDS and other groups are organizing demonstrations in Miami at both the Republican and Democratic conventions. Whichever candidate wins, from either party controlled by the big bosses, will not and cannot bring about the changes we need and would like to see.

McGOVERN ON VIETNAM AND IMPERIALISM

McGovern's strongest drawing card is his "opposition" to the war in Vietnam. McGovern proudly claims that he was the first Senator to speak against the war and that he has opposed it consistently since 1963. But has he?

"We crossed the bridge a long time ago in Vietnam. It's too late to turn back now. Our nation has decided that we must stay and fight to stop the communists from taking over. We have a commitment and we must stay there until the dispute is resolved". That's what McGovern was saying in October 1965, two years after he began opposing the war (McGovern, by Robert Anson, p.161).

The year before, in 1964, McGovern voted for the Tonkin Gulf Resolution which gave Johnson the go-ahead to escalate the war against the people of Southeast Asia. McGovern now claims that he was deceived by Johnson back in 1964. But two years later, when he'd had plenty of chance to see what was really happening in Vietnam McGovern voted to table (in effect killing) the amendment to repeal the Tonkin Gulf Resolution.

McGovern's support for U.S. imperialism elsewhere around the world is even more clearcut. In a speech last Sept. 23, McGovern declared, "My friends, this is a dangerous world and we need strong armed forces with a strong morale." McGovern has voted repeatedly for military appropriations for the fascist governments in Haiti, Spain and Iran as well as in Vietnam.

Speaking on the Middle East, McGovern says, "The United States must make a firm commitment to the survival and security of Israel as a free, independent nation. One of the ways we can impress on the world our willingness to defend freedom is by permitting Israel to purchase the planes needed to preserve freedom in the Middle East." (from a campaign brochure distributed in Boston) The Israeli government, which McGovern wants to protect, maintains a consistent policy of racist oppression towards both Arabs and Oriental Jews. The planes they want are used to drop napalm on Arab villages in Syria, Jordan, and Lebanon. And an important reason why, as McGovern says, "is the economic interest in [redacted]ing that the area is not [redacted]ught up in the kind of conflict that would destroy access to the oil resources there." (The Sun 5/15/72) Caught in the balance are hundreds of $millions in profits for U.S. oil companies.

McGovern's call for a strong military is hardly surprising considering his financial backers. All of them have huge investments abroad and several are deeply involved with major defense contractors. Max Palevsky is a director of Xerox, and chairman of the board of Scientific Data Systems of Israel. James Kerr is president of AVCO which produces ICBMs. Henry Kemmelman has amassed a fortune of $50 million as president of the West Indies Corporation and the West Indies Bank and Trust (now merged with Rockefeller's Chase Manhattan Bank). These are his three largest contributors. Others include: Stewart Mott, heir to General Motors and the U.S. Sugar Corporation; A.Zafferoni, vice president of Syntex, a Panama-based drug company; Ruth Handler, president of Mattel toys which owns plants in Hong Kong, Taiwan, Japan, and Mexico. In all, 81% of McGovern's campaign funds have come from only 41 people (Congressional Quarterly, 4/8/72). Clearly McGovern is not a friend of the oppressed people of the world. On the contrary he is a spokesman for some of their biggest oppressors.

McGovern at Home

McGovern's stand on domestic issues is pretty much the same story. He has tried to come off as a friend of the working class, talking vaguely about massive tax reform while touring working class communities. In fact his record is dismal.

McGovern voted for the wage freeze last fall, taking the opportunity to observe: "A freeze on profits is totally inappropriate." (Congressional Record, 11/10/71) He voted for the bill to break the longshoremen's strike on the West coast this winter. He voted for several laws that barred railroad workers from striking. In 1967 he voted for the D.C. Crime Control Bill and in 1968 the Omnibus Crime Control Bill--both of these called for more cops and police dogs to build up the power of the police to deal with black rebellions. McGovern has also managed to vote for the interstate "anti-riot" law under which Rap Brown was framed, and the bill which barred people from federal jobs if they had been arrested during a ghetto rebellion. These last four bills were explicitly racist attacks on black and latin workers.

We in SDS feel that instead of supporting him students and workers have to unite to build a movement in this country that fights against U.S. imperialism, racism, and all other attacks on working people. The only way we can drive the U.S. out of S.E. Asia is to build militant actions and strikes that shut the country down until the U.S. has withdrawn everthing: the troops, the planes, the banks, and the factories, from S.E. Asia. This summer we're going to have a series of demonstrations against the government at the Democratic and Republican conventions. We urge you to come and help build a worker-student alliance that can really defeat U.S. imperialism.

The Student Mobilization Committee to End the War in Vietnam, University of South Florida, Tampa, (SMC-USF), was recognized as an approved campus organization at USF by the Student Affairs Committee, May 15, 1970.

TP T-4,
May 21, 1970.

The Student Mobilization Committee to End the War in Vietnam (SMC) is controlled by the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) and its youth affiliate, Young Socialist Alliance. SMC initiates and supports public demonstrations against the war in Southeast Asia.

As the youth organization of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP), the Young Socialist Alliance (YSA) serves as the main source of recruitment into that organization. The YSA is described in the masthead of its official publication, "The Young Socialist Organizer," as "A multinational revolutionary socialist youth organization."

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

In October, 1970, the Radical Action Coalition (RAC) received recognition as an approved organization at the University of South Florida (USF), Tampa, Florida. RAC is made up of radical leftists and liberal peace groups at USF who want to build a movement in the Tampa Bay area.

DEMONSTRATIONS AT DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION, JULY, 1972
MIAMI BEACH, FLORIDA

DEMONSTRATIONS AT REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION, AUGUST, 1972
MIAMI BEACH, FLORIDA

On June 22, 1972, the Reverend JESSE LOUIS JACKSON, a black leader from Chicago, Illinois, and National Director of Operation Push (OP), held a press conference at a Miami, Florida, hotel.

JACKSON has described OP as a Chicago-based political and economic organization with goals of betterment of blacks and minority groups.

JACKSON, at the press conference, predicted that blacks would push Senator GEORGE MC GOVERN over the top on the first ballot at the Democratic National Convention in Miami Beach, Florida, but he stated that leaders of black blocs totaling approximately 200 uncommitted delegates would meet in Miami on July 9, 1972, to decide whether a possibility exists of holding MC GOVERN back on the first ballot. JACKSON said that of the 500 black delegates coming to the conventions there is a minimum of at least 200 who are uncommitted and who could hold the key to MC GOVERN's first ballot victory.

JACKSON announced that OP would open an office in Miami, Florida, and could be located at the Mount Zion Baptist Church at 301 NW 9th Street. He indicated an intention for OP to participate in the forthcomming Democratic and Republican National Conventions and possibly to demonstrate within the conventions themselves.

Gay activists praise impersonation ruling

By ROBERT STULBERG
Miami News Reporter

The leaders of gay liberation groups planning protests during the two political conventions here this summer declared today that a federal court ruling striking down two Miami Beach ordinances against female impersonation is "a great, great victory for gay people everywhere."

The gay activists said the court ruling, handed down yesterday by U.S. District Court Judge William Mehrtens, was "a major breakthrough for gay civil rights," and calls for "victory celebrations" in Miami Beach during the Democratic convention, July 10-13.

"We want to invite all our gay-identified brothers and sisters from all over the country to take part in our celebration," said Charles La Mont, spokesman for the National Coalition of Gay Organizations.

Ruling on a suit filed by La Mont and Robert Barry, a local gay activist organizer, Mehrtens held that the ordinances are vague, discriminatory "over-broad" and "have a chilling effect on the parties' 1st Amendment rights."

The judge ordered the two ordinances dropped from the city's books, imposing a permanent injunction on Miami Beach barring further enforcement of either law.

The permanent injunction bars enforcement of all parts of the ordinances — including sections prohibiting public nudity, "indecent exposure" and "indecent or lewd behavior." It will go into effect immediately in Miami Beach.

The first of the laws, Ordinance 25-50, makes it "unlawful for any male person to exhibit or display himself costumed . . . in any manner not appropriate to his sex, or otherwise to impersonate a member of the female sex in any . . . theatrical production" within the city limits.

The second of the laws, Ordinance 25-52, ~~makes it~~ unlawful for any person in any public place in the city to be found in a state of nudity, or in a dress not becoming to his sex, or to make any indecent exposure of his person or be guilty of any indecent or lewd behavior."

Mehrtens explained that he found the first ordinance discriminatory because it prohibits men from dressing like women, but it does not prohibit women from dressing like men.

He said both the ordinances are vague because they leave enforcement entirely to the "personal discretion and personal interpretation of the police officer."

The judge ruled on the case following a two-hour hearing.

Making a point for the plaintiffs, American Civil Liberties Union attorney Bruce Rogow showed Miami Beach Police Chief Rocky Pomerance several pieces of "uni-sex" clothing and asked him to identify the clothes as men's or women's apparel.

Pomerance, who testified that 11 arrests had been made on the basis of the two ordinances in the past two years, had no trouble identifying the first item, a handbag, as an item found in women's wardrobes.

But when the attorney presented a black print blouse, an open-collar stretch shirt and several other items, the chief said he couldn't be sure of the answer.

"The proper answer," Mehrtens prompted with a grin, "is that it would depend on who is wearing them."

As the line of questioning continued, Beach Assistant City Attorney Lionel Barnet raised an objection, saying that the laws were clear in the sort of apparel which would be judged unlawful.

Mehrtens denied the objection, saying, "To me, it's not really clear. If I were a police officer and a Greek soldier came down the street, I might put him in jail. If a Scotsman in a kilt came by, I might arrest him too. But if a lifeguard came by wearing scanty bathing trunks, I might not be inclined to arrest him."

When the plaintiffs closed their case, the city's attorney called Miami Beach Police Maj. Calvin Schuler to testify about the ordinances.

When the questioning and cross-examination of the witness was completed, Mehrtens asked him to clarify the two laws.

"If I was walking down the street, wearing a dress, high-heeled shoes, rouge and lipstick, would you judge me to be in violation of these ordinances?" he asked.

"That would depend on the totality of your dress," Schuler answered.

"If I was walking down the street, just wearing a dress and high-heeled shoes and no rouge or lipstick, would you judge me to be in violation of the law then?" the judge continued.

"I would have to see what you look like," the policeman said.

"Then it would depend if I was good looking or not, is that it?" the judge asked with a broad smile.

The police officer did not reply.

SUBJECT: MIDEM; MIREP

The following is a summary of results of monitoring of FM Radio Station WBUS, 93.3, on 6/28/72, at 7:30 P.M., by SA [redacted]:

The Station announcer stated that ED SANDERS and GABRIELLE SHANG(phonetic) were in the studio and that they were going to talk about the first demonstration that was going to take place on June 29, 1972.

SHANG predicted that the demonstration would be "inventive" and dramatic and she invited the local people in the Miami area to join them, the Youth International Party (YIP). She said that the purpose of the demonstration is to parallel the militarism of Saigon with what is happening in Miami Beach; the khaki uniforms, the helicopters overhead, and the bringing in of the National Guard to "Par 3".

She stated that the demonstration would assemble at 2:00 P.M., 6/29/72, at yhe parking lot of the Miami Beach Convention Hall and that ~~they~~ the demonstration planned to march to the Par 3 Golf Course where they expect to be met by a welcoming committee of senior citizens. She claimed the the YIPs are getting a lot of support from the senior citizens since the nation is being politically controled by the middle-aged segment of the country and that the youth and the senior citizens are the ignored generations.

ED SANDERS ~~xxxxx~~ announced a watermellon feast to be held on Sunday, July 9, 1972, at a place to be announced near the Convention site, possibly the Par 3 Golf Course. He added that LARRY RIVERS, the artist will be there to do sculpturing out of fruits, rice and seaweed, and that ALAN GINSBERG would be there the same evening to read poetry against the war. He said that ABIE HOFFMAN is writing his first poem which he will read at that time in Yiddish.

SANDERS announced that he is no longer connected with the "FUGS" (possibly a singing group). Instead he stated that he is now with a group known as "ED SANDERS and the Hemptones" He added that he had just cut a political song record with this group which will soon be out on the market. He explained that he is now out of group rock singing and that he is now singing political songs about socialism, politics, left-wing vegetarian pacifist songs and peace. He said that he is also doing commentaries and that he has just complete a commentary about HENRY KISSINGER and JILL ST. JOHN. He said that this group, the Hemptones, will be coming to Miami Beach and will back him, SANDERS, and ABIE HOFFMAN.

Both SANDERS and SHANG spoke of the 6/29/72, demonstration and predicted that the demonstrators would be in consume portraying different images and people, including MARTHA MITCHELL and Miami Beach Police Chief, "ROCKY" POMERANCE. SANDERS stated that the demonstration will prove that they (the YIPs) are in Miami Beach, and that there is no need to call out the National-Guard or to "cut off the legs of the watertower".

SHANG stated that she, herself, would be dressed up like "Uncle Sam" and that she was going to impersonate the President. She added that no permit had been obtain for the demonstration because of various lawsuits now before the courts to decide the constitutionality of the parade laws in cities.

SANDERS stated that no permit would be necessary in this case because all the demonstrators intended to do was to "stroll up the streets looking pleasantly painted".

The WBUS interviewer stated that the Miami Beach Police seemed to agree and he then played back a previously recorded interview with Sergeant PETER CURSO of the Miami Beach Police Department who was commenting regarding the forthcoming 6/29/72 demonstration. Sgt. CURSO predicted that there would be no trouble resulting from the demonstration. He noted that the demonstration is in conflict with a city ordinance, but he added that the ordinance is brand new and flexible, and that different provisions would have to be made. He noted that the theme of the demonstration was to prove that a demonstration is not necessarily an attempt to make a city a cinder, and that, hopefully, the demonstrators are not ogres and that they can peacefully and lawfully carry out their First Ammendment rights. He expressed a feeling that this is something that is needed.

SHANG commented that everyone had been misinformed by the national news media about their purpose in coming to Miami Beach, and that theis would serve to show the people what they (the YIPs) are really like.

The above program was followed by a taped announcement made by the Students for Democratic Society (SDS) which stated that the SDS plans to bring some 350 to 400 members to Miami Beach and that it will sponser a protest rally made up of some 2,000 people on July 11, 1972.

The speaker identified herself as MARSHA MONISTERS (phonetic a member of the SDS. She said that the SDS plans to launch a full-scale mobilization across the country and in Canada. The main emphasis of this mobilization will be around an anti-racism bill which was drawn up at a meeting of the International Interim Committee in Boston. The anti-Racism Bill will be the highlight of a demonstration march planned for July 11. This march will terminate at the Convention call.

She said that it is essential for the people all over to see the power of unified working-class people, and that people all over must be made to see that united they can fight and defeat racist and sexist oppression that the working-class has to suffer.

She added that the SDS supports the demonstrations of the "BBAW" and "NWRO" and all anti-imperialist and anti racist struggles. She insisted that the SDS must be allowed, as well as other groups, to pass out leaflet and to sell literature wherever possible without securing special permission. In connection with this she noted that one of their members had recently been arrested for selling literatur.

She said that all people should be made aware of the struggles that are presently going on and of the movements to build for greater struggles in the future. She said that SDS can be contacted by calling telephone number 531-9493 or by mail at 420 Lincoln Road, Room 328, Miami Beach, Florida. She urged that all people who are seriously interested in fighting racism and oppression of all kinds contact the SDS immediately.

Secret Service gets missing keys probe

Miami Beach Police said today they have turned over to the Secret Service further investigation in the mystery of the Convention Center Keys. The keys were missing yesterday and today.

Beach detectives said they have obtained a list of "casual labor" employed at the Beach Convention Center.

Members of the auxiliary working force reportedly were seen near the room from which the keys disappeared.

Robert Raley, a stage supervisor, told police the keys were stolen from his locked attache case, which was in a locked room at the center Wednesday night.

Beach Convention Center Manager Norman Litz said he will decide today whether all locks will have to be replaced. About 150 locks and 15 keys are involved.

There was speculation that the keys may have been misplaced, and Beach police officials said they didn't believe the keys were stolen in connection with the Democratic National Convention which convenes here July 10.

A meeting of the Miami Beach City Council was held on Friday, June 23, 1972, pertaining to the possible campsites or accommodations for the demonstrators during the forthcoming conventions. During the meeting [redacted] who has been leading the ZIPPIE faction of the YIPs in the absence of TOM FORCADE, threw a pie at Councilman ROSEN. [redacted] was led away by police and things calmed down. It had been tentatively decided that the protestors or demonstrators, during the conventions, might be permitted to use Lummus or Haulover Parks.

JERRY RUBIN had, during the past few days, indicated that the YIPs had withdrawn its mass call for the first convention, the reason being MC GOVERN. RUBIN indicated there was no point coming here as they had hoped to stop HUMPHREY. Now they want to keep the numbers down and a confrontation at the Democratic Convention would only be of help to RICHARD NIXON. b6 b7C

ABBIE HOFFMAN, JERRY RUBIN and ED SANDERS reportedly signed a $33,000 contract with Warner Paperback Library in New York for a paperback book to be titled "Vote" and which is supposed to come out by October 1st. ED SANDERS is the author of "The Family", the book which pertains to CHARLIE MANSON. [redacted] In connection with this book or paperback called "Vote", JERRY RUBIN made the remark that "the news of the book struck terror in the rooms of the White House".

There is to be a march on Thursday, June 29, 1972, and the march is for the purpose of "Free MARTHA MITCHELL - She Is a Political Prisoner". This is supposed to be a "test" case to test the parade ordinance at Miami Beach and the march will be to the Convention Center. JERRY RUBIN is involved in arranging this march but will probably delegate some of the work in lining it up to other members of YIP.

ABBIE HOFFMAN has taken over the job of getting a rock concert together, date not decided.

The general feeling of the members of YIP is that the black people are pulling out of the Convention Coalition.

TOM FORCADE again brought up the possibility of a "Che Gueverra Appreciation Day" but nothing definite has been decided as to whether or not they will have this.

[redacted] thinks he is some kind of a national hero because of the publicity he got in throwing the pie at Councilman ROSEN during the meeting at Miami Beach on Friday, June 23, 1972. b6 b7C

There are approximately 30 YIP members in Miami at the present time and the ZIPPIE faction has about 45 members. The YIPs continue to have their headquarters at 1674 Meridian Street, Miami Beach, Suites 200 and 201. The headquarters of the ZIPs continues to be 3113 Mary Street, Coconut Grove, Miami, Florida, which is also the residence of [redacted] There are no special plans by the ZIPs other than they plan a "smoke-out" on July 9, 1972.

[redacted] along with a [redacted] are leaving for San Francisco and Vancouver. [redacted] is a type of bodyguard for JERRY RUBIN and [redacted] a type of assistant bodyguard. An individual using the name [redacted] is now working part of the time in YIP headquarters and is supposed to be some kind of an office manager and he does research [redacted]. b6 b7C

A [redacted] is going to arrange a picnic on Sunday, July 2, 1972, for the senior citizens to be held in Lummus Park in order to get the old people over to the YIP way of thinking.

During the evening of June 8, 1972, a meeting was held at the residence of [redacted] is known to have contacted individuals for this meeting. Among those present in addition to [redacted] were [redacted] and [redacted]

The purpose of this meeting was for [redacted] to meet people who have funds or contact for funds for [redacted] group of approximately 30-40 young people with whom he is working in connection with activity prior to and during the forthcoming national political conventions at Miami Beach. b6 b7C

[redacted] said he is for Senator MC GOVERN and that almost all of the youth groups favor MC GOVERN.

Concerning the Democratic National Convention he said the strategy is now to make an organized effort against any violent disturbances or confrontations. The youth are serious about supporting MC GOVERN and don't want to do anything to cause disfavor among the general public which would also reflect on the MC GOVERN nomination.

[redacted] said the Republican National Convention is a different matter. The general public must be made aware of the fact that President NIXON is not acceptable to youth and demonstrations protesting NIXON's policies will be held.

[redacted] said there is an urgent need for the various youth groups to channel their energies in order to carry out this common strategy and an office must be established. He said an office place is available but a $500.00 downpayment is needed to open this office at Miami Beach. b6 b7C

[redacted] offered some office space where he has [redacted] however, this space was believed to be too small to be practical.

[redacted] offered and [redacted] accepted a free room at the Victor Hotel, 1144 Ocean Drive, Miami Beach.

[redacted] is staying there in room 708 in a free room ordinarily costing around $50.00 a week.

It was learned that [redacted] wanted [redacted] to be one of two endorsers of the telephone bill or [redacted] group. [redacted] apparently agreed. The telephone company has asked for a $400.00 advance payment before they will install this phone.

It was learned that the telephone company later contacted [redacted] and told him the co-endorser for the telephone bill had backed out and wanted to know if [redacted] would go it alone. [redacted] declined.

[redacted] is able to make local telephone calls from the Victor Hotel without being charged the usual 15¢ fee for each call by this hotel. [redacted] will not be allowed to make any long-distance calls from this hotel.

Although [redacted] has said he is from New York and had or has an office on Broadway in New York City, it is known he has written a personal check on a bank in Vermont.

ReTPlet to HM dated 5/24/72 and Buairtel to HM dated 5/23/72 and tri-captioned, "MIDEM; CALREP; ANTI-CASTRO ACTIVITIES, IS-CU."

A review of captioned file reflects that no information has been received to indicate that any significant activity on the part of any anti-CASTRO groups has taken place in the Tampa Division since the submission of reTPlet.

Sources familiar with Cuban matters were contacted regarding any Cuban activities in connection with the upcoming political conventions in Miami, Florida, with negative results.

There is virtually no anti-CASTRO activities taking place in the Tampa Division. None of the anti-CASTRO organizations are holding any meetings and sources report that the attitude among the Tampa Cubans is one of distrust toward any group or persons trying to propagate any further anti-CASTRO projects.

The only possible anti-CASTRO activities in Tampa was the alleged beginning of a group known as the Comite Internacional Pro-Defensa de La Democracia (CIPDEM) as set out in Tampa letter and LHM to the Bureau dated 3/27/72 and captioned "CIPDEM." It is noted that investigation re "CIPDEM" has reflected that no such organization exists in the Tampa Division. The results of that investigation will be reported under that caption.

VIETNAM VETERANS AGAINST THE WAR (VVAW)

Reference is made to memorandum dated June 16, 1972, at Miami, Florida, captioned "Vietnam Veterans Against the War" which had attached thereto a reproduction of an undated "Convention Newsletter" disseminated presumably to all VVAW chapters in the United States regarding planned activities at the forthcoming political conventions in Miami, Florida. This newsletter was disseminated by the Florida VVAW, Post Office Box 13179, Gainesville, Florida.

VVAW is an anti-war organization organized in 1967 and headquartered in New York City. Its published objective is "to demand an immediate cessation of fighting and the withdrawal of all American troops from Indochina". VVAW has participated in several demonstrations, including massive demonstration in Washington, D. C., April 19-23, 1971

On June 22, 1972, Source One furnished a copy of "Convention News II" prepared by Florida VVAW, Post Office Box 13179, Gainesville, Florida 32601. A copy of "Convention News II" is set forth below:

CONVENTION NEWS II

CONFIDENTIAL

There seems to be a small misunderstanding concerning the last News letter about the conventions.

First let me say that we are planning for a peaceful Convention; any trouble will only help Nixon. After talking with leaders from SCLC, NWRO, YIP, ZIP, MCC, the Gay organizations and other groups, they all plan for a peaceful Democratic Convention. Some of them plan a lot of Civil Disobedience for the Republican Convention.

Those brothers that are interested in peaceful protest should attend the Democratic Convention; the Democrats offer the best chance for peace. Our emphasis at the Democratic Convention will be on of educating the Dem. delagates, using WSI, lobbying with the delegates, showing slides and films, setting up workshops and possibly doing guerrilla theater. It will be our job to see that the Democrats come out with the strongest possible anti war, anti military, and pro repatriation platform. This means that we have a lot of constructive issues and work for the Dem. Convention.

At the Republican Convention we must confront the Republicans with their past record. A lot of of organizations plan C.D. and the chances for trouble will be a lot higher at the Republican Convention; also most of the groups will be putting their main emphasis in the Rep. Convention and that means a lot more people will be there and they will be harder to control than the smaller numbers at the Dem. Convention.

This is a report on our gaines during meetings with the authorities in Miami and Miami Beach. 1. In the event of areas being called illeagal assembly area's, our corpsmen, Medics, and Marshalls will not be arrested. 2. In case of any trouble our marshalls will have an opportunity to take care of the trouble first. Our marshalls will only be responsible for VVAW personnel. 3. The police will evict any people who hassle us on our campsite, at our request. 4. There will be a rumor control board set up with vets and police. 5. The police will not hassle people for minor infractions such as smoking dope. We have agreed to stop anyone selling heroin and to dispose of the heroin. 6. VVAW emergency vehicles will have access to and from the convention site. People who OD or for any reason must be taken to a hospital or off the beach can be removed with a VVAW vehicle and a police escort, if requested. 7. In the event of C.D. the police will go over arrest procedures with us before hand, in order to keep peace; this is similar to the arrangements we worked out in D.C. at Dewey Canyon III. 8. We have requested a campsite and sanatation facilities, explaning that without sanatation facilities we would have to use hotel and restaurant bathrooms.

As far as our needs of the membership: 1. each chapter should pick their own marshalls so that they can stay with their chapter and help keep peace with the people they know. 2. We will have to supply our own food and sleeping gear. 3. In case of a hurricane we have private homes available to send people to.

That's about all for now, we will send out more information as we get it. VVAW office in Hialeah FL is the convention headquarters for us. Alton Foss is coordinator. His phone number is 305-681-7982.

VIETNAM VETERANS AGAINST THE WAR (VVAW)

Source Two advised on [redacted] b7D

Scott Camil is the head of the VVAW, Gainesville, Florida, and is the Southeastern Regional Coordinator of VVAW.

On June 22, 1972, Source One advised that according to Scott Camil, the first "Convention Newsletter" that went out to all VVAW chapters met with disapproval of a lot of the VVAW members because of items mentioned in the first letter suggesting those participating in demonstrations at the conventions to bring for purposes of protecting themselves wrist rockets which were referred to as "defensive measures". It is Source One's opinion that the second newsletter was toned down a good bit from the first letter because of the poor response received in connection with the first newsletter.

Source One also advised that according to Camil arrangements have been made for approximately 300 VVAW members to camp in an area at St. Petersburg, Florida, which will possibly be used as a base of operation during the national conventions at Miami Beach. This camp site area has been made available by the City of St. Petersburg, Florida. According to Camil, all VVAW members will be going to St. Petersburg, Florida, to stay rather than staying in Gainesville, Florida.

On June 21, 1972 [redacted] was located and interviewed at the residence of [redacted] at [redacted] During this interview [redacted] advised that he is no longer a communist and has no political interest whatsoever. He stated that if he were to classify himself politically he would now be a conservative. He attributes his radical change in political attitudes to the way which his revolutionary associates utilized him over the past several years. [redacted] also has reappraised the communist ideology and decided that he favors democratic principles. [redacted] stated that he has no plans to attend either of the National political conventions in the Summer of 1972 to be held in Miami Beach, Florida.

[redacted] advised that he has no knowledge and is not participating in any schemes to duplicate legitimage convention credentials for any purpose. He maintains that he was not in Ft. Lauderdale during the period March 17 - 25, 1972. He states that he has resided in Gainesville, Florida, since April, 1971, and has not traveled out of Gainesville except for visits to Cleveland, Ohio. [redacted] does not know anyone named [redacted] but that the name sounds like an alias of [redacted] He assumes that this is an alias of Barrett because it combines several of the names which he has known Barrett to use in the past.

RE: [redacted]

[redacted] advised he did hear that [redacted] an [redacted] mention a scheme to duplicate convention credentials. [redacted] met [redacted] through [redacted] in Cleveland, Ohio, in the middle of April, 1971, and knew him there for about three days. [redacted] considered a scheme to duplicate convention credentials as not very practical for many reasons. Among these reasons were the problems of obtaining legitimate credentials to copy, built-in detection devices in the legitimate credentials, difficult engraving that may be required for the duplication and other technical reproduction problems. [redacted] stated that he would probably be able to do much of the work of duplicating these credentials because of his skill in photography and printing reproduction. He stated however that if engraving were required he would not be able to duplicate that part of the credentials. [redacted] described [redacted] as a hippie type appearance, white male, approximately [redacted] but with an older appearance, bad complexion, 5'10" to 5'11", frail build, dark black hair with a full beard.

[redacted] advised that he plans to continue to reside in Gainesville, Florida. [redacted] He stated that he wants absolutely nothing to do with any revolutionary activities or anyone involved in these activities. He feels that he was used and taken advantage of by these people in the past and is no longer sympathetic with their goals. He stated that he wishes only to maintain a good record in the future so that he will not discredit [redacted] anymore than he has already.

RE: DEMONSTRATIONS DURING THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION,
MIAMI, FLORIDA
JULY, 1972

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY

Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) was founded during June, 1962, at Port Huron, Michigan, and in the 1960s functioned as the leading New Left campus-based student organization in the United States. From an initial posture of "participatory democracy," SDS moved to a radical-revolutionary position, with debate centering on how best to create a revolutionary youth movement. Internal factionalism produced a split during the SDS National Convention in June, 1969, which resulted in the following three factions: Weatherman; Worker Student Alliance (WSA); and Revolutionary Youth Movement (RYM). The Weatherman and RYM are no longer affiliated with SDS. The WSA continues to use the name SDS and maintains its national headquarters in Chicago, Illinois.

WEATHERMAN

Weatherman, formerly a faction of Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), controlled the SDS National Office from June, 1969, until its closing in February, 1970. Weatherman then entered an underground status and adopted a tactic of "strategic sabotage," with police and military installations designated as primary targets.

WORKER STUDENT ALLIANCE

Worker Student Alliance (WSA), a faction of Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), was expelled from SDS in June, 1969, by the then dominant Weatherman faction, but continued to use the name SDS and opened an office in Cambridge, Massachusetts. WSA aligned ideologically with the Progressive Labor Party (PLP) and, in February, 1971, moved to Chicago, Illinois, where it opened the SDS National Office at 1225 South Wabash Street.

RE: DEMONSTRATIONS DURING THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION,
MIAMI, FLORIDA
JULY, 1972

PROGRESSIVE LABOR PARTY

The Progressive Labor Party (PLP) was founded in 1962 by individuals expelled from the Communist Party, USA, for following the Chinese communist line. Its objective is the establishment of a militant working-class movement based on Marxism-Leninism and MAO Tse-tung thought.

WORKERS ACTION MOVEMENT (WAM)

Source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on

[redacted] b7D

At this meeting a discussion was held concerning the possibility of sending people from WAM to the Democratic National Convention in Miami, July 10 through 14, 1972. It was agreed that it would be a good idea because various other groups would be there and WAM people could talk to them about WAM and put forth the WAM line of 30 hours work for 40 hours pay. It was also suggested that the line 30 for 40 should be brought to the delegates on the Convention floor. If the delegates refuse to bring to the Convention floor, it would prove that the politicians are all phoney which the workers already know.

At the meeting it was agreed that the WAM proposed amendment to the United States Code to establish 30 for 40 as issued by WAM should be circulated at the Democratic Convention in Miami.

A xerox copy of this proposed amendment is attached hereto.

A second source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on February 11, 1972, that WAM was to be organized as a Progressive Labor Party (PLP) front group with recruitment and base building for the PLP as its objective.

Progressive Labor Party

The PLP was founded in 1962 by individuals expelled from the Communist Party, USA, for following the Chinese communist line. Its objective is the establishment of a militant working class movement based on Marxism-Leninism and Mao Tse-tung thought.

Amendment to United States Code to establish the Thirty Hour Work Week with Forty Hours Pay, and to bring all workers in the United States and its possessions under the coverage of the maximum hours provisions of the Fair Lajbor Standards Act, Chapter 8

I. Amend 29 U.S.C. 207 by taking out subsections "a", "b", "c", "e", and "g", and adding a new subsection "a" as follows:

"a. No employer shall employ any of his employees[1] for a workweek longer than thirty hours, or a workday longer than 6 hours, unless such employee recieves compensation for his employment above thirty hours per week, or above six hours per day, at an hourly rate of at least one and one-half times the regular rate at which such employee is paid; and

No employer may pay any of his employees less for the thirty hour week than such employer previously paid for a forty hour week, or for whatever number of hours, before the enactment of this law constituted a workweek paid at straight time wages."

II. Amend 29 U.S.C. 213 by taking out everything in subsection "a" after paragraph "1", and by taking out subsections "b", "c", "d" "e" and "f."

III. Amend 29 U.S.C. 214 by taking it out entirely.

NOTES: 1. "Employee" shall be defined as, "one who in any workweek is engaged in commerce, or in the production of goods for commerce, or in agriculture or in the selling or transporting of any goods produced for commerce."

The purpose of taking out the various sections referred to above is to remove from the law all clauses excluding various groups of workers from coverage by the maximum hours provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act. For example, under today's laws, agricultural workers, taxi drivers, many different categories of service workers, and all workers in Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, Guam, etc. are not covered.

THIS PROPOSED "30 FOR 40" LAW IS BEING CIRCULATED BY THE WORKERS-ACTION MOVEMENT, 222 W. 37 St. Room 1503, NYC [illegible] 10018 (Tel. 212-594-4582.)

RE: NATIONAL TENANTS ORGANIZATION PLANNED DEMONSTRATIONS ON
JULY 8, 1972
MIAMI BEACH, FLORIDA

The "Miami News", a Miami, Florida newspaper published Monday through Saturday, reported on June 26, 1972, that the Florida Tenants Association (FTA) planned demonstrations on July 8, 1972 on Miami Beach, Florida.

The president of FTA EUFAULA FRAZIER stated the FTA would form a coalition with the National Welfare Rights Organization (NWRO) and the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC). FRAZIER further advised that the demonstrations will protest mass evictions from public housing, housing conditions and prices of housing to low income families.

NWRO is a nationwide organization of welfare recipients formed to seek increased government support.

SCLC, founded by the late Reverend MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., is headquartered at Atlanta, Georgia.

The FTA is affiliated with the National Tenants Organization (NTO) which is headquartered in Washington, D.C. The NTO is involved in landlord-tenant relationships.

NTO called for a freeze on all rents in the "Tenants Outlook", a monthly publication of the National Tenants Information Service, Inc., 425 13th Street, N.W., Suite 548, Washington, D.C. 20005. The article mentioned a concern for years of inflationary rent increases and the effect on the tenants. The NTO called for the present program to be reconstructed to stop inflation in the area of rents and demanded there be a new freeze placed on all residential rent in the country.

There will be a march on June 29, 1972 starting at 2:00 p.m. and moving from the parking lot of the convention hall area to the Par Three Golf Course. This march is to object to the militarization of Miami Beach comparing this to Vietnam. The second theory behind the march is going to be the theme of freeing Martha Mitchell who they consider to be a type of political prisoner. It is anticipated there will be a number of skits on the parade route and several of the members of YIP will be in costume. [redacted]

It is anticipated there will be a picnic on July 2, 1972, at 2:00 p.m. on Lummus Park on Miami Beach which is a free-share picnic, bring your own food and a good fellowship type of affair. On July 8, 1972, there reportedly will be a meeting of the senior citizens at 7:00 p.m. at Flamingo Park and reportedly this is something that might be sponsored by the Democratic Party. No further details. When the press came to YIP Headquarters at 1:00 p.m. on July 27, 1972, JERRY RUBIN made the remark "If Martha isn't freed by the time of the Republican Convention all hell will break loose".

TELEPHONE THREAT PROCEDURES
FORTHCOMING CONVENTIONS
AR; IGCS

The writer conferred today with FDLE SAC MIKE LOFREDDO, GERARD DOYLE and JOE SCHMIDT, both of SBT Security, concerning possible procedure to circumvent extortionate bomb threats during the conventions. As DOYLE explains it, it is possible to permit special equipment permitting rapid tracing of telephone threats under certain controlled conditions. It would be necessary to pre-select obvious targets for extortionate demands, ie, certain candidates, party headquarters, caucus rooms and the like and upon giving these ten selected targets to Southern Bell, DOYLE would then install three special telephones keyed into the existing system whereby these three special lines would terminate in a call directory. The call directory would be a location picked by FDLE and manned by FDLE and FBI Agents. Upon receipt by the victim of a call containing extortionate demands, the special operator at the pre-selected site would immediately switch the call to the call directory manned by law enforcement personnel and at the same time tracing procedures would be instituted. Agents manning the call directory could immediately send "teams" of Agent personnel to the proposed drop site of the origin of the call and make immediate apprehension.

Although the foregoing sounds like a needle in a haystack precedure, bearing in mind there are an infinite number of possible recipients of this type call, a plan is better than no plan at all. Manpower involved here would be utilization of two Agents to assist FDLE Agents at the call directory, which would be a pre-selected location. Expenses incurred in connection with this operation would be borne by FDLE through LEAA funds. The foregoing procedure would be a primary FDLE operation, however, inasmuch as this type of threat falls within the confines of AR - HOBBS ACT, we would assume immediate jurisdiction where the facts would indicate. It would be necessary also for the #6 Squad to have several Agents on standby as we have previously planned regardless, to handle investigations forthcoming under the above outlined plans.

The writer will meet with FDLE and SBT officials on 6/29/72 for further discussion of the above.

EXTREMIST MATTER - KLAN

DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION,
MIAMI BEACH, FLORIDA,
JULY, 1972

The UFKKK was organized in June, 1961 as a result of the consolidation of two other klan groups. Its objectives are to oppose integration and to fight Communism.

On June 26, 1972, Lieutenant [redacted] Miami, Florida Police Department, reported that Miami Mayor DAVID KENNEDY had received a telegram from [redacted] which was sent from [redacted] requested a camp site for about 25,000 klansmen who will arrive in Miami for the Democratic Convention. According to the telegram, klansmen will arrive on July 9, 10 and 11, 1972. b6 b7C

On June 27, 1972, MM T-1 advised that [redacted] is [redacted] of the UFKKK, which currently has four units in North and Central Florida. [redacted] of the organization with State Headquarters [redacted] According to this source, [redacted] sent a telegram to the Mayor of Miami through Jacksonville Klavern 502 of the UFKKK. In the telegram [redacted] recommended accomodations be provided for 25,000 klansmen planning to attend the Democratic Convention. The source reported that this telegram was a hoax and was merely perpetrated to counteract and combat publicity being received

Army Units May Come

A sprawling tent city was going up at Homestead Air Force Base today to house Army troops which may be airlifted here for the political conventions at Miami Beach in July and August.

About 200 squadron-size tents were being placed on frame foundations at the west end of the old runway near the old bomb dump.

A squadron-size tent can house at least 12 men.

The tent city is being constructed by the 575th Engineers, Third U. S. Army, which has headquarters in Ft. McPherson, Ga.

There have been reports the 82nd Airborne Division might be airlifted here in case of need during either the Democratic National Convention beginning July 10 or the Republican National Convention in mid-August.

Convoy routes were marked on the air base this morning and several Army helicopters were on the runways.

The tent city at HAFB will be completely "self-contained," according to a base source.

The Army will feed, house, provide exchange services and possibly even entertainment for the troops it may bring here.

Troops could be airlifted to Miami Beach from a runway that is within a few feet of the tents on the south side of the air strip.

A Task Force command post was set up this morning near the entrance to the tent city area.

TENT CITY springs up at Homestead Air Force Base. The temporary facilities will house federal troops which may be airlifted here during the political conventions on Miami Beach.

FBI — MIAMI

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)— The Miami Beach City Council Wednesday voted to shelve a request by the Southern Christian Leadership Conference to build a "poor people's city" in time for the Democratic National Convention.

The Rev. Ralph D. Abernathy appeared before the council to ask for a campsite at Flamingo Park for about 500 poor people during the week of the July 10-14 nominating convention.

"I come today with a mandate from the poor," Abernathy told the council. "We feel that we must make a witness at the Democratic Convention. We have chosen to build Resurrection City II and through a nonviolent process to exercise our right to challenge the Democrats to be the party of the people."

In a news release prepared for a news conference in Washington today, an SCLC spokesman quoted Abernathy as saying he was optimistic the council would lift its ban on campsites and okay a location for the poor people's gathering:

"I still have faith in the city council and officials of Miami Beach that they will work wholeheartedly to grant poor people a place to camp in the city."

Miami Beach Mayor Chuck Hall said the council was hamstrung by its vote last week to deny campsites to all protesters within the Miami Beach city limits.

City Manager Clifford O'Key was instructed to find out if there was some way the council could accommodate the civil rights group.

Abernathy, who succeeded the late Rev. Martin Luther King as head of the SCLC, said the group's mission was not to protest but "to lobby for the things black people need."

"We are people who believe in putting justice back in business," he said. "We live in two Americas — rich and affluent America and poor America.

"We feel the poor people ought to be here because America ought not to exclude them from the system," he said.

Abernathy received a standing ovation from many of the 250 people attending the meeting when he appeared.

Bob Johnson, a member of the SCLC advance team, said Abernathy flew to Atlanta Wednesday but would return a week before the Democratic Convention to supervise construction of the "poor people's" city.

After shelving the SCLC's request, city councilmen voted to give Police Chief Rocky Pomerance power to declare states of emergency and curfews during the presidential nominating conventions. The council, however, retained the right to veto his actions.

The emergency ordinance provided that if Pomerance should proclaim a state of emergency, the mayor or city manager would call the council into session to determine if his action was justified. If not, they reserved the power to terminate it.

The council adopted one other ordinance, permitting the formation of police lines during riots or unlawful assemblies. Members threw out eight additional proposed statutes.

During the often tempestuous meeting a number of citizens pleaded for more power and guns for police against an anticipated invasion by thousands of protesters.

Mayor Chuck Hall warned that it was "bad for people to talk constantly about riots and blood and fire.

"These people coming here aren't murderers," Hall said.

CONVENTION PLANS - STAFF MEETING, 6/30/72

On 6/30/72, the regular staff meeting was held in the training classroom next to the Miami Beach Police Department headquarters. The following pertinent subjects were discussed:

Convention Complex - Security

[redacted] Andy Frain Service, designated by the DNC to maintain security within the convention complex, informed the complex would be made secure by his Service at 8:00 AM, 7/8/72, and access thereafter denied to anyone not having proper credentials. b6 b7C

At the present time, 14,700 requests are outstanding for perimeter passes to enter the complex.

Credentials to enter the north hall will be issued each day between 9:30 and 10:00 AM.

Special passes have been arranged only for the Miami Beach City Manager, Miami City Manager, and the Dade County Manager. These passes will be held for them in envelopes at the southwest gate on 17th Avenue, Miami Beach.

Contingency Planning - Mobile Task Force

[redacted] Deputy Chief, Washington Police Department, on loan to the Miami Beach Police Department, furnished the following tentative contingency plans for units of a mobile task force, being created to maintain and establish order in the event of violence: b6 b7C b7E

[redacted] officers from the Miami Police Department staged at the Veterans Club, 600 West Avenue, Miami Beach.

[redacted] vehicles manned by officers of the Florida Highway Patrol staged at St. Patrick's Church, 3700 Alton Road, Miami Beach.

It will be the responsible of the force inside the convention complex to "hold" the fence surrounding the complex.

It will be the responsibility of the three smaller units of the Mobile Task Force to deal with any "brush fire" incidents which might develop.

In the event it would appear the convention complex fence might be breached at any time by massed and violent demonstrators, and a gassing situation arose, every effort would be made by the units of the Mobile Task Force to move the demonstrators to the north, over the bridges of the Collins canal, to the only area where open spaces exist near the complex. It is contemplated they could most easily be isolated in this area and eventually dispersed.

To assist in such an operation, there would be on the grounds of the nearby Miami Beach High School athletic field 600 National Guard troops. They would move to the south side of the convention complex, form a human chain, and prevent such violent demonstrators from moving south into the crowded business district.

Other National Guard troops, as mentioned in previous communications, will be stationed in Miami proper, billeted at various strategically located high schools.

Federal Troops

b7C

Colonel [redacted] 18th Airborne, USA, advised plans for the staging of Federal troops are presently in the discussion stage to take place later in the day; however, it was tentatively intended that two battalions would be stationed at the Homestead Air Force Base, south of Miami, where 12 Huey and 6 Chinook helicopters would be available for quick transport.

The dog track on the south end of Miami Beach was also being considered as a pre-position location for Federal troops.

It is believed the Army Command Post will be located at the U. S. Coast Guard Base on the southwest edge of Miami Beach.

Candidate Arrivals

July 7 - WALLACE, MILLS, HUMPHREY, JACKSON, and MUSKIE

According to information obtained from [redacted] members of the Abdala chapter in Miami and members of the Rotary Club of Cuba in exile will push for demonstrations during the Democratic Convention.

Jose "Pepe" Vidaña, an old man, and a well respected member of the Cuban exile community is the prime organizer of the demonstrations. He is now the president of the Rotary Club in Miami. [redacted] is also working with Vidana in organizing demonstrations against Castro and against candidates that want to make peace with Castro and re-establish diplomatic relations. Other Cubans groups are making plans but are not taking active part in the organization of the demonstrations. In general the Cuban community of over 150,000 does not seem to favor demonstrations because they think that they will be counter productive. However, members of Abdala feel that if a clash takes place between Cubans and either police or leftists and a cuban is hurt, a large number of people will join the demonstrations.

It is also felt that if the SDS,NWRO, YIP, or any other organization passes out any type of pro-Castro literature they will be attacked by the Cuban militant organizations. As long as the American leftists do not talk about Cuba they will not be bothered by the Cubans.

not a foia redaction

The earning power of the Cuban community in Dade county is over 600 million dollars a year. They have large resources of capital, manpower, politicians in local government office and in State government, [redacted] which could be turned against any group that makes any kind of pro Castro statements during the convention.

NATIONAL COALITION OF GAY ORGANIZATIONS
WASHINGTON, D. C.

On June 29, 1972, a source who is in a position to receive the information, furnished an information leaflet entitled "Help Make a Gay Presence at the Democratic Convention"; a copy of this leaflet is attached.

This leaflet, printed by the National Coalition of Gay Organizations of Washington, D. C., contains a map of two caravan routes covering the country and ending in Miami, Florida, on July 10, 1972. Further, the leaflet explains that the caravan will stop as indicated at the various Greyhound Bus Stations and that they (the homosexuals) have received excellent cooperation from the Greyhound authorities. A source in a position to furnish reliable information advised June 29, 1972, that [redacted] of the National Coalition of Gay Organizations had contacted the Greyhound Lines regarding the chartering of two buses for July 9, 1972, to travel to Miami. However, source related no firm commitment has been made to date to Greyhound regarding the charter. Source was not in a position to furnish information regarding charters of other Greyhound buses in other cities.

MAKE WAVES: A GAY PRESENCE

at the democratic convention

This will be the first time in history that Gays have banded together for an action of national significance. The National Coalition of Gay Organizations is sending representatives to speak to regional hearings of the Democratic Platform Committee in cities across the nation, and will present the Gay Rights Plank before general platform hearings in Washington

We expect the Platform Committee to include the Gay Rights Platform in the over-all Democratic National Platform to be presented to the convention as a whole in Miami on July 13. WE NEED THOUSANDS OF GAYS TO TRAVEL TO MIAMI AND GIVE VOICE TO GAY DEMANDS. We are co-ordinating this auto and bus caravan from cities across the nation so that we can be sure of an effective Gay presence in Miami .

THE MAP ON THE REVERSE SIDE IN DICATES THE AUTO AND BUS CARAVAN ROUTE TO MIAMI BEACH. ALL TIMES LISTED ARE EASTERN DAYLIGHT TIME, PLEASE CONVERT TO YOUR LOCAL TIME. THIS CHART GIVES THE EXACT DEPARTURE TIME OF THE CARS AND BUSES FROM MAJOR CITIES. IF YOU WISH TO JOIN THE CARAVAN TO MIAMI YOU MUST BE IN THE GREYHOUND STATION IN ONE OF THESE LISTED CITIES AT THE SET TIME. IF YOUR CITY IS NOT ON THIS LIST CONTACT YOUR LOCAL GAY ORGANIZATION OR THE TRAVEL SERVICE BUREAU OF YOUR LOCAL GREYHOUND STATION TO ARRANGE FOR TRANSPORTATION TO ONE OF THESE MAIN POINTS.

WE HAVE RECIEVED EXCELLENT COOPERATION FROM THE GREYHOUND PEOPLE, AND THEY WILL BE GLAD TO HELP YOU MAKE PLANS TO JOIN THE CARAVAN. HOWEVER, YOU MUST REMEMBER ONE THING: THE GREYHOUND PEOPLE ARE NOT GAY, AND THEY ARE USED TO DOING THINGS ON TIME! THE ONLY WAY WE CAN ARRIVE IN MIAMI AS A GROUP IS TO FOLLOW THIS SCHEDULE. THE BUSES WILL NOT WAIT.

TO PURCHASE TICKETS AND FOR MORE INFORMATION, CONTACT YOUR LOCAL GAY ORGANIZATIONS AND/OR THE TRAVEL SERVICE BUREAU IN YOUR LOCAL GREYHOUND STATION.

Remember, this is the first coordinated national Gay action ever to take place, and it's success depends on your support. Washington volunteers are working on transportation and other regional projects, while Miami volunteers are handling the Miami situation. Any questions you may have, information you can give, or help you can offer will help build the action even more. Please keep in touch with us.

SUBJECT: 1972 DEMOCRATIC AND REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTIONS MIAMI BEACH, FLORIDA INFORMATION CONCERNING

Most of the material contained in this memorandum is confidential and material herein should not be discussed outside this office.

1. CONVENTION DATES

The Democratic National Convention (DNC) will be held on Miami Beach from July 9 through 14, 1972. The Republican National Convention (RNC) will be held on August 21, 22, and 23, 1972.

2. CONVENTION SITE

The conventions will be held at the Miami Beach Convention Hall, which is located between 17th and 20th Streets on Washington Avenue, a central area of Miami Beach. The conventions will take place in the north section of the hall. The south section of the hall will be utilized by press, radio, and television. The Convention Hall complex includes the Miami Beach Auditorium and other small buildings and is bounded by Washington Avenue on the east, Meridian Court on the west, Collins Canal on the north, and 17th Street on the south.

The Convention Hall is being arranged to seat 5,000 delegates and alternates.

The basement of the southwest corner of the Miami Beach Auditorium, which was formerly the civil defense office of Miami Beach, has been renovated and command posts for all interested agencies will be at this position. The Miami Beach Police Department, which has primary responsibility for security, has the largest command office, and the Dade County Public Safety Department, Miami Police Department, Florida Highway Patrol, and FBI will also have command post offices in this area.

Also at this location will be a Combined Intelligence Center which will operate separately from the command posts under the direction of the Florida Department of Law Enforcement. Representatives of various agencies will be stationed at the Combined Intelligence Center for purposes of obtaining and coordinating intelligence information. The Combined Intelligence Center is not accessible from the command post other than through locked doors and free access will not be permitted between the command post and the Combined Intelligence Center.

4. RESPONSIBILITY OF POLICE AGENCIES

Security responsibility for the Convention Hall complex and surrounding area rests with the Miami Beach Police Department. During the conventions and two weeks prior thereto other police agencies, including the Miami Police Department, Dade County Public Safety Department, Florida Highway Patrol, and agents of other Florida state agencies will provide sufficient manpower to assist the Miami Beach Police Department to handle its responsibilities. During the convention sessions, the Miami Beach Police Department will have responsibility for the fenced area to the north and the area to the east of the Convention Hall where most of the protest activity is expected to occur. Miami Police Department will man the fenced areas to the north and west; officers of the Dade County Public Safety Department will be used as a back-up force inside the fenced areas in the event they are needed; and officers of the Florida Highway Patrol will be paired with local police for patrols of the surrounding area. All police personnel will be on 12-hour shifts during the convention.

5. RESPONSIBILITY OF THE FLORIDA DEPARTMENT OF LAW ENFORCEMENT

WILLIAM L. REED, Executive Director of the Florida Department of Law Enforcement, has been designated by Governor REUBIN ASKEW as State Coordinator of all non-military functions and support in the area of health, safety and welfare. He is also principal State Liaison Officer with the U. S. Departments of Justice and Defense.

Governor ASKEW has appointed [redacted] Dade County Manager, as Area Commander for the convention. The Chiefs of Police of Miami Beach Police Department and Miami Police Department, and the Director of Public Safety have been designated Field Commanders under his control. [redacted] office will be on the 21st floor of the Dade County Courthouse Building.

b7C

Mr. REED has appointed [redacted] Supervisor of the Miami, Florida Department of Law Enforcement Combined Intelligence Center, mentioned previously. [redacted] has set up the Combined Intelligence Center, mentioned above, and representatives of the following agencies have space at the center:

Miami Beach Police Department
Miami Police Department
Dade County Public Safety Department
U. S. Secret Service
FBI
Internal Security Division, Attorney General's Office
Florida Department of Law Enforcement
Florida Beverage Department
Florida Highway Patrol

In addition to the above agencies, [redacted] himself has a staff who are employees of the Florida Department of Law Enforcement.

Participating agencies are to send all intelligence information as quickly as it is developed, where it will be processed and evaluated and subsequently furnished to the appropriate agency.

The FBI has been assigned two desks at the Combined Intelligence Center, which will be manned 24 hours a day during the conventions. Telephone numbers there are 861-5619 and 861-5712. In addition, we have a direct line to U. S. Secret Service from the Combined Intelligence Center, PL9-0897. An additional telephone will be maintained at the FBI desks which will be used for receiving and transmitting information by telecopier.

6. U. S. SECRET SERVICE RESPONSIBILITY

U. S. Secret Service will have primary responsibilities for furnishing protection for the following Democratic candidates. The hotel where each of these candidates will stay is indicated below:

Representative SHIRLEY CHISHOLM
Representative WILBER MILLS
Deauville Hotel
6701 Collins Avenue
Miami Beach, Florida

Senator HUBERT HUMPHREY

The Secret Service operation is being handled by [redacted] who has recently been appointed a Deputy Director of Secret Service. [redacted] and his staff will operate from the Secret Service Command Post, which is located on the northeast corner of the Convention Hall and is immediately adjacent to the area where the conventions will be held. [redacted] will be assisted by [redacted] who is responsible for the Secret Service operation within the convention complex; [redacted] and [redacted] Intelligence; [redacted] security at airport, travel of candidates, emergency evacuation of candidates; and [redacted] security at hotels of candidates, advanced plans of candidates. Secret Service telephone at their office which is open 24 hours a day is 861-4801. b6 b7C

Secret Service will have special surveillance teams working in various areas of Miami and Miami Beach to follow the movement of demonstration groups and to report information of interest regarding safety of the various candidates. Approximately [redacted] Secret Service Agents will be paired with [redacted] officers of the Florida Department of Law Enforcement for this purpose. The surveillance teams will be assigned to [redacted] different districts in Miami and Miami Beach. They will be used principally on routes used by the various candidates. b7E

As yet no Secret Service Agents have been assigned to protection of Republican presidential candidates other that the detail which regularly guards the President.

7. FBI RESPONSIBILITY

The primary responsibility of the FBI during both conventions will be to furnish intelligence information regarding revolutionary groups to the Miami Beach Police Department, U. S. Secret Service, and other pertinent local law enforcement agencies. We will also handle violations within the Bureau's investigative jurisdiction, principally the Antiriot Law, Assaulting a Federal Officer, Assaulting Congressmen, Assaulting Presidential Candidates, Destruction of Government Property, and Bomb Threat matters, etc. The FBI operation will be under the direct supervision of the SAC; and Supervisor [redacted] of the #3 Squad, and Supervisor [redacted] of the #9 Squad are the principal coordinators. Desk #3 handles investigation dealing with Cubans and communist action organizations. Desk #9 handles investigation dealing with New Left and extremist matters. Desk #6 will handle bombing matters. There will be two coordinators responsible for gathering intelligence in each of the following fields: b6 b7C

Communist
New Left
Extremist

These coordinators will be responsible for targeting agents and informants to obtain intelligence regarding demonstrations planned or in progress. The intelligence coordinators will be responsible for furnishing this information to the two intelligence liaison coordinators who will handle immediate dissemination of material. In addition, informant coordinators will be on duty around the clock during the convention to receive informant reports from our local informants and from informants from other field offices. The two intelligence liaison coordinators will be assisted by additional agents as needed who will prepare and disseminate to as well as receive from agents at the Combined Intelligence Center information relating to protest demonstrations contemplated or in progress. These intelligence liaison coordinators will handle the preparation of a summary teletype which must be submitted to the Bureau every three hours. Information regarding specific demonstrations relating to a particular organization will also be furnished to the Bureau by teletype under appropriate case caption by the coordinator handling the particular field of activity. Information in these individual organizational teletypes will be included in the three-hour summary teletype. In addition to our informant coverage, the Bureau has approved the sending of approximately ten agents to Miami in an undercover capacity to report on the activities of various subversive groups from their particular areas. These undercover agents will report their information to the coordinator handling a particular field. It is anticipated most of the information they would furnish would pertain to New Left organizations. All coordinators mentioned above will be stationed at the Miami Office around the clock.

Two supervisors and four agents will be assigned around the clock at the FBI desk at the Combined Intelligence Center. Agents will also man the FBI command post 24 hours a day. Agents at the command post will be primarily standing by to handle any violations within FBI jurisdiction occurring on the convention complex.

See last page for organizational chart, which includes major assignments and telephone numbers.

8. CREDENTIALS

U. S. Secret Service is handling the printing and security of all credentials, including delegate credentials. Distribution of delegate credentials is to be handled by the Democratic National Committee. Secret Service advised that only non-uniformed police personnel with specific assignments within the convention complex will be issued credentials by Secret Service. These individuals must be police or law enforcement personnel. A sufficient number of credentials for Bureau Agents has been requested from Secret Service. All personnel entering the Convention Hall will be required to have credentials. Security within the confines of the Convention Hall is being handled by the Andy Frain Service, a private security organization which has been deputized by the Democratic National Committee to take over the function of sergeant at arms. Any arrests inside the Convention Hall during the convention will be executed by the local police upon the execution of an affidavit by an Andy Frain representative.

9. ARREST PLANNING

Present plan for mass arrests is procedure presently being used by the Washington, D. C. Police Department. During demonstrations and other activity requiring arrests of large number of persons, police buses will be dispatched throughout the area to pick up individuals arrested. These buses will be manned by Dade County Department of Rehabilitation and Correctional personnel, plus police. The police officer making the arrest will fill out a field arrest form, have the subject photographed by a cameraman, who will be on the bus, and then turn over the subject to bus personnel. When the buses are filled to capacity they will travel to the Dade County Jail, be further processed, and subsequently arraigned in court. Persons arrested in Dade County and the City of Miami will be taken to predetermined staging areas, processed at these staging areas, and then taken to jail. It is anticipated prisoners will be lodged in the Dade County Jail (males), the Dade County Stockade (males), the Dade County Women's Jail (formerly Miami City Jail) and Kendall Hall (juveniles).

10. MILITARY ASSISTANCE

3,000 Florida National Guardsmen will be on stand-by duty in the Miami area between July 7 and 15, 1972, and August 19 and 25, 1972, to assist civil authorities in the preservation of law and order. The 2,000 men coming from outside Dade County will be stationed in six high schools located on the mainland of Dade County and in Miami Beach. The response time of these units is approximately 1½ hours. Liaison officers of the Florida National Guard will be stationed at the command post within the comvention complex at all times. In the event it is necessary to call in additional assistance, three brigades of the 18th Airborne Corps, Fort Bragg, North Carolina, will be available. This contingent of approximately 5,400 will be stationed in the Miami area during the conventions.

11. DEMONSTRATION AREA AND CAMP SITES

A two city block area in length and six vehicle traffic lanes in width on Washington Avenue between 18th and 20th Streets, Miami Beach, located immediately in front of the Convention Hall has been set aside for protest demonstrations. This area is completely fenced off from the convention complex by a chain link fence, the fence being attractively camouflaged by large decorative bushes.

The question of camp sites for the non-delegates attending the convention has been the subject of continuing controversy. ROCKY POMERANCE, Chief of Police, Miami Beach Police Department, has advised that Miami Beach is presently negotiating with Miami and Dade County to designate Haulover Beach Park, Dade County, and Watson Island, Miami, as camp sites for non-delegates. Haulover Beach Park is approximately 42 city blocks in area and is located 7½ miles north of the convention complex. Watson Island, Miami, not to include the Japanese Gardens there, is approximately 15 city blocks in area and is located on McArthur Causeway and is approximately 5½ miles from the convention complex. POMERANCE advised that the City of Miami Beach is offering Flamingo Park as a forum area. Non-delegates will be supplied with a podium and loud speaker, and they may use this as a staging area but not as a camp site. Country and rock music will be supplied at this location by the Democratic National Committee. Miami Beach is also offering Lummus Park and Pier Park as cultural and recreation areas. Lummus Park is approximately ten city blocks long and is 1½ miles south of the convention complex. Pier Park, also known as the Miami Beach Recreation Center, is about two city blocks in area, located two miles south of the convention complex.

12 - CONTINGENCY PLANNING - VIOLENCE - MOBILE TASK FORCE

Following is tentative contingency plans for units of mobile task force, being created to maintain and establish order in event of violence:

[redacted] officers from Dade County staged at Miami Beach Community Center, 600 Meridian Avenue, MB b7E
[redacted] vehicles manned by officers of FHP staged at St. Patrick's Church, 3700 Alton Road, MB

The force inside the complex is responsible for "holding" the fence surrounding the complex. The three smaller units will deal with any "brush fire" incidents which might develop.

In event it appears the complex fence may be breached at any time by massed and violent demonstrators, and a gassing situation arose, every effort will be made by the above units to move the demonstrators to the north, over the bridges of the Collins canal, to the only area where open spaces exist near the complex. It is contemplated they could most easily be isolated in this area and eventually dispersed.

To assist in such an operation, there will be on the grounds of the nearby Miami Beach High School athletic field, [redacted] b7E National Guard troops. They would move to the south side of the complex, form a human chain, and prevent masses of demonstrators from moving south into the crowded business district.

Federal troops will probably be staged at the Homestead AFB, south of Miami. There will probably be at least two battalions of 18th Airborne Troopers. They will have available 12 Huey and 6 Chinook helicopters for quick transport.

The dog track at the south end of MB is also being considered as a pre-position location for Federal troops.

The Army command post will probably be located at the US Coast Guard Base on the SW edge of MB.

14. ASSESSMENT OF POSSIBLE DISRUPTIVE ACTIVITY AT THE DNC AND RNC

At the present time indications are that the RNC will be the major focus of mass protest activity and demonstrations at the DNC will be controlled by protest leaders to avoid serious confrontation. Protest leaders fear demonstrations during the DNC would be detrimental to Senator GEORGE MC GOVERN, whom the majority of them favor as the Democratic candidate. Activities at the DNC are expected to be largely peaceful political demonstrations by groups hoping to get publicity and support for their various causes, such as peace, womens lib, gay lib, welfare rights, etc.

With respect to the RNC, the Vietnam situation continues to be the principal rallying point for support of massive demonstrations planned by larger groups. If the Vietnam War is wound down by RNC, possibility of violent demonstrations will be diminished. Efforts of national protest leaders calling for massive civil disobedience and street demonstrations have been ineffective to date. Certain protest groups have taken a position that violent confrontation during the RNC might impede election of Senator MC GOVERN and have called for modification of demonstration plans.

The groups most active locally to date in this area have been the Youth International Party (YIP), also known as Yippies, who have an office at 1674 Meridian Avenue, Room 201, Miami Beach; and the Florida People's Coalition and the Miami Conventions Coalition, which has an office at 1716 Alton Road, second floor above the Mayflower Lounge at this address.

The most dangerous group to appear on the scene is the Vietnam Veterans Against the War (VVAW), headed by [redacted] b6 b7C
[redacted]
This group has weapons, including "wrist rockets", which are similar to sling shots and can cause serious injury to the person hit by the missile. [redacted] has discussed having fire teams which will be used for attacks against local police. Police authorities are well aware of [redacted] potential for violence and would like to neutralize him prior to the conventions. Another group with potential for violence are the Zippies, a splinter faction of the Yippies. THOMAS FORCADE, an individual with a potential for violence, is connected with this group and they have been in contact with representatives of the VVAW.

IN DISCUSSIONS AFTER THE MEETING THE FOLLOWING REMARKS WERE MADE: ONE VVAW MEMBER SAID THAT POTASSIUM NITRATE AND SEVERAL OTHER CHEMICAL ELEMENTS COULD BE PUT IN GAS TANKS OF CARS AT STRATEGIC POINTS THROUGHOUT THE BEACH CAUSING AN EXPLOSION. ANOTHER VVAW MEMBER WHO WAS EMPLOYED BY FLORIDA POWER AND LIGHT AND IS IN A POSITION TO KNOW TALKED OF METHODS BY WHICH THE POWER FOR AN ENTIRE AREA COULD BE SABOTAGED.

ONE MEMBER MENTIONED HE HAD ACCESS TO ANTI-TANK WEAPONS FROM THE CUBANS. ANOTHER DISCUSSED THE POSSIBILITY OF OBTAINING "LAW ROCKETS" AND GENERAL DISCUSSIONS RELATED TO THE OBTAINING OF HANDGUNS. ONE MEMBER SPOKE OF A GROUP IN THE POMPANO BEACH AREA WHO REPORTEDLY HAD A LARGE CACHE OF WEAPONS HIDDEN AND THE POSSIBILITY OF RAIDING THIS PLACE AND STEALING THE GUNS FOR VVAW WAS DISCUSSED. ONE MEMBER EXHIBITED A SHOTGUN AND STATED HE HAD ACCESS TO A COUPLE OF THOMPSON MACHINE GUNS.

ONE MEMBER IS EXPERIENCED IN HANDLING OF VARIOUS EXPLOSIVES,

WAS AN EXPERIENCED DIVER AND DEMOLITION MAN. THE POSSIBILITY WAS DISCUSSED OF BLOWING UP THE UNDERWATER TRUNK LINES OF THE TELEPHONE COMPANY WHICH LEAD TO MIAMI BEACH. ONE MEMBER MENTIONED HE HAD ACCESS TO PINEAPPLE-TYPE GRENADES AT FOUR HUNDRED DOLLARS PER CASE (FIFTY GRENADES PER CASE).

IT WAS INDICATED WEAPONS AND EXPLOSIVES SHOULD BE STASHED ON MIAMI BEACH PRIOR TO CONVENTION TIME AND ONE MEMBER SAID HE HAD ACCESS TO SEVERAL BOATS THAT COULD BE USED FOR TRANSPORTATION TO THE BEACH.

IT WAS STATED THAT CITIZEN BAND RADIOS WOULD NOT BE USED AS THEY WERE TO EASILY JAMMED, AND THE POSSIBILITY OF USING WALKIE TALKIES WAS DISCUSSED.

IT WAS MENTIONED A VVAW LEADER HAD OBTAINED A QUANTITY OF PIGS BLOOD WHICH WAS OLD AND RANCID AND WOULD VERY EASILY MAKE AN INDIVIDUAL PHYSICALLY SICK IF THROWN ON HIM. THE BLOOD WOULD BE IN SMALL CONTAINERS MAKING IT EASY TO THROW AT "PIGS". THE EXISTANCE OF FIRE TEAMS WAS DISCUSSED AND IT WAS INDICATED APPROXIMATELY ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY AND

ONE HUNDRED AND EIGHTY MEN WOULD STAY ON THE MIAMI SIDE IN THE EVENT VVAW MEMBERS WERE TRAPPED ON THE BEACH.

ONE STATED HE KNEW SOMEONE WHO WAS KNOWLEDGEABLE ON THE LOCATION OF ALTERNATE MOTORS USED TO RAISE AND LOWER DRAWER BRIDGES IN THE EVENT OF A POWER FAILURE.

ONE MEMBER SAID HE WAS IN THE PROCESS OF STORING A NUMBER OF WINE BOTTLES AS THEY WERE VERY GOOD WHEN USED FOR MOLOTOV COCKTAILS. A NUMBER OF WINE BOTTLES WERE OBSERVED. IT WAS ALSO STATED THE CITY OF MIAMI AND DADE COUNTY PUBLIC SAFETY DEPT. POLICE STATIONS WERE CLOSE TO AND VISIBLE FROM EXPRESSWAYS AND ONE COULD STAND ON THE EXPRESSWAY WITH A HIGH-POWERED RIFLE AND PRACTICALLY "SPIT" ON THESE BUILDINGS.

IT WAS STATED VVAW RECEIVED FUNDS THROUGH THE SALE OF MARIJUANA, A LARGE STACK OF WHICH IS KEPT BY ONE MEMBERS OFF HIS PROPERTY. b7D

IT WAS THE OPINION OF [redacted] THAT THESE STATEMENTS WERE MADE IN UTMOST SERIOUSNESS AND ARE NOT JUST

IDLE TALK. THEY FELT VVAW MIGHT NOT HAVE FIFTEEN THOUSAND MEMBERS FOR THE CONVENTION BUT EVEN IF THEY HAVE ONLY FIVE THOUSAND THE SAME PROBLEM WILL EXIST. IT WAS THEIR OPINION NUMEROUS VVAW PERSONS WILL BE COMING TO MIAMI WITH THE EXPRESSED PURPOSE OF CAUSING HAVOC AND TO HAVE DIRECT CONFRONTATION WITH POLICE.

A COPY OF THE REPORT FROM WHICH THIS INFORMATION WAS OBTAINED IS INCLUDED IN AN LHM WHICH WILL BE PLACED IN THE MAIL BY THE MIAMI OFFICE THIS DATE AND THEREFORE THIS INFO IS NOT BEING PLACED IN FORM FOR DISSEMINATION IN THIS COMMUNICATION.

Students for a Democratic Society (SDS)
Worker Student Alliance

On June 29, 1972, a source who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished a copy of a special issue of "SDS New Left Notes", which is issued by Students for a Democratic Society (SDS).

This issue is entitled "Indict the U.S. Govt. for Racist Acts, Genocide!" and encourages participation in SDS protests during the Democratic National Convention in Miami Beach on July 10-14, 1972.

A copy of the special issue is attached hereto.

SDS was founded during June, 1962, at Port Huron, Michigan, and in the 1960's functioned as the leading New Left campus-based students organization in the United States. From a stance of "participatory democracy", the SDS moved to a radical-revolutionary position. It maintained a national office at 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois, until February, 1970. Internal factionalism during 1969 produced three main factions: Weatherman, Revolutionary Youth Movement (RYM), and Worker Student Alliance (WSA). The Weatherman and RYM no longer consider themselves associated with the SDS. The WSA faction continues to use the name SDS.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI). It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

WSA, a faction of SDS, was expelled from SDS in June, 1969, by the then dominant Weatherman faction, but continued to use the name SDS and opened an office in Cambridge, Massachusetts. WSA aligned ideologically with the Progressive Labor Party (PLP) and, in February, 1971, moved to Chicago, Illinois, where it opened the SDS National Office at 1225 South Wabash Street.

The PLP was founded in 1962 by individuals expelled from the Communist Party, United States of America (CP,USA) for following the Chinese communist line. Its objective is the establishment of a militant working class movement based on Marxism-Leninism and Mao Tse-tung thought.

MIAMI DEMOCRATIC CONV.--JULY 10--14

INDICT the U.S. GOV'T. for RACIST ACTS, GENOCIDE!

ACTS OF RACISM AND GENOCIDE are being committed daily in this country with the U.S. government either condoning these acts or actively taking part in committing them. This racism must be fought with the unity of black, latin and white; with militant struggle, every day. THESE ATTACKS MUST BE STOPPED!

SDS is taking the following bill to the Democratic Convention in Miami to demand it be accepted as a platform, to Congress to demand it be accepted and enacted into law and to the U.N. to raise it as a primary issue.

The bill follows. It is now being passed around and signatures are being gathered as support grows. Come to Miami and build this crucial campaign to end racism and genocide in the U.S.

After the Nuremberg Trials the United Nations had a Convention on Genocide. There, they defined genocide as "any of the following acts committed with intent to destroy, in whole or in part, a national, ethnical, racial, or religious group as such:

a) Killing any members of the group; b) Causing serious bodily or mental harm to members of the group; c) Deliberately inflicting on the group conditions of life calculated to bring about its physical destruction in whole or in part; d) Imposing measures intended to prevent births within the group; e) Forcibly transferring children of the group to another group."

Article III of the Convention provided that "The following acts shall be punishable:

a) Genocide; b) Conspiracy to commit genocide; c) Direct and public incitement to commit genocide; d) Attempt to commit genocide; e) Complicity in genocide."

WE INDICT THE U.S. GOVERNMENT WITH GENOCIDE AND SPECIFICALLY RACIST ACTS AGAINST BLACK, LATIN, ASIAN AND NATIVE AMERICAN PEOPLES IN THE U.S.....

ANTI-RACISM BILL

WHEREAS RACISM AND GENOCIDE ON BLACK, LATIN, ASIAN AND NATIVE AMERICAN PEOPLE IN THIS COUNTRY IS BEING COMMITTED DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY BY THE U.S. GOVERNMENT, WE DEMAND THAT THE FOLLOWING BE ACTED UPON IMMEDIATELY AND MADE INTO LAW:

I. ANY STATE, LOCAL OR FEDERAL POLICEMAN or other state, local or federal government official who murders a minority person shall be deemed to have committed a federal offense, punishable by life imprisonment. Any state, local or federal policeman, other state, local or federal government official who does physical harm to a minority person shall be deemed to have committed a federal offense punishable by not less than ten years imprisonment depending upon the severity of the offense.

II. NO FEDERAL TROOPS shall be sent to ghettoes to suppress [illegible]

III. A GUARANTEED ANNUAL INCOME of $10,000 for a family of [illegible]

IV. THE [illegible] INCOME proposed in III shall be [illegible] and all people in [illegible] strings attached.

V. ANYONE WHO PRACTICES FORCED STERILIZATION shall be deemed to have committed a federal offense punishable by ten years imprisonment for each offense.

VI. ALL CHILDREN SHALL NOT BE taken from mothers and fathers on welfare.

VII. NO SCHOOL, PUBLIC OR UNIVERSITY, public school or private, which employs officials who commit [illegible] students, faculty or other employees, shall receive any federal aid.

VIII. NO COLLEGE OR UNIVERSITY, public school or private, which uses texts that propagate the view that black or other minority people are culturally or genetically inferior should receive any federal aid.

IX. PEOPLE RESIDING IN THE U.S. and born in other countries shall not be deported or harassed.

X. HOUSING CODES shall be enforced. Landlords not complying shall be deemed to have committed a federal offense punishable by a minimum of five years imprisonment or a fine of $5,000 or both, or a maximum of life imprisonment, depending on the circumstances.

The Evidence

WELFARE

A disproportionate number of minority people are on welfare. From the moment you go on welfare you get harassment from racist welfare officials. They ask you all kinds of personal questions that they don't need to know only to give you a few cents a week. They have hired spies to check up on you and they ask questions of your neighbors and friends to make sure you don't cheat the government.

Being on welfare has always meant slow starvation and rotten medical care. Now there's FAP (Nixon's Family Assistance Program). Nixon introduced this plan and a whole gamut of congressmen both Democratic and Republican support it. It provides for forced labor of welfare mothers at below the minimum wage. In Chicago, the welfare department tried to make welfare mothers work for their welfare checks by picking up litter in the Forest Preserve. Neither the Democratic Party nor the Republican Party nor the U.S. government has anything more than a pittance to offer people who've been forced onto welfare by unemployment, rotten jobs that don't pay enough, disabilities, etc.

MEDICAL CARE

If you are Rockefeller or any government official you know you will get the best care, but you take your life into your hands if you enter a ghetto hospital. In Chicago last year a black man took his seven year old daughter to the emergency room of Billings Hospital because she had festering sores in her mouth. The doctor refused to see her. The man objected and the nurse called a cop. The cop shot the man three times. He was in intensive care for three days and then died. Billings Hospital sent his wife a bill for $1,400. Last year alone three black people died working at that hospital literally from overwork or mis-medication. At Willowbrook State Hospital in New York State, Dr. Saul Krugman even now experiments on black and Latin ghetto kids, injecting them with infectious hepatitus to study the disease. In Billings Hospital pregnant black women were x-rayed to study the effects of x-rays on unborn children. Doctors already know it causes susceptibility to illness, deformities, etc. In New York a black woman named Carol Smith was involuntarily sterilized when she was in the hospital after delivering a child. This happens all the time.

Lobotomy operations (or "psycho-surgical" operations, as they are now called) are now being performed in many cities. In these operations part of the brain is destroyed, either by cutting it out or by introducing electrodes or harmful chemicals, etc. Proponents of these operations claim they have a remarkably calming effect. This is of course true. As with earlier lobotomies, they destroy part of the intellect. People become

SEE YOU IN MIAMI

During the Democratic Convention in Miami, (July 10-14) thousands of students including SDS, will be there to protest the war, racism, etc.

The U.S. government including the Democratic Party hasn't lifted a finger against racism in welfare cuts, practices like forced sterilization, police brutality, racism in the schools, etc. The U.S. government commits these crimes every day. They will stop at nothing, not even murder, to keep their profits for their big U.S. businessmen. And the Democratic
People who go to Miami can organize to defeat the racist acts and genocide of the government. Workers, students, welfare mothers, GI's can unite around this bill. We can pass it around in our towns and cities before both conventions. GET EVERYONE & EVERY GROUP TO SIGN THE ANTI-RACISM BILL AND CO-SPONSOR IT. MAIL SIGNED BILLS INTO TO SDS (see blank on back). We will bring the bill with signatures to Miami to present as a platform to the Democratic Convention. We will demand that it be accepted and acted upon at once.

In Miami SDS plans to:

I) INDICT THE U.S. GOVERNMENT FOR GENOCIDE — CIRCULATE THE ANTI-RACISM BILL.....

(We are already sending the Bill and it to all college and underground newspapers, groups like VVAW, NWRO, etc.)

ANTI-RACISM BILL, contd. from front

XI. ANYONE ON TRIAL for any offense shall have his own choice of lawyer. The government shall pay the fees.

XII. MEDICAL RESEARCHERS who experiment on minority people without their full comprehension or consent and without the full comprehension and consent of their immediate families shall be deemed to have committed a federal offense, punishable by not less than ten years imprisonment and with a maximum of life imprisonment.

★THE EVIDENCE contd. from front

Unheavenly City, he proposed a welfare program almost exactly like Nixon's FAP. He calls for putting black welfare clients in "closely supervised housing" and taking children away from "deprived" welfare families. He says that black people rebel for "fun and profit" and that black people like to live in slum housing, that all people who are "lower class" are terribly decadent. There is a virtual campaign that pushes ideas like these on the campuses, lectures, in journals, etc. The U.S. government is very much a part of this campaign and indeed many of its main speakers are themselves high officials in the government. For instance, Banfield, Moynihan, Bronfenbrenner (former head of Head Start).

★POLICE BRUTALITY

Two years ago, a black 16-year-old in Troy, New York jay-walked across a street. Cops arrested him, took him to the station and beat him. The result?—severe brain damage and loss of sight. There have been thousands of injuries and fatalities in ghetto rebellions. In Boston, two years ago, a cop, Officer Dugan, shot a helpless black patient, Frank Lynch, and killed him. Lynch's crime? He allegedgly flicked a towel in the air. In Chicago, Fred Hampton, a Black Panther, was machined-gunned down while sleeping in his bed. In Chicago, in the past two years, at least 67 blacks have been shot and killed by cops. At the Univ. of Illinois in Chicago, a cop shot at a black student. The administration is now trying to promote the cop.

★HOUSING

In Troy, New York, slumlords Albert & Kirsch make deals with the government so they won't have to live up to fire codes. Two years ago seven black children perished in a fire in one of their slums. Every winter in New York City, thousands of black and latin families go heatless because the government doesn't enforce heating laws in the slums. Rat bites resulting in serious infections and sometimes death occur every day. There are countless examples of rotten housing condoned and overlooked and sometimes owned by the U.S. government. vegetables: Naturally vegetables aren't able to lead militant prison rebellions like Attica, or welfare protests, or fight discrimination in housing, let alone support their families. Doctors who perform psycho-surgery say it works best on black wom

"works best on black women." The U.S. Dept. of Justice is now funding a research center on lobotomies in California. The center is performing lobotomies on "problem prisoners," most of whom are black, so they won't fight back. This is genocide in its most shocking form. Operations like these were a daily part of Nazi concentration camp life.

JOBS

"The last to be hired and the first to be fired" is a truism applied to minority people. The unemployment lines are disproportionately swelled with black and latin people. Many job application forms ask for your race. For instance, the form at Rensselaer Poly. Inst. in New York. And when you have a job, the wage differential between black and white workers working the same jobs is great. Black and latin people get the lousiest and most dangerous jobs. Workers at GE's largest plant, in Schenectady, New York, said that a tiny minority of blacks work there. Yet almost one-half of all on-the-job accidents happen to blacks. In the Chicago city school system, 124 teachers were just laid off. 121 of these were black.

SCHOOLS AND EDUCATION

From the moment you attend almost any city school you're part of a tracking system. And if you're black or latin you're bound to be put in the lowest track by racist school officials. And you cannot get out of that track. A black student, Walter McCarty, in upstate New York fought to get out of a vocational track for one year. He was unsuccessful. Throughout school, racist administrators harass, beat and even maim minority students. At Boston English High School last year, the school principal tried to choke a black student who was late to class. At Thompson Jr. High in Boston, a principal kicked a black student who had just had an operation in the kidney and broke his stitches. In Salt Lake City, a predominantly black parents group formed, allied with students at the University, to stop the beatings of their children by school officials. And even if a black student is allowed to enter college he will probably find he is at a school that has a quota of blacks. At the University of Illinois at Chicago Circle there is a special program for students who have come from high schools that haven't "prepared" them "well" for college. Oddly enough the program is almost all black and latin students to a person. What is the program? You have to take an extra year at Circle and pay for it yourself in order to graduate.

Racism in course-work is glaring. Herrnstein, Jensen, Shockley, Banfield — all these "noted" scholars whose books and articles are taught at literally thousands of schools, all argue that black and latin people either are culturally or genetically inferior. Banfield, probably the most widely read of the four, is a member of a Presidential Advisory Committee and under Johnson headed the Model Cities Program. In his book, The

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY (SDS)

On June 23, 1972, a reliable source advised that on that same date, George Clevester Parmer, listed on program as representative of SDS, spoke briefly at Statler-Hilton Hotel, Washington, D.C., at the public hearings of the Democratic Platform Committee Panel C on Quality of Life in America: Rights and Opportunities, Political Rights and Civil Rights.

The source advised that Parmer read from a two page flyer, bearing caption of "SDS New Left Notes." Parmer stated that SDS has proposed an Anti-Racism Bill and is taking it to the Democratic Convention in Miami to demand its acceptance.

According to the source, the flyer was distributed by [redacted] Progressive Labor Party (PLP), member and other PLP and SDS associates of Parmer accompanying him at the hotel. Source related that the flyer is a reprint of information which appears on pages one and eight of the June 26, 1972, issue of SDS newspaper "SDS New Left Notes."

A copy of the SDS flyer is attached.

[redacted] The purpose of the meeting was to make plans for SDS demonstrations scheduled for Miami, Florida, during the Democratic Convention July 10-14, 1972. The meeting was attended by SDS members from Baltimore, Maryland; Norfolk, Virginia; and Washington, D.C. b6 b7C b7D

The meeting was attended by [redacted]

It was mentioned during the meeting that two individuals referred to as [redacted] and a [redacted] are the organizers of the demonstrations in Miami. They are said to be responsible for most of the literature which has been printed.

b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] led the debate. Some of the members present including [redacted] complained that the SDS national leadership had drafted an anti-racism bill to be presented at the Democratic Convention and had dropped all attack against George McGovern. Many feel that the national office of the SDS should consult the members before the organization takes new political lines. [redacted] answered that there are many members in SDS that feel that the best thing to do is to back McGovern, and although PLP and SDS members in general do not agree, they feel that the organization should not be sectarian. They want to grow as a political organization and in order to do that, they have to be neutral in regards to McGovern.

SDS will present an "anti-racism bill" to the convention and will ask that it be adopted. Between now and July 10, 1972, SDS chapters will try to collect signatures backing their bill. These signatures will then be taken to the convention. In Miami, the SDS will try to convert members of other anti-war and socialist organizations to SDS politics. They will also take part in a demonstration on July 13th, organized by the Welfare Rights Organization. They were invited to take part in that demonstration. The Norfolk chapter as well as other chapters will take a fact book on all the candidates to show their actions in the past, but not openly attacking any of the candidates. The SDS national office will be asked to print some of these fact books.

Plans are also being made for collecting money to finance the demonstrations in Miami. All chapters are being asked to find ways to collect money. It was suggested that "liberal" professors be asked to donate $25 or $100 to the SDS. If they do not, then the chapters will question their liberal politics. Local politicians will also be confronted with the "anti racism bill."

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY

Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) was founded during June, 1962, at Port Huron, Michigan, and in the 1960s functioned as the leading New Left campus-based student organization in the United States. From an initial posture of "participatory democracy," SDS moved to a radical-revolutionary position, with debate centering on how best to create a revolutionary youth movement. Internal factionalism produced a split during the SDS National Convention in June, 1969, which resulted in the following three factions: Weatherman; Worker Student Alliance (WSA); and Revolutionary Youth Movement (RYM). The Weatherman and RYM are no longer affiliated with SDS. The WSA continues to use the name SDS and maintains its national headquarters in Chicago, Illinois.

WEATHERMAN

Weatherman, formerly a faction of Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), controlled the SDS National Office from June, 1969, until its closing in February, 1970. Weatherman then entered an underground status and adopted a tactic of "strategic sabotage," with police and military installations designated as primary targets.

WORKER STUDENT ALLIANCE

Worker Student Alliance (WSA), a faction of Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), was expelled from SDS in June, 1969, by the then dominant Weatherman faction, but continued to use the name SDS and opened an office in Cambridge, Massachusetts. WSA aligned ideologically with the Progressive Labor Party (PLP) and, in February, 1971, moved to Chicago, Illinois, where it opened the SDS National Office at 1225 South Wabash Street.

REVOLUTIONARY YOUTH MOVEMENT (RYM)

RYM, a pro-communist revolutionary youth organization, was organized in 1969, first as a faction within the SDS, then as a separate group with headquarters in Atlanta, Georgia. RYM was unsuccessful in attracting support and by mid-1970, it was practically defunct.

PROGRESSIVE LABOR PARTY

The Progressive Labor Party (PLP) was founded in 1962 by individuals expelled from the Communist Party, USA, for following the Chinese Communist line. Its objective is the establishment of a revolutionary working class movement based on Marxism-Leninism and MAO Tse-tung thought.

MIAMI DEMOCRATIC CONV.--JULY 10-14

INDICT the U.S. GOV'T. for RACIST ACTS, GENOCIDE!

ACTS OF RACISM AND GENOCIDE are being committed daily in this country with the U.S. government either condoning these acts or actively taking part in committing them. This racism must be fought with the unity of black, latin and white; with militant struggle, every day. THESE ATTACKS MUST BE STOPPED!

SDS is taking the following bill to the Democratic Convention in Miami to demand it be accepted as a platform, to Congress to demand it be accepted and enacted into law and to the U.N. to raise it as a primary issue.

The bill follows. It is now being passed around and signatures are being gathered as support grows. Come to Miami and build this crucial campaign to end racism and genocide in the U.S.

After the Nuremberg Trials the United Nations had a Convention on Genocide. There, they defined genocide as "any of the following acts committed with intent to destroy, in whole or in part, a national, ethnical, racial, or religious group as such:

a) Killing any members of the group; b) Causing serious bodily or mental harm to members of the group; c) Deliberately inflicting on the group conditions of life calculated to bring about its physical destruction in whole or in part; d) Imposing measures intended to prevent births within the group; e) Forcibly transferring children of the group to another group."

Article III of the Convention provided that "The following acts shall be punishable:

a) Genocide; b) Conspiracy to commit genocide; c) Direct and public incitement to commit genocide; d) Attempt to commit genocide; e) Complicity in genocide."

WE INDICT THE U.S. GOVERNMENT WITH GENOCIDE AND SPECIFICALLY RACIST ACTS AGAINST BLACK, LATIN, ASIAN AND NATIVE AMERICAN PEOPLES IN THE U.S.....

The Evidence

WELFARE

A disproportionate number of minority people are on welfare. From the moment you go on welfare you get harassment from racist welfare officials. They ask you all kinds of personal questions that they don't need to know only to give you a few cents a week. They have hired spies to check up on you and they ask questions of your neighbors and friends to make sure you don't cheat the government.

Being on welfare has always meant slow starvation and rotten medical care. Now there's FAP (Nixon's Family Assistance Program). Nixon introduced this plan and a whole gamut of congressmen both Democratic and Republican support it. It provides for forced labor of welfare mothers at below the minimum wage. In Chicago, the welfare department tried to make welfare mothers work for their welfare checks by picking up litter in the Forest Preserve. Neither the Democratic Party nor the Republican Party nor the U.S. government has anything more than a pittance to offer people who've been forced onto welfare by unemployment, rotten jobs that don't pay enough, disabilit[illegible]

ANTI-RACISM BILL

WHEREAS RACISM AND GENOCIDE ON BLACK, LATIN, ASIAN AND NATIVE AMERICAN PEOPLE IN THIS COUNTRY IS BEING COMMITTED DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY BY THE U.S. GOVERNMENT, WE DEMAND THAT THE FOLLOWING BE ACTED UPON IMMEDIATELY AND MADE INTO LAW:

I. ANY STATE, LOCAL OR FEDERAL POLICEMAN or other state, local or federal government official who murders a minority person shall be deemed to have committed a federal offense, punishable by life imprisonment. Any state, local or federal policeman or other state, local or federal government official who does physical harm to a minority person shall be deemed to have committed a federal offense punishable by not less than ten years imprisonment depending upon the severity of the offense.

II. NO FEDERAL TROOPS shall be sent to ghettoes to suppress demonstrations or rebellion against racist treatment.

III. THERE SHALL BE a guaranteed annual income of $10,000 for a family of four.

IV. THE GUARANTEED ANNUAL INCOME proposed in #III shall be available to any and all people in need without any strings attached.

V. ANYONE WHO PRACTICES FORCED STERILIZATION shall be deemed to have committed a federal offense punishable by ten years imprisonment for each offense.

VI. CHILDREN SHALL NOT BE taken from mothers and fathers on welfare.

VII. NO COLLEGE OR UNIVERSITY, public school or private, which employs officials who commit acts of racism against students, faculty or other employees shall receive any federal aid.

VIII. NO COLLEGE OR UNIVERSITY, public school or private, which uses texts that propagate the view that black or other minority people are culturally or genetically inferior should receive any federal aid.

IX. PEOPLE RESIDING IN THE U.S. and born in other countries shall not be deported or harassed.

X. HOUSING CODES shall be enforced. Landlords not complying shall be deemed to have committed a federal offense punishable by a minimum of five years imprisonment or a fine of $5,000 or both, or a maximum of life imprisonment, depending on the circumstances.

MEDICAL CARE

If you are Rockefeller or any government official you know you will get the best care, but you take your life into your hands if you enter a ghetto hospital. In Chicago last year a black man took his seven year old daughter to the emergency room of Billings Hospital because she had festering sores in her mouth. The doctor refused to see her. The man objected and the nurse called a cop. The cop shot the man three times. He was in intensive care for three days and then died. Billings Hospital sent his wife a bill for $1,400. Last year alone three black people died working at that hospital literally from overwork or mis-medication. At Willowbrook State Hospital in New York State, Dr. Saul Krugman even now experiments on black and Latin ghetto kids, injecting them with infectious hepatitus to study the disease. In Billings Hospital pregnant black women were x-rayed to study the effects of x-rays on unborn children. Doctors already know it causes susceptibility to illness, deformities, etc. In New York a black woman named Carol Smith was involuntarily sterilized when she was in the hospital after delivering a child. This happens all the time.

Lobotomy operations (or "psycho-surgical" operations, as they are now called) are now being performed in many cities. In these operations part of the brain is destroyed, either by cutting it out or by introducing electrodes or harmful chemicals, etc. Proponents of these operations claim they have a remarkably calming effect. This is of course true. As with earlier lobotomies, they destroy part of the intellect. People become

During the Democratic Conve[illegible] in Miami, (July 10-14) thousands of students including SDS, will be there to protest the war, racism, etc.

The U.S. government including the Democratic Party hasn't lifted a finger against racism in welfare cuts, practices like forced sterilization, police brutality, racism in the schools, etc. The U.S. government commits these crimes every day. They will stop at nothing, not even murder, to keep their profits for their big U.S. businessmen. And the Democratic
People who go to Miami can organize to defeat the racist acts and genocide of the government. Workers, students, welfare mothers, GI's can unite around this bill. ANNUAL CONFERENCE

JULY 5-7, 1972

DEMONSTRATIONS AT THE
DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION
MIAMI BEACH, FLORIDA
JULY, 1972

The NWRO is a civil rights group headquartered in Washington, D.C., which has sponsored protest marches and demonstrations in the past resulting in the arrest of members and leaders.

It has previously been reported that the NWRO is planning an annual conference to take place on Miami Beach, Florida, July 5-9, 1972.

On June 28, 1972, a source who is familiar with the NWRO planned convention furnished information concerning

The same source also reported that according to various national leaders of the NWRO there has been little support in the way of local volunteers and staff members to assist in organizing the national convention. In addition the leaders of NWRO reported that "the NWRO is broke".

It has previously been reported by the same source that the NWRO will demonstrate in front of the Miami Beach Convention Hall on July 10, 1972, to protest the exclusion of the poor people from the Democratic and Republican political conventions and from the two party system. b6 b7C

According to the above source, [redacted] a NWRO Staff Coordinator, made a statement on June 26, 1972, that he is expecting from 2,000 to 5,000 participants at the July 10, 1972, rally to be held at the Convention Hall, Miami Beach, Florida.

On June 28, 1972, the Miami Beach Police Department reported that a representative of the NWRO requested a permit on June 26, 1972, for their organization to demonstrate on July 10, 1972. The permit called for a parade and rally between the hours of 7:00 pm and 10:00 pm. The group would assemble at the north section of Flamingo Park, march east on Espanola Way to Washington Avenue and north on Washington Avenue to the Convention Hall where the rally would be held.

On June 23, 1972, a second source reported that the Students for Democratic Society (SDS) have coordinated their activities with NWRO.

A characterzation of SDS is contained in the appendix of this memorandum.

RE: NATIONAL WELFARE RIGHTS ORGANIZATION (NWRO)

According to the second source, SDS members on June 22, 1972, were observed at the NWRO headquarters as well as in the Liberty City area of Miami, Dade County, Florida, where they were distributing a paper. This paper was identified as the "SDS New Left Notes", entitled "Miami Democratic Convention, July 10-14, Indict the U. S. Government for Racist Acts, Genocide". In the paper it stated that July 13, 1972, SDS is holding a demonstration to march to the convention headquarters to present "the bill". This bill is identified as an anti-racism bill prepared by SDS to end racism and genocide in the U. S.

One copy of this communication is being furnished to the U. S. Secret Service, Miami, Florida.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

APPENDIX

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY

Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), as commonly known, came into existence at a founding convention held during June, 1962, at Port Huron, Michigan. In the 1960s, it functioned as the leading New Left campus-based student organization in the United States.

From an initial posture of "participatory democracy," SDS moved to a radical-revolutionary position. Shadings of Marxist-Leninist ideology became predominant during 1968-1969, with debate centering on how best to create a revolutionary youth movement. During the 1960s, SDS moved from involvement in the civil rights struggle to an anti-Vietnam war position and to advocacy of a militant anti-imperialist line linking up the oppressed peoples of Asia, Africa, and Latin America with the black liberation movement in the United States.

Internal factionalism developed within SDS during 1968-1969 with the following three factions developing as a result of a split during the SDS National Convention in June, 1969; Weatherman; Worker Student Alliance (WSA); and Revolutionary Youth Movement (RYM). The Weatherman and RYM are no longer affiliated with SDS, whereas the WSA continues to use the name SDS.

Until the Weatherman closed the SDS National Office in February, 1970, it was maintained at 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois; however, WSA has its national headquarters in Chicago and continues to use the name SDS.

(Characterizations of Weatherman, WSA, and RYM should be used in conjunction with the above characterization.)

1. APPENDIX

WEATHERMAN

Initially called the "Action Faction", Weatherman came into being immediately before the June, 1969, Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) National Convention. At this National Convention, Weatherman won all three national officer positions and a majority of the National Interim Committee as well. Subsequently, it took over the SDS National Office in Chicago, Illinois, and controlled its funds, paper, and national records. Although internal struggle existed until late 1969, Weatherman for all major purposes controlled SDS nationally from June, 1969, until its National Office closed in February, 1970. At this time, it no longer considered itself part of SDS.

The term Weatherman emerged from an ideological paper prepared by its leader entitled "You Don't Need a Weatherman to Know Which Way the Wind Blows". ("New Left Notes", June 18, 1969) This statement outlined the basic stance of Weatherman: Marxist-Leninist in content but with strong advocacy that action, not theory, would bring about revolution in the United States. This posture was complemented with an international identification with the Cuban revolution and Castro's statement that the duty of a revolutionary is to make revolution.

During October, 1969, Weatherman riots in Chicago resulted in more than 260 arrests for mob action and related charges. A program of armed struggle was adopted during a December, 1969, "War Council" wherein terrorist tactics and political assassination were contemplated. The basic strength of Weatherman was then revealed to be some 300 to 500 nationally, and geographically apportioned to the Midwest, New York, and some to the Northwest.

As its rhetoric of violence escalated, Westherman leaders increasingly discussed the necessity of an underground operation wherein more than 90 per cent of the organization would be submerged; "affinity groups" of three to five members would function independently. In February, 1970, Weatherman leaders announced a program of "strategic sabotage" with police and military installations as primary targets.

In February, 1970, Weatherman abandoned the SDS National Office, 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois, and throughout the country entered an underground status.

(Characterization of SDS should be used in conjunction with the above characterization.)

WORKER STUDENT ALLIANCE/PROGRESSIVE LABOR PARTY

A source advised during August, 1969, that at the National Convention (NC) of Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) held in Chicago, Illinois, during June, 1969, a split arose between the Progressive Labor Party (PLP) and the National Office (NO), the NO becoming known as the Weatherman faction. The PLP faction drew the largest support among those in attendance at the NC.

Source further advised that during late Summer, 1969, the PLP faction of SDS established its National Headquarters (NH) on the second floor of a loft-type building at 173A Massachusetts Avenue, Boston, Massachusetts. The campaign on which the PLP faction centered was to build a worker student alliance or a campus worker student alliance. Thus, they adopted the names of Worker Student Alliance (WSA) or Campus Worker Student Alliance.

A second source advised during January, 1970, that within the SDS, the WSA is a caucus of which the PLP constitutes the leadership.

A third source advised during July, 1970, that during demonstrations staged in the Boston area during the Spring and Summer of 1970 by the NH, the main theme of previous demonstrations staged by the NH shifted from protestations of the Vietnam War and other United States foreign policy matters to attacking domestic issues such as racism and unemployment and demonstrating support of the "workers' struggle".

Characterizations of the SDS and PLP are attached.

REVOLUTIONARY YOUTH MOVEMENT

A source advised that the Revolutionary Youth Movement II (RYMII) faction of Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) held a national conference at Atlanta, Georgia, from November 26 to 30, 1969. At this conference it was decided to form a new organization to be known as Revolutionary Youth Movement (RYM), characterized as a mass anti-imperialist youth organization, said organization being proposed as separate and distinct in form and content from SDS. The "Principles of Unity" adopted by the conference included a struggle against white supremacy and male supremacy; fights against imperialism, anticommunism, fascism and oppression of youth; and support of the right of self-determination of all "oppressed nations", also support of the right of all "oppressed and exploited" peoples "to armed self-defense". It was agreed that RYM would not be a Marxist-Leninist organization; however, source said this was decided in order to indicate an organization broad enough in form to be acceptable to everyone. A temporary National Steering Committee (NSC) made up of eight females and two males was elected to govern RYM until national officers could be elected during the Spring of 1970.

RYM publications have listed the RYM National Office (NO) at Post Office Box 5421 and Post Office Box 77012 C, both Atlanta, Georgia, and a second source has advised that the NO has no office space but would probably be considered as located at Apartment 27, 1067 Alta Avenue, Northeast, Atlanta.

Second source advised that women dominated the founding conference and have continued to dominate NSC meetings to the point that "women's liberation" has apparently become the RYM's principal issue - also that RYM's poor financial condition has resulted in its failure to publish a paper. During early 1970, RYM has decided to cater to the working class rather than youth, since the potential for social revolution lies in workers.

A third source has stated that it was decided at the March, 1970, NSC meeting that RYM women had decided the organization will be molded into a "working class, Marxist-Leninist, revolutionary, anti-imperialist, problack nationalist, people's women's liberation organization."

A characterization of SDS is attached.

Miami, Florida

On October 30, 1964, a source advised the Progressive Labor Movement (PLM) Chapter in Miami was formed in April or May of 1964, and is an affiliate of the National PLM, which is located in New York City.

On May 16, 1966, this source advised that the Miami Chapter of the PLM is no longer in existence.

"The New York Times" issue of April 20, 1965, Page 27, reported a new part of "revolutionary socialism" was formally founded on April 18, 1965, under the name of the Progressive Labor Party (PLP). The PLP was described as an outgrowth of the PLM, and MILTON ROSEN, the Movement's Chairman, was elected President of the new Party.

YIP ACTIVITIES
MIAMI, FLORIDA

June 23, 1972

The Miami Beach City Council, Miami Beach, Florida, held a meeting to act upon the request of non-delegates to the forthcoming National Democratic and Republican Conventions pertaining to campsites and forums. During the meeting, the City Council voted to allow the use of Flamingo Park on Miami Beach as a free-space area. The Council also voted to allow the use of Lummus Park and Pier Park on Miami Beach for cultural bazaars. The Council voted not to allow the use of any area on Miami Beach as a campsite for non-delegates. Immediately following the vote, [redacted] a leader of the Zippies, walked forward towards the City Councilmen and hurled some type of pie at the City Concilmen. Re: YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY (YIP)

[redacted] explained that the printing pin marks appearing on the edge of a newspaper would be a means of identifying whether a particular publication was printed by a certain company. b6 b7C

The YIP is scheduled to conduct a march at 2:00 p.m. on Thursday, June 29, 1972, to begin in the area of the convention hall and end at the Par Three Golf Course located southeast of the Bayshore Country Club. The march itself is going to be against the militarization of Miami Beach comparing it with the militarization going on in Vietnam. The sideline which will be used is to "free Martha Mitchell" using the theory she is some type of political prisoner. The YIP hopes to have one or two thousand people and it is believed that the Zippies, or the off-shoot of the YIPs, might try to get involved and create some type of confusion by carrying Che Guevara signs and posters. The purpose was to get the Cubans upset, intending for the Cubans to then get into the act.

[redacted] is really doing the preparation for this march, although it is all authorized by Jerry Rubin. It is also anticipated that this march is to be conducted to indicate federal troops, who might be coming to Miami Beach, will keep the will of the people down and prevent them from announcing their grievances to a corrupt government. On June 27, 1972, the YIP called a press conference at 1:00 p.m. at YIP headquarters, Miami Beach, and members of the press did go to the headquarters, but instead of their being handed a press release, they were given some leaflets, as follows:

The first leaflet referred to the march, which is to take place on June 29, 1972, and starting at 2:00 p.m. in the parking area of the convention hall. This indicated the march was to object to the militarization of Miami Beach, comparing it to Vietnam. It also reflected the march would go to the Par Three Golf Course where the marchers were to be greeted by residents of the community. In connection with this march, information was subsequently obtained that [redacted] b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] It was further substantiated that the second reason being used for the march is to fre Martha Mitchell, whom they had described as a type of political prisoner.

The second leaflet handed the press referred to a picnic to take place at 2:00 p.m. on July 2, 1972, at Lummus Park, Miami Beach, which is a free-share picnic where everybody brings their own food. This was a good fellowship type of picnic affair. The third leaflet pertained to a senior citizens rally to be held on July 8, 1972, at 7:00 p.m. at Flamingo Park at Miami Beach.

Re: YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY (YIP)

It is anticipated that on July 11, 1972, YIP will have some kind of an affair to back up a Captain Krunch (phonetic), a person who reportedly had been in jail on the West Coast and who they described as the nation's biggest phone freak. During this affair it is anticipated that YIP will give lessons on how to make fake telephone calls, even calls overseas. This is Jerry Rubin's idea.

Abbie Hoffman has taken over the job of getting a rock concert together, date not decided. [redacted] thinks he is some kind of a national hero because of the publicity he received in throwing the pie at Councilman Rosen during the meeting of the Miami Beach City Council, Miami Beach, Florida, Friday, June 23, 1972. b6 b7C

It is anticipated there will be a picnic on July 2, 1972, at Lummus Park, Miami Beach, described as a "free-share picnic" -- bring your own food and a good fellowship type of affair. [redacted] of YIP is amanging this picnic and the theory is that a lot of senior citizens will attend and YIP would like to get the old people over to the YIP way of thinking.

On July 8, 1972, there is supposed to be a meeting of senior citizens at 7:00 p.m. at Flamingo Park, which meeting is supposed to have some support from the Democratic Party. [redacted] b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] Jerry Rubin has, during the past few days, indicated that the YIPs had withdrawn its mass call for the first convention, the reason being Senator McGovern. Jerry Rubin indicated that there was no point coming here as they had hoped, to stop Humphrey, and now they wanted to keep the numbers down and a confrontation at the Democratic convention would only be of help to Richard Nixon.

[redacted] continues to head the ZIP movement or faction, with headquarters at 3113 Mary Street, Coconut Grove, Miami, Florida, and their number is estimated at around 40 or 45. There has been a power struggle and arguing as far as Tom Forcade is concerned in connection with the ZIP faction. Tom Forcade was "voted out" and left for St. Petersburg, Florida, about two days ago and the main reason is that they were unhappy with his ideas about Che Guevara and possibly arousing the anger of the Cubans. In addition, there has been some disagreement and it was indicated that they were disappointed in the fact that [redacted] had thrown a pie at Concilman Rosen on June 23, 1972, during the Miami Beach Council meeting. This has caused some arguing and dissension.

The YIP-sponsored parade will take place at 2:00 p.m., June 29, 1972, as originally planned, and numerous members will be dressed in costume representing different people. One will represent Martha Mitchell, and, in addition, it is believed that some will be dressed up to represent the Council of Miami Beach. They reportedly will be sitting around a table and a woman dressed as a Vietnamese woman will come up covered with some type of yellow substance representing Napalm and prostrate herself before them.

The YIP had applied for a parade permit at the Miami Beach Police Department, but kept changing it and did not sign the permit, the purpose being to confuse Chief of Police Rocky Pomerance about the parade. YIP had in mind that if they did not sign the permit itself, it would not be a legal parade, possibly there might be one or two arrests and in such case, they would get some publicity and make a test case in court.

[redacted] and [redacted] were the men who had arranged the publishing of the "Beach Blanket News", and it is believed that this is getting distributed to quite a degree, amount of distribution not known. Records of the City of Miami Beach Police Department reflect an application dated June 21, 1972, for a parade permit and also a mobile sound unit permit. The form was signed and filled out as follows.

This reflected starting time 2:00, disbanding time 8:00 p.m., number of marchers 15,000, number of vehicles 100, number of animals 100, number of bands 5, number of floats 50, number of banners 100. It reflected the parade was to form at Bayshore Golf Course and proceed to convention hall - disbanding area. Under number of sound units, it had portable stereo units. Purpose of parade was reflected as "protesting the importation of heroin into the United States". b6 b7C

[redacted] of the ZIP movement made an application for a parade permit to the Miami Beach Police Department as head of the Zippie faction. This parade was to take place on July 9, 1972, and was to protest the use of heroin. Re: YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY (YIP)

On June 29, 1972, the YIP staged a one-hour anti-war protest at Miami Beach, Florida. This consisted of a disorganized march from the front of the Miami Beach Convention Hall to the Par Three Bayshore Golf Course. About 45 persons participated, although at times the line of march exceeded 150, mostly "teenie boppers", or real young teenagers who followed along. Numerous placards bearing anti-war slogans, such as, "Will the United States Occupy Miami Beach This Summer?"; "War Ain't Healthy"; "Free Martha Mitchell"; "Nixon is a Sneaky Goy"; "War Ain't Right", were carried. During the line of march, the participants staged a guerrilla theater with an anti-war theme. Several of the marchers were in costume and reportedly imitated Martha Mitchell and President Nixon. At the beginning of the gathering in front of the Convention Hall, Miami Beach Mayor Chuck Hall appeared in his white Rolls Royce convertible and praised the demonstrators for their peaceful actions. Mayor Hall indicated to them that he had been trying to get the golf course for them and the best way they could do it was by the law.

The march started out with some anti-war singing with obscenities, but this was cut down somewhat at the request of the Mayor. A short mock meeting was held representing the Miami Beach City Council. Jerry Rubin was dressed in what represented to be a bathing suit but was actually long underwear and was one of the predominant individuals in this affair. The marchers concluded the march at the Par Three Golf Course, where they were welcomed by about a half dozen senior citizens who held aloft a banner, "Senior Citizens of Miami Beach Welcome--To Non-Delegates With Love". The marchers were escorted by policemen on motorcycles. It was peaceful and there was no violence or disturbances of any kind. Jerry Rubin, who is considered the leader of the YIP movement in Miami, indicated he was pleased with the march and demonstration because of the coverage it received by local and national news media. The only regret of the YIP members, including Jerry Rubin, was that possibly the march was too long and that Mayor Chuck Hall of Miami Beach had gotten too much of the "spotlight" in comparison with themselves.

The LHM has been classified ~~"confidential"~~ in order to protect MM T-1 through MM T-3. These sources are of continuing value and their identities if disclosed could detrimentally affect the national defense interests of the United States.

For the information of the Bureau, MM T-1 has been able to furnish information on a continuous basis as to key individuals involved in YIP activities. In addition, MM T-1 will, when it is published and available, forward copies of the "YIP Survival Manual".

Reference is made to Bureau letter to Miami, dated 6/21/72, captioned, "Youth International Party, IS-YIP". This letter, in turn, referred to Miami teletype dated 5/26/72, captioned, "Comite Ejecutivo Libertador (CEL) - Demonstration Against Youth International Party (YIP), Miami, Florida, 5/26, 27 and 28/72".

This indicated some members of the CEL had considered disrupting the National Congress of YIP, which had been scheduled for 5/26-28/72, and that some of the Cuban students had some guns stored.

It is to be noted that the above information was unsubstantiated and absolutely no information has come to the attention of the Miami Office from any sources or informants to further substantiate this.

AUGUST, 1972

I. ORGANIZATIONS PLANNING PROTEST DEMONSTRATIONS

A. YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY (YIP)

The YIP, also known as Yippies, is a loosely-knit, anti-Establishment, revolutionary youth organization formed in New York City in January, 1968. Following a factional dispute in May, 1972, the YIP divided into two factions, the Yippies, headed by a YIP collective, and Zippies, headed by THOMAS KING FORCADE, a member of the Underground Press Syndicate.

1. YIP COLLECTIVE (YIPPIES)

Flyers are being distributed by YIP on Miami Beach requesting citizens to call the Miami Beach City Hall to encourage city officials to make a suitable campsite available to non-delegates.

The YIP staged a one hour anti-war protest march on Miami Beach on June 29, 1972. About 45 individuals participated and they were joined at times by as many as 100 local youths. At the termination of their march they were welcomed by a small group of Miami Beach senior citizens. This march was to test the Miami Beach City parade ordinance. It terminated without any incidents or problems.

On June 26, 1972, ABBIE HOFFMAN, YIP leader, said the YIP will plan a "CHE Day" (in honor of the late Cuban leader, ERNESTO CHE GUEVARA), but it will not be during the Democratic National Convention (DNC). He said they have to be very careful not to provoke the Cubans in Miami as "the Cubans will kill us."

"8/23/72 prior to NIXON's acceptance speech, a march to NIXON's headquarters at the Doral Hotel and a demand for a response by either NIXON or a high official as to why BINH's peace proposals are not being accepted. Demonstrators will remain at the Doral until they get such a response."

C. THE ENRAGED ONES;
ATTICA BRIGADE

The ENRAGED ONES is a New York group which is coordinating new left groups and individuals for demonstrations at the DNC and RNC.

ATTICA BRIGADE is a New York organization formed in the fall of 1971 to march as a contingent in a demonstration to protest the Attica Prison incident. The group has come to view itself as a vanguard - anti-imperialist action organization and its membership consists of persons who have engaged in street fighting, trashing actions, and similar forms of paramilitary activity.

The ENRAGED ONES and the ATTICA BRIGADE in New York have no specific plans at this time regarding protest activities during either convention. The ATTICA BRIGADE Coordinating Committee has indicated that the organization would have representatives in Miami to give the group a "respectability" among membership groups, but the leadership cadre was not prepared to take the vanguard for demonstrations at this time.

D. WORKERS ACTION MOVEMENT (WAM)

The WAM is a front group of the Progressive Labor Party (PLP) formed in February, 1972, for the purpose of recruiting PLP members from the Nation's labor force.

The PLP was founded in 1962 by individuals expelled from the Communist Party, USA, for following the Chinese Communist line. Its objective is the establishment of a militant working class movement based on Marxism-Leninism and MAO Tse-tung thought.

A meeting of the International Steering Committee of WAM was held at Chicago, Illinois, on June 3 and 4, 1972. One of the purposes of the meeting was to plan WAM demonstration activities for the DNC and RNC.

It was decided that WAM would focus exclusively on the DNC. It was decided that WAM would be in Miami on July 8 and 9, 1972, the weekend prior to the Convention, and it was decided to picket the hotels where the delegates will be staying. Plans were made to picket only, and no discussion was held regarding any civil disobedience or other disruptive activity. A canvas of the various WAM chapter representatives present indicated that these chapters could send a total of 51 persons to the Miami area for convention activity.

E. STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY (SDS)

SDS was founded during June, 1962, at Port Huron, Michigan, and in the 1960s functioned as the leading New Left campus-based student organization in the United States. From a stance of "participatory democracy", the SDS moved to a radical-revolutionary position. It maintained a national office at 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois, until February, 1970. Internal factionalism during 1969 produced three main factions: Weatherman, Revolutionary Youth Movement (RYM), and Worker Student Alliance (WSA). The Weatherman and RYM no longer consider themselves associated with the SDS. The WSA faction continues to use the name SDS.

WSA, a faction of SDS, was expelled from SDS in June, 1969, by the then dominant Weatherman faction, but continued to use the name SDS and opened an office in Cambridge, Massachusetts. WSA aligned ideologically with the Progressive Labor Party (PLP) and, in February, 1971, moved to Chicago, Illinois, where it opened the SDS National Office at 1225 South Wabash Street.

The PLP was founded in 1962 by individuals expelled from the Communist Party USA for following the Chinese communist line. Its objective is the establishment of a militant working class movement based on Marxism-Leninism and Mao Tse-tung thought.

A regional meeting of the SDS was held in Washington, D. C., on June 25, 1972, to make plans for SDS activities at the DNC. The meeting was attended by SDS members from Baltimore, Norfolk, and Washington, D. C.

It was reported during the meeting that present SDS plans call for the presenting of an SDS anti-racism bill to the Convention in an effort to have it adopted. Between now and July 10, SDS chapters will collect signatures to support the adoption of this bill, these signatures to be taken to the Convention. In Miami, the SDS will try to convert members of other anti-war and socialist organizations to SDS politics and will take part in a demonstration on July 13, organized by the National Welfare Rights Organization (NWRO). Their participation in this demonstration will be at the specific invitation of the NWRO.

F. GAY ACTIVISTS ALLIANCE (GAA)
NATIONAL COALITION OF GAY ORGANIZATIONS (NCGO)

GAA is a homosexual group headquartered at New York City whose purpose is the promoting of "gay rights". A Miami chapter of GAA was formed in early 1972.

The NCGO was formed at a national meeting of gay organizations held in Chicago in February, 1972. Headquarters of the NCGO are in Washington, D. C.

In June, 1972, the NCGO, Box 2554, Washington, D. C., mailed out to various gay organizations throughout the United States a leaflet and route map. The leaflet stated extensive planning had been conducted for the first coordinated national gay action to ever take place, which would be at the DNC in Miami and stated that thousands of gays were needed in Miami to give voice to gay demands. The routing map showed departure times from major United States cities of auto and bus caravan to Miami, with a scheduled arrival time in Miami of 10:00 A.M., July 10, 1972.

SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE (SCLC)
NATIONAL TENANTS ORGANIZATION (NTO)

The NWRO is a civil rights group headquartered in Washington, D. C., which has sponsored protest marches and demonstrations in the past resulting in the arrest of members and leaders.

The SCLC is a civil rights organization with headquarters in Atlanta, Georgia, which was founded by the late Reverend MARTIN LUTHER KING.

SCLC, NWRO and NTO leaders met in Washington, D. C. during the week of June 18, 1972, and joined in what was in effect a black summit conference. The three groups are scheduling their convention related activities so as to provide mutual cooperation.

The NTO will stage a demonstration on Saturday night, July 8, 1972. The SCLC will hold a mass rally at Manor Park on Sunday afternoon, July 9, 1972. The NWRO plans a march on the convention center on the night of Monday, July 10, 1972. Present plans provide for a vigil outside the convention hall while friends on the convention floor press for adoption of a "poor people's platform". Reverend RALPH ABERNATHY, SCLC leader, stated plans are going ahead for the building of "Resurrection City II" in Miami starting July 5, 1972, similar to the one constructed in Washington four years ago. Reverend ABERNATHY said similar demonstrations are being planned for the RNC in August.

The Florida Tenants Association (FTA) plans demonstrations on July 8, 1972, at Miami Beach. The President of FTA, EUFAULA FRAZIER, stated that the FTA will form a coalition with the NWRO and SCLC. The demonstrations will protest mass evictions from public housing, prices of housing and housing conditions.

"Miami News"

The NWRO, SCLC and NTO have formed a coalition in Miami and will support each other's activities during the DNC.

NWRO will sponsor a "soul picnic" on July 4, 1972, in an attempt to develop local interest. They will also sponsor a fund raising dance on July 7, 1972, and a fund raising dinner on July 8, 1972.

SCLC's primary concern at the present time is the organizing of "Resurrection City II" to be held from July 10 to July 13, 1972. SCLC will conduct a large rally on July 9, 1972, at Manor Park, 1300 N. W. 50th Street, Miami, and several national civil rights leaders are scheduled to speak.

IV. COMMUNIST PARTY SUPPORT FOR PROTEST ACTIVITIES

A group of members of the Communist Party (CP) in Miami held a meeting with representatives of the MCC on June 28, 1972. A rally was arranged to be held July 5, 1972, at the Jewish Cultural Center, Miami Beach a location which has long been used for parties and rallies by Miami CP members and sympathizers. The rally is to be organized by the CP primarily to raise funds for the MCC.

Celebrities to appear during the above rally include American actor DON SUTHERLAND, British actor PATRICK MAGEE, and PCPJ leader RENNIE DAVIS. It is expected that representatives of the NWRO will also be present. The rally is planned both to raise money and to close the gap between youth and the senior citizens of Miami Beach. No violence is anticipated.

The CP National Office has recently shown a great interest in a group known as the "National Issues Caucus". The National Office has indicated this group is close to and sympathetic with the CP. Its headquarters is in Los Angeles, California, and it will want to issue a daily mimeographed bulletin to the convention of an "advanced democratic character". Training classes are planned for volunteer paramedics and drug counselors to work during the Democratic and Republican National Conventions at Miami Beach. 500 volunteers are being sought for these programs. Volunteers are asked to call the American Red Cross or Switchboard of Miami.

"Miami News"
June 22, 1972

Switchboard of Miami is located at the Center for Dialogue, St. Johns Lutheran Church, Miami. It consists of desk space and volunteers who man telephones to assist the drug troubled youth. It also serves as a job referral center and as a housing service and a check-in spot for "nomads of the Age of Aquarius". It is one of nearly 100 such switchboards in major cities in the United States as well as others in Canada and Great Britain.

B. RELIGIOUS AND COMMUNITY LEADERS CONCERNED (RCLC)

Father DON GENONG (phonetic), Associate Professor of Criminology at the University of Cleveland and an Episcopal priest, appeared on a radio program on radio station WKAT June 27, 1972, to explain the function of the RCLC. He stated this is a group of religious and community leaders who will act as observers both inside and outside the convention hall during the time of the conventions. They will also have a chapel within the convention hall. These observers will assure the First Ammendment rights of demonstrators are not violated and at the same time will maintain contact with the demonstration leaders and attempt to prevent any acts of violence. The organization will attempt to maintain a completely neutral position between the police and the demonstrators. Father GENONG stated that this activity would be conducted by 300 to 400 volunteers who had been obtained for this service.

VI. ALTERNATIVE NEWS SERVICE COVERAGE OF CONVENTION ACTIVITIES

The Unicorn News Collective (UNC), Washington, D. C., is expected to follow the events of both conventions in Miami Beach. The formation and general background of the Collective is summarized as follows:

In January, 1972, the UNC was founded as a gay men's collective engaged in making audio tapes on straight radical and gay subjects suitable for broadcasting throughout the country.

In May, 1972, UNC was located at [redacted] N. W., Washington, D. C. Its members include [redacted] and several other men, all homosexuals, and professing an "effeminist consciousness". There is an overlap in membership with the Purple Star Tribe whose most celebrated member is [redacted] (nickname [redacted] more recently "Total Assault"). The symbol of Unicorn News as used on its stationery is a unicorn flashing radio waves. b6 b7C

At the present time UNC is working to build an alternative audio news network on a national scale and to create an audio information pool and an alternative media center to cover the national political conventions in Miami. It professes to be working in full cooperation with radio station WBUS-FM in Miami Beach.

UNC is also concerned with gay political activities; [redacted] was one of the organizers of "Gay Mayday" in 1971 and the Collective is following the campaign for gay rights during the 1972 election.

The UNC should attend the conventions in Miami en bloc and may play a significant role in the non-establishment media coverage of the events. At the DNC where there is expected to be a gay caucus, UNC will be attending its press conferences and serving as liaison with the straight radical media. At the RNC the Collective should stay close to the gay contingent among the demonstrators and report its activities. At both affairs Unicorn News will seek to collaborate with the radical news media in performing live coverage of the events inside and outside the convention hall.

Unicorn News may thus serve as a pilot project for homosexual oriented radio stations elsewhere in the country and also become a link in the proposed chain of anti-establishment media which dominates news and opinion in opposition to the regular radio and TV networks.

A. CUBAN ACTIVITIES

MM T-20
June 22, 1972

A mimeographed leaflet entitled "FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE, FROM THE MIAMI 'MALCONTENTS'", has been circulated extensively in the Miami area in late June, 1972. From its wording it appears the leaflet was issued for the purpose of provoking action by Cuban exiles in the Miami area against the black and white protest groups presently in this area. The reaction among the Cuban exiles is unknown at this time.

The leaflet states the "Malcontents" was formed to conduct a "War Crimes Trial" at Virginia Key, Miami, on August 26, 1972. It states the selection of a judge and jury will begin at Virginia Key on Saturday, July 1, 1972. The leaflet which is unsigned ends with the following statements:

> "If the Cuban refugees don't like the Movement's reforms or people like DANIEL ELLSBERG, ANGELA DAVIS, RENNIE DAVIS, then let them get out. The counter-revolutionaries (Gusanos) should be CONFRONTED. Right on!"

He has stated that the remainder of this money should be granted "or else". He has started his own "task force" which is composed of the unemployed people who frequent the pool halls in the Liberty City area. In recent discussions [redacted] has indicated to these people that the Government has withheld funds from the black community. The source feels this situation could evolve into some type of violent activity in the Liberty City area.

Maj. Jos [redacted]

On Tuesday, June 13, 1972 a meeting was held between leaders of the National Council of YMCA's and the Miami Police Department. Representing our department was Major [redacted] Officers [redacted] and [redacted] Representing the YMCA Council were [redacted] and [redacted] of the Downtown Branch.

[redacted] and [redacted] introduced their program by handing out three informational sheets which contained the goals and methods the YMCA would employ this summer in reference to both the Democratic and Republican Conventions. These information sheets cover the general area discussed. Additional questions were also raised and answered, these questions included the following. b6 b7C

First, the qualifications of the YMCA personnel. We were told that these 100 workers are all professional YMCA workers who have been trained and employed in the areas of crisis prevention.

Second, interfering with the police. It was stated that these workers would in no way interfere with the police officers regardless of the circumstances of the arrest.

Finally, it was agreed that Major [redacted] would introduce [redacted] and [redacted] to a staff meeting and that later these men or other involved in the program might be permitted to address the various roll calls as well, so that the policemen on the street can be familiar with this program.

YMCA CRISIS FREVENTION TEAM
40 N.E. 3rd Avenue
Miami, Florida 33132

The enclosed program outline explains the plan designed by the Miami YMCA and National Council of YMCAs for meeting the needs that are arising in the Miami area this July and August.

The specific expertise capability of the YMCA is the utilization of 100 professional Outreach Workers from throughout the United States. The key to the success of this operation is the recruitment of 125 volunteers from the Miami area. One Hundred of the volunteers will be paired with the professional Outreach Workers to supply the vital information on their local scene. As a team of two, co-ordinated through a mobile unit supervisor, the pair will be one of three nine-hour shifts flooding the streets 24 hours a day, performing as a third party mediation and information source. The remaining 25 local volunteers will be utilized as clerical and communication specialists in the headquarters office as the crucial support system to the Outreach pairs. The operational chart (blue) attached depicts the relationship and flow of the entire organization.

Your assistance is urgently needed for the exploration of all resources in uncovering 125 capable, enthusiastic volunteers for this project. Attached (green) is a list of criteria we have identified as being desirable for the 125 volunteers.

The YMCA is co-ordinating its volunteer recruitment through Mrs. Helene Rand, United Fund Director of the Volunteer Action Center (VAC), 955 Southwest Second Ave., Miami. Telephone: 854-8311. Please call the VAC if you have any contacts that can be helpful to this project.

Thank you for your time and effort in assisting us in this vital operation.

THE PLAN FOR A CRISIS PREVENTION PROGRAM

FOR THE NATIONAL CONVENTIONS

MIAMI YMCA and the NATIONAL COUNCIL OF YMCA'S

There will be thousands of young non-delegates in Miami during the 1972 National Political Conventions. They will come for a wide variety of reasons -- some productive and some not. The Miami YMCA is interested in being of service to these people and also in preventing the kind of non-functional activity that went on during the last Democratic Convention in Chicago. Because of its concern, the Miami YMCA has asked the National Council of YMCA's to help provide resources for this endeavor.

The YMCA is involved in this project because of its vital concern for developing a Christian society -- one in which diverse factions can work together peacefully to productive goals. To this end, the unique resources of the YMCA are dedicated.

We see ourselves best being able to accomplish our task by working in cooperation and collaboration with the Greater Miami authorities and various other organizations in the area.

THE SPECIFIC AREAS IN WHICH WE PLAN TO WORK

There are many jobs to be done this summer in Miami. There are also many organizations, public and private, providing a wide variety of services and functions essential for a peaceful summer. The area, then, in which we feel we can offer the best resources is in provision of trained outreach workers who would serve a crisis prevention function in the streets of Miami.

These teams would serve such functions as:

1) Accurate information distribution to increase productive communication, and at the same time, decrease rumor systems.

2) Mediation in crisis prevention by playing a vital third-party role.

3) Emergency assistance through cooperation with other referral units to best utilize the life support systems set up for the young people.

WHAT, SPECIFICALLY, WE PLAN TO DO

We plan to bring to Miami the top one-hundred outreach workers from all parts of the country. Each has been well-trained in the YMCA's National Center for Youth Outreach Workers. These outreach workers would then be matched with one hundred workers from Miami itself -- those who know their city. Teamed in twos, they would be in the streets on a 24-hour basis, performing the third-party role in crisis prevention.

It is understood that to be effective in this work, it is necessary to have communications with all groups concerned, and to maintain the third-party objective role. To this end, it is emphasized that the workers will be neutral within their functions and advocates of no particular political cause.

The teams, then, would work with the many youthful outsiders in the Miami community. They would affect rumor control by being the communication system in the streets with "the facts", they would play the mediation role in responding to crisis situations in so far as possible, while never interfering with the work of the local authorities. The referral role would involve cooperation with all groups offering services, so that we might see that those who needed the service, knew where and what was offered to them.

HOW WE PLAN TO ACCOMPLISH THIS TASK

We are developing an intensive screening process for selection of the team members in order to assure the operation of the outreach workers in the third-party role.

Also, we will have an effective training program conducted by the National Center for Youth Outreach Workers (YMCA project funded by federal government). Included in the training would be information for cooperation with local resources, i.e. governmental units, law enforcement systems and community service associations.

Thirdly, the actual work in the streets would involve a central control center with which the teams would have continual contact. In the control area, experts in each area of concern would be available. For example, should a team encounter a drug problem and call the control desk, the drug expert would provide the information needed as to immediate action and also other available resources in that area.

The rumor control aspect might work thusly: a team reports that a rumor is rampant that the police have blocked off a beach and that 10,000 young people could not sleep there as planned. Rumor control would check with the police authorities and relay the factual information; i.e. if such data were true, this would be confirmed to the street with additional information as to options for the young people.

The "third-party mediator" role would mean working at the job of gaining credibility among the concerned parties. The teams would have specific instructions to "stay out of trouble", to operate from a posture of crisis prevention and not one of interference in local processes.

Our commitment is to serve. To this end we will dedicate our operation. To help people -- young and old, those within the system and those without, is our goal. Our concern is people -- helping them erase differences with factual information in an environment of concern for one another.

WORKERS ACTION MOVEMENT (WAM)

On February 19 - 20, 1972, the Progressive Labor Party (PL) sponsored a conference in Detroit, Michigan, around the theme "30 hours work for 40 hours pay". During the conference, a national organization, WAM, was formed to further PLP effort to build a base in the working class. WAM maintains a national headquarters in New York City, New York.

The PLP was founded in 1962 by individuals expelled from the Communist Party, USA (CPUSA) for following the Chinese communist line. Its objective is the establishment of a militant working-class movement based on Marxism-Leninism and MAO Tse-tung thought.

On May 31, 1972, a first reliable source advised that on May 8, 1972, [redacted] representing WAM made arrangements to rent the music room at the YMCA Hotel, 826 South Wabash Street, Chicago on June 3 - 4, 1972. Frost advised that approximately 30 people would meet in the room on each day.

On June 3 and 4, 1972, a meeting of the International Steering Committee (ISC) of WAM was held at Young Men's Christian Association (YMCA), Chicago, Illinois. The meeting was called to discuss the progress of the "30 hours work for 40 hours pay" campaign, the extent of WAM inroads into established labor unions, WAM finances, WAM organizational proposals and to plan WAM demonstration activities for the forthcoming Democratic and Republican National Conventions in Miami, Florida.

The meeting began with the presentation of reports from the various WAM chapters. All chapters shared the same problems, e.g., slow membership growth, slow acceptance by the labor unions and inability to raise sufficient funds.

The Buffalo and Cleveland chapters have been directing their actions toward the auto industries; the Cleveland chapter has achieved more success to date.

The San Francisco chapter is sponsoring a boycott of all Coca-Cola products.

The Washington, D.C. chapter has been making some inroads with the labor unions through the teamsters (concrete haulers) and a paving union.

The Montreal chapter has been sponsoring a boycott of A and P food stores there.

The Toronto chapter has been picketing the local Mutual of Omaha Insurance Company office to protest the Guisseppe Sgotto case and would like the other chapters to take the issue to their local Mutual of Omaha Insurance Company offices.

WAM plans for demonstrations at the 1972 Republican and Democratic National Conventions in Miami, Florida, were then discussed. It was decided to focus exclusively on the Democratic National Convention. It was decided that WAM would be in Miami on July 8 and 9, 1972, which is the weekend prior to the Convention. It was decided to picket at the hotels where the delegates will be staying. Plans were made to picket only, no discussion was held regarding any civil disobedience or disruptions. It was decided to leave the final decision to travel to Miami to the local WAM chapters, however, pledges as to the number of persons each chapter could send to Miami were made as follows:

Atlanta	18
Boston	5
Chicago	5
Houston	5
New York	15
Washington, D.C.	3

The Washington, D.C. chapter is to coordinate this action. On the return trip, the group will travel to Atlanta for a demonstration action, the date and nature of which was unspecified.

The Los Angeles, San Francisco and Seattle chapters will hold reactionary demonstrations at their respective Democratic Party Headquarters in the event a confrontation occurs between the Miami Police and the WAM demonstrators.

A third source, who has furnished reliable information, furnished the following on June 6, 1972:

Regarding the WAM plans for the Democratic National Convention, it was decided that each chapter would make final plans regarding their participation at the next chapter meeting and report to New York Headquarters by July 1, 1972.

The attendees decided to support the Montreal chapter's struggle against the A and P stores. This action was initiated by the Montreal chapter as a result of a baker's strike at A and P.

The meetings were marked by ill feelings between PLP and WAM attendees. The PLP was criticized for taking too big a part in the WAM organization. The PLP attendees were well prepared for the meeting and had obviously decided upon a course of action. The PLP always voted as a block. One attendee was heard to say in private that she wanted to get PLP out of WAM, but that it would be impossible. [redacted] of Chicago and George Wakefield were overheard making anti-communist statements.

[redacted] WAM ISC member from Chicago was the chairman of the meeting. Judge Stephenson, ISC member from Chicago, only attended about two hours of the two day event. b6 b7C

On the evening of June 3, 1972, a WAM fund raising dance was held at the Robert's Penthouse, 6635 South Martin Luther King, Jr. Drive. 50 to 100 individuals mostly from Chicago PLP attended the event. Bill Smith, a Detroit representative at the ISC meetings was arrested at the dance by Chicago Police for possession of marijuana. Smith was reportedly already on probation. The incident became a sore spot between PLP and WAM attendees as the PLP people were very mad about Smith coming to the dance with marijuana while many WAM people took the stand that whatever Smith did on his own was his business.

A fourth source, who has furnished reliable information, furnished the following on June 6, 1972:

A discussion occurred relative to financial matters and during this discussion, it was noted that the operating costs of the national office of WAM, New York, New York, was running approximately $2,000. Rental of office space alone was $200. Other costs for telephone, material, etc., were running very high. None of the WAM groups around the country were sending in the pledges to the national office.

In view of the foregoing, an assessment was made of the financial situation, and each WAM group was called upon to make a monthly pledge. Pledges made by representatives present at this meeting for their local groups were as follows:

Seattle, Washington - $20; Minneapolis - $100; Cleveland - $35; Los Angeles - $100; Montreal - $75; Boston - $200; Washington, D.C. - $100; Toronto, Canada - $150; Atlanta - $75; Houston - $55; San Francisco - $150; Detroit - $150; Chicago - $150; New York - $500.

The above pledges were to be made on a monthly basis.

It was also announced at the meeting that the WAM newsletter and the new membership cards would be available for issuance within the next two weeks.

VIETNAM VETERANS
AGAINST THE WAR (VVAW)

Source one advised on June 27, 1972, that Vietnam Veterans Against the War (VVAW) members, particularly Scott Camil, Southeast Regional Organizer who resides at Gainesville, Florida, have encouraged members of the organization to arm themselves for "defensive purposes" with "wrist rocket" slingshots. Camil has indicated he has access to as many as 3,000 of these slingshots and will make them available to VVAW members at $3.00 apiece.

VVAW is an anti-war organization organized in 1967 and headquartered in New York City. Its published objective is to "demand an immediate cessation of fighting and the withdrawal of American troops from Indochina".

On June 27, 1972, source two advised that their records reflect no large or unusual shipments of Wham-O produced "wrist rockets" to their Florida distributors. He further advised Wham-O makes no sales to individuals and they have received no report of non-receipt to Florida distributors or inventory losses.

WORKERS ACTION MOVEMENT (WAM)

At a conference sponsored by the Progressive Labor Party (PLP) in Detroit, Michigan, on February 19, 1972 - February 21, 1972, WAM was established as a national organization headquartered in New York, New York, to continue the PLP's efforts to organize workers in the struggle for workers' rights, centering around the campaign for "30 hours work for 40 hours pay".

The PLP was founded in 1962 by individuals expelled from the Communist Party, USA, for following the Chinese communist line. Its objective is the establishment of a militant working-class movement based on Marxism - Leninism and Mao Tse-tung thought.

On June 29, 1972, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished the following information:

A representative from WAM headquarters in New York, New York, [redacted] possibly a PLP member, has been sent to Miami to coordinate WAM activities directed at the Democratic National Convention. She will maintain a WAM office there at [redacted] She will reside while there at [redacted]

Due to the anticipated small number of WAM representatives expected to travel to Miami, WAM at this time does not plan to sponsor any demonstration activity in Miami, but rather WAM representatives will associate themselves with other groups and organizations there and attempt to "educate" them in the WAM ideology.

The informant is in an excellent position to assist the Bureau in coverage of the various demonstrations and participation of radicals from throughout the country in events surrounding the Democratic National Convention in Miami, 7/10-14/72. He has a history of experience with known radicals from the New York City area since 1968, particularly at Columbia University and including those involved with SDS, Weatherman, PLP, and more recently with such groups as the Attica Brigade and the Columbia Anti-Imperialist Movement. The informant has traveled frequently to other cities, providing coverage of demonstrations, anti-war conferences, and NPAC Steering Committee meetings.

The informant would in Miami represent the Columbia Anti-Imperialist Movement and as a writer would work along with the Unicorn News Collective of Washington, D.C., which is expected, according to the informant, to play a significant role in the non-establishment media coverage of the convention. Reference is made to New York airtel and LHM, dated 6/22/72, captioned, "PARTICIPATION OF UNICORN NEWS COLLECTIVE FROM WASHINGTON, D.C., IN THE DEMOCRATIC AND REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTIONS AT MIAMI BEACH, JULY - AUGUST, 1972; MIDEM; MIREP - UNDERGROUND PRESS."

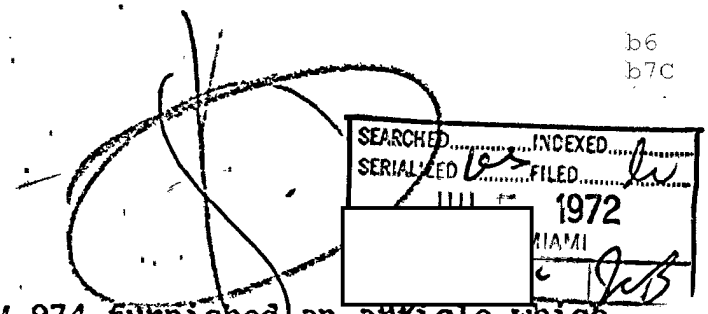
SUBJECT: MIDEM



On June 26, 1972, MM 974 furnished an article which appeared in "America Libre," Miami, Florida, issue of June 23, 1972, page 1. A summary translation, by Miami Translator Eleanore M. Schoenberger, is set forth below:

RIVALRY BETWEEN GIBERGA AND BUTTARI

"BUTTARI CANNOT ENGAGE IN POLITICS IN THE U.S." Says Dr. MANUEL GIBERGA TO WASHINGTON Newsmen

The newspaper "Mirador," published in New York, on June 18, page 3, in the column of EDUARDO ESPINOSA, carried the following:

"New crisis shakes up the Latins in the Republican Party. Mr. MANUEL GIBERGA is opposing the machine of EDGARDO BUTTARI - GIBERGA-BUTTARI Fight" Until recently, Mr. GIBERGA held a position of great importance in the Cabinet of President Nixon, dealing with Latins."

GIBERGA has been very antagonistic towards BUTTARI, to the point where he not only resigned, but even gave up most of his influence in the Party. BUTTARI was victorious, by using all his influence against GIBERGA. We must not forget that BUTTARI is one of the men trusted by BEBE REBOZO in Florida.

80-1353-1336

When MANOLO GIBERGA was located in Washington, he gave the following answers to questions by newsmen: [redacted] b7D

"I have not resigned, nor do I have any reason to do so. Concerning my opposing the machinery of Mr. BUTTARI, that is impossible, since he cannot have a political machine because he heads the federal government for Cuban refugees. Therefore, Mr. BUTTARI, under the laws of this country, cannot be involved in politics."

Concerning the report that BUTTARI has liquidated GIBERGA by using his influence with REBOZO, MANOLO GIBERGA stated: "I have great respect and consideration for Mr. BEBE REBOZO, and I am certain that he, being so interested in the reelection of President Nixon, would never lend himself to a maneuver meant to liquidate a Cuban who holds the highest position in Republican Party circles under President Nixon, and who, for over a year and a half, not only received no salary, but also contributed generously to the funds of the Republican Party."

"Just a short time ago," said GIBERGA, "I received the highest distinction given by the Republican Party - the Eisenhower medal - presented at the meeting in Chicago. This was given to me for my services to the Party and my Cuban compatriots."

"The only discrepancy which might exist, in my judgment, is that I fight for the liberation of Cuba before anything else. I do not know if the others are silent because they are moulting, like canaries."

On June 28, 1972, a press release was worked up by [redacted] (LNU) and [redacted] (LNU), all associated with the Miami Convention Coalition (MCC). In the press release, the MCC announces that henceforth they will have nothing further to do with the Zippies because of the action of Zippie leader [redacted] who threw a pie at a Miami Beach City Councilman during a council meeting several days ago. This press release is to be signed by the VVAW, the Gay Activists, Womens Liberation and the Yippies in addition to MCC. b6 b7C

[redacted] said on 6/28/72, that there are three people traveling in the northeastern part of the U.S., actively engaged in collecting funds for the PCPJ and the MCC. They are [redacted] The MCC people residing at [redacted] attempted to call [redacted] at [redacted] Washington, D.C., residence on June 27, 1972, but were not successful.

One of the main projects of the MCC for the Democratic National Convention is a cultural show called Expo 72. It is an exhibition of international arts and crafts, including Chinese and Cuban works of art. Little has been done on this so far because of inner conflict in the MCC, but they are now ready to start developing the exhibition. [redacted] is in charge of Expo 72 and others working on the project are [redacted] [redacted] (LNU), from New Orleans, [redacted] (LNU) and two Cubans known as [redacted] (LNU) and [redacted] (LNU). [redacted] will assist with this project when she arrives in Miami, which is expected to be about July 2 or July 3, 1972. [redacted] and [redacted] are working on the Cuban aspect of Expo 72 while the Chinese part of the exhibition will be developed by [redacted] and [redacted] both of whom appear to be very knowledgeable concerning the cultural development of the Chinese Communists.

A meeting was scheduled for the afternoon of June 28, 1972, but was cancelled because some of those involved had to go to a meeting with representatives of the National Welfare Rights Organization.

Some MCC members are working on arrangements for day care facilities for the children of non-delegates. The leader of this activity is [redacted] who is from [redacted] [redacted] where she is involved in the Womens Liberation Movement. She has been working with (FNU) [redacted] who apparently is employed by the Democratic Party as [redacted]. He acts as liaison between the Democrats and the MCC. [redacted] stated she believes that the non-delegates will be able to use a room in Miami Beach High School as a day care center because this room was given to the Democrats for their use for a similar purpose.

b7C

[redacted] has promised the MCC that he will arrange for MCC members to have personal contacts with some of the delegates to the Democratic National Convention. He has indicated that these contacts will take place in a large room in a Miami Beach Hotel. This room reportedly will seat over 200 people.

RE: COMMUNIST PARTY, USA, (CPUSA)
INTERNAL SECURITY - COMMUNIST

DEMONSTRATIONS AT THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION
JULY, 1972

On June 27, 1972, a source advised that the Miami Communist Party (CP) has not formulated any unilateral plans or initiated any action towards joint participation in activities of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), National Welfare Rights Organization (NWRO), Vietnam Veterans Against the War (VVAW) and the Peoples Coalition for Peace and Justice (PCPJ), either prior to or during the Democratic National Convention at Miami Beach, Florida.

Although widespread CP support of the activity of the above organizations was recently urged by Daniel Rubin, any such support by the Miami CP will be on an individual basis rather than organized as a Party project as far as is known at this time.

The SCLC is a civil rights organization founded by the late Reverend Martin Luther King with headquarters at Atlanta, Georgia.

The NWRO is a nation wide organization of welfare recipients formed to seek increased Government support.

The VVAW is a national veterans organization with headquarters at New York, New York, whose announced primary objective is the immediate cessation of fighting and withdrawal of all U.S. Forces from Southeast Asia.

RE: COMMUNIST PARTY, USA

The PCPJ has described itself as consisting of over 100 organizations which is using massive civil disobedience to combat racism, poverty, repressions and war.

Daniel Rubin is National Organization Secretary of the CP, USA.

According to the source, [redacted] b7D

The MCC was formed at a national meeting in Washington, D.C. on May 20, 1972, as a coalition of groups planning protest activities at the Democratic and Republican National Conventions.

By MIKE ROYKO of The Chicago Daily News

THE Democratic Party's reformers really have Mayor Richard J. Daley of Chicago in a corner now. They are closing in for the kill. And when they get done with him, they won't know what in the hell hit them.

Royko

George S. McGovern, who wrote the party's reform rules, which are now being used to try to give Daley's delegates the boot, is wringing his hands and wondering how to get around the n.

His chief aide, Frank Mankiewicz, is murmuring: "Compromise, compromise."

But Daley doesn't have to budge an inch. He doesn't have to compromise on anything. They've chased him so hotly that now he has them.

YOU SEE, Daley knows something that many of the party reformers seem to have forgotten: all they will do in Miami Beach next month is choose a candidate.

They can throw Daley's machine delegates out, and the candidate will be McGovern. Or they can seat Daley's people and the candidate will probably still be McGovern.

If they throw Daley out, Negro leader Jesse Jackson will be happy, and Chicago alderman Bill Singer, actress Shirley MacLaine, and Abbie Hoffman, and all the clear-eyed college kids, and the people who are still nursing their hurt feelings from 1968 in Chicago.

They will have shown him that they, not an old-time big city boss, are now running the Democratic Party. They, of the lofty motives and the purity of purpose.

'. . . when they get done with him, they won't know what in the hell hit them.'

They will have won!

But what will they have won?

The real victory will come, if it comes at all, next November. That is when we elect a President.

IN ORDER to be elected President, you have to carry Illinois. That's not an absolute rule. But for the present, let's say it is about 99 per cent absolute.

For a Democrat to carry Illinois, he has to carry Chicago and Cook County. Not by a narrow margin, but very big.

Now, when you talk about piling up Democratic votes in Chicago and Cook County, whose name comes to mind? Shirley MacLaine? Jesse Jackson? George McGovern?

Ho. Ho. That's rich.

Even though the machine isn't what it used to be, even though it is in its twilight years, there is no way McGovern can have a prayer against President Nixon without a strong effort by Daley.

So for that reason alone, Daley knows that the Democratic Convention would be committing a delayed suicide if it humiliated him by throwing him out.

And he knows there are even other reasons why they can't do it.

THE Democrats who really despise Daley are going to vote for McGovern regardless of how the credentials flap turns out.

But the voters McGovern needs if he is to win — the working man vote, the ethnics, and all those who applauded Daley's police in 1968—aren't going to like Daley getting the boot. They'll think Abbie Hoffman has seized the rostrum.

The rest of the country's Democratic professional politicians won't like it either. They'll figure that if McGovern did it to Daley, he'll do it to them next.

Daley really doesn't need McGovern's election. For that matter, he doesn't need the election of Illinois gubernatorial candidate Dan Walker and most of the state-level candidates.

He would much prefer to concentrate his troops on retaining his county offices, which are the backbone of the machine.

But he'll work for McGovern out of his politician's pride. He does love to puff out his chest after an election and show how he brought in the vote for his party's leader. He likes those phone calls of gratitude from occupants of the White House. However, he and his doorbell pushers won't bother if the convention tries to strip Daley of his politician's pride.

If they mess around with Daley too much, McGovern had better start writing something besides the acceptance speech for his nomination. He might as well start writing that telegram of concession to President Nixon right now.

First Venture Onto Street Peaceably Protests War

By ROB ELDER
Herald Staff Writer

Seventy-six young marchers, six bike riders, 16 senior citizens, a gray poodle and the mayor of Miami Beach staged the first anti-war demonstration of the convention summer Thursday.

It was peaceful. The only casualty of the 50-minute march from Convention Hall to Par Three golf course was a Yippie "Vietnamese peasant woman," symbolically shot dead by a cap gun in the hands of a guerrilla theater "soldier" at 17th Street and Meridian Avenue.

At a 15-minute rally after the march, a group of gray-haired residents presented the young demonstrators with a pink cardboard key to the city and Mayor Chuck

Hall told the assemblage:

"If this is the trouble people are expecting, there isn't any trouble."

In other actions relating to convention demonstrations:

● The American Civil Liberties Union filed suit challenging the constitutionality of the Beach's two-week old parade permits law, used for the first time to grant permission for Thursday's march. A hearing was scheduled for 4 p.m. Monday before U.S. District Judge C. Clyde Atkins.

● Gov. Reubin Askew's citizens task force on convention planning asked County Manager Ray Goode to determine whether Army Corps of Engineers property on South Beach is available for a demonstrator campsite.

Beach Councilman Leonard Haber, a member of the committee, predicted the City Council will not reverse its June 23 vote against campsites within the city. Haber and Mayor Hall cast the only votes in favor of on-Beach campsites, with the five other councilmen opposed.

● Jerry Rubin, a spokesman for the Youth International Party, which sponsored Thursday's march, said the group plans to sleep Monday night on Par Three golf course despite the city council's ban on Beach campsites.

"It'll all be peaceful and happy . . . the answer is just to go and do it," said Rubin, who marched in scarlet swim trunks.

Arriving at Convention Hall in his white Rolls Royce convertible, top down, Mayor Hall removed coat and tie and marched beside Rubin for the first 20 minutes.

MEETING THE marchers later as they rallied on the golf course, Hall praised the non-violent tone of the demonstration. "I'm proud of you. Keep the peace and you're welcome in Miami Beach," he said.

But the mayor cautioned against defiance of the council on campsites: "I've been trying to get it (the golf course) for you. The best way to do it is by law."

Despite 84-degree heat, two senior citizens joined the first leg of the march past Convention Hall.

Plodding down the middle of Washington Avenue, Bertha Bradburd, 63, explained, "We want to change the government." Beside her walked Pearl Malkin, who gave her age as "past 65" and declared, "We wanna down Nixon."

ANOTHER GROUP of oldsters met the marchers at the golf course.

One of these, Rachael Stone, told the young demonstrators, "It isn't enough to be young and enthusiastic about change. We have to be united."

Dave Taub, hardly a senior citizen at 48 but nonetheless president of the American Federation of Senior Citizens Miami Beach chapter, which claims 585 paid-up members, urged old people to "participate in the marches because we are all against the war."

As the march began, Police Major Calvin Shuler approached Hall and Rubin to ask about the route, which had been spelled out in the permit.

"Where you want to go?" Hall asked Rubin.

"UP THERE and back here," the Yippie replied.

"Okay, let's go," said the mayor.

With six white police motocycles clearing traffic and an Army helicopter clattering briefly overhead, Washington Avenue, then 17th Street, then Meridian Avenue became stages for guerrilla theater.

"Free Martha Mitchell," chanted the Yippies, one of them costumed as the wife of the president's campaign manager and former Attorney General John Mitchell.

When the marchers began chanting, "One, two, three, four, we don't want the ——ing war," Mayor Hall asked them to "use some other word." After they ignored the request, the mayor dropped out.

NO ONE, however, objected to another chant which sounded as the sun bore down and throats parched: "Water! We want water!"

Other Yippies held a mock meeting of the city council. As a hoard of TV cameras and microphones pressed in, the "councilmen" made their official statement.

"Blah, blah, blah," they said.

A middle-aged tourist couple, Mr. and Mrs. Syd Charney of Long Island, watched from an electric cart on the golf course.

"I think they should give them the golf course," said Mrs. Charney.

THE GRAY poodle rode in the arms of a young woman marcher who also carried a peace poster. "He's against the war too," she said of the dog.

Another marcher wore a brown bikini, and still another carried the YIP flag — a black banner bearing a red star emblazoned with green marijuana leaf.

As the Yippies and fellow travelers marched, other protest groups revealed their plans for the Democratic convention.

The National Coalition of Gay Organizations announced an all-night vigil at Convention Hall July 10, a march and "kiss-in" July 11, and a "drag and bizarre fashion show" July 12.

"WE HAVE REQUESTED permits for everything and have assurances they'll be granted," spokesman Chuck Lamont said.

The Zippies, a group of self-described "militant pranksters," said they have cancelled plans for "Che Day," a previously proposed demonstration to honor the late Latin American revolutionary leader, Che Guevara. Those plans had brought sharp protest and threats of counter-demonstrations from Miami's strongly anti-Communist Cuban exile community.

Instead, the Zippies announced, they'll honor former president Lyndon Johnson, proclaiming July 12 "LBJ Day."

At a press conference on the front sidewalk of the Fontainebleau Hotel, the Zippies also retracted a claim they have seeded Bay Shore golf course with marijuana plants.

"WE WERE JUST putting you on," said a spokesman. "Everything a Zipple says can't be taken seriously."

Not demonstrators, but demonstration observers were the concern of a meeting of the Dade County Alliance for Safer Cities. The meeting was told that the Metro Community Relations Board, the American Civil Liberties Union and the YMCA all will have observers on Miami Beach.

In a meeting at the Dupont Plaza Hotel late Thursday afternoon, Haber told members of the governor's task force on convention planning that he sees no likelihood that the five Beach councilmen who voted against a non-delegate campsite at Bayshore Golf Course will change their mins.

Hall Spaet, a member of the task force, said he has heard rumors that the councilmen would switch and grant the campsite at the last minute. But Haber said "none of my colleagues have mentioned it to me."

He added that "public opinion on the Beach is running 50 to one against granting the campsite" and said the other councilmen are very aware of this.

Haber said the 15-acre Corps of Engineers property, just south of the Beach Kennel Club, would be a good location because it is relatively close to the Convention Hall but not in the middle of a residential area. Goode promised to check on the availability of the site immediately.

Task Force Chairman Earlie Seiler said he would probably call another meeting of the group sometime next week when the situation warrants.

Military's Tent City Grows With Space for 4,392 Men

Work continued Thursday on a tent city at Homestead Air Force Base which will be used to house federal troops to be sent here for duty during the Democratic and Republican nominating conventions on Miami Beach.

C Company, 575th Engineering Battalion (Construction) planned to work through today erecting 244 field tents which can house up to 18 men each — a possible total of 4,392 troops.

Although the Department of Defense has not specified what units will be sent to Homestead, the engineer company has erected a sign welcoming the Army's 82nd Airborne Division to the facility.

The 82nd Airborne, along with a Marine unit, had been mentioned by Pentagon spokesmen as units that might be available for assignment here.

The tent city is being built adjacent to the air base's flight line and a helicopter landing pad, leading to speculation by some of the men at the site that the division would be flown in, and would have helicopter transport available for quick transport to Miami Beach, if that should prove necessary.

Construction began Monday.

A number of armored personnel carriers were lined up in the tent city being erected near the airstrip at which the presidential jet, Air Force One, customarily lands when President Nixon visits Florida.

Demo Women Discouraged on Representation

By VERA GLASER
Herald Washington Bureau

WASHINGTON — Women are learning presidential politics the hard way.

As of Tuesday afternoon, efforts to seat more women on three state delegations to the Democratic Convention had been slapped down by the Credentials Committee.

ABZUG

Women activists, their spirits low, were caucusing to rethink their strategy and planning to take at least one challenge to the convention floor.

They'll fight to seat 16 women on the 32-member South Carolina delegation. At present, the delegation has eight women.

"WE'RE IN a political crunch," said Rep. Bella Abzug (D., N.Y.). "The Credentials Committee isn't being used to implement the reform guidelines (calling for every effort to get a 50-50 representation of men and women).

"It's being used as a battlefield for candidates to fight each other for delegates."

Spirits were low on the National Women's Political Caucus, which has involved itself in 17 challenges, to be taken up state-by-state in the Credentials Committee.

When the committee rejected challenges to the South Carolina, Florida, and Georgia delegations in which the Caucus was involved, many took it as a bad omen for women's participation.

The Florida Women's Political Caucus abandoned plans for a floor fight over Florida's delegation.

counsel for the Credentials Committee, said, "I'm absolutely astonished. For all their organization in the past few years, the women have shown incredible weakness here."

HE SAID challenges to be taken up on the floor included Alabama (2 per cent women) and Georgia (32 per cent).

Women's Caucus leaders angrily accused Sens. George McGovern, Humbert Humphrey and Edmund Muskie of "lack of good faith" and double dealing."

Caucus leaders wired the three to "use your leadership to make the reforms a reality for women and other under-represented groups."

In the McGovern camp, campaign manager Gary Hart said, "we can't deliver blocks of delegates. We have made every effort. Obviously you can't make the same effort on every challenge."

Frank Mankiewicz, another McGovern representative, predicted, "The women will be satisfied. I'm sure some challenges coming up will be supported."

But he didn't know which ones.

THE CAUCUS will moni-for other challenges involving Connecticut, Arizona, Hawaii, Illinois, Maryland, Michigan, Missouri, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Texas and Virginia.

Credentials Committee chairman Mrs. Patricia Roberts Harris was annoyed when informed that the women had criticized the committee's behavior.

"That's their problem," she snapped. "I don't control the committee. That's part of life. They got a fair hearing here and an opportunity to put their case."

Daley's 59-Delegate Bloc Files a Counter-Challenge

By Herald Wire Services

CHICAGO — Mayor Richard J. Daley's 59 Chicago delegates to the Democratic National Convention filed a counter-challenge with the convention's Credentials Committee Thursday against the 59 persons trying to unseat them.

Daley's forces also obtained a temporary restraining order from a circuit court judge in Chicago barring further action by the original challengers, led by Alderman William Singer. The order will be in effect until July 5.

The two moves came on the eve of a crucial decision on who will fill the 59 Chicago delegate seats. The Credentials Committee was scheduled to decide the question today.

The question of who will get the 59 seats may be decided on the convention floor, since a vote of 10 per cent of the 150-member credentials committee in favor of Singer would throw the question to the full convention.

Mayor Daley ... restraining order

Singer, one of 10 political activists who filed the challenge against Daley, contends that the mayor's organization held closed meetings to choose delegates (a violation of party rules), resulting in too few women, blacks and young persons being elected.

Daley, and the 58 other Chicago delegates, said that since they were elected in the March 21 primary (in which 900,000 persons voted) to throw them out of the convention would be "an outrage."

Lawyers for Alderman Paul Wigoda, one of the challenged delegates and a close aide to Daley, obtained the Chicago Circuit Court ruling after the Seventh U.S Circuit Court of Appeals overturned a lower-court ruling preventing Wigoda from seeking the restraining order.

A three-judge panel of the federal appeals court reversed the injunction issued two weeks ago by Judge Frank J. McGarr of U.S. District Court.

Mayor Daley said, "Everybody knew the McGarr decision wouldn't stand up."

Beach council has final say on emergency

By ED TAYLOR
Miami News Reporter

Any decision by Miami Beach Police Chief Rocky Pomerance to declare a state of emergency under powers granted him by the city council is subject to immediate review by the council.

The powers were given Pomerance yesterday in two ordinances passed by the council at the chief's request.

One of the ordinances allows Pomerance to declare a state of emergency in Miami Beach and to establish a curfew if he feels there is "danger of a riot or other general public disorder."

The other ordinance gives him the power to set up police lines and cordon off sections of the city to preserve order or prevent the spread of disorder.

But if the council found that a state of emergency did not exist, they could overrule the police chief.

If approved by the council, the state of emergency and curfew would stay in effect for 72 hours and then would be reviewed again.

Pomerance had requested both ordinances in order to be prepared for possible trouble during this summer's political conventions.

The council's approval of the ordinances was unanimous and followed nearly five hours of discussion. Several members of the audience, most of whom spoke in favor of the ordinances, took part.

The council did not act on eight other ordinances that were on the agenda. The eight, making illegal such activities as inciting to riot, swearing in public and singing obscene songs, were referred to City Manager Clifford O'Key for further study.

Beach attorney Ellis Rubin, representing a group opposed to Miami Beach campsites for non-delegates during the conventions, asked the council to consider two other ordinances.

One would set specific hours for the use of city parks and the other would prohibit display of the Viet Cong and North Vietnamese flags in the Beach.

The council instructed City Attorney Joseph Wanick to study the ordinances and report back Wednesday, at the next meeting.

In other convention-related ed, business, the council approved a 2.5 per cent pay raise for all city employes except police officers and firemen.

At its last meeting the council approved a 7.5 per cent raise for the police and a 5 per cent hike for the firemen on grounds that both groups would be risking their lives during the conventions.

The other city employes said they also are working for the conventions and should be included in any pay raises.

O'Key said yesterday's raise, retroactive to May 1, will cost the city $113,000. The raises for policemen and firemen will cost $129,000, he said.

The council also approved a $30,000 settlement with the Florida Furniture Mart which has a contract to use the Beach Convention Center Aug. 9-15 between the Democratic and Republican conventions.

During that time, much of the hall will be filled with news media equipment and the Mart's representatives have said the remaining space is insufficient for their show. They had requested $40,000 in damages for loss of the hall, but Wanick said yesterday they had settled for the city's offer of $30,000.

Wanick added that the city is charging the news media $30,000 to store their equipment in the hall between conventions.

Another convention cost surfaced when O'Key announced that the Secret Service has requested the construction of a fence in front of the Convention Center's doors. O'Key said the $36,000 fence is needed to guarantee the safety of the candidates.

He said the federal government would contribute to the fence's cost and the city's share would not be more than $18,000.

VIETNAM VETERANS AGAINST THE WAR (VVAW)

Reference is made to memorandum dated June 22, 1972, at Jacksonville, Florida, captioned "Vietnam Veterans Against the War (VVAW)".

VVAW is an anti-war organization organized in 1967 and headquartered in New York City. Its published objective is "to demand an immediate cessation of fighting and the withdrawal of all American troops from Indochina". VVAW has participated in several demonstrations, including massive demonstration in Washington, D. C., April 19-23, 1971.

It is noted referenced memorandum contained information that [redacted] of the VVAW at Gainesville, Florida, and Southeastern Regional Coordinator of VVAW, had purchased "wrist rocket" slingshots and claimed that the slingshots were to be the basic weapon during the demonstrations of the forthcoming political conventions to be held at Miami, Florida. It is also noted that Camil claims to be in a position to order these "wrist rocket" slingshots in lots of 100 and that he will obtain from 500 to 1000 of these slingshorts to distribute to demonstrators at the national political conventions in Miami Beach, Florida.

On June 21, 1972, [redacted] b6 b7C Saunders Archery Company, Box 476 Industrial Site, Columbus, Nebraska, advised that Saunders Archery Company is primarily engaged in the manufacturing of archery products but also makes three models of a "wrist rocket" slingshot. He remarked his company's sales in the Southeastern portion of the United States are small. Very few dealers buy directly from Saunders Archery Company in the Southeast, as most buy through jobbers. Saunders Archery Company products are only retailed through established sporting goods stores, sporting goods departments in departmental stores, or through archery pro shops. Saunders added that direct orders from retail outlets for the wrist rocket usually do not exceed one dozen.

[redacted] identified the three Southeastern jobbers as Peeler Hardware Company, Macon, Georgia; Walthour and Hood Company, 206-260 Rogers Street, Northeast, Atlanta, Georgia; and Halifax Sporting Goods, Post Office Box 7-Beck-Lindsey, Daytona Beach, Florida. b6 b7C

Peeler Hardware Company is the only Southeastern jobber to whom Saunders Archery Company has sold to since January, 1972, and they have only purchased archery equipment.

The only Woolco Department Store Saunders Archery Company has sold to in the Southeast is one located at Sunshine Shopping Center, 2649 Northwest 13th Street, Gainesville, Florida. On October 4, 1971, this store ordered twenty-four wrist rockets and on January 18, 1972, they ordered an additional ninety-six.

Other stores in the area handling Saunders Archery Company products are Jimmie Hughes, Incorporated, 1113 West University Avenue, Gainesville, Florida, and Zip Sporting Goods, Incorporated, 7230 Red Road, South Miami, Florida. Neither of these stores has purchased wrist rockets this year. b6 b7C

[redacted] added it would take about three weeks to deliver an order of 500 to 1000 wrist rockets. While this number would not be out of line for a jobber to order, it would be highly unusual for a retail outlet to order that many.

[redacted] stated he would alert the FBI to any sizable order received during the coming weeks. He said he was willing, if desired by the FBI, to request his dealers in the Southeast not to sell any wrist rockets until after the National conventions are over in Miami, Florida. b6 b7C

On June 22, 1972, [redacted] Sporting Goods Department, Woolco Department Store, Sunshine Shopping Center, 2649 Northwest 13th Street, Gainesville, Florida, advised he currently does not have in stock any "wrist rocket" slingshots which are manufactured by the Saunders Archery Company, Columbus, Nebraska. He currently has in stock approximately sixty "Allison shot shooters" slingshots which is similar to the "wrist rocket" slingshot but has a wooden handle and does not have a metal base for the wrist such as the wrist rocket has. He advised that the Allison shot shooter is not as good of value as the wrist rocket slingshot.

[redacted] advised that during the student anti-war disturbance in Gainesville from May 9-11, 1972, he had approximately four dozen wrist rocket slingshots displayed for sale but removed them from the display counter with instructions for them not to be sold during the anti-war disturbance. He advised that after the disturbance was over, he sold out of the wrist rocket slingshots within about a three or four week period. He stated during this period he had no unusual large orders for this slingshot and very seldom sold more than two at a time. b6 b7C

[redacted] advised he will probably be ordering approximately 48 dozen of the wrist rocket slingshots within a week because these slingshots are a popular item particularly during hunting season.

[redacted] advised that no one has contacted him personally requesting him to fulfill a personal specific order for the wrist rocket slingshot. He advised he has alerted his salesmen to such a request as well as to any significant large sales of these slingshots and has requested the salesmen to try to obtain the name of the person buying the slingshots or to obtain a license number if possible of vehicle person may be traveling in.

[redacted] advised that the wrist rocket slingshot has every bit of power of a thirty pound bow in shooting an arrow and would have the same effectiveness. He advised that this slingshot will sling a marble or a ball bearing 200 yards and would be very accurate at this distance with sufficient practice. He advised that with sufficient practice, someone could become extremely accurate at 30 to 40 yards and he bases this comment upon his own practice with this type of slingshot.

On June 22, 1972, [redacted] Assistant State Attorney, Gainesville, Florida, advised that Scott Camil is scheduled for trial on June 14, 1972, before Circuit Judge John Crews, Gainesville, Florida, on one count of delivery of marijuana and one count of possession of marijuana and that Camil's kidnaping charge for which he was arrested on January 23, 1972, is also scheduled for trial on the same date; however, he does not expect the kidnaping trial to get underway until a few days after the drug charges are heard. [redacted] advised that the charges against Camil for delivery and possession of "PCP", an hallucinogenic drug, would not be tried as the question of whether or not this drug falls under the Florida Drug Abuse statute is currently before the First District Court of Appeals at Tallahassee, Florida. [redacted] advised that he plans to prove that Camil delivered the "PCP" drug during the marijuana trial even though this specific charge is not on the docket. [redacted] advised that direct informations were filed against Camil on the drug charges.

MIAMI -- TROPICAL PARADISE

Miami is a city of beautiful beaches, hot sun or torrential rains, and high humidity. People should come prepared for tropical weather -- sandals or shoes for hot streets, short sleeves, a plastic covering for rain, deterrents for bugs, and an understanding that living and working in high heat and humidity is different from what most of us are used to. Beat the Heat!

The Miami Conventions Coalition is negotiating for a campsite close by the Convention Hall. People should bring canteens, sleeping bags, tents, survival equipment, and ID.

Food prices in the stores are high, and although there are coconuts and mangoes growing on trees, it's not possible to live off the land. People should bring as much food as they can.

Senior citizens live on the beach in older peoples ghettoes, painted on the outside to produce an unreal facade of well-being. The old people are basically sympathetic to us, and love to have us to talk to. There's a lot we can learn from them.

There's been a women's movement in Miami for about two years, and women's centers will be organized for both conventions. BAMN, the Black Afro Militant Movement has suffered constant harrassment, and some members are still in the stockade. There are a number of gay bars in the community, in both Miami and the Beach. The freak community lives mostly in Coconut Grove.

There is also a large Cuban community, but young Cubans here feel that relations between the two communities will not be problemmatic

CONFRONT NIXON IN MIAMI

AUGUST 20-23

The Miami Conventions Coalition is calling for massive non-violent demonstrations at the Republican Convention this summer. Based on our analysis of a continuing Vietnamese offensive, and as a crucial part of an election year strategy, we feel that exposing and confronting the Nixon regime will significantly affect the course of the war and the outcome of the election. Our scenario provides for a major expression of broad-based dissatisfaction of the people of the United States, and a showing that we as peace-loving people cannot accept another four years of the Nixon doctrine. We will demonstrate the unity of generations, races, and sexes in opposition to Nixon and his policies.

For the Democratic Convention, the Miami Conventions Coalition is organizing exhibits on Vietnam and the war as well as political and logistical support for NWRO and other groups that are planning activities. We actively encourage people to participate in NWRO, SCLC, National Tenants Organization, and National Coalition of Gay Organizations' activities. The Miami Women's Coalition is organizing a Womens Brigade for the NWRO march.

We do not support any presidential candidate. All our actions at both conventions will be non-violent.

We are proposing the following scenario for the Republican Convention:

AUGUST 18-23:

Expose' '72--a humanized peoples world's fair centering around domestic and foreign liberation movements. Exhibits, films, booths, theater, art, music, slide-shows. Expose' '72 will provide a context where the people coming in from around the country and the residents of Miami Beach can come to understand each other, the nature of this country and the world we live in.

SUNDAY, AUGUST 20 TO MONDAY, AUGUST 21:

From moonrise to moonrise Women Will Create A New Day, of power, celebration and protest--organized by the Miami Womens Coalition in conjunction with Women's groups from around the country. Women will lead off all the convention activities with a Women's Welcome Party on Sunday night; workshops, raps, music, and being with each other, and a Womens' Action on Monday, August 21. Our womens' center will include child care, information, medical facilities, and most of all, a free space.

MONDAY, AUGUST 21:

Opening day of the Republican National Convention. Sessions at 1 and 7:30. (The anniversary of George Jackson's murder).

Let Vietnam Live. As the Republican National Convention convenes, Vietnamese who live in the United States will present a moving cultural event for the senior citizens of Miami Beach and people who have gathered from around the U.S. The rich history and indominable spirit of Vietnam will be conveyed in song, theater, and dance, with the participation of Vietnam Veterans. Madame Binh will speak from Paris via trans-continental telephone to offer the American people a just program for ending the war and for returning American POWs.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 22: NOMINATION DAY. Sessions at 1 and 7:30.

Morning: Investigation into the policies of the Nixon Administration. A delegation from the Miami Beach community will take testimony from Vietnam Veterans, ex-prisoners, labor representatives, unemployed Blacks, women, welfare recipients, Third World people, gays, and senior citizens.

Afternoon: STREET WITHOUT JOY. As the delegates drive from their luxury hotels down Highway 1 to the convention, they will travel a STREET WITHOUT JOY. To dramatize the crime of participation in the nomination day of Richard Nixon, thousands of people will line both sides of the boulevard forcing the delegates to pass through a "gauntlet of shame". All of the gathered constituencies will stretch block after block in single file on both sides of the street with death masks, posters of My Lai and Attica, and other images of repression, racism, and murder that are the face of the Republican regime.

Evening: MARCH TO THE CONVENTION. We will march as united generations against the nomination of Richard Nixon. Led by unemployed Vietnam Veterans and organized by constituencies, we will stage a massive nighttime encirclement of the Convention Hall, expressing the just demands of the American people and in support of the 7 Point Peace Plan of the Provisional Revolutionary Government (PRG) of South Vietnam.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 23:

In the afternoon, before Nixon's acceptance speech, we will march on his headquarters at the Hotel Doral. We will demand an accountability for why Madame Binh's peace offer has not been accepted, and for the crimes documented by the investigation.

We will remain stationed around the Republican Headquarters until Nixon or a ranking representative of the Republican Party presents themselves to answer to the people assembled outside.

CONVENTIONS

CALL TO WOMEN

From the beginning of time we have been chained down and waiting for our freedom. We are tired of being told to wait, we will no longer be objects and shadows. In Miami this summer women are calling for a day of new creation and freedom.

We, the Miami Women's Coalition, are a gathering of women coming together from different backgrounds and experiences.

We believe that women should challenge the American governmental process, and make our demands upon it.

In Miami America's leaders for the next four years will be selected. We have united to confront that facade of democracy--by raising issues, by demonstrating, by making our presence strongly felt.

For the Democratic Convention we will be marching in a Women's Brigade with the National Welfare Right: Organization, NWRO, July 10. For the Republican Convention, in direct opposition to what Richard Nixon represents, women's alchemy will create the 8th Day, moonrise to moonrise August 20-21, 1972 A Day of women's power, celebration, and protes

We are organizing women's centers for the conventions, which will include child care, information, medical facilities and most of all, free space.

Women, we cannot wait!
The time is now!
Join us in Miami!
A fresh wind blows against the empire.

PRG 7 Point Peace Proposal

The PRG 7 point peace proposal was first presented in Paris on July 1, 1971. The two basic points of this proposal, which are fundamental to any genuine settlement of the war, are:

1. Regarding the military situation: The U.S. must set a date for the total withdrawal of all U.S. troops, military personnel, weapons and war materials and those of its allies.

2. Regarding the political situation in South Vietnam: The U.S. must end its intervention in the internal affairs of South Vietnam and stop backing the regime of Nguyen Van Thieu.

Responding to the Vietnamese people's aspirations for peace and national independence, considering the American and the world peoples' desire for peace, showing its goodwill to make the Paris Conference on Viet Nam progress, basing itself on the 10-point over-all solution, and following up the September 17, 1970 eight-point and the December 10, 1970 three-point statements, the Provisional Revolutionary Government of the Republic of South Viet Nam declares the following :

1 — REGARDING THE TERMINAL DATE FOR THE TOTAL WITHDRAWAL OF U.S. FORCES.

The U.S. Government must end its war of aggression in Viet Nam, stop the policy of « Vietnamization » of the war, withdraw from South Viet Nam all troops, military personnel, weapons, and war materials of the United States and of the foreign countries in the U.S. camp, and dismantle all U.S. bases in South Viet Nam, without posing any conditions whatsoever.

The U.S. Government must set a terminal date for the withdrawal from South Viet Nam of the totality of U.S. forces and those of the other foreign countries in the U.S. camp.

If the U.S. Government sets a terminal date for the withdrawal from South Viet Nam in 1971 of the totality of U.S. forces and those of the other foreign countries in the U.S. camp, the parties will at the same time agree on the modalities of

a) the withdrawal in safety from South Viet Nam of the totality of U.S. forces and those of the other foreign countries in the U.S. camp;

b) the release of the totality of militarymen of all parties and of the civilians captured during the war (including American pilots captured in North Viet Nam), so that they may all rapidly return to their homes.

These two operations will begin on the same date and will end on the same date.

—A cease-fire will be observed between the South Viet Nam People's Liberation Armed Forces and the armed forces of the United States and of the other foreign countries in the U.S. camp as soon as the parties reach agreement on the withdrawal from South Viet Nam of the totality of U.S. forces and those of the other foreign countries in the U.S. camp.

2 — REGARDING THE QUESTION OF POWER IN SOUTH VIET NAM.

The U.S. Government must really respect the South Viet Nam people's right to self-determination, put an end to its interference in the internal affairs of South Viet Nam, cease to support the bellicose group headed by Nguyen Van Thieu now in office in Saigon, and stop all manœuvres, including tricks on elections, aimed at maintaining the puppet Nguyen Van Thieu.

By various means, the political, social, and religious forces in South Viet Nam aspiring to peace and national concord will form in Saigon a new administration favoring peace, independance, neutrality and democracy. The Provisional Revolutionary Government of the Republic of South Viet Nam will immediately enter into talks with that administration in order to settle the following questions :

a) to form a broad three-segment government of national concord that will assume its functions during the period between the restoration of peace and the holding of general elections and that will organize general elections in South Viet Nam.

A cease-fire will be observed between the South Viet Nam People's Liberation Armed Forces and the armed forces of the Saigon administration as soon as a government of national concord is formed.

b) to take concrete measures with the necessary guarantees to prohibit all acts of terror, reprisal and discrimination against persons having collaborated with one or the other party ; to ensure every democratic liberty to the South Viet Nam people ; to release all persons jailed for political reasons ; to dissolve all concentration camps and to liquidate all forms of constraint and coercion so as to permit the people to return to their native places in complete freedom and to freely engage in their occupations.

c) To see that the people's conditions of living are stabilized and gradually improved, to create conditions allowing everyone to contribute his talents and efforts to heal the war wounds and rebuild the country.

d) to agree on measures to be taken to ensure the holding of genuinely free, democratic, and fair general elections in South Viet Nam.

3 — REGARDING THE QUESTION OF VIETNAMESE ARMED FORCES IN SOUTH VIET NAM.

The Vietnamese parties will together settle the question of Vietnamese armed forces in South Viet Nam in a spirit of national concord, equality, and mutual respect, without foreign interference, in accordance with the post-war situation and with a view to lightening the people's contributions.

4 — REGARDING THE PEACEFUL RE-UNIFICATION OF VIET NAM AND THE RELATIONS BETWEEN THE NORTH AND THE SOUTH ZONES.

a) The re-unification of Viet Nam will be achieved step by step, by peaceful means, on the basis of discussions and agreements between the two zones, without constraint and annexation from either party, and without foreign interference.

Pending the re-unification of the country, the North and the South zones will re-establish normal relations, guarantee free movement, free correspondence, free choice of residence, and establish economic and cultural relations on the principle of mutual interests and mutual assistance.

All questions concerning the two zones will be settled by qualified representatives of the Vietnamese people in the two zones on the basis of negotiations, without foreign interference.

b) In keeping with the provisions of the 1954 Geneva Agreements on Viet Nam, during the present temporary partition of the country into two zones the North and the South zones of Viet Nam will refrain from joining any military alliance with any foreign countries, from allowing any foreign country to maintain military bases, troops, and military personnel on their soil, and from recognizing the protection of any country or of any military alliance or bloc.

5 — REGARDING THE FOREIGN POLICY OF PEACE AND NEUTRALITY OF SOUTH VIET NAM.

South Viet Nam will pursue a foreign policy of peace and neutrality, establish relations with all countries regardless of their political and social system, in accordance with the five principles of peaceful coexistence, maintain economic and cultural relations with all countries, accept the cooperation of foreign countries in the development of the resources of South Viet Nam, accept the economic and technical aid of any country without any political conditions attached, and participate in regional plans for economic cooperation.

On the basis of these principles, after the end of the war South Viet Nam and the United States will establish relations in the political, economic, and cultural fields.

6 — REGARDING THE DAMAGES CAUSED BY THE UNITED STATES TO THE VIETNAMESE PEOPLE IN THE TWO ZONES.

The U.S. Government must bear full responsibility for the losses and the destruction it has caused to the Vietnamese people in the two zones.

7 — REGARDING THE RESPECT AND THE INTERNATIONAL GUARANTEE OF THE ACCORDS TO BE CONCLUDED.

The parties will reach agreement on the forms of respect and international guarantee of the accords that will be concluded.

Dear Friends: June 26, 1972

Greetings from Miami Beach! We, the Miami Conventions Coalition, are organizing demonstrations to expose and confront Richard Nixon when he comes here this August.

The Miami Conventions Coalition is made up of people from the San Diego Convention Coalition, the Florida People's Coalition, local Miami groups, and other anti-war forces from around the country. This packet is the first in a series of organizing tools that we are providing people around the country to help build for August.

This packet contains: the 7 Point Peace Proposal of the PRG which we see as a major political focus; a letter about our plans for Expose' '72; a call to women to demonstrate on August 21; a scenario for the days of the Republican Convention; a prototype fund raising letter; and a leaflet telling what Miami is like.

The success of the demonstrations depends a great deal on people coming well organized from different regions. Already--there are M.C.C. groups in at least six major cities in the U.S.--but this is not enough. The importance of the actions at the Republican Convention requires that each of us do our utmost to mobilize and organize. If each of us brings 200 people, we could assemble 100,000 people in Miami Beach.

Here are some suggestions for what you could do to help build for August: mobilizing people in your region; organizing meetings and conferences; talking on radio and TV; putting out propaganda and getting your local underground paper to print information about Miami; creating and building for Expose' '72; organizing caravans and way-stations for people on the road; and, of course, fundraising. You could also reproduce this packet and make it into a chain letter. Most of all, COME TO MIAMI!

The task ahead is great, but so is the potential of what we can do. Please get back to us as soon as possible, with information, ideas, comments, and criticisms.

We love you. See you in Miami in August!

Building strong regional base actions require money.
This is a fund-raising letter which we feel may be useful for resource gathering towards the conventions . . .

Dear Friend:

The space of four years is a long time. In that period of time, America has been experiencing a type of schizophrenia which very few understand, which has become almost commonplace and routine to the American way of life. The American experience during 1968 to 1972 has been bizarre and fast moving, assaulting the American people with a barrage of frightening and sometimes inexplicable events, inudating the citizens of the United States with a feeling which anesthetizes and immobilizes them.

Central to this period has been Richard Milhous Nixon, 37th President of the United States. The thoughts of "Bring US Together" uttered by the President during his inaugural address were long ago shattered as spectacular court trials, grand juries and murdered students attacked the American conscience. Long time racists appointed to the highest courts of the land, intensified government surveillance of thousands of innocent people and Executive abandonment of the Constitutional guarantees for civil rights are still fresh in our memory.

And central to Richard Nixon has been the Viet Nam war. In the course of one administration, Richard Nixon has invaded two countries, resumed bombing of a third, implanted democracy on the Southeast Asia peninsula with the now famous "one-man election" and reformed war to the point where electronic machines replace the efforts of ground forces.

In late August, the Republican Party will re-nominate Richard Nixon as their choice for President of the United States. He has planned a campaign which will take the candidate no-where and yet everywhere; through the extensive use of computers, America will witness still another phenomena: the invisible campaign. America's contact with the President will be through the mass media and through personaly computer-written letters which will fill every mailbox. Richard Nixon, the most protected President of the United States will afford no one the opportunity to confront him directly on the questions of war and peace, welfare and ABM, racism, sexism and the economy.

Late last fall, a large coalition of people met in San Diego, California and discussed how the American people could confront the President in the town that would house the GOP's National Convention. The original thought was to create a forum in which the years 1968-72 could be summed up to the Republican Party, and most importantly, to the American people.

Principly committed to non-violence, the coalition planned fixed and mobile exhibits, called "Expose '72," petitioning and picketing, peaceful, visible marches and non-violent civil disobediance. What has changed since its initial conception is the setting, which was completed at the request of the Republican Party.

Now the city is Miami Beach. The San Diego group, called the San Diego Convenion Coalition was a vibrant local, broad-based coalition. Miami had no coalition when the GOP switch was announced. Yet, in the space of six weeks, a local and national coalition of people has emerged and are committed to the belief that the issues of the past four years must be exposed.

With the ever increasing U.S. armada in Viet Nam and with the continuing sucesses of the Vietnamese uprisings, an American response becomes almost critical. Now in its first steps of growth, the Miami-based group, called the Miami Conventions Coalition needs massive help to confront and expose Richard Nixon.

What MCC needs most today is money. Lots of it. The space of four years is a long time. And so, we're asking for your help, so that we don't repeat it.

Miami Conventions Coalition

EXPOSE '72

This summer, there will be massive, non-violent demonstrations at the Democratic and Republican National Conventions in Miami Beach, Florida (July 10-14 & August 21-23 respectively). Not only will we take to the streets in protest of the government's repressive policies, but we will attempt to create a setting through which people can share their experiences about the nature of the world in which we live, and about the positive alternatives which we have begun to create.

Toward this end, the Miami Conventions Coalition wants to create, during both Conventions, a humanized Peoples' Worlds' Fair--Expose '72. We envision Expose as a time of education, skill-sharing, and generation of energy. We will seek to educate and unite ourselves around a call for major changes in foreign and domestic policies.

Expose will express our opposition to the US intervention in the internal affairs of other nations, and will give support to struggles of national liberation. Our desire is for an immediate end to all US aggression in Indochina, and the acceptance and support of the PRG 7 Point Plan for Peace, as the just solution to the war in Vietnam. We also call for an end to domestic policies of political, economic, racial, and sexual oppression and opposition to all social forces which perpetuate domination and exploitation on the basis of racial, economic or sexual roles.

* * * *

We feel that our emphasis during the Democratic Convention will be the war in Indochina and the problems of re-ordering our domestic priorities. There will be constant lobbying and workshops with the delegates to the convention by veterans and others who are concerned with a just end to the war--self-determination for the Vietnamese people. We will support these efforts as well as seek to educate the delegates, demonstrators and the Miami community to the realities of the situation in Indochina. To do this, we are hoping for exhibits involving the following:

* Artifacts, culture, and history of the Vietnamese, and illustrations of the struggles during the last 2000 years.
* The history of US involvement in Indochina since 1845 to the present US strategy for Indochina.
* Major education around the PRG 7 Point Plan for Peace as the just and fair solution to the Vietnam War.
* An assortment of weapons used by the US in Indochina (guava, pellet, smart bombs, the electronic battlefield) and their effect on the people and their land.
* Exposing corporations that participate in the destruction and killing in Indochina through the manufacture of anti-personnel weapons and other war materials (Honeywell, ITT, IBM, Standard Oil).

* * * *

The main focus of our energy this summer will be Richard Nixon and the Republican Convention. Our educational work and displays will reveal the nature of the Nixon Doctrine and its disastrous effect upon the lives of people around the world. The war in Vietnam and domestic policies of death will be shown in contrast to the possibilities of positive alternatives that have begun to become real here, as well as in other countries. To the exhibits on the war that will be present during the Democratic Convention, we hope to add the following:

* Extensive displays of Nixon, and his policies from the 40's to the present--Photos, films, guerilla theater, speeches, Nixon masks.

* Education around the Nixon Doctrine and its disastrous effects at home and abroad.
* An attack on the CIA for their involvement in the affairs and governments of SE asia(Vietnam, Laos,and Cambodia) as well as its involvement in the heroin traffic.
* Exhibits on current liberation struggles--N.Ireland, Dominican Rep, Ethiopia, Iran, Puerto Rico, Uruguay, Brazil, Angola, Mozambique, Bengla-Desh, etc.
* Exhibits from socialist countries throughout the world, contrasting the pre-revolutionary society to the current situation and the on-going struggles. Countries might include Chile, Algeria, Tanzania, Cuba, N Vietnam, And N Korea.
* Workshops, displays, films, and education on domestic liberation movements--the struggles of Blacks, Chicanos, Puerto Ricans,and Native Americans, the growth of radical elements within today's unions, the movement within the prisons.
* The women's movement--women's history, self-help instruction, abortion information, advertising and the US woman.
* Exhibits on the Miami area, focusing on local contradictions--the plight of Miami Beach's aged, in contrast to the opulence of the Beach hotels where delegates stay.
* Alternatives to the current society--alternativemethods of education, food co-ops, collective living and working, peoples' law medicine,and art non-profit stores.

We view Expose as an important aspect of convention organizing, mobilizing, and long-term education. We feel it will represent a creative method for unifying ourselves, and presenting the movement for social change to the country and the world. We hope to see not only booths and displays, but also numerous workshops, slide shows, films, musical activities and theatre. We hope that many of these Expose projects will be used after the convention period.

We invite individuals, groups, collectives, organizations, and regions who feel they will be present in Miami during the Conventions to contact us ahead of time, send ideas, let us know how you feel you can contribute to Expose. At this time we project that Expose will run the follwwing times--July 7-14 for Democratic Convention and August 14-23 for the Republicans. Your participation can be the most effective if you let us know as soon as possible: which convention or both for which you plan to participate, size, resources needed, special needs and facilities, outdoors or indoors and any other information we might need.

Hopefully exhibits will be thought up and assembled in your own region (a good mobilizing tool for the summer) and brought down and staffed here by you. We feel that it is important to have the creators of the exhibits down here with the displays to answer questions, share skills, etc. We also hope that each group will understand the need for security for their exhibits, and provide some kind of protection. As our plans are developed further, sites are confirmed, etc., we will send you more information and details.

Expose '72 depends on our creativity and energy to be successful. We want Expose to be more than just a museum. We hope it will be a time for people to learn, share and feel good together.

If you can plug into any of the ideas we've set down, or have ideas of your own, let us know right away. July and August are not far off..

All Power to the Imagination!

We also call for an end to domestic policies of political, economic, racial, and sexual oppression and opposition to all social forces which perpetuate domination and exploitation on the basis of racial, economic or sexual roles.

* * * *

We feel that our emphasis during the Democratic Convention will be the war in Indochina and the problems of re-ordering our domestic priorities. There will be constant lobbying and workshops with the delegates to the convention by veterans and others who are concerned with a just end to the war--self-determination for the Vietnamese people. We will support these efforts as well as seek to educate the delegates, demonstrators and the Miami community to the realities of the situation in Indochina. To do this, we are hoping for exhibits involving the following:

* Artifacts, culture, and history of the Vietnamese, and illustrations of the struggles during the last 2000 years.
* The history of US involvement in Indochina since 1845 to the present US strategy for Indochina.
* Major education around the PRG 7 Point Plan for Peace as the just and fair solution to the Vietnam War.
* An assortment of weapons used by the US in Indochina (guava, pellet, smart bombs, the electronic battlefield) and their effect on the people and their land.
* Exposing corporations that participate in the destruction and killing in Indochina through the manufacture of anti-personnel weapons and other war materials (Honeywell, ITT, IBM, Standard Oil).

* * * *

The main focus of our energy this summer will be Richard Nixon and the Republican Convention. Our educational work and displays will reveal the nature of the Nixon Doctrine and its disastrous effects upon the lives of people around the world. The war in Vietnam and domestic policies of death will be shown in contrast to the possibilities of positive alternatives that have begun to become real here, as well as in other countries. To the exhibits on the war that will be present during the Democratic Convention, we hope to add the following:

* Extensive displays of Nixon, and his policies from the 40's to the present--Photos, films, guerilla theater, speeches, Nixon masks.

Building strong regional base actions require money. This is a fund-raising letter which we feel may be useful for resource gathering towards the conventions . . .

Dear Friend:

The space of four years is a long time. In that period of time, America has been experiencing a type of schizophrenia which very few understand, which has become almost commonplace and routine to the American way of life. The American experience during 1968 to 1972 has been bizarre and fast moving, assaulting the American people with a barrage of frightening and sometimes inexplicable events, inudating the citizens of the United States with a feeling which anesthetizes ... and immobilizes them.

Central to this period has been Richard Milhous Nixon, 37th President of the United States. The thoughts of "Bring US Together" uttered by the President during his inaugural address were long ago shattered as spectacular court trials, grand juries and murdered students attacked the American conscience. Long time racists appointed to the highest courts of the land, intensified government surveillance of thousands of innocent people and Executive abandonment of the Constitutional guarantees for civil rights are still fresh in our memory.

And central to Richard Nixon has been the Viet Nam war. In the course of one administration, Richard Nixon has invaded two countries, resumed bombing of a third, implanted democracy on the Southeast Asia peninsula with the now famous "one-man election" and reformed war to the point where electronic machines replace the efforts of ground forces.

In late August, the Republican Party will re-nominate Richard Nixon as their choice for President of the United States. He has planned a campaign which will take the candidate no-where and yet everywhere; through the extensive use of computers, America will witness still another phenomena: the invisible campaign. America's contact with the President will be through the mass media and through personaly computer-written letters which will fill every mailbox. Richard Nixon, the most protected President of the United States will afford no one the opportunity to confront him directly on the questions of war and peace, welfare and ABM, racism, sexism and the economy.

Late last fall, a large coalition of people met in San Diego, California and discussed how the American people could confront the President in the town that would house the GOP's National Convention. The original thought was to create a forum in which the years 1968-72 could be summed up to the Republican Party, and most importantly, to the American people.

Principly committed to non-violence, the coalition planned fixed and mobile exhibits, called "Expose '72," petitioning and picketing, peaceful, visible marches and non-violent civil disobediance. What has changed since its initial conception is the setting, which was completed at the request of the Republican Party.

Now the city is Miami Beach. The San Diego group, called the San Diego Convenion Coalition was a vibrant local, broad-based coalition. Miami had no coalition when the GOP switch was announced. Yet, in the space of six weeks, a local and national coalition of people has emerged and are committed to the belief that the issues of the past four years must be exposed.

With the ever increasing U.S. armada in Viet Nam and with the continuing sucesses of the Vietnamese uprisings, an American response becomes almost critical. Now in its first steps of growth, the Miami-based group, called the Miami Conventions Coalition needs massive help to confront and expose Richard Nixon.

What MCC needs most today is money. Lots of it. The space of four years is a long time. And so, we're asking for your help, so that we don't repeat it.

On [redacted] there was a meeting initiated by the Miami Communist Party (CP) to acquaint some of its members with several non-delegate people who are with the Miami Conventions Coalition (MCC) and to determine what assistance might be given by Party members. This get-together was held at [redacted]

[redacted] of the MCC spoke and said his group was originally formed at San Diego and is now combined with the Miami coalition of organizations. [redacted] said the MCC is not advocating any confrontations but its main purpose is to make the Democrat platform more preparative and to specifically speak out against the Vietnam war, racism, political repression, and the draft. b6 b7C

[redacted] said the reason the MCC, as well as other youth groups here, do not want demonstrations is because they could be used by supporters of President NIXON to embarrass Senator McGOVERN, whom most of the youth here support.

He said the only time this strategy could be changed was if McGOVERN was not nominated by the Democrats.

He said peaceful protests will be the rule also during the Republican Convention so that NIXON supporters cannot turn it to NIXON's advantage.

The Miami CP, after an appeal for funds, collected $250 for [redacted] and the MCC.

It was also agreed to have a rally take place on July 5, 1972 at the Jewish Cultural Center, 429 Lenox Avenue, Miami Beach. The purpose is to raise funds for the MCC and to allay any fears of local residents that the youth groups are to destroy the peace of the community. b6 b7C

[redacted] invited the MCC to a McGOVERN meeting [redacted]

[redacted] offered [redacted] and said his services were available to the MCC.

The MCC people said that they needed furniture, typewriters, etc., for their office at 1718 Alton Road, Miami Beach.

PEOPLE'S COALITION FOR PEACE AND JUSTICE

PCPJ is self described as a coalition of over 100 organizations dedicated to the elimination of war, racism, poverty, and imperialism, through massive non-violent civil disobedience.

On June 29, 1972, a reliable source provided the minutes of the PCPJ Coordinating Committee meeting at Louisville, Kentucky, June 16-18, 1972. The minutes are attached.

Southern Conference Educational Fund, Inc. (SCEF), Louisville, Kentucky, is headed by former Louisville Communist Party, USA, figures Anne and Carl Braden. SCEF supports the New Left, black militant, and peace movements.

[redacted] of the National Student Association (NSA). NSA was one of the sponsors of the People's Peace Treaty, a treaty of peace signed by Vietnamese and American Students in 1971 and used as the basis of May, 1971 demonstrations in Washington, D.C. (WDC).

PEOPLE'S COALITION FOR PEACE AND JUSTICE

Project Air War is self-described as an educational organization to place before the American people the "true facts" regarding the air war in Southeast Asia.

WILPF (Women's International League for Peace and Freedom), VVAW (Vietnam Veterans Against the War), Women Strike for Peace, Fellowship of Reconciliation (FOR), Clergy and Laymen, and Vietnam Peace Parade, have all demonstrated in the past against the war in Southeast Asia.

Florida People's Coalition is a statewide pressure group organized to demonstrate at the Democratic Convention, Miami, July, 1972.

Harrisburg Defense Committee. The "Village Voice," a New York City weekly newspaper, issue of February 4, 1971, page 36, in a news story entitled, "Berrigan Defense," reported that "the only defense committee authorized by Father Phillip Berrigan, Dr. Eqbal Ahmed, Sister Elizabeth McAllister, Father Neil McLaughlin, Anthony Scoblock and Joseph Wendroth; all indicted by the Justice Department for an alleged kidnapping and bombing plot, is the Defense Committee."

Young Worker's Liberation League is the youth arm of the Communist Party, USA.

The Indochina Resource Center is associated with Project Air War.

The Anti-War Union was formed in Spring, 1972 by Rennie Davis, convicted Chicago Seven defendants to continue massive public protests against U.S.

military policy in Southeast Asia and for implementation of plans to disrupt the National Political Conventions in Miami, Florida.

COORDINATING COMMITTEE MEETING MINUTES
June 16-18, 1972 -- Louisville, Ky.

The Coordinating Committee meeting was characterized by a spirit of unity among all of the participants -- unity about the need to respond coherently to election year political possibilities, particularly around the issue of the war, and unity about the need to respond more forcefully to the struggle for social justice in America. These themes were clearly interconnected in both the words and decisions of coordinating committee representatives during the weekend.

Members of the Southern Conference Educational Fund, which hosted the meeting, made a special contribution to the social justice thrust of the weekend, as did several representatives of the United Front from Cairo and East St. Louis. The decision to co-sponsor and support activities planned by NWRO, SCLC, NTO at the Democratic Convention indicates that Coordinating Committee representatives feel that these initiatives offer the anti-war movement a unique opportunity to act together again with social justice organizations as part of a true coalition for peace and justice. This opportunity is echoed by the eagerness expressed by these groups to work with PCPJ in Miami not only around domestic issues but to respond vigorously to the war issue as well. In the words of one participant, "In this election year the American people are called to end two wars -- one in Indo-china, and the other against the people of the United States, especially the minorities, poor and working people." The Louisville meeting reconfirmed our unified determination to achieve that goal.

There were also frank discussions about the problems of trust and communication, particularly around the planning for the conventions. Initially there was a general feeling of uneasiness due to a lack of clarity about who the Miami Conventions Coalition is, how decisions are being made, what, in fact, those decisions are; and whether there was a strong commitment to nonviolence. But we came out of the weekend with a good feeling that those problems can be worked out.

[redacted] Report on trip to Hanoi

From the evidence that was seen by the group of four people [redacted] that were in North Vietnam from May 20-27, it is obvious that many of the areas we are bombing are neither military nor near military targets. This evidence is particularly noxious in view of our recent claims that we can pinpoint our bombing raids to within a few feet of the targets specified. However, the attitude of determination of the Vietnamese is summed up in a statement by a Vietnamese youth, "I only want to live to grow up and fight in the army and avenge my country and family." The Vietnamese feel that this is a very significant phase in the war; that the US Administration is trying to bomb the Vietnamese to the Paris talks (assuming they will come with a pleading attitude) before our elections.

Dave Dellinger's Report on trip to Paris

The sense that Dave got in Paris is that this is the most intense period in the war and we here, in the States, are facing a psychological war that is a result of (1) our dependence on information from our media, and (2) our lack of understanding as to what a people's war is really like. Consequently, we end up 'warring' with fatigue and apathy. We have a tendency to see the war in terms of major cities, bridges, etc. A people's war is not a matter of drama; it is involved with small assaults on many areas. While the cities of An Loc, Hue, Kontum serve as magnets to draw Thieu's troops, the people in other areas are quietly dismantling Thieu's administrative machinery. Although our administration would like to believe that the Vietnamese are losing because they have not 'won' the large cities or because a bridge has been bombed, the way the Vietnamese see it is that they are, in the words of Ho Chi Minh, "facing greater difficulties because they are facing victory." When a bridge is destroyed, there are not five but ten that are put up using pontoons. The Vietnamese say to us "believe in us, we are in a position to cope with the measures your administration is taking." They state that for the mining to work Nixon would have to mine the South since the ARVN and US are still major sources of their supplies. The liberation forces in the South are stronger now than they have ever been before. They say that Nixon returned empty-handed from Peking and Moscow, but that he has succeeded in slowing down the peace movement in the US.

From Carl Braden of SCEF

Our government is against the people here in the States as well as against the people in Vietnam. We must relate to both these problems because they are intertwined. So far, we have not done so. Carl feels that we need discussions on the patterns of repression growing out of this war as illustrated in the many cases of political prisoners in the States.

From [redacted]

[redacted] called attention to the similarities of PRG strategy this year to their strategies in '64 and '68. Antiwar strategy in the US must be different in '72 he said, because this year -- unlike '64 or '68 -- the electoral process does afford a means of ending the war. He criticized PCPJ's approach to antiwar activity in the past saying that too often we respond only to crises rather than developing a real strategy. This is because PCPJ lacks a "leadership core", he said. The need during this period is to keep the war in the consciousness of the American people using the conventions for this purpose, thus dispelling Nixon's myth of the pacification of the antiwar movement. b6 b7C

From the National United Front

Last year PCPJ passed a resolution in support of the struggle in Cairo, but so far nothing has been done by PCPJ. There are many Cairos all over the States and we should relate to them as we relate to the war in Vietnam, for the tactics and objectives are the same. They suggested that if 'we' want other than whites in PCPJ we must do things that show we have something to offer and that we are indeed concerned. There is a need for us to get involved in the issues that confront us in the States. The United Front will be relating to both conventions and the elections, particularly in terms of voter registration. The war in 'Nam has been going on for 10 years (approximately). The civil war in the States has been going on -- how long!

Discussion

The problem was raised about groups being torn between working on national actions vs community work. The consensus seemed to be that we can't exist just on issues of the moment. Things must be tied together and a good perspective obtained on what a coalition really is. As long as the system gets you only reacting to it, you tend to forget about what is happening to your flanks.

A motion to endorse the Farm Workers actions was passed by voice vote with no dissensions. (The Farm Workers will have a delegation at the Labor for Peace meeting.)

The plenary made the following decisions, based on discussions in workshops:

On Repression and Political Prisoners -- we decided that PCPJ should be a clearing house for information from groups working on political prisoners and repression; that PCPJ should compile a directory of those groups; that the next coordinating committee meeting should be held in Cairo, if the United Front would like us to; and that we will hold a national conference on political prisoners and repression in the fall, 1 or 2 weeks after the election, or whenever practical.. A task force -- initially consisting of Gil Green, Bea Milwe, Alan Fisher, Arthur Kinoy, and representatives from the NY offices of the United Fronts and SCEF -- was set up to implement the above decisions.

On Blockades -- we decided to encourage groups to organize on-going blockade projects, particularly at the 9 east and west coast ports which ship munitions to Vietnam, with a special emphasis on August 6 (Hiroshima Day). It was felt that actions which put our bodies before the bombs for Vietnam raise the moral questions and serve as an educational process as well. A task force of Bob Levering, Susan Miller and Ann Balsan was established. The location of the 9 ports are: Earle, NJ; Southport, N.C.; Concord, Cal.; Bangor, Wash.; Bayonne, NJ; Yorktown, Va.; Charleston, S.C.; Seal Beach, Cal.; Long Beach, Cal. (See enclosed flyer put out by AFSC, but remember that Resist should be kept informed of any blockade actions.)

On the Democratic and Republican Conventions -- After extensive discussions it was decided that PCPJ would co-sponsor activities at both conventions; that a working committee choose a PCPJ collective to go to Miami and work with the Miami Conventions Coalition; that the collective would be accountable to PCPJ and would keep it informed of what was being decided in Miami so that PCPJ would have input into that situation and be able to continually assess what our role there should be. The working committee included [redacted], Dave Dellinger, [redacted] (who are already on the Interim Committee); [redacted] (who were later chosen to form the PCPJ collective in Miami) and [redacted] and [redacted] Therefore, it was decided by the working committee at their meeting on 6/20 that [redacted] and [redacted] would be added to the Interim Committee for the duration of the summer, and that the expanded Interim Committee would be the group to which the collective will be responsible. (Dave Dellinger and [redacted] also commited themselves to spending chunks of time in Miami.)

The consensus was that we should give equal emphasis to organizing for both of the conventions, and that the anti-war and domestic issues should be stressed equally at both. We will not call for people to stay in Miami between the two conventions: that would create logistical problems for which the Miami folks are not prepared.

The enclosed call gives information on the Democratic Convention. It is hoped that people will come to stay for the duration of the Convention (July 10-12) but at this point nothing specific is planned beyond the march on the 10th.

A lot of time was spent brainstorming about ideas for actions at the Republican Convention whose militancy would be reflected in the tone and drama of the event. Those ideas were passed on to the Miami Conventions Coalition and some have been incorporated into their current plans, which are as follows:

Aug. 14-23	Expose '72 Organizations and communities from all over the country are encouraged to put together a statement about life in America under Richard Nixon through exhibits. Local movie theaters will be used for films.
Aug. 21	Opening of the Republican Convention
All Day	Opening of Miami Beach Public Hearing -- Senior citizens will conduct an investigation into the administration of Richard Nixon.
4:00 pm	Women's March and Action
7:00 pm	Let Vietnam Live -- Vietnam Speaks to America A cultural performance organized by Vietnamese students living in America. Performance will include theatre, dance and song depicting the culture, spirit and history of Vietnam. (Vietnam Speaks to America is in memory of George Jackson)

Aug. 22 — Miami Beach Public Hearings continue through the day

2:00 pm — The Street Without Joy

This highway connects the luxury hotels (where delegates will be staying) to the convention site. On this road will be "gauntlets of shame" with images of the face of the Nixon administration. Local groups are again asked to bring down pictures of My Lai, Attica and multi-issue exhibits depicting the destruction of the Nixon administration. This will be a single file exhibition. Republican delegates to the convention will have to walk through The Street Without Joy in order to get to the convention.

7:30 pm — March to the Convention

Led by unemployed Vietnam Veterans. Civil disobedience is not planned.

Aug. 23 — Nixon's Acceptance Speech

March and rally to Doral Hotel (headquarters of the Republican National Committee) -- anti-war activists will gather to hear charges made by the Senior Citizens Miami Beach Public Hearing against the Nixon administration. The group will demand an accounting by Richard Nixon before his acceptance speech.

NOTE: Emphasis throughout the whole week will be outreach to the American public and Miami Beach community. No civil disobedience is planned -- the emphasis is to depict the death and destruction that the Nixon administration has put upon the peoples of America and Indochina.

A majority of the people who work in the office of the Miami Convention Coalition at 1718 Alton Road, Miami Beach, reside at [redacted] A few others are scattered around unknown locations.

Very little constructive work has been accomplished until just the last day or two because there has been an internal power struggle going on. [redacted] of Tampa, supported by San Diego people, such as [redacted] and [redacted] has been resisting a takeover by the PCPJ people from Washington, D.C., and New York. [redacted] has now calmed down and become more reasonable because of financial support now being offered by the PCPJ. Finances have been a real problem for the MCC. b6 b7C

Not much action is planned by the MCC for the Democratic National Convention. They are already talking about what to do between the two political conventions. Apparently, they wish to leave the area and some have favored going to Atlanta, Georgia, but a majority seem to be in favor of holding a conference in Tallahassee, Florida. [redacted] (LNU) said they ought to have an all-southern conference in Tallahassee between the conventions.

ReButel to all offices, 6/26/72.

Enclosed for the Bureau and each receiving office is one xerox copy of a map reflecting the caravan route for travel to Miami Beach, Fla., by the National Coalition of Gay Organizations (NCGO).

The enclosure was made available on [redacted] by [redacted] b6 b7C b7D

Source also made available a leaflet reflecting that NCGO is traveling to the Democratic National Convention for an "action" in support of the inclusion of the Gay Rights Platform in the overall Democratic National platform to be presented to the convention delegates for adoption.

The leaflet also states that the enclosed map indicates the auto and bus caravan route to Miami Beach, Fla. All times listed thereon are Eastern Daylight Time and dictate the departure of autos and busses from major cities as indicated. Source could provide no further info.

Cuban exile party to join in protest

By HILDA INCHAN
Miami News Reporter

The Cuban Revolutionary Party ("Autenticos"), headed by former Cuban President Carlos Prio Socarras, will join other Cuban exile groups in organizing a protest rally during the conventions.

The various groups — among them Abdala, the Federation of Cuban Students of Miami-Dade Junior College and the Bay of Pigs Veterans Brigade — will be protesting what they commonly call "U.S. interference with exile anti-Castro efforts and the possible negotiation of Cuba's destiny by non-Cubans."

The Autenticos decided to join in the protest during a meeting last night at the Havana Vieja (Old Havana) shopping center, NW 7th Street and 23rd Avenue. "We must make our presence felt and use this opportunity to say what we want for our country," Prio said.

Meanwhile, in Coconut Grove, another group of Cubans met to organize their support for Sen. George McGovern.

Headed by accountant Frank Gonzalez and law students Pedro R. Lopez-Oliver and his wife, Teresa Saldise, the group is chiefly concerned with U.S. domestic issues.

"We feel the Nixon administration hasn't done enough for the Cuban community," Jose Luis Mesa, a member, said.

The group is preparing a position paper to be presented to McGovern on the needs of Dade County Cubans.

Gay rage protest considered

The National Coalition of Gay Organizations (NCGO) announced today a 3-day "gay rage" protest might follow the Democratic National Convention here if the Democrats do not adopt a satisfactory civil rights platform for gay people.

Chuck LaMont, Miami coordinator of NCGO, said he wants a platform plank to prohibit discrimination in employment and housing for homoesexuals.

As part of the protest, LaMont said his group would ask people to take off from work, wear lavendar and black armbands and picket the nearest federal building.

Gay activist groups plan vigils and workshops during the July 10-13 Democratic Convention to focus attention on oppression of homosexuals.

RE: DEMONSTRATIONS DURING THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

DEMONSTRATIONS DURING THE REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION

b7C

Two persons, identified only as [redacted] (phonetic) and [redacted] were very vocal about the domination of SDS by elements of the Progressive Labor Party (PLP). They were concerned that SDS had stopped being violent and is not getting publicity. They indicated they preferred to have the Weatherman leadership back in order to overthrow this government more quickly. The pair were described as follows:

Name	[redacted] (Last Name Unknown)
Sex	Female
Race	White
Height	5' 7"
Weight	125 pounds
Hair	Black
Eyes	Hazel
Comments	Very militant

Name	[redacted] Last Name Unknown)

Hair	Black
Eyes	Blue
Comments	Front tooth has silver cap

Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) was founded during June, 1972, at Port Huron, Michigan, and in the 1960s functioned as the leading New Left campus-based student organization in the United States. From an initial posture of "participatory democracy," SDS moved to a radical-revolutionary position, with debate centering on how best to create a revolutionary youth movement. Internal factionalism produced a split during the SDS National Convention in June, 1969, which resulted in the following three factions: Weatherman; Worker Student Alliance (WSA); and Revolutionary Youth Movement (RYM). The Weatherman and RYM are no longer affiliated with SDS. The WSA continues to use the name SDS and maintains its national headquarters in Chicago, Illinois.

Worker Student Alliance (WSA), a faction of Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), was expelled from SDS in June, 1969, by the then dominant Weatherman faction, but continued to use the name SDS and opened an office in Cambridge, Massachusetts. WSA aligned ideologically with the Progressive Labor Party (PLP) and, in February, 1971, moved to Chicago, Illinois, where it opened the SDS National Office at 1225 South Wabash Street.

Weatherman, formerly a faction of Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), controlled the SDS National Office from June, 1969, until its closing in February, 1970. Weatherman then entered an underground status and adopted a tactic of "strategic sabotage," with police and military installations designated as primary targets.

The Progressive Labor Party (PLP) was founded in 1962 by individuals expelled from the Communist Party, USA, for following the Chinese communist line. Its objective is the establishment of a militant working-class movement based on Marxism-Leninism and MAO Tse-tung thought.

On June 28, 1972, records of United Airlines, Seattle, disclosed [redacted] had made inquiry concerning a chartered flight for about 35 persons from Seattle to Miami arriving July 6, 1972, and departing Miami July 14, 1972. [redacted] said she represented the National Welfare Rights Organization (NWRO).

It is to be noted the NWRO convention at Miami is scheduled for July 5 - 9, 1972, and the Democratic convention, July 10 - 14, 1972.

On June 28, 1972, records of the Continental Trailways, Inc., a bus company, received an inquiry from [redacted] of NWRO, concerning rates for a chartered bus from Seattle to Miami during early July, 1972, but no reservations were made.

On June 27 - 29, 1972, other bus and airline companies in Seattle were checked without locating any additional pertinent information.

No information has been developed to indicate [redacted] is currently participating in any radical or subversive activities.

NWRO is a nationwide group formed for the purpose of seeking increased Government support for welfare recipients.

SUBJECT Vietnam Veterans Against the War (V.V.A.W.)

FROM [redacted]
Tactical Investigation Section

On June 21, 1972, the undersigned detectives met at [redacted] in preparation to attend a meeting with the City of Miami Police Department. Some of those present at the house were as follows:

1. [redacted] and his wife, [redacted]
2. [redacted]
3. [redacted]
4. [redacted] (LNU), white male, 24, 5'10"; 145-155 lbs., shoulder length brown hair
5. [redacted] (LNU), white male, 26, 6', 180-185 lbs., dark brown medium length hair, mustache and new beard.
6. [redacted]

News team from ABC to include:

1. [redacted]
2. [redacted] (LNU), Negro female
3. A camera man
4. A sound man
5. A utility man

All of the above mentioned persons proceeded to the Miami Police Department for the scheduled meeting using various vehicles. At the meeting, some of the groups represented were the V.V.A.W., Zippies, 2605 Brigade (Cuban), United Federation of Cuban Students and the Dade County Community Relations Board.

At this point, V.V.A.W. representatives were joined in the meeting by [redacted] who was accompanied by two unknown white males, who claimed to be active members of the United States Air Force, Homestead, Florida.

Subject #1 - white male, approximately 23, 5'9", 155-165 lbs., brown hair, mustache Subject #2 - white male, approximately 24, 5'9", 150-160 lbs., blond hair, fair skin, clean shaven. Claimed to work with radar equipment supposedly manufactured by Howard Hughes.

These two subjects stated that they were in the process of organizing a massive work slow-down program at Homestead and they believed that with a little time they would be successful. They further stated that they used [redacted] house as a meeting place. Also, at this time, [redacted] b6 b7C b7D b7E Broward Coordinator for V.V.A.W., joined the meeting. Generally, the conversations at the meeting were limited to the same subjects discussed at the meeting with the Miami Beach Police Department on June 14, 1972. The ABC team documented most of the program on camera and tape as they were doing a work up on the V.V.A.W. to be presented on national television; the Harry Reasner News broadcast; within the next week or so.

MIAMI DEMOCRATIC CONV.--JULY 10--14

INDICT the U.S. GOV'T. for RACIST ACTS, GENOCIDE!

ACTS OF RACISM AND GENOCIDE are being committed daily in this country with the U.S. government either condoning these acts or actively taking part in committing them. This racism must be fought with the unity of blacks, latin and whites; with militant struggle, every day. THESE ATTACKS MUST BE STOPPED!

SDS is taking the following bill to the Democratic Convention in Miami to demand it be accepted as a platform, to Congress to demand it be accepted and enacted into law and to the U.N. to raise it as a primary issue.

The bill follows. It is now being passed around and signatures are being gathered as support grows. Come to Miami and build this crucial campaign to end racism and genocide in the U.S.

After the Nuremberg Trials the United Nations had a Convention on Genocide. There, they defined genocide as "any of the following acts committed with intent to destroy, in whole or in part, a national, ethnical, racial, or religious group as such:

a) Killing any members of the group; b) Causing serious bodily or mental harm to members of the group; c) Deliberately inflicting on the group conditions of life calculated to bring about its physical destruction in whole or in part; d) Imposing measures intended to prevent births within the group; e) Forcibly transferring children of the group to another group."

Article III of the Convention provided that "The following acts shall be punishable:

a) Genocide; b) Conspiracy to commit genocide; c) Direct and public incitement to commit genocide; d) Attempt to commit genocide; e) Complicity in genocide."

WE INDICT THE U.S. GOVERNMENT WITH GENOCIDE AND SPECIFICALLY RACIST ACTS AGAINST BLACK, LATIN, ASIAN AND NATIVE AMERICAN PEOPLES IN THE U.S.....

ANTI-RACISM BILL

WHEREAS RACISM AND GENOCIDE ON BLACK, LATIN, ASIAN AND NATIVE AMERICAN PEOPLE IN THIS COUNTRY IS BEING COMMITTED DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY BY THE U.S. GOVERNMENT, WE DEMAND THAT THE FOLLOWING BE ACTED UPON IMMEDIATELY AND MADE INTO LAW:

I. ANY STATE, LOCAL OR FEDERAL POLICEMAN or other state, local or federal government official who murders a minority person shall be deemed to have committed a federal offense, punishable by life imprisonment. Any state, local or federal policeman, other state, local or federal government official who does physical harm to a minority person shall be deemed to have committed a federal offense punishable by not less than ten years imprisonment depending upon the severity of the offense.

II. NO FEDERAL TROOPS shall be sent to ghettoes to suppress [illegible]

III. [illegible] SHALL [illegible] $10,000 for [illegible] family of

IV. THE [illegible] INCOME [illegible] SHALL be [illegible] any and all [illegible] strings attached.

V. ANYONE WHO PRACTICES FORCED STERILIZATION shall be deemed [illegible] committed a federal offense punishable by ten years imprisonment [illegible]

VI. [illegible] SHALL NOT BE taken from mothers and [illegible] welfare.

VII. NO [illegible] UNIVERSITY, public school or private, which employs [illegible] who [illegible] students, faculty or other employees [illegible] any federal aid.

VIII. NO [illegible] UNIVERSITY, public school or private, which [illegible] that propagate the view that black or other minority people are culturally or genetically inferior should receive any federal aid.

IX. PEOPLE RESIDING IN THE U.S. and born in other countries shall not be deported or harassed.

X. HOUSING CODES shall be enforced. Landlords not complying shall be deemed to have committed a federal offense punishable by a minimum of five years imprisonment or a fine of $5,000 or both, or a maximum of life imprisonment, depending on the circumstances.

The Evidence

WELFARE

A disproportionate number of minority people are on welfare. From the moment you go on welfare you get harassment from racist welfare officials. They ask you all kinds of personal questions that they don't need to know only to give you a few cents a week. They have hired spies to check up on you and they ask questions of your neighbors and friends to make sure you don't cheat the government.

Being on welfare has always meant slow starvation and rotten medical care. Now there's FAP (Nixon's Family Assistance Program). Nixon introduced this plan and a whole gamut of congressmen both Democratic and Republican support it. It provides for forced labor of welfare mothers at below the minimum wage. In Chicago, the welfare department tried to make welfare mothers work for their welfare checks by picking up litter in the Forest Preserve. Neither the Democratic Party nor the Republican Party nor the U.S. government has anything more than a pittance to offer people who've been forced onto welfare by unemployment, rotten jobs that don't pay enough, disabilities, etc.

MEDICAL CARE

If you are Rockefeller or any government official you know you will get the best care, but you take your life into your hands if you enter a ghetto hospital. In Chicago last year a black man took his seven year old daughter to the emergency room of Billings Hospital because she had festering sores in her mouth. The doctor refused to see her. The man objected and the nurse called a cop. The cop shot the man three times. He was in intensive care for three days and then died. Billings Hospital sent his wife a bill for $1,400. Last year alone three black people died working at that hospital literally from overwork or mis-medication. At Willowbrook State Hospital in New York State, Dr. Saul Krugman even now experiments on black and Latin ghetto kids, injecting them with infectious hepatitus to study the disease. In Billings Hospital pregnant black women were x-rayed to study the effects of x-rays on unborn children. Doctors already know it causes susceptibility to illness, deformities, etc. In New York a black woman named Carol Smith was involuntarily sterilized when she was in the hospital after delivering a child. This happens all the time.

Lobotomy operations (or "psycho-surgical" operations, as they are now called) are now being performed in many cities. In these operations part of the brain is destroyed, either by cutting it out or by introducing electrodes or harmful chemicals, etc. Proponents of these operations claim they have a remarkably calming effect. This is of course true. As with earlier lobotomies, they destroy part of the intellect. People become

During the Democratic Convention in Miami, (July 10-14) thousands of students including SDS, will be there to protest the war, racism, etc.

The U.S. government including the Democratic Party hasn't lifted a finger against racism in welfare cuts, practices like forced sterilization, police brutality, racism in the schools, etc. The U.S. government commits these crimes every day. They will stop at nothing, not even murder, to keep their profits for their big U.S. businessmen. And the Democratic
People who go to Miami can organize to defeat the racist acts and genocide of the government. Workers, students, welfare mothers, GI's can unite around this Bill. We can pass it around in our towns and cities before both conventions. GET EVERYONE & EVERY GROUP TO SIGN THE ANTI-RACISM BILL AND CO-SPONSOR IT. MAIL SIGNED BILLS BACK TO SDS (see blank on back). We will bring the bill with signatures to Miami to present as a platform to the Democratic Convention. We will demand that it be accepted and acted upon at once.

In Miami SDS plans to:

1) INDICT THE U.S. GOVERNMENT FOR GENOCIDE — CIRCULATE THE ANTI-RACISM BILL.....

(We are already sending the BIll and IR to all college and underground newspapers, groups like VVAW, NWRO, etc.)

II. Demonstrate against Racism in the welfare cuts on July 9th with the National Welfare Rights Org. (organizers of the march).

III. During the week of the Convention...

•••Circulate the Bill in the communities around Miami, at colleges, high schools, hospitals, shopping centers, places of work.

•••When in Miami, come to the SDS headquarters to pick up IR, stickers, Bills, etc., to build the action and demonstrations in Miami.

IV. COME TO DAILY MEETINGS IN MIAMI to discuss strategy and politics of what we can accomplish in Miami and how we're going to do it.

VI. Demonstrations and militant actions...

ON THURSDAY, JULY 13, SDS IS HOLDING A DEMONSTRATION TO MARCH TO THE CONVENTION HEADQUARTERS TO PRESENT THE BILL.
COME TO THE DEMONSTRATION. Help build for it. Get signatures on the BIll.

COME TO MIAMIFIGHT RACISM**

ANTI-RACISM BILL contd. from front

XI. ANYONE ON TRIAL for any offense shall have his own choice of lawyer. The government shall pay the fees.

XII. MEDICAL RESEARCHERS who experiment on minority people without their full comprehension or consent and without the full comprehension and consent of their immediate families shall be deemed to have committed a federal offense, punishable by not less than ten years imprisonment and with a maximum of life imprisonment.

★ THE EVIDENCE contd. from front

Unheavenly CITY, he proposed a welfare program almost exactly like Nixon's FAP. He calls for putting black welfare clients in "closely supervised housing" and taking children away from "deprived" welfare families. He says that black people rebel for "fun and profit" and that black people like to live in slum housing, that all people who are "never clean" are terribly decadent. There is a virtual campaign that pushes ideas like these on the campuses, lectures, in journals, etc. The U.S. government is very much a part of this campaign and indeed many of its main spokesmen are themselves high officials in the government. For instance, Banfield, Moynihan, Brembrenner (former head of Head Start).

★ POLICE BRUTALITY

Two years ago, a black 16-year-old in Troy, New York jay-walked across a street. Cops arrested him, took him to the station and beat him. The result?—severe brain damage and loss of sight. There have been thousands of injuries and fatalities in ghetto rebellions. In Boston, two years ago, a cop, Officer Dugan, shot a helpless black patient, Frank Lynch, and killed him. Lynch's crime? He allegedly flicked a towel in the air. In Chicago, Fred Hampton, a Black Panther, was machined-gunned down while sleeping in his bed. In Chicago, in the past two years, at least 67 blacks have been shot and killed by cops. At the Univ. of Illinois in Chicago, a cop shot at a black student. The administration is now trying to promote the cop.

★ HOUSING

In Troy, New York, slumlords Albert & Kirsch make deals with the government so they won't have to live up to fire codes. Two years ago seven black children perished in a fire in one of their slums. Every winter in New York City, thousands of black and latin families go heatless because the government doesn't enforce heating laws in the slums. Rat bites resulting in serious infections and sometimes death occur every day. There are countless examples of rotten housing condoned and overlooked and sometimes owned by the U.S. government, vegetables. Naturally vegetables aren't able to lead militant prison rebellions like Attica, or welfare protests, or fight discrimination in housing, let alone support their families. Doctors who perform psycho-surgery say it works best on black wom

"works best on black women." The U.S. Dept. of Justice is now funding a research center on lobotomies in California. The center is performing lobotomies on "problem prisoners," most of whom are blind, so they won't fight back. This is genocide in its most shocking form. Ignominies like these were a daily part of Nazi concentration camp life.

JOBS

"The last to be hired and the first to be fired" is a truism applied to minority people. The unemployment lines are disproportionately swelled with black and latin people. Many job application forms ask for your race. For instance, the form at Rensselaer Poly. Inst. in New York. And when you have a job, the wage differential between black and white workers working the same jobs is great. Black and latin people get the lousiest and most dangerous jobs. Workers at GE's largest plant, in Schenectady, New York, said that a tiny minority of blacks work there. Yet almost one-half of all on-the-job accidents happen to blacks. In the Chicago city school system, 134 janitors were just laid off. 131 of these were black.

SCHOOLS AND EDUCATION

From the moment you attend almost any city school you're part of a tracking system. And if you're black or latin you're bound to be put in the lowest track by racist school officials. And you cannot get out of that track. A black student, Walter McCarty, in upstate New York fought to get out of a vocational track for one year. He was unsuccessful. Throughout school, racist administrators harass, beat and even maim minority students. At Boston English High School last year, the school principal tried to choke a black student who was late to class. At Thompson Jr. High in Boston, a principal kicked a black student who had just had an operation in the kidney and broke his stitches. In Salt Lake City, a predominantly black parents group formed, allied with students at the University, to stop the beatings of their children by school officials. And even if a black student is allowed to enter college he will probably find he is at a school that has a quota of blacks. At the University of Illinois at Chicago Circle there is a special program for students who have come from high schools that haven't "prepared" them "well" for college. Oddly enough the program is almost all black and latin students to a person. What is the program? You have to take an extra year at Circle and pay for it yourself in order to graduate.

Racism in course-work is glaring. Herrnstein, Jensen, Shockley, Banfield — all these "noted" scholars whose books and articles are taught at literally thousands of schools, all argue that black and latin people either are culturally or genetically inferior. Banfield, probably the most widely read of the four, is a member of a Presidential Advisory Committee and under Johnson headed the Model Cities Program. In his book, The

In addition to speakers, entertainment will be provided by local and national stars who are expected in the Miami area for the Democratic National Convention.

On June 30, 1972, the "Miami Times", a weekly Miami, Florida, newspaper, primarily distributed in the Liberty City section of Dade County, reported a mass demonstration for national unity for Sunday, July 9, 1972, to be held in Manor Park. This article reported that the idea of the demonstration was initiated by SCLC and is co-sponsored by the NWRO and NTO. This newspaper article quoted Dr. RALPH ABERNATHY as saying "the purpose of this demonstration is to place before the delegates to the Democratic Convention the grave issues facing this nation in the 1972 election." In addition, Dr. ABERNATHY indicated that the demonstration of July 9 will challenge the Democratic Party with an opportunity to offer the kind of winning platform and victorious new leadership which the American people so desperately need.

Yippies plan sleep-in at golf course

The Youth International Party—Yippies—is planning to stage a "sleep-in" tonight at the Par Three Municipal Golf Course in Miami Beach, a site requested as an encampment during the upcoming political conventions.

Yippie spokesmen said today they are staging the sleep-in to dramatize the need for a non-delegate campsite and to put pressure on the Beach City Council which voted to deny the protesters an encampment in Miami Beach.

The spokesmen said the Yippies and their supporters are planning to stay on the golf course all night and are prepared to face arrest to dramatize their requests.

Police officials declined today to indicate whether they would arrest the demonstrators, saying that they will wait to see what happens during the protest.

The Beach council voted June 23 to authorize the Par Three Golf Course and three other Beach sites requested by non-delegates as staging areas for National Guardsmen being called in to the area during the conventions.

The Yippies and other protest groups have said that an encampment area in the Beach will be vitally needed. They have indicated that if no Beach campsites are made available, it may be difficult to maintain peace here this summer.

Yippies Abandon Golf Course, Say They'll Sleep at Temple

By ROB ELDER
Herald Staff Writer

The Youth International Party Monday night called off its plan to sleep on Miami Beach's Par Three golf course and said unnamed "city officials" have arranged for convention demonstrators to sleep until Wednesday at Temple Menorah at 620 75th St.

Surrounded by television cameras and about 150 onlookers, Yippie spokesmen Jeff Nightbyrd and Stew Albert made the announcement at the golf course.

"THE FIRST concrete gain was one from the city today," they said. "We now have a place for people to sleep."

Nightbyrd and Albert refused to identify the city officials whom they said made the arrangement.

They said they did not know how many non-delegates would sleep at the temple Monday and Tuesday nights.

But by 11 p.m. 40 youths wearing Zippie pins were at the golf course. Police cars passed occasionally, but the officers did not stop. An automatic sprinkler system, which usually starts watering at 10 p.m. had not gone into operation. The Zippies are a youthful offshoot of the yippies.

A local resident, Gary Potter, offered the demonstrators the use of his lawn at 31st Street and Royal Palm Avenue in case they should be run off by the police. YIP leaders wrote down his address for use in case the City Council continues refusing to designate a non-delegates' campsite.

The youths sat quietly on the golf course. A few had blanket rolls.

It was apparent that most wanted to avoid a confrontation with police. When one youth tossed an empty wine bottle into some trees, others warned him that was asking for trouble. One of them fetched the bottle and put it in a trash can.

The Yippies said they postponed plans to move into the golf course in order to "give the city time" to designate a campsite.

THE BEACH city council has approved a recommendation of City Manager Clifford O'Key not to allow demonstrators campsites within the city limits.

Mayor Chuck Hall, however, has said he hopes the council will reconsider at Wednesday's meeting.

The Yippies also said they will demonstrate at 11 a.m. Thursday at LaGorce County Club which they called a "racist institution that denies membership to Jews and blacks."

In shirt sleeves, Rabbi Mayer Abramowitz stood in front of the temple's social hall and youth center — across the street from the temple proper — and greeted about 25 youngsters who had arrived to spend the night by 10 p.m.

THE RABBI explained that "Rocky Pomerance called me about 6 p.m. and said the city would like to have a place to put these kids up."

Rabbi Abramowitz said he agreed to provide the youth hall to "avoid a confrontation" and because "I don't think we should be afraid of these young people or dislike them."

He said the youth hall can handle between 200 and 300 persons but will "definitely be available only through tonight" (Tuesday night), explaining that the temple ha

As the first arrivals sat on the carpeted floor of the youth hall one strummed a guitar while others explained how they happened to be there.

Jimmy Henderson, 16, said he arrived today after a nine-day hitchhiking trip from Harrisburg, Pa.

Why did he come? "I don't know."

"THERE'S 250 more coming on buses and that's a fact," he said.

Holding a smouldering stick of incense between his teeth, the youth said he and friends in Atlanta had passed out posters in that city proclaiming that there would be a rock concert on the golf course when youths arrived here.

Miami News Reporter

The Democratic Party has decided to bar all Justice Department or other security personnel closely associated with President Nixon from the Miami Beach Convention Center before or during the four-day Democratic convention, which starts next Monday.

Democratic Convention Manager Richard Murphy told The Miami News today: "I don't want former law partners of the President or any Nixon appointee whose job depends on the re-election of Nixon involved in any way with our security."

John Mitchell, who resigned Saturday as Nixon's campaign chairman, headed the Justice Department and is a former law partner of Nixon.

Murphy said he was concerned that other people associated with the White House or appointed by Nixon might be involved in decision-making roles outside the convention complex.

Murphy and the Democrats, however, have no control over security outside the center.

The decision on the part of the Democrats comes in the wake of these recent incidents:

● James McCord, security adviser to the Committee to Re-Elect the President, was charged with breaking into Democratic National Party headquarters in Washington. He allegedly was carrying film and some sophisticated listening devices. Four other men, two Republicans and two Democrats, all from Miami, were charged in the break-in.

● A complete set of keys to the Convention Center turned up missing.

● A former White House adviser, Howard E. Hunt, was linked to the alleged bugging attempt at Democratic headquarters. A .25-calibre gun, radio parts and plans of the Democratic Party office were found in his desk at the Executive Office Building, the President's office building.

● The five men arrested were found to have detailed drawings of the Convention Center and key Miami Beach hotels.

The Miami News has learned that at least one Nixon appointee, Harlington Wood Jr., executive officer for U.S. attorneys in the Justice Department has been in Miami and involved in security planning.

Before his appointment to the Justice Department, in 1969, Wood served as chief of ballot security for the Republican National Committee.

Murphy said Justice Department officials "have been in town for months booking rooms under assumed names." He complained: "I haven't heard from any of them, not even once."

He said he thought it peculiar that Justice Department officials would come to Miami to work on security arrangements and not consult with him.

Murphy said he had no complaints about Secret Service officers (employes of the Treasury Department) and praised Beach Police Chief Rocky Pomerance for his cooperation.

Murphy said he has complete confidence in Pomerance and the Secret Service and added, "Pomperance is one of the very best police officers I know."

In addition to Wood, Theodore Zanders and Roland Perry, two Washington, D.C., police officials, are in Miami involved in security for the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration of the Justice Department.

Zanders and Perry work for Washington Mayor Walter Washington, a Nixon appointee, and both men are considered close to the White House.

They are both career officers temporarily employed by the LEAA who have served under previous administrations, however, and it is not clear whether the ban applies to them as well.

Antiwar Groups Pledge Peace For Democratic Convention

BY EDNA BUCHANAN
Herald Staff Writer

Rennard (Rennie) Davis, a member of the Chicago Seven, pledged Monday, "There will not be another Chicago in Miami Beach in 1972.

"The message that will come out of Miami Beach in 1972 is one of young people and old people, the two groups that have the deepest appreciation of life, working together," Davis said.

Davis made the statement at a news conference announcing the alliance of his group, The People's Coalition for Peace and Justice, and the Miami Conventions Coalition in an effort to keep peace at the national political conventions and work seriously to dump Nixon and end the war.

"WE DON'T want people to think they're taking their lives in their hands coming to Miami Beach," said MCC spokeswoman Shari Whitehead.

In other convention developments Monday:

● The Army announced it would station between 1,000 and 3,000 paratroopers at Homestead Air Force Base during the Democratic Convention, with the timing and eventual size of the troop movement from Ft. Bragg, N.C., depending on how Miami Beach officials size up the threat of disturbances.

● Democratic convention manager Richard J. Murphy said he had told the Nixon Administration he will bar all politically appointed observers from the Justice and Treasury departments from the convention hall.

convention, will be announced after the Democratic Convention next week, they said.

Davis' PCPJ is a successor of the National Mobilization Committee which sponsored demonstrations during the 1968 Democratic convention in Chicago.

The Miami Conventions Coalition was formed during meetings in May in Washington, D.C. Organizers from the San Diego Convention Coalition, Florida People's Coalition and former May Day organizers joined forces to organize demonstrations for the Republican Convention next month.

A MILITARY advance party already is at Homestead AFB arranging shelter, eating facilities, communications and other details for the troops from Ft. Bragg. Homestead AFB is about 30 miles from the Miami Beach convention site.

The Army regulars are being drawn chiefly from the 82nd Airborne Division which has the standing responsibility for dealing with any East Coast civil disturbances when local and state governments ask for federal help.

The Army operation probably will be directed by Lt. Gen. John H. Hay Jr., who commands the 18th Airborne Corps headquartered at Ft. Bragg.

"What happens this week will dictate whether the task force will go down from Ft. Bragg early or not," one official said. There are indications the Army will keep several thousand additional troops on standby at Ft. Bragg, ready to be flown to Florida if needed.

DEMOCRATIC convention manager Murphy said the convention complex will be off limits before and during the Democratic convention to Justice Department or other security personnel whose jobs depend upon the President's re-election. Career people, such as FBI agents, whose jobs survive administration changes, are welcome, he said.

The decision to bar political appointees followed in the wake of the aborted bugging of the Democratic National Headquarters in Washington last month and the theft of a complete set of keys to the Miami Beach Convention complex.

Welfare Group Mobilizes for March

By GAYLE POLLARD
Herald Staff Writer

College students in dashikis, high schoolers in hot pants, and intense welfare mothers crowd into a three-room complex at Salem Baptist Church in Liberty City.

They are mobilizing for the National Welfare Rights Organization's convention which opens today on Miami Beach and for a protest march Monday night when the Democratic National Convention begins.

Armed with NWRO literature, the volunteers canvass their turf, preaching welfare rights and asking folks to join them in the Monday night march.

A LARGE blackboard serves as communication center as the young group, assisted by Dade County's 11 local welfare rights groups, puts their political thing together.

Most of the volunteers decided to work because they couldn't find paying summer jobs and wanted to do more than sit at home all summer.

University of Miami Senior, Panzy Hendrix, read about NWRO in the Miami Times. "I wanted to find out what it was — my bag is getting involved," she explained.

SHE HAS spent her vacation handling public relations, writing press releases and setting up public service announcements. She is a 20-year-old urban sociology major.

"This is a massive organization," she said of NWRO "bigger than I thought and run by many welfare recipients. The person who every-one least thinks about is boss, and can handle the job."

Sheila Miller, 18, learned about the volunteer effort from a girlfriend, she is coordinating transportation for the conference. After the conference she will get ready to return to the University of Miami.

DARK HAIRED Susan Ginsberg spends most of her day making and painting NWRO signs, posters, and banners. She heard about the program through the Volunteer Action Center and has learned how different people think.

Most of the volunteers are from nearby high schools, Florida Memorial College, UM, and Howard University in Washington, D.C. They spend most of their time taking NWRO information to the poor communities of Dade County.

Tall, skinny fellows pair with their friends to knock on doors and deliver leaflets in sections of Opa-locka, Coconut Grove, the Central District, Florida City, Homestead, Brownsville, Liberty City, and South Miami.

IN HOMESTEAD, the six-member team stops at the Homestead Community Center, before dividing to canvass the area. In the field, they work varied hours, sometimes in the mornings, afternoons, and nights to contact as many residents as possible.

Volunteer Angela Somerville explained why the area was included in the NWRO drive. "Most national organizations overlook these areas — these are the grass roots people down here." The warm reception from the people there encourages her to talk to more.

"We stress the conference, the demonstration, and the problems of poor people," she said. "We take down names and phone numbers so that we can relay information about our rallies and transportation."

BUT THE volunteers do not just preach NWRO policy. They listen and encourage the residents to share their problems. "We're not here to give anyone false hope or to make promises," Roger Johnson told one mother. "But we do plan to help."

Many residents complained about inadequate income in the area. "Most of my neighbors pick limes, work on farms, or at motels in the Keys ten hours a day," Mrs. Bertha Miller said as she watched neighbors' children. "They are paid $12 or $13 at best for their work," the older woman reported.

Health care is also a major concern in the area. A senior at Miami Edison, Johnson explained NWRO's preventive health care plan. "Instead of waiting for your child to get sick and go to the doctors, we want a program where all children will receive periodic check-ups to make sure they are healthy."

MOTHERS IN the area claimed that the local hospital, James Archer Smith, serves only those with medical insurance or proof that they can afford the treatment.

"When my daughter got sick, they took her all the way to Jackson Hospital in Miami," Mrs. Millie Smith said.

"When you take your child to a doctor around here, he doesn't see him until you think your child is going to die," Mrs. Jennie McMer said. "Before they see you, you've got to show money," the mother of six said.

SHE HAS only one or two teeth in her mouth, but hopes that her children can receive better dental care. Clad in a blue and green rose print dress, she invited the workers inside to talk about NWRO.

After having lemonade and gingerbread in another home, the young people moved on to hear other problems, and to rap NWRO in Homestead and Flordia City.

But teens in South Miami did not receive the warm welcome that their counterparts got in South Dade. "Most of the mothers were not home in our area," Christine Jackson explained as they got little response in the area around SW 62nd Ave. and Red Road.

"THE PROBLEM is that you can't get many people to cooperate out here," Miss Katherine Holton said of her neighbors. "That makes it hard for the people who really need help."

Although she and her two children receive no welfare, Miss Holton is interested in what NWRO can do for poor people. Unemployed, she would like to get said.

But some of the people in the area are content with their low income lifestyle. Mrs. Tepie W. Ball believes that "The scriptures teach you to be content with just such as you have."

Her white braids shone in the intense summer sun, as she sat under a huge mango tree, seeking shade. The 86-year-old woman explained that she has heart congestion and failure, but she is satisfied with the welfare she receives. However, the hard of hearing woman would like NWRO to help her neighbors.

A group representing five of the 10 organizations planning protests during the Democratic convention pledged today it would not disrupt the convention or the community in any way next week.

The People's Coalition for Peace and Justice announced that protests by the groups it represents will be legal and nonviolent.

"We have seen too much of the violence perpetrated on the people of Indochina and minorities here in the United States to be party to any violence against the people of Miami Beach," said Rennie Davis, a leading member of the PCPJ and a key organizer of demonstrations at the 1968 Democratic convention in Chicago.

He made his comments at a press conference in Miami Beach.

The PCPJ, which was based group which encompasses more than 500 local New York groups and about 100 national activist organizations, issued its "pledge of nondisruption" in concert with the Miami Conventions Coalition, an affiliate member of PCPJ planning pro-

Besides the MCC, the coalition's members planning convention protests include the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, the National Welfare Rights Organization, the Vietnam Veterans Against the War and the National Tenants Organization.

Four of the other groups planning protests here — the Youth International Party-Yippies, the Youth International Party-Zippies, the People's Party and the National Coalition of Gay Organizations — all have said they support nonviolent demonstrations during the Democratic convention.

The other group, the Miami Women's Coalition, could not be reached for comment today. It is understood, however, that the women's group also supports nonviolent protest tactics.

The PCPJ, which was formed in February, 1971, as a coalition of peace and anti-poverty groups, has gained prominence as the leading national organization planning mass anti-war actions and civil rights demonstrations in the nation.

The PCPJ, which is expecting to have about 20 organizers in the Miami area in the coming weeks, is not planning any protests of its own during the Democratic convention, but is supporting the various actions of its constituent members.

In announcing a policy of nondisruption during the Democratic convention, the PCPJ and the MCC made no mention of tactics planned during the Republican parley in August.

Bob Lamb, a spokesman for the MCC, explained that today's statement was meant to focus solely on the Democratic convention. He said he feels "sure that there will be a similar pledge issued" for the GOP conclave.

It is understood that the PCPJ and the MCC are now debating whether to endorse the use of nonviolent civil disobedience during the Republican convention here Aug. 21-23.

One of the constituent members of the PCPJ, the Mayday Tribe, used such tactics in Washington, D.C., in May, 1971. The action resulted in more than 6,000 arrests.

Davis, a defendant in the trial of the Chicago 7 after the 1968 Democratic convention and a leader of the May Day action, emphasized today that such tactics have been completely ruled out for the Democratic parley next week.

U.S. Judge Bans Use Of Parade Ordinance

Permits Challenged By ACLU

Peace Pledge..... 3B

By CAROLYN JAY WRIGHT
Herald Staff Writer

The city of Miami Beach was temporarily prohibited Monday from enforcing its parade permit ordinance by U.S. District Court Judge C. Clyde Atkins.

Ruling on a suit filed by the American Civil Liberties Union on behalf of non-delegate groups planning to demonstrate at the Democratic and Republic conventions, Atkins gave the city 10 days to file arguments before he decides whether the ordnance is constitutional. The Democratic convention begins next week.

HOWEVER, Atkins announced Monday he has strong doubts about the validity of the ordinance and cited several "deficiencies" in the law. Among them were its failure to specifically define a parade in terms of the minimum number of participants, the requirement that a permit must be filed "not less than 15 days" before the event and its failure to delineate standards for appellate review.

City Attorney Joseph Wanick said after the hearing "right now we have no parade ordinance." Referring to an earlier statement by Atkins that if the law is found to be unconstitutional the City Council may enact another, more specific ordinance, Wanick said, "I'm inclined to think I'll advise the council that it's impossible to draw an ordinance that will meet the approval of the federal courts."

The parade permit ordinance adopted four weeks ago requires, among other things, that an application be filed with the chief of police 15 days before the event. The ordinance exempts parades sponsored by federal or municipal governments and gives the police chief sole discretion to abandon the 15-day filing requirement.

Peter Nimkoff who, along with ACLU special counsel Bruce Rogow and Legal Services of Greater Miami attorney Steven Wisotsky, argued against the ordinance, saying it was vague and overbroad

Only 6,000 protesters expected, official says

By RICK EYERDAM and ROBERT B. STULBERG
Miami News Reporters

Official intelligence on the number of non-delegates expected in Dade County during the Democratic National Convention indicates that no more than 6,000 protesters will come to the county for the July conclave.

The figures were gathered and reported to The Miami News by George Rodericks, head of Washington, D.C., Civil Defense and a special consultant to County Manager Ray Goode for the conventions.

The figures show that more than half of the non-delegates have already reserved hotel rooms.

Rodericks said that about 2,000 will be seeking a place to camp. One protest group which is expected to bring over 1,500 has agreed to accept a site on Watson Island.

Rodericks said he based his information on 10 days of extensive research during which he contacted non-delegate leaders here and around the country.

Rodericks said he compared those figures with official police intelligence reports and arrived at the final figure.

He said that after talking with only non-delegate leaders the highest number they predicted was a total of 7,500 non-Dade Countians.

He added that those predictions are slightly inflated but reflect a "realistic appraisal" on the part of non-delegate leaders.

Rodericks said the reason the numbers were so low is that "movement people are broke and are having a hard time getting down here." He also said that those who could afford to make only one trip would be coming in August for the Republican National Convention.

Unofficial estimates of the number of non-delegates expected at the Democratic convention, July 10-13, have ranged from 5,000 to 50,000. Estimates for the Republican conclave, Aug. 21-23, range from 25,000 to 150,000.

The latest police plans call for at least 4,329 police officers and National Guardsmen to be in the Miami area in addition to unannounced numbers of federal troops and federal police officers such as the FBI and Secret Service.

At present, plans call for more National Guardsmen to be camped out in the Miami area than other non-delegates.

Guarded Convention

Welcome

Shapes Up

By EDNA BUCHANAN And SAM JACOBS
Herald Staff Writers

The mixed atmosphere of cordiality and apprehension on Miami Beach Sunday was exemplified at the Convention Hall:

A giant marquee offered greetings, "Thanks for Coming. Have a Great Time." It stood behind a high, protective wire fence.

This is the week the Democratic National Convention delegates and non-delegates — the power brokers, the dissidents, the hangers-on and the curious — arrive. There will be somewhere between 5,000 and 100,000 depending on who is estimating.

THE FIRST of the summer's political conventions starts next Monday. But by Sunday, the key question of whether to provide a campsite for non-delegates had not been settled.

Miami Beach Mayor Chuck Hall said Sunday that "it's quite possible" there will be specially scheduled City Council meeting before the regularly set Wednesday meeting.

The council has voted 5-2 against granting campsites to non-delegates, despite Hall's urging.

During the weekend, negotiations were under way between city officials and Southern Christian Leadership Conference members for use of Flamingo Park. — if the SCLC will take in other groups. City Manager Clifford O'Key is expected to make a recommendation by Wednesday.

MEANWHILE, Operation Backbone, a group of local residents opposed to giving protesters campsites in the city met Sunday.

Attorney Ellis Rubin said three options are being offered members for a vote today and Tuesday. They are:

● If the SCLC is given Flamingo Park, Operation Backbone members will petition to camp at the park at the same time. "If it's fair to visitors, it's fair to the taxpayers who support the park," Rubin said.

● A counter-demonstration under the flags of South Vietnam, Israel, Cuba and the United States. "If Mayor Hall wishes to parade with convicted felon, Jerry Rubin this calls for a show of our colors."

● If a campsite is granted, legal proceedings will be started to "stop usurpation of public property."

Rubin said his group, counting those who signed petitions, numbers more than 1,500. Only 10 however attended Sunday's meeting.

The membership's decision will be announced at a noon, Fourth of July press conference at Rubin's Miami Beach home and presented to the City Council meeting the following day.

DISTRICT of Columbia Civil Defense Director George Roderick, who has suggested the campsite plan now under negotiation, said the bus companies and other transportation sources in the Washington-to-Boston axis, which sends most demonstrators to the capitol, reported no plans for organized transportation south by non-delegates

With a week to the opening gavel, a lone demonstrator stood at his post in blazing 90 degree heat.

Douglas Voorhees, 60, of Miami, held a homemade sign urging: "Wallace. If not, Nixon."

Standing near a security guard checking cars into the convention complex on Washington Avenue, Voorhees said he was the self-appointed stand-in for "millions of Wallace people who can't make it."

Feverish activity continued inside the complex throughout the weekend, including a minor war between the Democrats and the city of Miami Beach.

Democratic National Convention Manager Richard J. Murphy said he had refused to agree to a 17 per cent catering charge the city had levied on all food served at the Convention Hall.

In retaliation, Murphy charged, the city temporarily shut down power to the hall Saturday, cutting off air conditioners in work trailers and leaving telephone and electrical installers unable to continue work in 120-degree indoor heat.

The Democrats said power was restored Sunday.

Convention complex manager Norman Litz denied it had ever been interrupted.

"We've had the air conditioners on for the last week

Chuck Hall
... special meeting?

with no problem," he said.

He said he hoped the squabble over the catering charge would be resolved today.

SUNDAY the usual weekend golfers teed off at Bayshore, slated to be the site of a 3,000 man National Guard encampment, and Par Three Golf Course.

Lummus Park, a sandy stretch of South Beach, was crowded throughout the weekend with the usual senior citizens in bathing suits and Cuban families cooling off in the surf.

A crowd of 500-600 South Beach senior citizens and Youth International Party (YIP) members picnicked there together Sunday afternoon.

The Yippies showed up with a truckload of watermelons, 600 cups of orange juice and 50 pounds of peanuts.

The oldsters brought five cases of oranges.

Yippie coordinator Jeff Nightbyrd said the picnic was aimed at dispelling scare rumors and debunking talk of crime in the streets.

NIGHTBYRD said his group would go further than supporting a non-violence pact proposed by Rennie Davis and the Coalition for Peace and Justice.

"We think there's been too much stress on violence. We think a peacefulness pact is better than a non-violence pact."

Another speech was given by Mrs. Rose Berek, 78, of 1035 Meridian Ave. She urged her fellow senior citizens to get together with the young voters, combining "our wisdom and their strength," to help nominate and elect Sen. George McGovern.

At the Miami Beach Police Station, work was being completed on the formerly open front entrance to the headquarters, 120 Meridian Ave.

Ralph Abernathy
... 500 followers

A huge second floor plate glass window has been filled in with cement blocks and the first floor glass doors and steps leading to them are now encased in what looks like a giant iron cage.

Police say the work is intended as "hurricane protection."

Chief Rocky Pomerance's office is now insulated from the public by locked, buzzer-operated doors.

Vacations and days off have been canceled for Miami Beach's entire 230-man police department throughout the conventions.

The number of law enforcement personnel committed to convention security has been beefed up.

Miami Police Chief Bernard Garmire said he has assigned 105 men to the convention site with three additional 100-man task forces which will be deployed, if needed, to Miami Beach or mainland trouble spots.

The Dade Public Safety Department, with 500 persons assigned to convention related activities has increased the number of men assigned to the scene from 127 to 274.

There is a commitment of 3,000 National Guardsmen and more than 400 state police.

Beach officers completed final intensive training Friday and tested new night-vision equipment, among sophisticated apparatus acquired for the conventions. Officers described it as bulky and "probably better suited for use in Vietnam than Miami Beach."

As the countdown draws closer to zero hour, the city's police blotter reflects no more activity than usual for this time of year.

BLACK non-delegates will begin arriving in Miami Beach Wednesday and Thursday.

"We are going to start building Resurrection City on Thursday in Miami Beach," Southern Christian Leadership Conference organizer Ray Betts said Sunday.

He said the encampment, tentatively planned for Flamingo Park, five blocks from Convention Hall on Miami Beach's south shore, will be mostly tents and possibly a few shanties.

The 500 SCLC followers of Rev. Ralph Abernathy, who now is touring the South, will arrive by chartered bus.

THE FIRST black demonstration will be at 4:30 p.m. Saturday by the National Tenants Organization headquartered at the Tides Hotel. Originally planned as a march from the Tides to Convention Hall the march may originate instead at Resurrection City.

The SCLC will rally at 3 p.m. Sunday in Liberty City's Manor Park.

About 1,200 welfare mothers arrive Wednesday to attend the sixth annual National Welfare Rights Organization (NWRO) Conference, which runs through Sunday.

NWRO members who are delegates will push a poor people's platform at the convention while others show support outside.

Headquartered at the Coronet and Crest Hotels and the Chanin Motel, the NWRO members have reservations for 1,200 but more members from Dade and Broward counties are expected to bus in daily.

THEY WILL march for the first time next Monday, joined by the NTO and SCLC.

The Students for a Democratic Society have applied for a permit to demonstrate against racism, the war and the ROTC July 11.

The Viet Vets Against the War are expected to have a few people here. Those that are coming say they will arrive at the last minute.

Members of a group called Green Power Feeds Millions have settled in Coconut Grove during the past week. The claim no political affiliation and no plans for demonstrations. Their only intent, says president Cleo Knight, 53, from California, is to set up free kitchens at the campsites.

"We've been planning for a year and a half to feed the non-delegates at the conventions. We're busy now gathering tax deductible donations of food, money and storage space.

"WE WERE preparing to feed 150,000 at San Diego," Knight said.

Knight operates the Green Power Foundation's free store in downtown Hollywood, Calif. The group's center here is at 3113 Mary St., Coconut Grove.

Spokesmen for the major airlines said they expect heavier than normal traffic this week, with the big convention influx coming Saturday and Sunday.

National will be adding extra flights from New York and Baltimore Saturday and Sunday. Eastern, Delta, United and Northwest Orient have charter flights bringing state delegations between Friday and Sunday — most arriving Saturday.

Ellis Rubin
... three options

Buses will take the delegates to their hotels after meeting the chartered flights at a special area in the north end of the terminal, keeping the lobby and cargo facilities from becoming clogged by crowds.

The hotels of Miami and Miami Beach are expected to slowly fill between Friday and Monday.

THE DORAL Country Club has delegate reservations from 504 Californians, while 517 New Yorkers, 330 Illinois Democrats and 62 from Arizona are booked into the Diplomat.

Delegates have reservations at three dozen major hotels.

Because of security arrangements, only the Secret Service will know exactly on which floor of the hotels the Democratic candidates for president are staying when they arrive later this week.

Security restrictions are tighter than ever because of the attempted assassination of Alabama Gov. George Wallace at Laurel, Md., May 15.

Five floors of the Sheraton Four Ambassadors on Brickell Avenue, containing 100 suites ranging in size up to 2,260 square feet, will be blocked off for Wallace and his party.

WALLACE will check into the hotel in a wheelchair Saturday, attend a reception that night and will be wheeled to a special six-chair box with a portable ramp on the convention floor two days later.

South Dakota Sen. George S. McGovern comes to the convention with the most delegates and also the most rooms. He has 534 scattered among nine hotels and motels, including 235 in the Doral Hotel, where he will be headquartered on Collins Avenue in Miami Beach.

A total of 470 rooms, nearly two-thirds of the capacity of the Americana Hotel, are reserved for Maine Sen. Edmund Muskie. Close behind are the forces of Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota with 450 rooms, exactly three-fourths of the Carillon Hotel.

The remaining candidates required far less space.

Former Gov. Terry Sanford of North Carolina took 100 rooms in the DiLido and McAllister hotels. Sen. Henry M. Jackson of Washington reserved 90 at the Montmartre.

Fifty rooms apiece were enough for Rep. Shirley Chisholm of New York at the Deauville and former Gov. Endicott Peabody of Massachusetts at the Americana. Sen. Mike Gravel of Alaska reserved 30 at the Americana.

Beach Camp For SCLC, Others Eyed

By EDNA BUCHANAN
Herald Staff Writer

Plans for a possible non-delegate Miami Beach campsite — a miniature Resurrection City integrated with other protest groups at Flamingo Park — were under negotiation Saturday.

The plan, proposed to Miami Beach city officials by civil defense expert George Roderick, would authorize the Rev. Ralph Abernathy's Southern Christian Leadership Conference to camp in the park — provided the SCLC takes in other groups.

RODERICK who has helped guide Washington through more than 400 political demonstrations, is serving as consultant to Dade County Manager Ray Goode during this summer's national political conventions.

City Manager Clifford O'Key said Saturday that he would probably meet with the SCLC this weekend.

Surrounded by senior citizens' condominiums, the spacious park, at 1245 Michigan Ave., boasts a pool, recreation buildings, tennis courts and large grassy areas. It borders Alton Road and is within easy walking distance, about five blocks from the Convention Complex.

Abernathy has asked for the site as a campground for his group of 500 Youth International Party (YIP) members have said they will bed down on the City's Par Three golf course Monday night despite lack of official approval.

SO FAR A five-two vote of the Miami Beach City Council has voted down all requests for campsites.

City officials said "delicate negotiations" with SCLC members were in progress throughout the weekend and would provide O'Key with the background necessary to make a recommendation to the council at its Wednesday meeting.

O'Key said he did not believe he would have a recommendation before Wednesday.

The city remained its sleepy summer self Saturday with no influx of non-delegates.

They have been granted unofficial approval for camping at Miami's Watson Island, off the MacArthur Causeway, and at Dade's Haulover Park, a stretch of oceanfront north of Miami Beach.

"Nobody's pitched the first tent yet," said Miami Beach Police Capt. John Tighe.

Peaceful Convention?

Only

If It's McGovern's

By VICTOR RIESEL

WASHINGTON — It will be "guerrilla theater" all the way along Miami Beach's coastal stretch causeways and lagoons — for the duration. Word from the neo-New Left, directed by the aging 22-year-old veterans of the '68 battle of Chicago's lakefront, is that it will be all very gay: kiss-ins, love-ins and sleep-outs during the Democratic National Convention. But that the Republican nominating sessions later must "be forced to become an armed camp."

Riesel

And that the "Republican Convention should not be allowed to proceed in peace."

And the "Republican Convention will be met by confrontation, serious resistance and non-violent civil disobedience."

THE strike forces are being organized by the Miami Conventions Coalition — an alliance of the San Diego Convention Coalition and the Florida People's Coalition.

But the Democrats, despite the Coalition's avowed dedication to Sen. McGovern, are not taking seriously all the gay talk about Miami being a flower people's idyll early in July. Few national leaders take promises of street peace for granted.

On the morning of June 19, this concern for the safety of Presidential candidates brought together two men who have been at each other's philosophical throats for years — the U.S. Chamber of Commerce's executive vice president Arch Booth and AFL-CIO president George Meany. Booth went over to the labor headquarters. There they worked out a common security plank for presentation to the Democratic Platform Committee and later to the Republicans. It called for mandatory protection of political leaders on the Presidential and Vice Presidential nominee level, regardless of the candidates' personal wishes.

Furthermore, as this is written there are, in a Miami huddle with local gendarmes, representatives not only of the Secret Service, the FBI, the Justice Dept.'s Internal Security Division (Director William Olson) and the Senate Internal Security Committee, but a special nine-man National Democratic Security Advisory Committee.

This band of skilled counterintelligence and police specialists, under the direction of convention director Dick Murphy, who has been in Miami for weeks, is taking no chances on an invasion of Convention Hall. In the band are a former Secret Service inspector, a former U.S. Postal inspector, former state and municipal police chiefs, and Sidney Cates, founder and first president of the National Police Community Relations Assn.

Their assignment is to protect the hall itself. They know that the Miami Conventions Coalition, centrally guided through a central switchboard, will be peaceful only if Sen. McGovern is nominated. They believe it will be the 1968 Chicago-Gene McCarthy script all over again — if McGovern doesn't make it. They know the Coalition has "contingency" plans for militant action should the South Dakotan be stopped — by some very old-fashioned "practical politics" of some skilled veteran city "bosses" and national labor leaders.

Knowledgeable insiders believe the contingency plans call for invoking the strategy prepared for the Republican Convention beginning Aug. 21. These are "May Day" tactics. Concentration on the hotel area. Disruption of traffic. Assaults on the police. Attempts to march on and force convention doors and get at the delegates. Those familiar with the Miami area know that it has been simple to rent private aircraft. These could be a problem.

Attempts will be made by the Coalition to stir the huge Cuban community. There is talk of "Third World Peoples' action."

ONE new Left publication puts it tersely: "The plans for the Democrats, starting July 9, involve militant mass demonstrations — but only if McGovern does not win the nomination." This has been shown to McGovern's men. Neither he nor they have commented. Neither did Gene McCarthy — not even when it got rough on the Michigan Boulevard-Hotel Hilton front in '68.

For a view of what is being prepared for the Republicans, so you shall know what the contingency plans are for the Democratic hurricanes, there is what the Coalition calls the "People's World's Fair-Expose '72." The main "focus of Expose will be the Republican convention," says the New Left. "The plans are to have extensive displays of the Nixon doctrine, with movies, guerrilla theater, etc."

Current "liberation" struggles around the world will be played on the streets. In addition to workshops, the Coalition is preparing ambulance and other services.

These demonstarations can be peaceful — or bloody and ugly. Only those of us who were in front-line action in Chicago know just how ugly, and what the Coalition leaders will do to get themselves on camera after provoking police counteraction.

Fact is — Chicago Mayor Richard Daley said recently there still are Chicago cops who have not recovered from assaults four years ago. And one young New York policeman still is paralyzed four years after the Columbia University confrontation.

Hope now is that all will go peacefully. But no one is taking any chances.

By RICK EVERYDAM and ROBERT B. STULBERG
Miami News Reporters

State and local law enforcement officials, acting on advice from the U.S. Justice Department, have overhauled security plans for the upcoming political conventions. The new plans involve a new, paramilitary strategy which will nearly double the number of policemen committed exclusively to crowd and riot control.

The Miami News has learned from sources closely involved in convention planning that the City of Miami, Dade County and state agencies will drastically increase police strength and reaction potential during the conventions by taking hundreds of men off regular patrol duty in their communities and forming them into special "mobile task force units."

The "mobile task force units," which will number from 50 to 100 officers each, will be held in reserve and will be prepared to move anywhere in the county to absorb the brunt of any possible civil disturbance during the convention periods.

Miami Beach, Miami, Metro and state police officer participation numbered 882 men prior to the revised plan. The new figure would be more than 1,329 not counting an expected state manpower increase.

The Miami News has learned of these changes:

City of Miami's original commitment was 105 members of its 700-man force. The revised plan calls for 405 officers to be committed.

Metro's original plan sent 127 men of its 1,089-man force. Under the new plan, Dade is putting 274 men into the task force.

Miami Beach's commitment remains at 250 of its 300 men.

The state's original commitment was 400 men. It, too, will be increased, but the state refuses to say by how many.

There will be no change in the 3,000-man National Guard commitment.

The adoption of the new "mobile task force" security plan comes less than two weeks before the start of the Democratic National Convention, which will be held at the Beach Convention Center July 10-13.

The overhaul of the security preparations represents a significant change in police plans for the conventions which, until now, were designed to use a minimum number of police to prevent and respond to potential disorders.

The change in security plans will necessitate last-minute revisions of a $2 million request for security aid which the county filed two weeks ago with the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration of the Justice Department.

It is understood that the state — which already has received the requested LEAA funds — is withholding the funds from the county until county officials revise their application to make provisions for the new security plans.

State officials explained this week that the county, in its initial application for the LEAA funds, requested money to pay for only police overtime, communications equipment and arrest-booking equipment needed in the original security plan.

The applications made no provision for facilities and equipment needed under the newly-adopted plan, such as food and housing for the "mobile task force units," or means of transport for the special para-military police details.

Ed Dunn, legal counsel to Gov. Reubin Askew, told The Miami News that, while the state is temporarily withholding the $2 million federal grant from Dade County, it has forwarded to the county a supplemental $384,960 LEAA grant which will be used to compensate local police departments for training costs incurred during the summer.

Dunn said county officials have assured him in the past week that they will rewrite their grant application for the $2 million to encompass the needs of the new security plan.

The new plan, which Dunn described as an "inter-local plan . . . designed to mobilize our local police resources and to utilize state police resources, in part in mobile task forces," was adopted at a meeting here last weekend of top local, state and federal law enforcement officials involved in convention security planning.

Men behind new plan

The plan, which will be used during both the Democratic and Republican Conventions, was reportedly first suggested by three LEAA police advisors who have been brought in from the Washington, D.C. and the Los Angeles, Calif. police departments.

The three federal consultants identified as the primary backers of the new security plan are Theodore Zanders, a Washington, D.C. deputy police chief; Roland Perry, a Washington, D.C. police lieutenant; and Robert Konstaturos, a lieutenant from the Los Angeles Police Department.

The Miami News has earned that all three have been working in Miami Beach as paid employees of the LEAA. Reliable police sources say the three — all riot-control experts — have been urging local police officials to adopt tough police tactics at the conventions.

Under the plan, police sources indicated this week, at least five "mobile task force units" will be stationed at or near Miami Beach for 12-hour shifts during the duration of the conventions.

If a civil disorder should break out in Miami Beach or elsewhere in the county during the conventions, the special units will be hustled into buses and squad cars and rushed to the scene of the disturbance.

The original security plan, encompassed in the county's $2 million LEAA grant application, called for about 250 police from the county to take a fixed position on Miami Beach during the conventions to supplement the 250 Miami Beach police who will be on full-time convention duty.

Under the now-defunct plan, if additional force was needed on the Beach, police could be assembled and brought in from the outside. But the plan made no provision for special "task force units" and assumed that outside forces would be used mainly to patrol their own jurisdictions.

How forces will deploy

Although police officials said this week that the new security plans have not yet been worked out in full, several detailed aspects of the plans emerged from discussions with local government and police sources.

According to Miami News sources, the plan will involve the following commitments and deployments:

● The Miami police department, which was originally slated to provide 105 men for convention duty on the Beach, will provide an additional 300 men for three mobile task force units of 100-men each, to be set up starting 7 a.m., July 9.

One of the 100-man units will be stationed at an as yet undetermined location at Miami Beach and will be under the immediate command of Miami Police Major John Fonner.

The other two 100-man units will probably be billeted at the Patrolmen's Benevolent Association headquarters at 2300 NW 13th St. in Miami and will be commanded by Miami Police Major A. J. McLaughlin.

"The task forces will be centrally located to be able to respond to calls in Brownsville, Coconut Grove or on Miami Beach," a top-ranking Miami police officer, who asked that he not be identified, said.

● Dade County, which originally committed 117 police to man positions around the convention site and 10 plainclothesmen to patrol inside the convention center, will assign an additional 147 men to the two separate task forces.

41 Metro men at Beach

One of the task forces, which will be stationed at the Beach, will be made up of 41 men. The other, also to be bivouaced on the Beach, will consist of 106 men.

A police source said that the Metro task forces will "be sent wherever the need is at the time." He explained that the units — like all the other task forces — will have cross-juridictional powers.

The source indicated that the Metro units will be commanded by a Dade Public Safety Department captain. A joint council of local, state and federal law enforcement officials will decide where and when all the task force units will be called into action.

● Several state law enforcement agencies will also take part in the "mobile task force unit" plans. These agencies include the Florida Highway Patrol, Marine Patrol, Wildlife and Game Warden's Division and the State Beverage Department.

State won't disclose numbers

The state was committed under the old plan to field 400 men for convention duty at the Beach, working in fixed position in and around the convention site.

State enforcement officials declined to disclose how many additional men will be called to take part in the new plan.

● The Miami Beach police Department will maintain its commitment of 250 men of its 300-man force under the new plan. It is not known if any of the men will be deployed in special mobile units.

Miami Beach Capt. Ozzie Kruideneir refused to discuss details of the plan yesterday.

● Three thousand National Guard troops will remain at the ready for convention duty in seven high schools throughout the county. The Guard was included in the previous security plans.

In addition, an unspecified number of federal troops will be "pre-positioned" on federal property in the county.

The troops, which can only be called in by federal executive order, probably will be stationed at Homestead Air Force Base and probably will be drawn primarily from the 82nd Airborne Division in Ft. Bragg, N.C.

It is understood that the new security plans will also involve a change in the chain of command for the forces. Most likely, sources said, the entire mobilized force will be placed under the guidance of a "unified command."

Military plan of response

Although the previous security plans made some provision for a joint decision-making in the event of disorders, Miami Beach Police Chief Rocky Pomerance was placed in nominal control of all forces on the Beach and the other municipal police chiefs were put in control of any forces used within their jurisdictions.

The primary difference between the new plan and the old plan, the police sources said, is that the new plan will enable police to respond to disorders in military fashion, mounting heavily-equipped units in massive numbers.

"We'll be able to call on reserve units as necessary," Miami Beach Capt. Kruideneir explained, "If the need is there, we will be able to call on the radio and feel that they'll be able to respond quickly."

According to Coral Gables Police Chief William Kimbrough, — whose police force reportedly will not be used in the new plan — the new security guidelines were worked out at a meeting Tuesday which he described as "a mass of confusion."

Kimbrough told the Gables City Commission this week that at the planning meeting "an alleged expert in Washington" suggested the plan and urged each municipality involved in the convention planning to provide three-fifths of its police force for convention duty.

Men behind the advice

Reliable sources closely involved in convention security planning identified the "alleged expert in Washington" as Zanders and said that the other federal advisors were Perry and Konstanturos.

According to the sources, the three men all strongly urged local officials adopt the new plans, which are patterned after similar riot control units used in Washington, D.C.

"Zanders is one of the consultants who devised the plan," said Dunn from the Governor's office, "But it is not fair to call it the Zanders' plan.

"This plan is a consensus of Zanders and the other police consultants and Bill Reed (head of the Florida Bureau of Law Enforcement) and local participants," he added.

The Miami News learned today that Zanders, Konstanturos and Perry have since April 28, been working for the LEAA, advising local officials on tactics and over-all security strategy for the conventions.

Services were requested

In recent weeks, local police officials have acknowledged that the three have been on the Beach advising police on matters of security, but have said that the three were not working directly for any federal agency.

Hal Alabaster, a spokesman for the LEAA in Washington, D.C., today denied, in a telephone interview with the News, that Zanders and the other two advisors were working for the Justice Department agency.

The News obtained today, however, a copy of an LEAA grant application filed months ago by Miami Beach officials, specifically requesting the services of Zanders, Perry and Konstanturos.

The application, which requested a supplemental grant to the $395,424 grant given to the Miami Beach police last November for convention equipment and training, was reported approved many months ago.

$19,539 in salaries

The grant specifically allocates $19,539 to pay the salaries of the three advisors, as well as provisions for paying their traveling expenses to Miami Beach.

"In order to maximize police services before, during, and in between the convention periods," the grant application reads, "arrangements have been made to utilize the considerable expertise of three highly qualified police supervisors of the cities of Washington, D.C. and Los Angeles, California, where demonstrations and civil disorders have been dealt with most effectively."

"Each of the . . . named consultants have functioned extensively as field commanders during periods of civil disorders and demonstrations in the named cities. We propose to "borrow" the following persons, for a nine-ty-three day period, from 28 April through August, 1972," read the application.

The grant application goes on to say that the federally-paid advisers will "assist in developing operational plans, establishing procedures and coordinating local and state law enforcement units in effective conventions security, particularly related crowd and-or disorder control."

In addition, it says, the men "will provide on-site technical assistance capability to insure continuity and execution of established plans and for contingencies which may arise during the conventions period."

Zanders streesed local need

Zanders, who commands the 100-man Civil Disturbance Unit of the Washington, D.C. police, is credited with organizing the mass arrests of demonstrators during the May Day protests in the Capital in 1971.

Konstanturos is the author of the Los Angeles police civil disturbance manual and was reportedly active in police pacification of the Watts riots, in which 34 people died.

Perry reportedly works in the CDU in Washington D.C. under Deputy Chief Zanders.

Informed sources said that Zanders had advocated the creation of the task force units here specifically to increase local police involvement in riot control so that the National Guard and federal troops would not have to be used.

Those sources see the strategy as an effort to avoid embarrassment on the part of Gov. Askew — who would have to call in National Guard troops.

They also contend that the strategy virtually eliminates the possibility that President Nixon would have to order in federal troops in the case of wide spread civil disturbanc.

Capt. Ozzie Kruideneir, top coordinator of convention planning for Miami Beach police, also said the new plan will lessen the chances that the state will have to call in the National Guard to quell disturbances during the conventions.

He explained that the plan would enable local authorities to mobilize a maximum number of police in minimum amount of time, enabling local police officials to deal with civil disorders in a forceful way without reliance on outside help.

Although Goode and Dunn expressed the same confidence that the new plan would lead to better utilization of local resources and better overall control, other local police officials confided that they had grave reservations about the plan.

They viewed it as an effort to get federal and state officials "off the hook" by placing the burden of crisis control on the more visible local authorities.

Concern over local duties

They also expressed concern that the chances of a civil disturbance will be heightened by the removal of over 500 officers from normal patrol duties in areas which have a history of turmoil.

The delay in granting the $2 million grant requested by the County could cause additional problems.

The grant included requests for sophisticated communications equipment which must be tested and deployed no later than next Thursday.

In addition thousands of new pieces of arrest and booking equipment must be delivered, uncrated, organized and set up.

Further, a key aspect of the grant is a request for $1.7 million in overtime pay for police, judicial and clerical workers. If some of the positions are struck from the revised grant the county will be faced with making up the difference or cutting back its staffing.

Personnel carriers arrive at National Guard armory on NW 7th Ave

'Tent city' going up at Homestead base

Soldiers are building an encampment at Homestead Air Force Base for regular Army troops assigned to duty during the national political conventions on Miami Beach.

Military spokesmen declined to say how many men would be on standby when the Democrats convene July 10 in Convention Hall 25 miles north of this base, but enough tents were erected to provide shelter for hundreds.

A number of armored personnel carriers were lined up in the tent city being erected near the airstrip at which the presidential jet, Air Force One, customarily lands when President Nixon visits Florida.

Other vehicular support was arriving at the National Guard armory at NW 7th Avenue and 28th Street.

Senior officers said they were unable to identify the units participating in convention duty preparations, but a sign had been put on view that welcomed the 82nd Airborne Division to the encampment. The airborne division was welcomed to "the Flamingo Hilton," according to the sign, which alluded to demands by protest groups that they be allowed to camp at Flamingo Park in Miami Beach.

DEMONSTRATION AT DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION,
JULY, 1972

A confidential source, contact with whom has been insufficient to determine degree of reliability, but who is in a position to furnish reliable information, advised on June 29, 1972, that the Washington, D. C., Chapter of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), 1346 Connecticut Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C. (WDC), Suite 1205, had chartered one Greyhound bus for 33 people departing WDC, Friday, July 7, 1972, at 7:30 p.m., arriving Miami, Florida, late the evening of July 7, 1972.

SCLC was founded by the late Reverend MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., and is headquartered in Atlanta, Georgia.

This source advised that as of June 29, 1972, the National Welfare Rights Organization (NWRO), has chartered no buses for the purpose of travelling from WDC to Miami, Florida.

The NWRO is a civil rights group headquartered in Washington, D. C., which has sponsored protest marches

JULIAN BOND, A GEORGIA STATE LEGISLATOR, SCHEDULED TO SPEAK BEFORE THE NWRO OPENING DAY ACTIVITIES, DID NOT APPEAR AND IS NOT BELIEVED TO BE IN MIAMI, FLORIDA, AT THIS TIME. SUBSTITUTING FOR BOND WERE DR. RALPH ABERNATHY, PRESIDENT, SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE (SCLC), GEORGE WILEY, EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF NWRO, AND MIAMI BEACH MAYOR CHARLES "CHUCK" HALL, AT THE EVENING SESSION OF THE CONVENTION. AN ESTIMATED SIX TO EIGHT HUNDRED PEOPLE GATHERED IN THE ASSEMBLY ROOM OF THE CORONET HOTEL AND LISTENED TO MAYOR HALL DISCUSS THE CAMP SITE WHICH HAD BEEN AUTHORIZED EARLIER IN THE EVENING BY THE MIAMI BEACH CITY COMMISSION. FLAMINGO PARK, LOCATED A SHORT DISTANCE FROM THE CONVENTION COMPLEX, WAS DESIGNATED AS THE CAMP SITE, WHERE RESURRECTION CITY II WILL BE BUILT.

SCLC IS A CIVIL RIGHTS ORGANIZATION PRIMARILY OF BLACK MEMBERSHIP, HEADQUARTERED IN ATLANTA, GEORGIA, FORMERLY LED BY THE LATE REV. MARTIN LUTHER KING.

REV. ABERNATHY AND WILEY USED THEME "PEOPLE BEFORE POLITICS" AND CALLED FOR THE SEATING OF SEVEN HUNDRED FIFTY-FOUR PEOPLE AT THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION.

END PAGE TWO.

THEY HOPE TO PRESSURE POLITICIANS INTO RESPONDING TO WHAT THEY FEEL ARE THE NEEDS OF LOW-INCOME AMERICANS. WILEY INDICATED THAT IF THEY DID NOT GET THE SEATS, THEY WOULD "TAKE THEM". HE NOTED NWRO AND SCLC WERE NOT SEEKING VOTING STATUS AT THE CONVENTION BUT WANTED TO LOBBY FROM THE FLOOR.

THE SAME SOURCES REPORTED THAT ALTHOUGH LE ROI JONES IS SCHEDULED TO ADDRESS THE NWRO CONVENTION AT EIGHT P.M., JULY SIX INSTANT, NO ARRANGEMENTS FOR HOTEL AND TRAVEL ACCOMMODATIONS HAVE BEEN MADE FOR HIM. BOTH SOURCES REPORT THERE IS NO INDICATION JONES IS CURRENTLY IN MIAMI AND THEY BELIEVE HE WILL NOT APPEAR AT THE NWRO SESSION THIS EVENING. IN ADDITION, BOTH SOURCES INDICATED THAT AT THE PRESENT TIME A SUBSTITUTE SPEAKER HAS NOT BEEN DESIGNATED TO FILL IN FOR JONES.

ON JULY SIX INSTANT, THE MIAMI HERALD, A LOCAL MIAMI NEWSPAPER, REPORTED THAT REPRESENTATIVES OF NWRO, SCLC AND THE NATIONAL TENANTS ORGANIZATION (NTO) TOOK OVER CONVENTION HALL FOR A FEW MINUTES ON JULY FIVE LAST TO UNDERSCORE THEIR DEMANDS FOR SEATS AT NEXT WEEK'S CONVENTION.

END PAGE THREE.

NTO IS HEADQUARTERED IN WASHINGTON, D.C., AND IS INVOLVED IN THE LANDLORD-TENANT RELATIONSHIP.

THE ARTICLE INDICATED THEY MARCHED TO THE PODIUM AND ISSUED A REQUEST FOR SEVEN HUNDRED FIFTY SEATS, AS CARPENTERS AND OTHER WORKMAN WERE PUTTING FINISHING TOUCHES TO THE HALL.

IT IS NOTED THAT ACCESS TO CONVENTION HALL WAS AVAILABLE TO THE REPRESENTATIVES AS THEY HAD GATHERED TO HEAR AND TO BE REPRESENTED AT THE MIAMI BEACH CONVENTION MEETING HELD IN THE CYPRESS ROOM LOCATED IN THE AUDITORIUM, WHICH IS A PORTION OF THE SOUTHERNMOST PART OF THE CONVENTION COMPLEX.

Confront The GOP Convention

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION MIAMI AUGUST 21-24, 1972

BE THERE ! JOIN THE NEW ORLEANS BRIGADE TO MIAMI !

THE BRIGADE IS GOING TO MIAMI TO JOIN WITH SCORES OF DELEGATIONS FROM ACROSS THE COUNTRY TO PARTICIPATE IN A SERIES OF ACTIONS WHICH WILL EXPRESS OUR ANGER AND DISGUST WITH U.S. DOMESTIC AND FOREIGN POLICY--MORE PARTICULARLY THE WAR IN INDO-CHINA. OUR OBJECTIVE IS TO SHOW THE GOP CONVENTION THAT THE RE-ELECTION OF NIXON OR THE CONTINUATION OF HIS POLICIES WILL CAUSE CONTINUAL RESISTANCE AND CONFRONTATION THROUGHOUT THE U.S.

GO TO MIAMI TO MAKE REAL DEMANDS AND TO CONFRONT THE GOP ON ISSUES WHICH AFFECT OUR LIVES. THE PEOPLE CAN DIRECT THE COURSE OF HISTORY; OUR PRESENCE IN MIAMI WILL HAVE A DEFINITE EFFECT. WE CAN SHATTER THE ILLUSION OF DOMESTIC TRANQUILITY WHICH THE GOVERNMENT HAS TRIED TO PORTRAY SINCE THE ANNOUNCEMENT OF TROOP WITHDRAWALS.

IF YOU ARE INTERESTED IN BUILDING THE NEW ORLEANS BRIGADE, FILL OUT THE FORM AND SEND TO: NEW ORLEANS BRANCH OF MIAMI CONVENTIONS COALITION

THE DEMONSTRATORS WERE SUPPORTED BY A FEW MEMBERS OF THE STUDENTS FOR DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY AND JUST PRIOR TO THE DEMONSTRATION A U-HAUL RENTAL VAN, PASSENGER SIZE, CAME IN BEARING A NEW YORK LICENSE PLATE WHICH HAD ON IT WRITTEN SDS. THE DEMONSTRATORS WALKED UP AND DOWN ON THE SIDEWALK BY THE ENTRANCE AND EXIT TO THE COUNTRY CLUB FOR ABOUT TWENTY MINUTES AND THEN SPOKE TO THE NEWS MEDIA FOR A FEW MINUTES. THEY PROCEEDED WITH THEIR SIGNS INTO THE REAR PARKING LOT OF THE CLUB AND AGAIN TALKED TO THE NEWS MEDIA. THE SPOKESMAN WAS STEWART ALBERT WHO SPOKE ABOUT JEWS AND BLACKS NOT BEING ADMITTED TO THE LA GORCE COUNTRY CLUB AND DISCRIMINATION IN GENERAL. IN ADDITION, THERE WERE A FEW

JEWISH SENIOR CITIZENS, ONE OF WHOM SPOKE ABOUT THERE BEING DISCRIMINATION AT THIS COUNTRY CLUB. THIS PERSON SAID HE COULD NOT BE A MEMBER OF THE CLUB BECAUSE HE WAS CIRCUMCISED. THE ONLY NEGRO THERE MENTIONED GOING INTO THE CLUB, BUT WAS TOLD BY MAJOR PHILBIN THAT IF HE DID SO HE WOULD BE ARRESTED. HE DID NOT GO IN. THE GROUP DISBANDED AND LEFT AT NOON.

ALSO ATTENDING WERE THREE CONCERNED RELIGIOUS LEADERS WHO WORE RED ARMBANDS FOR THE PURPOSE OF HELPING TO MAINTAIN ORDER AND CONTROL THE SITUATION.

THE SDS, ALSO KNOWN AS WORKERS STUDENT ALLIANCE (WSA) IS A RADICAL REVOLUTIONARY ORGANIZATION, WHICH HAS BEEN THE LEADING NEW LEFT STUDENT GROUP.

A SOURCE, WHO HAS FURNISHED RELIABLE INFORMATION IN THE PAST, ADVISED THAT THE DEMONSTRATION AT THE LA GORCE COUNTRY CLUB HELD ON JULY SIXTH, SEVENTYTWO, HAD BEEN PROMOTED AND PUT ON BY THE YIPS. SOURCE ALSO STATED THAT [redacted] IS THE SPOKESMAN FOR YIP.

DEMONSTRATIONS DURING THE
REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION,
MIAMI, FLORIDA, AUGUST, 1972

The following is a verbatim extraction of a paragraph from a newsletter dated June 16, 1972, which was issued by the National Office of the Vietnam Veterans Against the War (VVAW), 25 West 26th Street, Fourth Floor, New York, New York 10010:

"Miami Conventions. The plans for the Democratic Party Convention will appear in the 1st Casualty but the Republican Convention requires a bit more preparation, which we may start to think about. The opening day of the Republican Convention will be highlighted by a three-prong assault on the convention site. The three prongs will be airborne/heliborne, amphibious, and overland assaults. The airborne section of the 1st assault unit will require airborne qualified veterans to parachute onto a DZ near the convention site. Thus far we've had enough volunteers to drop a stick of 20, but we'll need more. The heliborne section of the 1st assault unit will require veterans who will rappel from hovering helicopters from 100 feet onto the DZ to secure it and to establish communications, medical, and drop zone services for the airborne. The 2nd assault unit will consist of a recon unit who will paddle ashore in rubber rafts, and ex-marines who will be landed ashore from motor launches. The 3rd assault unit will consist of 'legs, ground-pounders, and those who'd rather not. Parachutists should send their names into this office so we would be able to estimate how many planes or sticks to employ."

VVAW is an anti-war organization organized in 1967 and headquartered in New York City. Its published objective is to "demand an immediate cessation of fighting and the withdrawal of all American troops from Indochina." VVAW has participated in several demonstrations, including massive demonstration in Washington, D. C., April 19-23, 1971.

OUTLOOK

Intelligence reports continue to indicate that protests during the Democratic Convention will be low-key and the Republican Convention will be the focal point for demonstration activities. Illustrating this was the recent press conference by the Youth International Party, at which it was announced a reassessment of priorities had been made and the new emphasis would be on the Republican Convention. Similarly, the Peoples Coalition for Peace and Justice now plans to confine its actions at the Democratic Convention to lobbying among the delegates, with the group's role at the Republican Convention not yet determined.

In addition to plans by the National Welfare Rights Organization (NWRO) to march to the Convention Center the evening of July 10 (previously reported), other groups have recently scheduled protests at the Democratic Convention. A demonstration at an unannounced location has been scheduled for the evening of July 8 by the National Tenants Organization. A mass rally sponsored by the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) will be held in Miami Manor Park the afternoon of July 9, and SCLC plans to have a "mule train march" to the Convention Center on July 10. Picketing the hotels of delegates the weekend of July 7-9 by the Workers Action Movement is also scheduled.

There has been no information received that the actions by these organizations include any plans for violence. Spokesmen for the groups report their demonstrations will be peaceful.

It has recently been learned that the speaking engagements of Communist Party member Angela Davis and Black Panther Party leader Huey Newton have been cancelled. Miss Davis was tentatively slated to address the NWRO in Miami Beach July 5, while Newton was to speak at the Salem Baptist Church, Miami, on July 9.

The key to disorder or tranquillity may be in the hands of the Cubans in the Miami area. On several occasions, leaders of the Cuban community have expressed displeasure with the large number of "hippies" expected to arrive for the conventions, particularly concerning the antiestablishment position of these individuals. Contributing to the possibility of problems in the Miami area was the recent announcement that a strike of hotel workers would be called if the Cubans are denied permission for a pro-Republican march during the Democratic Convention.

ORGANIZATIONS

Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC)

Founded by the late Reverend Martin Luther King, Jr., this civil rights organization is headquartered in Atlanta, Georgia. On June 7, 1972, in Chicago, Illinois, Reverend Ralph Abernathy, SCLC President, announced that SCLC planned to erect "Resurrection City II" in the Miami, Florida, area during the Democratic Convention to call attention to the plight of America's poor people. SCLC representatives have met with officials of the Miami Beach Police Department and have requested a campsite for occupancy by July 1 for an estimated 1,500 to 2,000 SCLC followers. These representatives of SCLC claimed they had no desire to disrupt the Democratic Convention, and they stated SCLC planned an organizational convention in Dallas, Texas, during the second week of August. (It is, therefore, probable that SCLC will not demonstrate at the Republican Convention.)

SCLC has advised that the "mule train march" scheduled for July 10 will consist of one mule pulling a wagon, with SCLC supporters marching behind. The march route will be from Miami to Miami Beach, with the protesters planning to approach as near the Convention Center as possible.

Peoples Coalition for Peace and Justice (PCPJ)

At a recent PCPJ meeting in Louisville, Kentucky, Gilbert Green, Communist Party, USA, member and PCPJ Interim Committee member, stressed that any actions planned for either convention in Miami Beach must be well developed, disciplined, and nonviolent.

PCPJ has resolved to support the July 8 demonstration by the National Tenants Organization (a subsidiary of the NWRO), the SCLC-sponsored rally July 9, and the NWRO demonstration July 10.

Plans have been made by PCPJ to meet Democratic Convention delegates at the Miami Airport, offer them rides, converse with them in hotel lobbies, and pass out leaflets to "educate" the delegates concerning the bombing of North Vietnam. Regarding the Republican Convention, PCPJ is presently discussing designating Collins Avenue in Miami Beach as a "street without joy," to symbolically represent Highway One in Vietnam. Demonstrators contemplate wearing death masks and carrying placards depicting the "death and destruction wreaked upon the Vietnamese people by the U.S."

The Anti-War Union (AWU), a PCPJ affiliate headed by Rennie Davis, recently decided that an attempt should be made to take over guidance of the Miami Conventions Coalition, since it was felt that this group lacked leadership and had accomplished little concerning planning actions at the conventions.

Miami Conventions Coalition (MCC)

An office has been opened by MCC at 1718 Alton Road, Miami Beach, and William Earl Crain from New York City is one of those operating from this location. Crain has been associated with the National Lawyers Guild and has represented various extremists in trials, particularly members of the "Panther 21" and the "Chicago 7." On two separate occasions recently, Crain has reportedly received a total of $750 from the Communist Party in Miami to assist MCC in its activities.

National Lawyers Guild (NLG)

At a National Executive Committee meeting of the NLG in Detroit, Michigan, June 3-4, 1972, it was announced that legal defense arrangements were being made by NLG to handle any legal problems which may arise as a result of protest activity during the conventions. Approximately 30 individuals affiliated with NLG chapters throughout the United States plan to be in Miami during the conventions to handle these matters.

Vietnam Veterans Against the War (VVAW)

A representative of the Dade County, Florida, Public Safety Department has advised that at a meeting of the VVAW in Miami the topic of weapons was discussed, and the Miami VVAW coordinator reportedly stated he had a considerable number of weapons which could be made available on short notice. VVAW also claimed "heavier" weapons could be obtained from Cubans in Miami who supported VVAW. It was also mentioned that VVAW has high-powered saws which can be used to cut down utility poles carrying communications to the convention complex.

Youth International Party (YIP)

YIP has recently declared its intention to concentrate its activities on "mass mobilization" at the Republican Convention, noting that "a massive nonviolent presence will be more effective in stopping the war than street fightings."

Communist Party, USA (CPUSA)

On June 13, 1972, Daniel Rubin, Organizational Secretary, CPUSA, urged all CPUSA members to support Democratic Convention activities which are sponsored by SCLC, NWRO, VVAW, and PCPJ.

People United to Save Humanity (PUSH)

Jesse Jackson, National Director of PUSH, plans to travel to Miami Beach to lobby at the Democratic Convention for inclusion of planks in the Democratic platform which would be favorable to blacks and other minority groups. PUSH plans no acts of militancy or civil disobedience.

National Socialist White People's Party (NSWPP)

NSWPP, a group which is patterned organizationally and ideologically along the lines of the former German Nazi movement, plans to have about 35 persons at each convention for "counter-demonstration activity." Reportedly these persons will be carrying nightsticks and chemical mace.

Students for a Democratic Society (SDS)

SDS members have prepared a 12-point proposal against racism which they plan to attempt to present to the Democratic Convention following an SDS-sponsored march tentatively planned for July 13, 1972, in Miami Beach.

SDS has also decided to join with NWRO and the National Tenants Organization in the demonstration in the Miami area July 8.

All SDS members have been urged to attend both political conventions and have been advised to contact SDS through Post Office Box 8223, University Branch, Miami, Florida.

Cuban Activities

Conrado Rodriguez, leader of Accion Sindical Independiente, a Cuban exile organization based in Miami, is reportedly attempting to recruit Cubans in the Miami area to conduct protests against the "hippie" elements expected to participate in demonstrations at the conventions.

In addition, it was learned on June 27, 1972, that Juan Peruyero has sent a letter to the Chief of Police, Miami Beach, requesting permission for Cubans to demonstrate during the Democratic Convention in support of the present (Republican) administration. Peruyero is the president of the Association of Veterans of the Bay of Pigs, Brigade 2506, an organization composed of Cubans who participated in the unsuccessful invasion of Cuba in 1961. In the event permission for the demonstration is not granted, Peruyero plans to call a strike of hotel workers in Miami Beach July 10, the opening day of the Democratic Convention. Reportedly, Peruyero has close connections with leaders of the union to which the hotel workers belong. Cuban exiles compose a large percentage of the employees of Miami Beach hotels.

APPENDIX

"ON TO MIAMI!"

The most far-reaching instrument being used to swell the numbers of protesters at the conventions in Miami Beach is the underground press. Supplied by several underground news services producing a steady stream of antiestablishment articles and pictorial presentations, these publications are currently employing a variety of techniques to urge protesters to travel "On to Miami."

For the Vacillators

The undecided, hesitant, and uncommitted are the targets of appeals of varying persuasion.

An undated issue of "The Carpetbag Express," an underground paper which claims to be published in San Diego, Miami, St. Louis, Chicago, and Saigon, contains two large advertisements urging its readers to "confront" both conventions. In addition, there is a two-page color center section proclaiming that persons should "confront" the Republican Convention.

"The Staff," a Hollywood, California, underground newspaper, recently printed the advertisement which is reproduced on the following page. Variations of this advertisement have also appeared in other publications.

A cartoon series entitled "Convention Comics" has been appearing in several underground papers recently. This feature belittles the Nixon Administration, and it ends with a character saying: "See You in Miami at the Convention."

To further encourage persons to travel to Miami Beach, the publications freely make use of terms connoting size. Among the phrases most commonly used to influence readers to jump on the bandwagon are: "giant gathering," "massive confrontation," "big demonstrations," and "massive protests."

Such slogans as "We Belong in Miami," "See You in Miami," and "Come to Miami" dot the pages of this medium.

For the Travelers

Those contemplating a journey to the Miami area need only look at "The Carpetbag Express" for instructions and suggestions. Travelers are reminded to bring the following to share with others in their group: food, flags, banners, music, first aid supplies, and "organic soap for the dirty hippies and communists." The article counsels: "Be original, be prepared."

Undertone of Violence

Although the underground publications generally insist that nonviolence is the preferred mode for convention demonstrations, certain violence-tinged phraseology has regularly appeared. Regular mention has been made of brigades, militant collectives, and affinity groups, the latter described in "The Carpetbag Express" as "about 10 people who know and trust each other and are able to act collectively in crisis situations."

FROM : SA [redacted] b6 b7C

SUBJECT:

JOINT PEOPLES ACTION COALITION
IS - RA

On 7/6/72, Sgt. [redacted] Dade County Dept. of Public Safety, Miami, advised that a meeting had been held at 10:30 PM, 7/5/72, at the Crest Hotel, Miami Beach. At this meeting the Joint Peoples Action Coalition was formed. This group consists of representatives of the National Tenants Organization, National Welfare Rights Organization, SCLC, PCPJ and VVAW. Present at the meeting were RENNIE DAVIS of the PCPJ, [redacted] (INU), [redacted] and [redacted] A discussion ensued as to whether to restrict the coalition to above groups or to allow other groups in. It was decided to have the coalition remain closed; however, there will be a "land coalition" between this group and other groups such as the MCC and YIP, solely for the purpose of obtaining camp sites.

JOINT PEOPLE'S ACTION COALITION (JPAC)

ON JULY FIVE, LAST, RENNIE DAVIS ORGANIZED JPAC, FOLLOWING A SPLIT WITHIN THE MIAMI CONVENTIONS COALITION (MCC). INCLUDED IN JPAC ARE PEOPLES COALITION FOR PEACE AND JUSTICE (PCPJ), VIETNAM VETERANS AGINST THE WAR (VVAW), SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE (SCLC), NATIONAL WELFARE RIGHTS ORGANIZATION (NWRO), AND NATIONAL TENANTS ORGANIZATION (NTO). JPAC PLANS TO FUNCTION AS COORDINATING AGENT FOR RALLIES, MARCHES, AND DEMONSTRATIONS BY MEMBER GROUPS WITHIN THE COALITION.

MCC, IN CONJUNCTION WITH THE YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY AND THE GAY ACTIVIST ALLIANCE, IS CONSIDERING PLANS FOR SEPARATE DEMONSTRATION ACTIVITIES.

NATIONAL WELFARE RIGHTS ORGANIZATION (NWRO)

DR. GEORGE WILEY, NWRO EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR, HAS DEMANDED SEATING FOR SEVEN HUNDRED FIFTY NON-VOTING POOR PEOPLE ON DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION FLOOR TO ACT AS LOBBYISTS CONCERNING ALLEGED EXCLUSIONS OF POOR PEOPLE FROM THE POLITICAL PROCESS.

NATIONAL SOCIALIST WHITE PEOPLE'S PARTY (NSWPP)

MATT KOEHL, NSWPP LEADER, HAS ARRIVED IN MIAMI BEACH AND IS RESIDING AT THE ALGIERS HOTEL. HE IS ATTEMPTING TO OBTAIN A CAMPSITE FOR NSWPP MEMBERS.

YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY (YIP)

ON JULY SIX, LAST, YIP CONDUCTED A DEMONSTRATION AT THE LA GORCE COUNTRY CLUB, MIAMI BEACH, TO PROTEST ALLEGED RACIAL AND RELIGIOUS DISCRIMINATION BY THE COUNTRY CLUB AND TO CRITICIZE THE POLICIES OF THE FEDERAL GOVENMENT. SUPPORTING YIP WERE A FEW MEMBERS OF SDS. THERE WERE NO ARRESTS OR SERIOUS INCIDENTS.

COMMUNIST PARTY

THE MIAMI COMMUNIST PARTY, ALTHOUGH NOT PUBCLICLY IDENTIFIED AS SUCH, HELD A RALLY THE EVENING OF JULY FIVE, LAST AT THE JEWISH CULTURAL CENTER, [redacted] MIAMI BEACH. [redacted] ABOUT [redacted] WITH MCC. GENERAL THEME OF THE RALLY WAS COOPERATION BETWEEN THE OLDER GENERATION IN MIAMI AND YOUNGER PERSONS PRESENT FOR THE CONVENTIONS. RENNIE DAVIS, PCPJ MEMBER AND FOUNDER OF JPAC, SPOKE OUT AGAINST THE VIETNAM WAR AND AGAINST PRESIDENT NIXON PERSONALLY AND URGED UNITY AMONG ALL ANTIWAR GROUPS. DONALD SUTHERLAND, HOLLYWOOD ACTOR, ALSO SPOKE AGAINST THE WAR AND STATED, "IF THEY DON'T LISTEN, WE KNOW HOW TO USE THE GUNS." SUTHERLAND ENDED HIS SPEECH BY RAISING A CLENCHED FIST TOWARDS THE CEILING AND HE RECEIVED THE LOUDEST APPLAUSE OF ANY OTHER SPEAKER AT THE RALLY.

DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION, NINETEEN SEVENTYTWO
(SUMMARY, JULY SIX, SEVENTYTWO)

ON JULY THREE, SEVENTYTWO, U.S. DISTRICT COURT JUDGE C. CLYDE ATKINS ISSUED AN ORDER TEMPORARILY ENJOINING THE CITY OF MIAMI BEACH FROM ENFORCING ITS ORDINANCE PROHIBITING PARADES OR DEMONSTRATIONS WITHOUT PERMITS. SUIT WAS FILED ON BEHALF OF THE NON-DELEGATES BY THE AMERICAN CIVIL LIBERTIES UNION. THIS ORDER WILL BE IN EFFECT THROUGHOUT THE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

ON JULY THREE, SEVENTYTWO, PEOPLE'S COALITION FOR PEACE AND JUSTICE (PCPJ) LEADER RENNIE DAVIS HELD A PRESS CONFERENCE AT MIAMI BEACH. HE ANNOUNCED AN ALLIANCE OF PCPJ WITH THE MIAMI CONVENTIONS COALITION (MCC) AND ANNOUNCED THAT THESE GROUPS HAD JOINED ~~EXTH~~ IN A "PLEDGE OF NON-DISRUPTION" WITH FOUR OTHER PROTEST GROUPS, VIETNAM VETERANS AGAINST THE WAR (VVAW), SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE (SCLC), NATIONAL WELFARE RIGHTS ORGANIZATION (NWRO) AND THE NATIONAL TENANTS ORGANIZATION (NTO).

ON JULY FIVE, SEVENTYTWO APPROXIMATELY TWENTY WOMEN REPRESENTING THE MIAMI WOMEN'S COALITION, THE WOMEN'S CAUCUS OF THE MCC, MARCHED ON THE CITY OF MIAMI JAIL LOCATED IN MIAMI POLICE HEADQUARTERS PROTESTING [redacted] THE TRANSFER OF DADE COUNTY'S FEMALE PRISONERS FROM DADE COUNTY JAIL TO THE MIAMI CITY JAIL. THE PROTESTERS CARRIED CHAINS AND BANNERS, AND AFTER READING A PREPARED STATEMENT, THEY ENTERED THE LOBBY OF THE JAIL IN AN ATTEMPT TO TALK TO THE WOMEN PRISONERS. THEY WERE STOPPED BY MIAMI POLICE AND DEPARTED WITHOUT FURTHER INCIDENT. NO ARRESTS WERE MADE.

ON JULY FIVE, SEVENTYTWO ABOUT THIRTY PERSONS LED BY SCLC LEADER REVEREND RALPH ABERNATHY ENTERED THE UNGUARDED MIAMI BEACH CONVENTION HALL AND BRIEFLY OCCUPIED THE PODIUM IN EFFORT TO UNDERSCORE THEIR DEMANDS FOR REPRESENTATION OF POOR PEOPLE ON THE CONVENTION [redacted] FLOOR. THE HALL WAS VACANT EXCEPT FOR A FEW WORKMEN AND THE INCIDENT RECEIVED LITTLE PUBLICITY.

THE OPENING SESSION OF THE SIXTH ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE NWRO, USING THE SLOGAN "PEOPLE BEFORE POLITICS", WAS HELD AT THE CORONET HOTEL, MIAMI BEACH, ON THE NIGHT OF JULY FIVE, SEVENTYTWO, ATTENDED BY ABOUT SEVEN HUNDRED FIFTY PERSONS. GEORGIA LEGISLATOR JULIAN BOND, SCHEDULED AS GUEST SPEAKER, FAILED TO APPEAR. NWRO EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR DR. GEORGE WILEY DEMANDED SEATING FOR SEVEN HUNDRED FIFTY NON-VOTING POOR PEOPLE ON CONVENTION FLOOR AT THE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION TO ACT AS LOBBYISTS AGAINST EXCLUSION OF POOR PEOPLE FROM THE POLITICAL PROCESS. NO INCIDENTS OCCURRED.

AS OF JULY FIVE, SEVENTYTWO, THE PCPJ AND MCC WERE AT ODDS OVER THE FORMATION OF THE SCENARIO FOR THE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION AND RENNIE DAVIS DECIDED TO CUT OUT THE MCC IN FUTURE PLANNING. ON THE LATE EVENING OF JULY FIVE, VARIOUS PROTEST GROUPS MET AT THE CREST HOTEL, MIAMI BEACH, UNDER THE AEGIS OF DAVIS AND THE PCPJ AND AGREED TO FORM A NEW COALITION TO BE CALLED THE JOINT PEOPLE'S ACTION COALITION. INCLUDED IN THIS COALITION WAS THE PCPJ, VVAW, SCLC, NWRO AND NTO. SPECIFICALLY EXCLUDED WERE THE MCC, YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY (YIP), ZIPPIES, AND HOMOSEXUAL GROUPS. ALL RALLIES, MARCHES AND DEMONSTRATIONS, WHICH WILL INCLUDE VIGILS OUTSIDE HOTELS HOUSING CANDIDATES, WILL BE COORDINATED SO AS TO PERMIT PARTICIPATION OF ALL GROUPS

DURING THE GENERAL SESSION, SEVERAL SPEAKERS WERE HEARD FROM, INCLUDING A REPRESENTATIVE OF THE AMERICAN INDIANS, "CHUCK" HALL, PRESIDENT OF THE STUDENT BODY OF HOWARD UNIVERSITY; MARGARET SLOAN OF THE NATIONAL WOMEN'S COALITION GROUP (NOT FURTHER IDENTIFIED), AND A REPRESENTATIVE OF THE NATIONAL HOUSEHOLD WORKERS COMMITTEE. RENNARD DAVIS, ALSO KNOWN AS RENNIE DAVIS, WHO WAS FOUND GUILTY IN USDC, CHICAGO, ILL., DURING FEBRUARY, SEVENTY, OF VIOLATION OF FEDERAL ANTIRIOT LAWS, ALSO ADDRESSED THE GENERAL SESSION. DAVIS EMPHASIZED THE IMPORTANCE OF GROUPS SUCH AS SCLC, YIPPIES, NWRO, AND NTO TO UNITE IN ONE FRONT TO DEFEAT PRESIDENT RICHARD NIXON. DAVIS STATED THAT THREE WEEKS AGO HE WAS IN PARIS MEETING WITH THE NORTH VIETNAMESE DELEGATION CONCERNING THE VIETNAM WAR AND AMERICA'S INVOLVEMENT IN THE WAR.

SUBJECT: MIDEM

On 7/5/72, Chief of Police DONALD MAJEWSKI, Lake Worth, Florida, Police Department, advised that according to his sources, recently several individuals have appeared in the Lake Worth area and allegedly have threatened with physical harm many of the local youths. These threats have been such that the local "hippie types", who have for years frequented the beach area, are afraid to be on the beaches, particularly in the evenings. In one instance, a teenage girl was slapped by one of these individuals but has refused to file a complaint against him.

MAJEWSKI advised that his sources stated that this group is considered a motorcycle gang, but to date, no motorcycles have been observed. MAJEWSKI advised that individuals referred to below have been traveling in a 1965 black Cadillac convertible, bearing 1972 Florida plate [redacted] registered to [redacted] The registration was transferred on [redacted]

Individuals referred to by MAJEWSKI are as follows. No criminal reference identifiable with these individuals could be located at the Lake Worth Police Department, nor at the Palm Beach County Sheriff's Office.

" The Whole World is Listening"

The upcoming conventions of the Democratic and Republican Parties are undeniably the most important political events on the American Scene of 1972. The events that take place during those 8 days in Miami Beach will effect not only the American public, but the world as well. The coverage of the activities both inside and outside the Convention Hall by the giant institutions of the electronic media will be massive and you may well be wondering why there is a need for an alternative to them. The answers are very simple.

During the last four years since the chaos of the Democratic Convention in Chicago, the political identity of youth in this country has become indisputable. The growing popularity and success of the creative news format that many youth oriented stations have begun to develop shows that when young people have the choice, they will turn off Walter Cronkite and turn on their local rock stations to hear a news program that is produced and directed assuming their own needs to know. We are making no allusions to, or promises that our coverage will be as "detailed" as such organizations as ABC or UPI. That's not what young people want to hear; they want that which we are offering for the first time in the history of audio coverage of a political event. That is, full coverage of the events during the Convention that are most effected by youth, and those events that will directly involve young people:

1) Intensive coverage of the various interest group caucuses both inside and outside the Hall: The women's caucus, the black and Chicano caucuses, the Gay caucus, the anti-war platform, and the Marijuana Initiative.

2) Political analysis of the Convention process that young people will feel is directed at them rather than at the General Public.

3) Reports on all counter-convention activities from our trailer beased operations at various locations; coverage of the NWRO convention and, of course, on the spot coverage of all demonstrations and counter-demonstrations during both conventions.

Unicorn news is currently making available to all stations participating in the National Alternative Audio Network 5-10 minute modular news feeds 3 times a week (monday, wednesday, and friday). During the Miami Conventions the feeds will be supplemented by twice daily feeds emphasizing the political conventions.

Unicorn News provides Media access to the voices of those who have, in the past, been unable to present their perspectives: women, poor people, gay people, third world people, older people, and all those trying to gain control of their own lives.

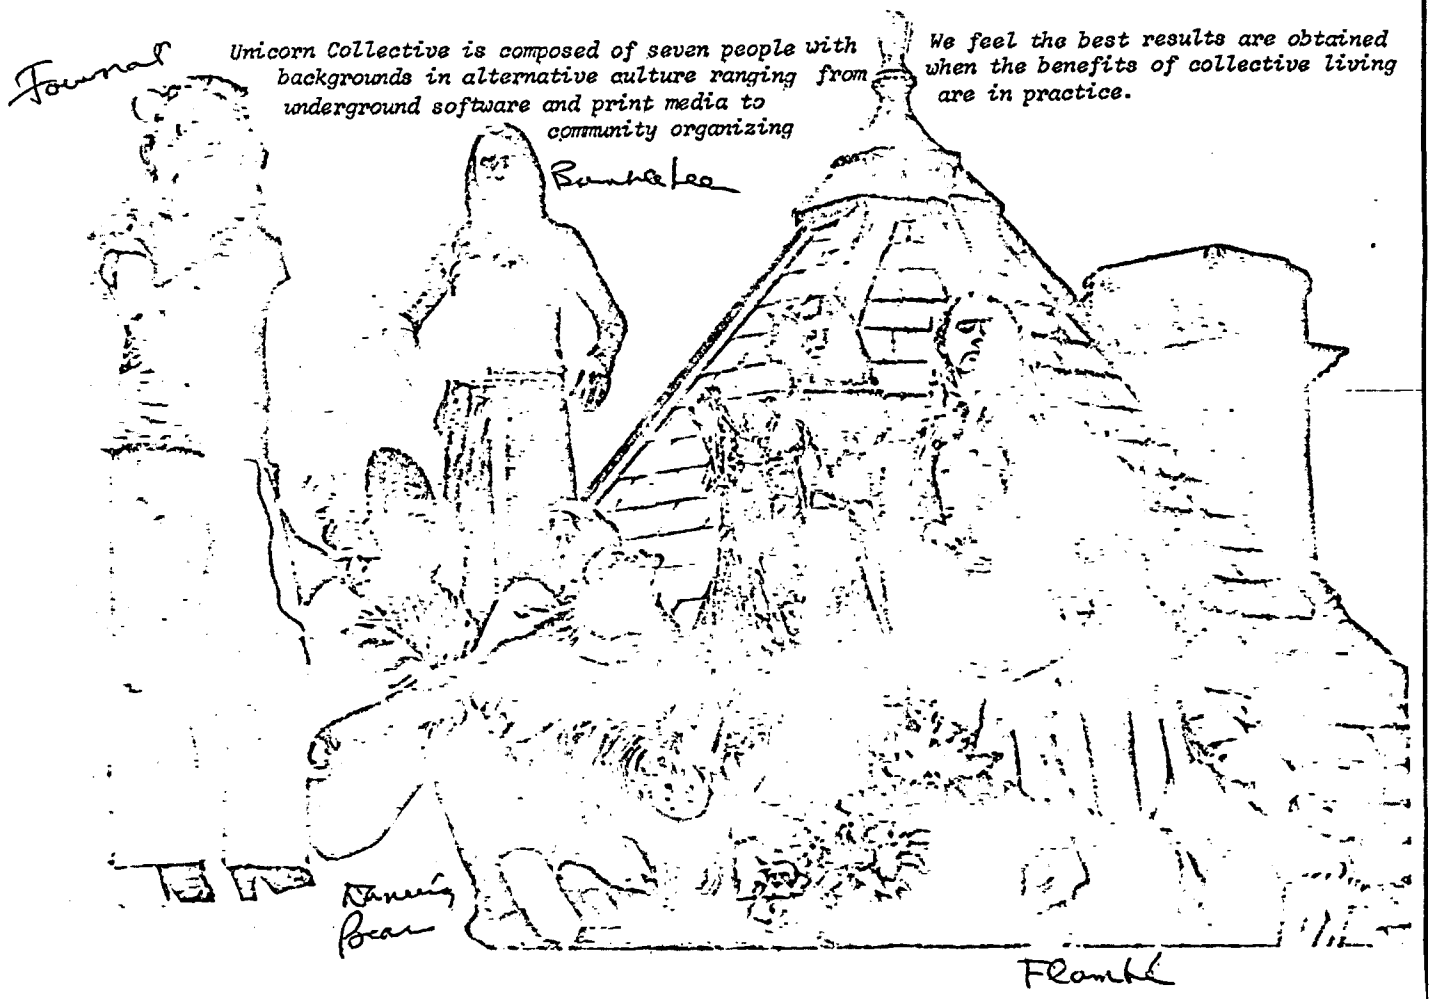
Unicorn News reports on the formation of alternatives to contmporary institutions such as food conspiracies and co-ops, free schools, people's media, and people's art. These we feel most effectively manifest the social and cultural change we seek.

Our feeds reflect the srength, joy, and love we have as a people moving together.

Unicorn has been thinking about open access in terms of a radio news network. This began to happen after Nixon bombed Hanoi & Haiphong, when stations around the country were calling us daily with information of what was happening in response to Nixon in their communities - and people in some parts of the country told us they depended on us as the only source of up-to-date honest news of war and anti-war events. Open Access means a participatory network involving the stations and communities which are serviced.

Unicorn News is non-profit. We want to spread information and encourage creativity. Special coverage such as Miami necessitates minimal charges to help defray operating expenses. The rates are on a sliding scale from no charge to $1.50 per feed according to market and commercial or non-commercial status. We seek foudation grants to cover additional overhead costs.

Alternate News for Alternative Radio



Unicorn Collective is composed of seven people with backgrounds in alternative culture ranging from underground software and print media to community organizing

We feel the best results are obtained when the benefits of collective living are in practice.

MAIN FUNCTIONS OF EQUIPMENT

1. The portable, battery-operated, CCTV camera and recording system will permit selected visual scenes and simultaneous sounds in the vicinity of the camera to be recorded in the field on magnetic tape. The operator can easily place a voice log or narration on the tape by simply talking as he records the visual information.

Continuous recordings of up to 30 minutes in length can be made on one reel of tape. After a total of 30 minutes of recording time has elapsed, a fresh reel of tape can be quickly installed. As mentioned below, the recorded reel of tape could then be sent to the office or other location for immediate review.

The portable equipment is able to playback its own recordings using the small electronic viewfinder on the camera as a monitor. While this feature provides a low contrast picture, it does enable the operator to verify the proper operation of the portable equipment from time to time.

Two zoom lenses are being provided and will permit the operator to quickly adjust to various camera-to-subject distances and thereby record the maximum amount of detail in any given situation.

In the event it is desired to operate the equipment in a stationary situation where line power is available, a power supply is provided so that battery recharge will not be necessary.

2. A line-powered recorder-playback unit and a line-powered, combination CCTV monitor and television receiver is being provided for two purposes. The first is to provide a separate and efficient means of reviewing any tapes made on the portable recorder. The CCTV monitor provides a 19-inch screen and sound volume suitable for review of previously recorded tapes by groups.

The second purpose is to provide your office with the capability of recording any local, commercial, television broadcasts which might be pertinent to the Bureau's investigative responsibilities, during the convention period. In the event this function is desired, the monitor-receiver is used as a receiver and its outputs, both picture and sound, are recorded on the line powered recorder-playback unit. Once recorded, the program can be played back at any time desired.

RE: CLOSED CIRCUIT TELEVISION (CCTV);
MIDEM
80-829

Three reels of magnetic recording tape suitable for use with the portable recorder have been forwarded to your office. It is suggested that you locate a local source for additional tape. Sony Type V-30H or Scotch (3-M), Type 361-1/2-845R125B may be used. The Sony tape will record for 30 minutes while the Scotch tape will record for 20 minutes. In order to record for periods of time up to 60 minutes on the line powered recorder (AV-3600), larger reels of tape will be necessary and, if you desire this capability, it is suggested that you locate a local source for this tape. Sony Type V-32 or Scotch (3-M) Type 361-1/2-2400R86B may be used.

Memorandum

TO : SAC, Miami (80-1353)

DATE: July 7, 1972

FROM : Acting Director, FBI (80-829)

SUBJECT: CLOSED CIRCUIT TELEVISION (CCTV); MIDEM

The Bureau has authorized your request for a CCTV, video and audio recording system for use in connection with the Democratic and Republican Conventions to be held in Miami in the near future and has given instructions regarding the operational conditions under which the equipment should be used. In addition, as requested by your office, the Laboratory has provided instructions to SA [redacted] of your office regarding the proper technical use of the equipment. b6 b7C

The equipment listed on the enclosure has been shipped to your office by air express for temporary assignment. Appropriate inventory changes should be made. The equipment should be used exclusively in connection with the captioned matter and returned in the original shipping containers to the Laboratory when the Conventions are completed.

For your general information, some of the more important functions which this equipment will accomplish are also enclosed. SA [redacted] can supply more detail.

U.S. Judge Bans Use Of Parade Ordinance

Permits Challenged By ACLU

Peace Pledge 3B

By CAROLYN JAY WRIGHT
Herald Staff Writer

The city of Miami Beach was temporarily prohibited Monday from enforcing its parade permit ordinance by U.S. District Court Judge C. Clyde Atkins.

Ruling on a suit filed by the American Civil Liberties Union on behalf of non-delegate groups planning to demonstrate at the Democratic and Republic conventions, Atkins gave the city 10 days to file arguments before he decides whether the ordinance is constitutional. The Democratic convention begins next week.

HOWEVER, Atkins announced Monday he has strong doubts about the validity of the ordinance and cited several "deficiencies" in the law. Among them were its failure to specifically define a parade in terms of the minimum number of participants, the requirement that a permit must be filed "not less than 15 days" before the event and its failure to delineate standards for appellate review.

City Attorney Joseph Wanick said after the hearing "right now we have no parade ordinance." Referring to an earlier statement by Atkins that if the law is found to be unconstitutional the City Council may enact another, more specific ordinance, Wanick said, "I'm inclined to think I'll advise the council that it's impossible to draw an ordinance that will meet the approval of the federal courts."

The parade permit ordinance adopted four weeks ago requires, among other things, that an application be filed with the chief of police 15 days before the event. The ordinance exempts parades sponsored by federal or municipal governments and gives the police chief sole discretion to abandon the 15-day filing requirement.

Peter Nimkoff who, along with ACLU special counsel Bruce Rogow and Legal Services of Greater Miami attorney Steven Wisotsky, argued against the ordinance saying it was vague and overbroad Attended a [redacted] from [redacted] on [redacted] It was attended by S. ALBERT (YIP) [redacted] b6 b7C b7D did not stay for full time.) An 8-page newspaper is to be put out, 100,000 copies. It is supposed to be funded by [redacted] and his outfit. It will contain articles on Vietnam dike bombing, the seven-point program, maps of Miami, a scenario, information on Expose 72, a description of Miami, NIXON's domestic policy, a poster which can be removed and displayed and a card which can be returned by readers with their addresses.

According to [redacted] there are approximately 100 yippies in Miami at the present time - also 30 to 35 working with MCC, 10 PCPJ (by Sunday), no Trotskyists, and an undetermined number of SDS-PLP. He expects by convention time 500 SCLC, 1,200 NWRO, a small contingent of womens lib to march with NWRO, and about 2,000 young MC GOVERN supporters. The MCC regards the MC GOVERN supporters as "useable material." MCC does not have an estimate of the number of radical whites not affiliated with any organization who will come to Miami for the DNC. b6 b7C b7D

At the present time, there are in Miami and associated with the MCC, the following groups and individuals:

From San Diego and living at [redacted] - [redacted] (from Boston) and [redacted] when she is in town. Also possibly [redacted] (last name unknown), a white, female from N.E. b6 b7C b7D

The following Florida people are living at [redacted] and [redacted] b6 b7C b7D

A PCPJ house is also being set up, exact address unknown. Those who will probably live there are [redacted] (LNU) (sounds like [redacted] and [redacted] may move into that house after it is established. They are planning on a total of about 10 to live there. b6 b7C b7D

There is also a group of local Cuban supporters, all of whom speak Spanish except for [redacted] Their telephone number is [redacted] b6 b7C b7D

An individual named [redacted] (phonetic) works for [redacted] and is here in Miami. He has supposedly secured the following for the non-delegates: b6 b7C b7D

1. Youth Center at the Oceanfront Auditorium at 10th and the Ocean and Lummus Park on a 24-hour a day basis during the convention for all youth organizations to set up tables and use phones, typewriters and mimeo machines. MCC and yippies both have space reserved.

2. A free speech area in Flamingo Park, 24 hours a day, with microphones.

3. The parking lot area adjacent to the Convention Hall can be used for demonstrations.

4. He is working on securing a room in a delegates hotel for the MCC for Expose 72 activities.

[redacted] b6 b7C b7D

He is also in contact with a woman named [redacted]

[redacted] is supposed to fly to Miami with the California delegates and has agreed to distribute MCC literature to the delegates and discuss Expose 72 plans with them en route. b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] will try to contact [redacted] before he leaves New Orleans to arrange some sort of similar set-up, if possible. [redacted] is trying to find others who can do the same for other states. Along these lines, [redacted] (last name unknown) in Washington, D.C. is in contact with the Democratic Credentials Committee and will try to work out something in the way of a means of contacting all MC GOVERN delegates. [redacted] already has a list of where the [redacted] delegates will be staying in Miami. b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] (last name unknown) is in charge of funds at yippie headquarters. b6 b7C b7D

There is considerable antagonism in the MCC ranks concerning the possibility of having the yippie scenario printed in the planned MCC newspaper.

A friend of people in MCC owns the Victor Hotel and has supposedly secured a room for them with a bunch of old mattresses.

The key MCC individual involved in [redacted] was [redacted] and the major things discussed were MCC support for the NWRO and the women's contingent being organized to march in the NWRO parade on the evening of July 10th. b6 b7C b7D

MCC is urging [redacted] to travel to Atlanta to build support for the MCC activities during the Republican Convention. She will wait until there is sufficient propaganda material printed before deciding exactly when she will go. b6 b7C b7D

Recontact with [redacted] source mentioned in referenced FD-306, discloses that subject's speech at Drew University, Madison, N.J., on 4/21/72, was presented in a manner that would make it appear that the subject's statements were merely figures of speech and not actual plans. The source stated that RUBIN's statements were made in typical "Yippie" style and appeared to have been used to induce enthusiasm into the crowd in an attempt to lure them to Miami in order that another "Woodstock" could result. b7D

Attempts to corroborate RUBIN's statements have revealed only that RUBIN made similar statements at Newark State College, Union, N.J., on 4/21/72, according to an article in the "Daily Journal," an Elizabeth, N.J., daily newspaper.

The June 25, 1972, issue of the "Floridian", a Sunday supplement of the "St. Petersburg Times," a daily newspaper published in St. Petersburg, Florida, contained the following article on page one:

WILBUR COLOM: "WELFARE IS GOING TO BE THE HOTTEST ISSUE IN MIAMI BEACH, AND WE'LL BE THERE PROMOTING OUR PLATFORM"

As if an attempted assassination, two startling reversals of candidates' popularity and dozens of fickle pollsters weren't enough, the National Welfare Rights Organization (NWRO) is doing its best to liven up the Democratic fight for the presidential nomination.

A lot of people wish the forthright and tough NWRO would go away, but it keeps popping up in the most unlikely places — like the first California TV debate of Hubert Humphrey and George McGovern. Humphrey lit into an "unrealistic" and expensive welfare reform plan that McGovern explained he did not necessarily support but had just introduced to the Senate on the request of — guess who? The NWRO. Those who are unfamiliar with the proposal itself will be hearing about it soon enough, for the NWRO also has plans to make its bill the hottest item at the Democratic Convention in Miami Beach.

But as controversial as the bill is, the issue arouses no more controversy than the organization itself. NWRO members have stormed welfare offices, broken windows and glass doors, scattered files and ripped out phones. They are accused of trying to flood welfare rolls which already list over 14-million Americans. But the NWRO says they're just educating welfare recipients of their rights.

The organization is proposing a $6,500 guaranteed annual income per family of four, and NWRO spokesman Wilbur Colom claims "this country certainly has the wealth to provide it." Colom, 24, grew up in a poor Mississippi family during the era of freedom rides and integration marches. Northern civil rights workers "adopted" him into their homes and helped him through high school. Scholarships helped him through college. Now he's editor of the NWRO Welfare Fighter and press secretary for the NWRO durings its conference and convention strategies.

Here in Florida the NWRO is mobilizing welfare recipients. There were 398,988 people on Florida's April welfare rolls and 1,180 of these are paying NWRO members. Colom says that "paying members don't necessarily reflect how many people we actually have working with us. Some just don't pay the dues, but they're still there." There are over 20 Florida NWRO chapters, including one in Tampa. The NWRO intends to organize in Tampa and St. Petersburg to get people to Miami early in July. So it's hard to say just how many recipients the NWRO will be busing into Miami for a July 10th demonstration. And it leaves one wondering just what to expect from the NWRO in Florida.

FLORIDIAN: Your organization's national conference is in Miami July 5-9, ending the day before the Democratic Convention. Considering the expense to your members of coming to Florida, wouldn't it have been better for you to have held your conference somewhere else – somewhere in the center of the country?

COLOM: More convenient. But this is the year the poor are going to make their gains, and the Democratic Party is the place it's going to happen. We believe the physical presence of our membership in Miami Beach will promote our platform. We feel we have a chance to get it accepted, and that's the drama of this year's convention.

FLORIDIAN: How do you go about organizing the poor people's political clout for such an all-important convention?

COLOM: We started a year ago to try to get our people elected as delegates in the various states' primaries.

FLORIDIAN: What do you have to show for it?

COLOM: We've been marginally successful so far. We've elected 23 delegates (this was prior to California's primary). Our national vice-chairwoman, a welfare recipient herself, was elected in Pittsburgh, and she'll be able to raise some hell. Our national chairman is a potential delegate in New York.

They'll have votes of value to the candidates – and those candidates will bargain for those votes. Plus our people will be on the floor lobbying for the votes of other delegates. The unit vote rule is no longer in effect, you know. Also things will be happening outside.

In addition, we hope to get the poor people's platform adopted.

FLORIDIAN: What is the poor people's platform?

COLOM: Basically it rejects President Nixon's family assistance plan, and calls for a guaranteed adequate income of $6,500 for a family of four. That's what the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics says is necessary for a minimum standard of living.

Our plan calls for poor people being represented at the convention, the same as "women, young people and minorities" guaranteed representation in the present guidelines. And it demands that the myths about poor people and welfare be actively exposed and combated by the party's candidates. Our biggest defeat would be to have Nixon's plan pass.

FLORIDIAN: How do you propose to get that poor people's platform adopted?

COLOM: Mrs. Frankie Jeter or Mrs. Beulah Sanders, both welfare recipients and members of the NWRO's executive council, will be there, and one or the other of them will present the platform on the floor.

FLORIDIAN: How can you be sure that opportunity will arrive?

COLOM: We've proposed the platform at platform committee meetings, and if the majority of the committee's members endorse it it will be a majority proposal and will not be debated on the floor. We're hoping, I have to admit, that it is defeated in committee and brought to the floor as a minority proposal.

FLORIDIAN: Why would you hope it would be defeated in committee?

COLOM: Because in that case, as a minority report, it comes to the floor for debate and vote. Delegates will have to take stands before their constituents. And the country's attention will be focused on the issue.

FLORIDIAN: How can you be so sure?

COLOM: This debate would take place the first night of the convention. It's a bad news-night otherwise: no votes will have been taken for the nominees. This will be the hottest thing happening at the time. The press will be able to focus on it.

FLORIDIAN: You're sure the press will agree it is that important?

COLOM: We expect the welfare debate to be the major debate on the floor. It undoubtedly is the most controversial issue there, unless they come up with something to end the war.

FLORIDIAN: Couldn't the platform committee pull the rug out from . . .

COLOM: That's a tough question. Yes, we have one fear: They might sense just how much power the welfare reform cause has, and adopt it as a majority part of the platform in order to avoid a fight. We're walking a fine line, really.

FLORIDIAN: But you seem confident it will be a minority report on the floor.

COLOM: Well, we've done our homework. You go and push for it, but it's almost a formality. We've talked to those people. We know how they think. We know it's going to be a minority report.

FLORIDIAN: What will you personally be doing to assure that what you've described happens?

COLOM: Lots of technical things. I'm the ass-kicker; I'm supposed to know all that's going on for our annual meeting. I'll be making sure hotel space stays secure, that transportation is arranged, that medical care needs have been prepared.

FLORIDIAN: Medical facilities?

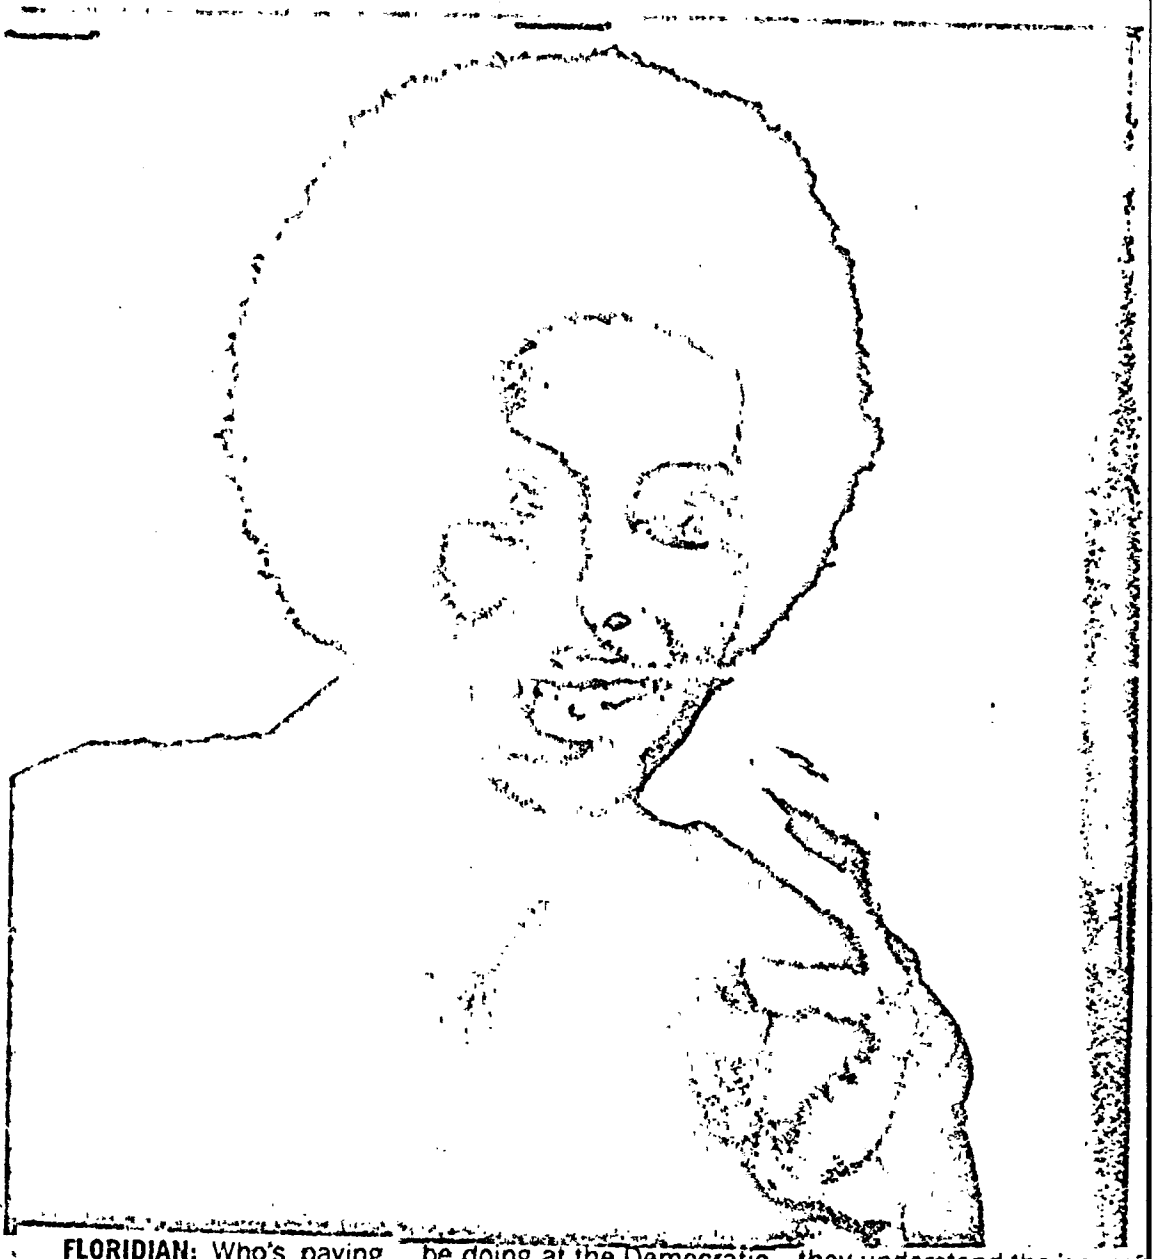
COLOM: Welfare recipients are not healthy people. If you can count on eight people out of 100 getting sick at a regular convention, you can count on 16 of our people. They're not healthy people.

FLORIDIAN: What else?

COLOM: I'll spend a lot of time touring the state encouraging welfare mothers to attend our annual meeting and helping them organize.

FLORIDIAN: Where do you get the money for all this?

COLOM: We hustle for it. The United Church of Christ is a big supporter. We work for small $5,000 and $10,000 grants. We don't get any federal funds. We get $1 from each member each year, and we've got a little over 125,000 members.



FLORIDIAN: Who's paying to send your welfare recipients all the way to Miami?

COLOM: Our people who are coming to our conference are making their own money to get to Miami. They're selling pies, cakes and using their savings. This conference is their vacation for the year. That's it. A group will get together and do fund-raising to send one or two people from their group.

FLORIDIAN: What will you be doing at the Democratic Convention?

COLOM: Well, we let the recipients be the spokesmen. You'll notice that, if you watch it on television. They're the best spokesmen for it. I personally will be swamped with everything that goes wrong, unfortunately.

FLORIDIAN: Do you think the welfare recipients we're speaking of, who are admittedly poor and uneducated, are really smart enough to represent themselves? Do they understand the issues?

COLOM: That's one of the questions I hate most. Just because a mother on welfare doesn't speak the king's English, doesn't pronounce her words just right, doesn't walk or look just right, that doesn't mean she can't represent herself. A woman, like one I met in Dade County yesterday, who has seven children and feeds and raises them on $108 a month, now she can represent herself. Most welfare recipients are smart people; they have to be out of necessity. You give these mothers a chance, give them meaning in life, and they mature. Yeah, they can handle it.

"Socialism! Don't use that word. We just want a guaranteed annual income. We're red, white and blue all over."

FLORIDIAN: You said "things will be happening outside" the convention hall. What did you mean?

COLOM: Well, I assume there will be demonstrators there. And Dr. George Wiley, executive director of NWRO, will be speaking on the issues.

FLORIDIAN: About those "demonstrators:" Have you organized outside support?

COLOM: We're leery of demonstrations. But we did just have a successful march in Washington.

FLORIDIAN: Successful how?

COLOM: Fifty thousand people came, and I think they made a point. They focused attention in the Senate on child care, people, the fact that half of what you're talking about when you talk about welfare is children. People forget that.

FLORIDIAN: But have you organized that "outside support" for the convention?

COLOM: Yes, we are organizing it. We may very well demonstrate, but we'll make sure it doesn't get out of hand.

FLORIDIAN: Back to political organizing. France had welfare in the 1500s and referred to the poor as "impotents" — a term perhaps valid today. How do you expect the poor, who are relatively impotent in a political system of expensive campaign practices and a social class system of no small significance, to acheive political success?

COLOM: You've got to talk about thrust. If organizing fails, revolution is the only solution. But I think we've got more numbers now, and that's important. Organizing is going to succeed, I believe.

FLORIDIAN: In Regulating The Poor, authors Fox Piven and Richard Cloward argue that governments expand relief programs only to defuse potential civil disorder. Is that what is happening now?

COLOM: Yes. That's why the welfare rights organizations created the current "welfare crisis"—we got eligible people registered, and we organized the outcry.

FLORIDIAN: But they also argue that once the outcry is defused, governments will withdraw the relief they've given, to reduce the cost to the state. Do you fear that?

COLOM: The retrenching is already taking place; laws have been proposed which would require birth control, the fingerprinting of dependent children over six years of age, and so on.

FLORIDIAN: But the book's premise is that retrenchment, or withdrawal of relief, won't come until the poor are appeased, the threat of civil disorder ended.

COLOM: That contention was true for 16th century France. But in a democracy there is another force involved. Besides the poor, you have a middle class saying they're paying too much.

FLORIDIAN: In other states welfare mothers have stormed welfare offices, broken windows and glass doors, scattered files and ripped out phones. There were sit-ins of a Senate committee meeting. Was your group involved in these civil disorders?

COLOM: We have been, yes. Often times welfare mothers resort to force. We try to use proper channels, but it seems we often get our best results with storming the offices.

FLORIDIAN: Is that what we can expect in Florida then, as your group's organizing efforts increase?

COLOM: That tactic only works where you've got understanding from the public. But in Florida, you're 10, 15 years behind in welfare, you're back there with Mississipians. A conservative from New York is more understanding than Florida's liberals. Demonstrations just wouldn't work here.

FLORIDIAN: What would, then?

COLOM: Organizing politically, and knowing the law. Knowing the law is extremely important. One study showed that 70 per cent of the states are violating federal welfare guidelines at any given time. That's why one of our major tasks is to educate welfare recipients of the rights. And it works. People expect recipients to be dumb. We have them illiterate one year, and the next year they're reading and they know their state's laws and they know exactly where to find the laws in the books.

FLORIDIAN: You say Florida's system is bad. Is it really that much worse . . .

COLOM: All the Southern states have repressive systems. It's difficult even to organize welfare recipients to get what's rightfully theirs, because the state cuts them off.

FLORIDIAN: Has that happened in Florida?

COLOM: In 1970 a Tampa woman active in welfare organizing had her check reduced. She had to bow to get it back. She's not the only one; I mention her because I just ran into her.

FLORIDIAN: What are Florida's problems regarding welfare?

COLOM: It particularly discourages work. You find people here sneaking to jobs, because their welfare gets cut off if they're found working. Yet in Florida they're only paid 60 per cent of subsistence. The state figures a mother and child need $131 a month to live on. Then it gives them 60 per cent of that, about $78. She's either got to steal, be a prostitute or work and if she works she loses her welfare.

FLORIDIAN: Does the NWRO actively counsel its members to avoid low-paying jobs?

COLOM: We discourage them. A person has a right to a productive, meaningful job. Some jobs offer only enough money to stay poor. These people are better off if they don't work. If they take a part-time job they end up with less money. Florida is one of the worst states in this way — it can cost a welfare recipient to get a low-paying job here. We want a welfare program that encourages people to work — to work their way up to something better. Today's system doesn't do that.

FLORIDIAN: You think your guaranteed income plan would?

COLOM: Yes. We must continue helping those who need help. Our program would help the working poor, too. Is a minimum standard of living too much to ask?

FLORIDIAN: Do you believe that a mother, with three children, would work for $4,500 a year and collect an additional $2,000 from government subsidy to bring her income up to your proposed annual income, when she could just as easily not work and receive the entire $6,500 anyway?

COLOM: This is a real dilemma. Sure, some people will abuse the program. But do you think large numbers of recipients should be deprived of a decent income because of a few cheating? These people aren't lazy; that's another myth. They want a decent life and they'll work for it. This country certainly has the wealth to provide a guaranteed annual income.

Rep. Henry Reuss, D-Wis., says we could gain $14-billion to $19-billion a year if we closed tax loopholes. One-hundred and twelve people made more than $200,000 last year, yet paid no income taxes. Forty per cent of all corporations didn't pay taxes last year. And corporate profits were higher in the first quarter of this year than ever before — at a time when the President's supposed to be limiting earnings. Poor people aren't the real chiselers.

FLORIDIAN: What do you expect your organization's poor people's platform to cost the country?

COLOM: Around $10-billion a year.

FLORIDIAN: Where is the money going to come from?

COLOM: We need a redistribution of wealth in this country — new directions for spending money. We spend only 1.9 per cent of our total budget on public welfare. That's less than we pay for farm subsidies. We spend 36.7 per cent on the military and another 1.7 per cent on the space program.

FLORIDIAN: If you ask the public to support that redistribution of wealth, what are you going to do in return? How does NWRO propose to eliminate men who are able to work but who are on welfare rolls?

COLOM: There are very few men on welfare rolls in the first place. Mostly it's women and children. The Department of Health, Education and Welfare (HEW) did a study in 1970 and found that less than two per cent of welfare recipients are receiving larger grants than they deserve.

FLORIDIAN: You believe then that there aren't many healthy people cheating on welfare?

COLOM: Eight per cent of the people on relief rolls are totally disabled. Half are children — what you going to do, change the child labor laws to get them off welfare? Twenty-five per cent are elderly. One per cent are blind.

FLORIDIAN: What about the other 16 per cent?

COLOM: Mostly they're parents, mothers — what can they do with their kids? Our recipients want jobs. But they get training for non-existent jobs. Or they have young children and no day care centers.

FLORIDIAN: What is the makeup of your membership?

COLOM: Ninety-five per cent of our members are women.

FLORIDIAN: And racially?

COLOM: Two-thirds are black.

FLORIDIAN: Why? Why so few whites? Most welfare recipients are white.

COLOM: Because a lot of white people are bigots. I might as well be simple about it. The poor white simply doesn't want to be in an organization with blacks. Some areas are doing well. Kentucky and West Virginia, for example, have welfare groups that are integrated and mostly white.

FLORIDIAN: Why is integrated organization succeeding there?

"Welfare's going to exist. You can't make the blind see, the old younger, dependent children independent."

COLOM: Those whites have been poorer longer, and they have political feelings, stemming from early mining union organizing experiences, that many other whites don't have. Other places — like here in Wallace country — it's harder to form that coalition.

FLORIDIAN: Basically, then, the NWRO is a lobbying group.

COLOM: Yes.

FLORIDIAN: Is there any organized lobby opposing you?

COLOM: Who needs it? There's built-in lobbying opposition: The Senate Finance Committee is as biased, bigoted a lobby as you can find — and they're the ones we have to deal with. Sen. Russell Long, D-La., is chairman, and he even thinks President Nixon's welfare bill was too good for the poor people. Long's afraid we're going to "Russianize" the country.

FLORIDIAN: Well, aren't you undermining capitalism and promoting socialism?

COLOM: Socialism? Don't use that word; people get upset. We just want a guaranteed annual income. We're red, white and blue all over.

FLORIDIAN: More than one out of every 10 big city dwellers is now on relief. Yet isn't the NWRO trying to "flood the welfare rolls" even more?

COLOM: All we're trying to do is make sure everyone with a right to aid gets it.

FLORIDIAN: What will get people off welfare?

COLOM: Nothing. Welfare's going to exist. You can't make the blind see, the old younger, the crippled healthy, dependent children independent.

The best place to improve welfare is in aid for dependent children: Give more, a guaranteed income, and you break the cycle of poverty, giving those kids a break to get out and not end up on welfare with their own children some day. The only way you can do that is truly to give those families a way out and up, a decent way. That's what our poor people's platform is about.

Migrant groups to picket Askew's keynote speech

Migrant groups have announced plans to picket at the Democratic convention here next week, but their protests will be directed at Gov. Reubin Askew.

A spokesman for the Organized Migrants in Community Action (OMICA) said organizations would picket outside the Miami Beach Convention Center Tuesday night when Askew is scheduled to deliver the convention keynote speech.

OMICA and other groups are angry because Askew decided to keep a job training program for migrants under the administration of the State Employment Service, which OMICA says is anti-migrant.

ADDENDUM

This rally on July 5, 1972, at the Jewish Cultural Center, 429 Lenox Avenue, Miami Beach, was initiated as a joint venture by the Miami Communist Party (CP) and the Miami Conventions Coalition (MCC). The Miami CP was never publicly identified as one of the originators of this meeting.

[redacted] from the San Diego Coalition and now with the MCC; [redacted] Miami CP member; and [redacted] were the principal speakers. b6 b7C

[redacted] one of the leaders of the MCC, was not present as he apparently has some problem "up north" which requires his presence there. b6 b7C

The theme of the evening as enunciated by the speakers was to show how the young and old on Miami Beach can work together in harmony and that the community need not have any fears of actions by the MCC. The purpose was also to raise funds for the MCC.

Most of the speakers also condemned the Vietnam war and imperialism of the United States.

It was announced that Senator GEORGE MC GOVERN will arrive at Miami International Airport at 2:00 p.m. on Saturday, July 8, 1972, and everyone was urged to be present to greet him. [redacted] announced that there will be a non-violent march on Sunday afternoon of MC GOVERN supporters and all were invited to attend. b6 b7C

It was learned from CP members present that the "Daily World" and other CP literature will be handed out during this march and also during the week of the Democratic convention. Literature will be passed out to delegates and non-delegates.

Of the $640 collected at this rally, the MCC actually received only $440. This was because the MCC had to pay back to the Miami CP the $500 which it had loaned to them and which has now been paid back in full.

According to [redacted] some of the MCC people are sleeping at the MCC office on Alton Road. b6 b7C

Movie pictures were taken of this rally believed to be by individuals from the MCC as the cameras had no TV or radio designation and it is known that the MCC has movie equipment and plans to show its own movies taken during convention activities.

[redacted] (LNU), [redacted] from New York, AND [redacted] from San Diego, are currently working on a set up for a communications center to be used by movement groups during the convention. Another guy named [redacted] was also working on it but every body seemed to think [redacted] He will prdably be allowed to work on the Flamingo Park logistics arrangements. The communications set up is being done with considerable help from the Operation Out-Reach group of the YMCA and in fact it is pretty much their show. It will consist of ten mobile units with CB radioes located in rental Ryder trucks each of which will contain two people from the YMCA, one of whom will be a medic. There will also be ten medical teams of four people each with a CB radio stationed around the convention site. In addition, there will also be two high and low band UHF-VHF police monitors and two Regency VHF and UHF scanners. It is believed that the CB band radioes will be operating on a frequency of 154.3, at least the ones in the rental trucks. Also there will be private lines direct from the Operation Out-Reach office to the Public Safety Department, Civil Defense people and Ida Fisher Junior High School, which is the site of a medical staging area, drug center and child care center, and also one to the Flamingo Park camp site. Lines will also be run to Switchboard ~~and WBUS for~~ rumor control.

A meeting was held on [redacted] with representatives of the following organizations:

b7D

SCLC
PCPJ

This group voted to exclude from their organization or from joining their organization the NCC, Gays, the Miami Women's Coalition, the YIPS and the ZIPS.

As far as up coming events are concerned, the five groups mentioned above are supposed to hold a news conference on Friday, 7/7/72, at an undetermined location to announce a scenario for the Democratic Convention. This is the press conference that was originally scheduled for 7/6/72. There has also been some talk about the YIPS staging some type of action relative to HUBERT HUMPHREY but it will probably not come off; however, their "smoke-in" will take place on 7/9/72, as scheduled.

On 7/10/72, VVAW has scheduled showings of a film and the Narmic slide show at the Colony Theater and the Pier Park Band Shell, respectively. Expose72 will take place each day at Lincoln Mall and Lummus Park probably starting 7/10/72.

On 7/12/72, at 3:00 PM, there is supposed to be a Zippie march from Flamingo Park to the convention and this is being billed as LBJ Day.

Memorandum

TO : SAC, MIAMI [redacted] DATE: 7/8/72

FROM : SA [redacted]

SUBJECT: MIDEM - MCC; FPC

At approximately [redacted] a male individual who identified himself as [redacted] furnished the following information:

[redacted] VVAW, [redacted] Reverend ABERNATHY and other faction leaders are going to hold a press conference, time and date unknown, re threats against the black New Left organizations by the American Nazi Party and a local Cuban organization.

During the press conference they will also attempt to tie in instant threats with their own allegations of a conspiracy by the NIXON administration to nullify active protests by the VVAW by issuing subpoenaes to VVAW leaders.

[redacted] advised that considerable paranoia and fear appear to be setting in among those organizations encamped at Flamingo Park due to the threats by above-listed groups.

He stated that confrontation was narrowly avoided last night as members of the American Nazi Party and the Cuban faction came to the Flamingo Park area; however, the leaders of the various factions encamped there were elsewhere holding a meeting.

[redacted] was overheard making a long distance collect telephone call and advising the person he talked to of FBI attempts to serve subpoenaes to several VVAW persons and further to tell them to "cool it" and remain out of sight.

STU ALBERT is aiding in the organization of a unity coalition among all Left and black factions for the purpose of joint demonstrations and demands during the Democratic and Republican Conventions.

JOINT PEOPLE'S ACTION COALITION (JPAC)

IT WAS PREVIOUSLY REPORTED THAT THE JPAC WAS FORMED FOLLOWING A SPLIT WITHIN THE MIAMI CONVENTIONS COALITION (MCC) AND THAT THE JPAC WILL BE COMPOSED OF THE PEOPLES COALITION FOR PEACE AND JUSTICE (PCPJ), VIETNAM VETERANS AGAINST THE WAR (VVAW), SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE (SCLC), NATIONAL WELFARE RIGHTS ORGANIZATION (NWRO), AND NATIONAL TENANTS ORGANIZATION (NTO). THE MCC WILL BE COMPOSED OF THE YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY (YIP) AND THE GAY ACTIVISTS ALLIANCE (GAA).

THE ONLY ACCOMMODATION BETWEEN JPAC AND MCC WILL BE CONCERNING THE ISSUE OF CAMPSITES. THE TWO GROUPS WILL COOPERATE IN THE USE OF THE AVAILABLE CAMPSITES BUT WILL NOT CONDUCT JOINT RALLIES OR OTHER TYPES OF ACTIVITIES DURING THE CONVENTION.

NATIONAL SOCIALIST WHITE PEOPLE'S PARTY (NSWPP)

[redacted] OF THE NSWPP, ALSO KNOWN AS THE AMERICAN NAZI PARTY, HAS OFFERED THE CITY OF MIAMI ONE HUNDRED OF HIS "STORM TROOPERS" TO "HELP PROTECT WHITE PEOPLE" DURING THE CONVENTION. HE HAS REQUESTED A CAMPSITE FOR HIS MEMBERS AND HAS STATED AT LEAST ONE THOUSAND WILL BE IN MIAMI BEACH DURING THE WEEK OF THE CONVENTION.

CUBAN ACTIVITIES

IT WAS PREVIOUSLY REPORTED THAT CUBAN ORGANIZATIONS IN THE MIAMI AREA ARE PLANNING A DEMONSTRATION AT CONVENTION HALL, MIAMI BEACH, ON JULY ELEVEN, NEXT. THIS DEMONSTRATION IS TO COMMENCE AT FIVE-THIRTY P.M. MOST CUBAN-OWNED SHOPS AND FACTORIES IN THE MIAMI AREA WILL CLOSE AT THREE P.M. ON THAT DATE SO THAT EMPLOYEES WILL BE ABLE TO ATTEND. IN ADDITION, NUMEROUS CUBAN MIAMI BEACH HOTEL EMPLOYEES REPORTEDLY PLAN TO PARTICIPATE. LEADERS OF THE DEMONSTRATION ESTIMATE PARTICIPATION WILL BE BETWEEN FIVE AND SEVEN THOUSAND PERSONS. DURING PLANNING SESSION FOR THIS DEMONSTRATION, [redacted] PROPOSED THAT SOME OF THE MARCHERS OR PARTICIPANTS IN THE DEMONSTRATION PERFORM SOME ACT IN ORDER TO CAUSE THE POLICE TO ARREST THEM AS A MEANS OF OBTAINING PUBLICITY ON BEHALF OF THE CUBAN EXILES. NO DECISION WAS MADE ON THIS PROPOSAL.

b6

NATIONAL WELFARE RIGHTS ORGANIZATION (NWRO)

ON THE AFTERNOON OF JULY SEVEN, LAST, APPROXIMATELY TWO HUNDRED MEMBERS OF THE NWRO APPEARED AT THE FONTAINEBLEAU HOTEL, MIAMI BEACH, AND FORCED THEIR WAY PAST SECURITY GUARDS INTO THE LOBBY. THEY WERE MET BY REPRESENTATIVES OF THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL COMMITTEE, AND A DISCUSSION WAS HELD CONCERNING NWRO'S CONTINUING DEMANDS THAT THE COMMITTEE FURNISH NWRO WITH SEVEN HUNDRED FIFTY SEATS FOR NONVOTING MEMBERS ON THE FLOOR OF THE CONVENTION HALL. THE COMMITTEE HAS NOT AGREED TO THIS PROPOSAL. FOLLOWING DISCUSSION AT THE HOTEL, THE NWRO MEMBERS WITHDREW WITHOUT INCIDENT.

ACTION COMMITTEE ON AMERICAN-ARAB RELATIONS (ACAAR)

THE ACAAR PLANS A PEACEFUL DEMONSTRATION AT CONVENTION HALL BETWEEN FOUR AND SIX P.M. NEXT. APPROXIMATELY FIFTY-ONE HUNDRED PERSONS ARE EXPECTED TO PARTICIPATE IN THE DEMONSTRATION. THE PURPOSE OF THE DEMONSTRATION IS TO PROTEST SUPPORT FOR ISRAEL PROPOSED IN THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY PLATFORM.

CAMPSITES

VARIOUS GROUPS WHO HAVE TRAVELED TO MIAMI BEACH TO PROTEST DURING THE CONVENTION HAVE OCCUPIED FLAMINGO PARK, WHICH HAS BEEN DESIGNATED A NONDELEGATE CAMPSITE BY THE CITY. MINOR CLASHES HAVE OCCURRED FOLLOWING DISPUTES AS TO WHICH GROUP SHOULD OCCUPY CERTAIN AREAS OF THE PARK. NO ARRESTS HAVE RESULTED. DESPITE OPPOSITION BY THE YIP AND OTHER PROTEST GROUPS WHO HAVE SPAC IN THE PARK, THE ZIPPIES, A DISSIDENT FACTION OF THE YIP, CONTINUES TO PLAN A "SMOKE-IN"

YIP APPEARS TO BE TORN BY INTERNAL DISSENSION. ON THE AFTERNOON OF JULY EIGHT, LAST, THE YIP COLLECTIVE VOTED TO BAN ABBIE HOFFMAN AND JERRY RUBIN, BOTH OF WHOM ARE MEMBERS OF THE "CHICAGO SEVEN," FROM THE GROUP CAMPSITE FOR THE DURATION OF THE CONVENTION. IT IS THE CONTENTION OF THE COLLECTIVE THAT THESE TWO HAVE BEEN ACCORDED TOO MUCH ATTENTION BY THE MEDIA. OTHER MEMBERS OF THE COLLECTIVE FEEL THAT HOFFMAN AND RUBIN CONTROL THE ORGANIZATION BY REASON OF THEIR DOMINEERING PERSONALITIES AND THAT THEIR CONTROL DOES NOT RESULT FROM GROUP CONSULTATION.

THE CITY OF ST. PETERSBURG, FLORIDA, REPORTEDLY WILL OFFER VVAW CAMPSITES FOR APPROXIMATELY ONE THOUSAND OF ITS MEMBERS TO BE USED DURING THE PERIOD BETWEEN THE DEMOCRATIC AND REPUBLICAN CONVENTIONS. REPORTEDLY, THE CAMPSITES WILL BE PREPARED FOR OCCUPANCY BY VVAW MEMBERS DURING THE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

THE SDS/WSA SPONSORED A DEMONSTRATION IN FRONT OF THE EDEN ROC HOTEL AT MIAMI BEACH AT ELEVEN FORTY-FIVE A.M., JULY EIGHT, LAST. APPROXIMATELY ONE HUNDRED PERSONS TOOK PART.

A LUNCHEON MEETING OF THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL COMMITTEE WAS BEING HELD AT THE HOTEL AT THE TIME. SEVERAL OF THE DEMONSTRATORS MANAGED TO ENTER THE HOTEL AND HANG A LARGE BANNER BETWEEN THE EIGHTH AND NINTH FLOORS OF THE BUILDING. FOUR OF THE DEMONSTRATORS MANAGED TO ENTER THE ROOM WHERE THE LUNCHEON WAS BEING HELD AND ATTEMPTED TO GET INDIVIDUALS PRESENT TO ENDORSE A SDS/WSA ANTIRACISM BILL. DURING THE DEMONSTRATION OUTSIDE, SOME EGGS WERE THROWN AT DEMONSTRATORS FROM WINDOWS OF THE HOTEL. THERE WERE NO OTHER DISTURBANCES.

SDS/WSA REPORTEDLY WILL MEET WITH MEMBERS OF VVAW IN FLAMINGO PARK TONIGHT TO FORMULATE PLANS FOR THE STORMING OF THE FENCE WHICH SURROUNDS THE CONVENTION CENTER. NO FINAL PLANS FOR THIS ACTION HAVE BEEN SET.

AMERICAN INDIAN MOVEMENT

"THE MIAMI NEWS," A LOCAL MIAMI, FLORIDA, NEWSPAPER IN ITS JULY SIX EDITION, REPORTED THAT BETWEEN THREE AND FOUR HUNDRED AMERICAN INDIANS, UNDER THE SPONSORSHIP OF THE AMERICAN INDIAN MOVEMENT, PLAN TO PROTEST THE LACK OF REPRESENTATION OF INDIANS AT THE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION AND THE "UNEXPECTEDLY MILD PLANK" ON INDIAN RIGHTS IN THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY PLATFORM. CONFRONT NIXON IN MIAMI

AUGUST 20-23

The Miami Conventions Coalition is calling for massive non-violent demonstrations at the Republican Convention this summer. Based on our analysis of a continuing Vietnamese offensive, and as a crucial part of an election year strategy, we feel that exposing and confronting the Nixon regime will significantly affect the course of the war and the outcome of the election. Our scenario provides for a major expression of broad-based dissatisfaction of the people of the United States, and a showing that we as peace-loving people cannot accept another four years of the Nixon doctrine. We will demonstrate the unity of generations, races, and sexes in opposition to Nixon and his policies.

For the Democratic Convention, the Miami Conventions Coalition is organizing exhibits on Vietnam and the war as well as political and logistical support for NWRO and other groups that are planning activities. We actively encourage people to participate in NWRO, SCLO, National Tenants Organization, and National Coalition of Gay Organizations' activities. The Miami Women's Coalition is organizing a Womens Brigade for the NWRO march.

We do not support any presidential candidate. All our actions at both conventions will be non-violent.

We are proposing the following scenario for the Republican Convention:

AUGUST 18-23:

Expose' '72--a humanized peoples world's fair centering around domestic and foreign liberation movements. Exhibits, films, booths, theater, art, music, slide-shows. Expose' '72 will provide a context where the people coming in from around the country and the residents of Miami Beach can come to understand each other, the nature of this country and the world we live in.

SUNDAY, AUGUST 20 TO MONDAY, AUGUST 21:

From moonrise to moonrise Women Will Create A New Day, of power, celebration and protest--organized by the Miami Womens Coalition in conjunction with Women's groups from around the country. Women will lead off all the convention activities with a Women's Welcome Party on Sunday night; workshops, raps, music, and being with each other, and a Womens' Action on Monday, August 21. Our womens' center will include child care, information, medical facilities, and most of all, a free space.

MONDAY, AUGUST 21:

Opening day of the Republican National Convention. Sessions at 1 and 7:30. (The anniversary of George Jackson's murder).

Let Vietnam Live. As the Republican National Convention convenes, Vietnamese who live in the United States will present a moving cultural event for the senior citizens of Miami Beach and people who have gathered from around the U.S. The rich history and indominable spirit of Vietnam will be conveyed in song, theater, and dance, with the participation of Vietnam Veterans. Madame Binh will speak from Paris via trans-continental telephone to offer the American people a just program for ending the war and for returning American POWs.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 22: NOMINATION DAY. Sessions at 1 and 7:30.

Morning: Investigation into the policies of the Nixon Administration. A delegation from the Miami Beach community will take testimony from Vietnam Veterans, ex-prisoners, labor representatives, unemployed Blacks, women, welfare recipients, Third World people, gays, and senior citizens.

Afternoon: STREET WITHOUT JOY. As the delegates drive from their luxury hotels down Highway 1 to the convention, they will travel a STREET WITHOUT JOY. To dramatize the crime of participation in the nomination day of Richard Nixon, thousands of people will line both sides of the boulevard forcing the delegates to pass through a "gauntlet of shame". All of the gathered constituencies will stretch block after block in single file on both sides of the street with death masks, posters of My Lai and Attica, and other images of repression, racism, and murder that are the face of the Republican regime.

Evening: MARCH TO THE CONVENTION. We will march as united generations against the nomination of Richard Nixon. Led by unemployed Vietnam Veterans and organized by constituencies, we will stage a massive nighttime encirclement of the Convention Hall, expressing the just demands of the American people and in support of the 7 Point Peace Plan of the Provisional Revolutionary Government (PRG) of South Vietnam.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 23:

In the afternoon, before Nixon's acceptance speech, we will march on his headquarters at the Hotel Doral. We will demand an accountability for why Madame Binh's peace offer has not been accepted, and for the crimes documented by the investigation.

We will remain stationed around the Republican Headquarters until Nixon or a ranking representative of the Republican Party presents themselves to answer to the people assembled outside.

The emphasis on decentralization is seen by the non-PCPJ members of MCC as another effort by [redacted] and his [redacted] gave this information to [redacted] who said he would pass it on to [redacted] and [redacted] who are presently in Washington, D.C. [redacted] took the floor and made the following points: 1) MCC and PCPJ must set up a camp site task force to get something resolved concerning camp sites with local officers; 2) MCC must establish an outreach program to coincide with the yippie mock marriage ceremony and suggested it be called "Listen to the People". It would include a door to door leafleting and speaking campaign; 3) MCC and PCPJ must take the leadership in keeping things cool on convention night. He said that in the event McGOVERN does not get the nomination some of the other groups would probably become unruly and that it was up to MCC to do what they could to keep things quiet. b6 b7C b7D

ABBIE HOFFMAN and JERRY RUBIN have been removed from the YIP collective and no longer have any authority within the organization although they still do receive some financial support from the organization.

TOM FORCADE and [redacted] have been kicked out of the ZIPPIES.

[redacted] (ph), of Washington, D. C. who is active in the Anti War Union resides in [redacted] at the Victoria Hotel, Miami Beach. Also at that hotel are [redacted] of Washington, D. C.; [redacted] (LNU), an Oriental from Philadelphia; [redacted] (ph). b6 b7C

[redacted] who has been associated with the Harrisburg Defense Committee, originally from Boston and currently from Washington, D. C. is in the Miami area. He does not have a permanent address, but is "crashing" wherever he can find a place to stay.

[redacted] is staying in the room previously occupied by [redacted] is staying at Flamingo Park. The hotel is located at 36th Street and Collins Avenue.

[redacted] of the "London Times", who has been active in the Washington, D. C. area in anti-war activities, is staying at the Victoria Hotel.

[redacted] checked out of the Victoria Hotel and apparently is now staying at the campsite at Flamingo Park. b6 b7C

[redacted] and [redacted] of the Attica Brigade from New York City, along with [redacted] are staying at the campsite.

The march from the campsite to the Convention Hall to begin at 10:00 AM, 7/10/72, is actually being arranged by the Attica Brigade. There are to be at least two speeches at the Convention Center although the identity of the speakers are not known. It was decided that this march would be in the streets rather than along the sidewalks and in all probability if there are over 100 participants they will stage a sit-down at the intersection of Washington Avenue and 17th Street. There is no plan for any confrontation or serious problem with the police during this demonstration.

The VVAW has not produced or distributed any of their slingshots as yet, although the word at the campsite is that these slingshots are available and will be distributed sometime in the future.

The Zippies are planning some type of a parade from the campsite to the Convention Hall at 3:00 PM, 7/10/72. Details are not now known.

There are some problems within the campsite. The JESUS "freaks" apparently have bothered many of the residents of the campsite and it is believed they will be banned from the campsite in the near future. Residents of the campsite had a new nude swim-in on the evening of 7/8 and again on 7/9/72. It is believed that the pool at Flamingo Park may be closed because of these nude swim-ins.

During the NWRO rally at the Convention Center on 7/10/72, it is rumored that they will try to push their way into the Convention Hall as the NTO did a few days ago.

Some unknown group is planning a rock concert to be held at 8:00 PM, 7/10/72, on the Lincoln Road Mall at Alton Road.

The SDS is scheduling some type of picket line for the Bayfront Auditorium in Miami during the Democratic Nationalities Forum scheduled for 10:00 AM, 7/10/72.

The Zippies were advised that [redacted] attorney b6 b7C was not present and that execution of sentence has been postponed until the following day.

The Zippies pretended to throw the pies they were carrying but instead stated, "The same thing happens to pies that happens to people who do not fight back against NIXON law and order; that is, they get eaten."

The Zippies thereupon broke up the pies into small pieces and passed them to the group assembled for eating.

The demonstration broke up at 1:22 p.m.

No incidents occurred. No arrests were made. The Zippies vowed, however, they would be back the following day.

That on [redacted] YIPPIES voted and made finalization to abolish JERRY RUBIN and ABBIE HOFFMAN from group site for duration of convention. b7D

Reason for such move, YIPPIES feel the press concentrates on RUBIN and HOFFMAN too much and as a result they run organization by personality rather than by group conciliation. This move also apparent attempt to reconciliate with ZIPPIES.

Source advised ZIPPIES are shaping up to be one of the leading power forces among the different groups. One of big reasons for this is the ZIPPIE position on the smoking problem (smoke-ins).

The demonstration sponsored by the Miami Conventions Coalition (MCC) from Flamingo Park to the convention site and return was observed by SAs [redacted] and [redacted] Approximately 300 - 500 participants left the camp site at approximately 10:20 A.M. Some dropped out en route to the convention center and on arrival at approximately 10:55 A.M. there were from 250 to 300 participants. At the camp site short anti-war speeches were given by JEFF NIGHTBYRD and STU ALBERT. Two representatives of the Miami Women's Coalition (MWC) and CAROL KITCHEN of the People's Coalition for Peace and Justice (PCPJ) also spoke. The last speaker was an unknown representative of Vietnam Veterans Against the War (VVAW) who urged participants to march peacefully back to the camp site. b6 b7C

While at the convention center the demonstrators were joined by 15 to 20 women who came from a northerly direction. They carried signs identifying themselves as members of the American Feminist Party.

During the speeches some of the Youth International Party (YIP) leaders were observed closely inspecting the fence in the demonstration area. They walked along the area between the hibiscus hedge and the fence.

Approximately 200 then departed the convention site and marched peacefully to their camp site. No incident occurred and it appeared the VVAW members who acted more or less as marshals were very anxious to avoid any problems or trouble.

Participants carried placards identifying themselves as representatives of the MCC, MWC, Worker Action Movement (WAM), VVAW, YIP, Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) and Zippies.

NATIONAL WELFARE RIGHTS ORGANIZATION (NWRO) - THE NWRO POOR PEOPLES MARCH AND RALLY WAS CONDUCTED AS SCHEDULED. ABOUT ONE THOUSAND TO THIRTEEN HUNDRED DEMONSTRATORS, LESS THAN ONE FOURTH OF THEM BLACK, MARCHED UP WASHINGTON AVENUE AND ARRIVED AT THE CONVENTION HALL ABOUT SIX THIRTY PM. A DEMONSTRATION WAS CONDUCTED IN THE NORTH DEMONSTRATION AREA. SPEECHES WERE MADE BY VARIOUS PROTEST LEADERS IN WHICH THEIR DEMANDS FOR CONVENTION FLOOR SEATING FOR POOR PEOPLE WERE REITERATED. ALTHOUGH THE GROUP PERIODICALLY CHANTED "OPEN THE DOOR" NO ATTEMPT WAS MADE DURING THE DEMONSTRATION TO FORCIBLY ENTER THE CONVENTION COMPLEX. ONE OF THE SPEAKERS, DOCTOR BENJAMIN SPOCK, OF THE PEOPLES PARTY INVITED THE DEMONSTRATORS TO ATTEND A ROCK FESTIVAL SPONSORED BY HIS GROUP AT ALTON ROAD AND LINCOLN MALL. MOST OF THE DEMONSTRATORS LEFT THE DEMONSTRATION BETWEEN EIGHT AND EIGHT THIRTY PM. THE NSWPP FORMERLY KNOWN AS THE AMERICAN NAZI PARTY HAVE BEEN IN THE MIAMI AREA REGARDING CONVENTION ACTIVITIES. INFORMATION OF UNKNOWN RELIABILITY SHOWS NSWPP MEMBERS IN MIAMI ARE PLOTTING TO KIDNAP JERRY RUBIN AND ABBIE HOFFMAN, RECENTLY EXPELLED YIP LEADERS.

YIP IS AN ANTI-ESTABLISHMENT REVOLUTIONARY YOUTH ORGANIZATION.

THE SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE (SCLC) AND THE NATIONAL WELFARE RIGHTS ORGANIZATION (NWRO) WERE KICKED OUT OF THE CAMPSITE, FLAMINGO PARK, AT APPROXIMATELY ELEVEN THIRTY A.M. THIS DATE.

SCLC HEADQUARTERS IN MIAMI WERE REPORTEDLY BURGLARIZED EVENING OF JULY TEN TO ELEVEN, SEVENTY TWO, AND SUFFERED CONSIDERABLE VANDALISM. POSSIBILITY EXISTS THIS ACTION WAS DONE BY SCLC MEMBERS AND WILL BE BLAMED ON LOCAL POLICE IN AN ATTEMPT TO CREATE LOCAL SYMPATHY AND BACKING FOR THE ORGANIZATION.

THE SCLC AND NWBO AREMATIONAL CIVIL RIGHTS TYPE ORGANIZATIONS.

ALL THE ABOVE INFORMATION HAS BEEN FURNISHED US SECRET SERVICE AND LOCAL POLICE THROUGH THE CONVENTION INTELLIGENCE CENTER.

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY/WORKER STUDENT ALLIANCE (SDS/WSA)

ON JULY NINE, LAST, SDS/WSA AND THE WORKERS ACTION MOVEMENT, A FRONT GROUP OF SDS/USA, SPONSORED A DEMONSTRATION AT THE PLAYBOY PLAZA HOTEL, MIAMI BEACH. MEMBERS OF OTHER PROTEST GROUPS INCLUDING MIAMI WOMENS COALITION, THE WOMENS AFFILIATE OF THE MIAMI CONVENTIONS COALITION, AND VIETNAM VETERANS AGAINST THE WAR (VVAW), ALSO TOOK PART IN THE DEMONSTRATION, WHICH NUMBERED APPROXIMATELY TWO HUNDRED PERSONS. IT WAS HELD TO COINCIDE WITH A DINNER AT THE HOTEL ATTENDED BY FINANCIAL BACKERS OF THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY. DURING THE DEMONSTRATION PARTICIPANTS HARRASSED OCCUPANTS OF AUTOMOBILES ENTERING AND LEAVING THE HOTEL AND AT ONE POINT FORMED A HUMAN CHAIN AND SEALED OFF A DRIVEWAY. POLICE DISPERSED DEMONSTRATORS AT THIS POINT, WHEREUPON THE GROUP REASSEMBLED AND MARCHED TO THE FONTAINEBLEAU HOTEL. THE GROUP CONDUCTED NO DEMONSTRATION AT THE HOTEL. THE DEMONSTRATORS DISPERSED AT THE HOTEL AND RETURNED TO FLAMINGO PARK.

[redacted] PRESS CONFERENCE

ON JULY NINE, LAST, [redacted] OF THE PEOPLES COALITION FOR PEACE AND JUSTICE (PCPJ) WHO IS ALSO ONE OF THE "CHICAGO SEVEN," APPEARED AT A PRESS CONFERENCE AT THE FONTAINEBLEAU HOTEL. [redacted] SPOKE OUT HEATEDLY ON THE

CUBAN ACTIVITIES

ON THE EVENING OF JULY NINE, LAST, [redacted] WHO IS A MEMBER OF THE FEDERATION OF CUBAN STUDENTS (FEC), REPORTEDLY WAS PRESENT IN FLAMINGO PARK AND WAS ATTEMPTING TO CREATE AN INCIDENT WITH HIPPIE-TYPE ELEMENTS ASSEMBLED IN THE PARK. REPORTEDLY, [redacted] USED PROFANITY AND DIRECTED ACCUSATIONS TO GROUPS OF HIPPIES ON FIVE OR SIX OCCASIONS IN AN UNSUCCESSFUL ATTEMPT TO PROVOKE THEM. REPORTEDLY, HE WILL RETURN TO THE PARK AGAIN TODAY TO CONTINUE HIS EFFORTS. HE IS ACCOMPANIED BY SEVERAL OTHER CUBANS. ACCORDING TO SOURCES THEY ARE ACTING INDEPENDENTLY OF FEC.

b7C

b6
b7C

THE HIPPIES ON THE EVENING OF JULY ELEVEN, NEXT, AT WHICH TIME THE PARTIDO REVOLUCIONARIA CUBANA (PRC) PLANS A DEMONSTRATION AT THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION.

SMOKE IN SPONSORED BY ZIPPIES

ON JULY NINE, LAST, THE ZIPPIES, A FACTION OF THE YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY, SPONSORED A SMOKE-IN AT FLAMINGO PARK. APPROXIMATELY THREE HUNDRED PERSONS TOOK PART IN THE SMOKE-IN FOLLOWING WHICH THE GROUP MARCHED TO CONVENTION HALL. EN ROUTE TO THE HALL, IT GREW TO APPROXIMATELY NINE HUNDRED PARTICIPANTS. AFTER A SHORT DEMONSTRATION AT CONVENTION HALL, THE PARTICIPANTS RETURNED TO THE PARK. THERE WERE NO INCIDENTS.

UNITY RALLY

A UNITY RALLY, SPONSORED BY THE SOURTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE (SCLC), NATIONAL WELFARE RIGHTS ORGANIZATION (NWRO) AND THE NATIONAL TENTANTS ORGANIZATION (NTO), WAS HELD AT MANOR PARK, MIAMI BEACH, ON JULY NINE, LAST. APPROXIMATELY THREE THOUSAND PERSONS WERE PRESENT. SPEAKERS AT THIS RALLY INCLUDED AL HUBBARD, A LEADER OF THE VVAW WHO CONDEMNED THE DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE FOR INSTITUTING A GRAND JURY HEARING INTO VVAW ACTIVITY DURING THE CONVENTION, REVEREND RALPH ABERNATH OF SCLC, WHO STATED THAT THE DEMOCRATS OWE SCLC A DEBT AND THAT SCLC IS IN MIAMI FOR THE CONVENTION TO COLLECT IT, AND JESSE GRAY OF THE NTO, WHO SPOKE FOR THE NEED OF ASSISTANCE TO THE POOR. THE RALLY WAS PEACEFUL.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

From July 10-14, 1972, the Democratic National Convention will be held in Miami Beach, Florida. The Republican National Convention is scheduled for the same location August 21-24, 1972.

This document is the fifth of a series which will summarize information developed by the FBI concerning the potential for disruptive activities at these conventions. Plans, activities, and objectives of protest groups will be reported on a regular basis until the conventions.

OUTLOOK

Latest intelligence reports reveal that the Republican Convention will likely receive the main thrust of the demonstration activities in Miami Beach, since the major protest organizations have generally agreed to keep their efforts at the Democratic Convention low-key. Concern continues to exist over the possible actions of Cubans in the Miami area. A group of anticommunist Cuban organizations has applied for a permit to demonstrate during the evening hours of July 10-14 in the southern part of the area in front of the Convention Center, while various antiwar organizations plan to demonstrate in the northern section of this area. Any confrontation between these different groups could produce a potentially volatile situation.

Although developments continue to indicate that the main focus of protest activity will be the Republican rather than the Democratic Convention, the possibility exists that a heated political fight between opposing factions could create a polarization leading to spontaneous demonstrations. Any such demonstrations could, of course, degenerate into civil disorders.

In regard to the large numbers of demonstrators forecast by the various protest organizations, it is to be noted that there has been no indication to date that public transportation reservations have been made in significant numbers by any of these groups.

At present, demonstration activity relating to the Democratic Convention is planned as follows:

July 8

Youth International Party
Senior Citizens Rally
7:00 p.m., Flamingo Park, Miami Beach

National Tenants Organization
Rally, 4:00 p.m., Convention Center

Workers Action Movement
Picket various hotels

July 9	ZIP (Zippies) Marijuana Smoke-in Bay Shore Golf Course, Miami Beach
	Workers Action Movement Picket various hotels
	Southern Christian Leadership Conference Rally, Manor Park, Miami
July 10-14	Cuban refugee groups Demonstrations, Convention Center
July 10	National Welfare Rights Organization March, 7-10:00 p.m. Flamingo Park to Convention Center
July 11	Students for a Democratic Society March to Convention Hall, 4:30 p.m.
	Gay Liberation Front Demonstration, Convention Hall
July 12	Gay Activist Alliance "Kiss-in," Convention Center

ORGANIZATIONS

Youth International Party (YIP)

On several occasions recently, YIP has announced it plans no "marches or confrontations" during the Democratic Convention. However, there have been statements made that YIP may join the activities of other groups.

At a YIP meeting July 3, leaders again stressed their desire for nonviolence at the Democratic Convention, but those in attendance were told to "heat it up" for the Republican Convention in August.

YIP is planning a "phone-freak convention" in Miami on July 11 to provide instructions in methods of making toll-free telephone calls.

Zippies (ZIP)

Members of ZIP, a splinter group of YIP led by Thomas Forcade and Patrick Small, have recently been active in Orlando and St. Petersburg, Florida, attempting to form caravans to travel to Miami Beach July 8, where they will participate in ZIP-sponsored demonstrations during the Democratic Convention.

ZIP has also announced plans for a marijuana "smoke-in" at Bay Shore Golf Course, Miami Beach, on July 9 to try to gain support for legalization of marijuana.

Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC)

It was previously reported SCLC President Ralph Abernathy had announced that 1,500-2,000 SCLC followers were expected in Miami Beach to occupy "Resurrection City II," a tent city being planned there for the duration of the Democratic Convention. Subsequently, Reverend Abernathy stated 500 persons are now expected to occupy "Resurrection City II."

National Tenants Organization (NTO)

NTO has obtained a permit for a rally at 4:00 p.m. on July 8 in front of the Convention Center. The stated purpose of this demonstration is to dramatize major grievances of the poor, especially those concerning welfare payments and public housing developments.

National Welfare Rights Organization (NWRO)

A permit has been obtained by NWRO for a march on July 10 from 7:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m. The march is to begin at Flamingo Park and terminate at the demonstration area in front of the Convention Center. Spokesmen for NWRO have indicated a "vigil" will be conducted outside the Convention Hall while "friends" on the convention floor will urge adoption of NWRO's "Poor People's Platform."

Miami Conventions Coalition (MCC)

During the weekend of July 1-2, [redacted] attempted to persuade members of the MCC and the Peoples Coalition for Peace and Justice to consider plans for a large demonstration to occur the evening of the nomination of the Democratic Presidential candidate. Reportedly, [redacted] commented that if actions were planned "resources and funds would appear." [redacted] was not given an affirmative response to his proposal.

b6

National Socialist White People's Party (NSWPP)

[redacted] of NSWPP, plans to send a [redacted] of approximately [redacted] to the Miami area in the organization's converted school bus, yellow in color and bearing 1972 Virginia license AUS-434. [redacted] reportedly stated: "We are going to show the Democrats, Republicans, and Floridians what Nazis are made of. We might even show them some crowd control techniques."

Vietnam Veterans Against the War (VVAW)

[redacted] for VVAW, in mid-June indicated he expected peaceful demonstrations during the Democratic National Convention; however, he stated there would be "an increase in temper" for the Republican Convention, with unspecified Federal installations to be the targets of demonstrations. Information has also been received that VVAW members are trying to obtain credentials to enter the Democratic Convention at Convention Hall. b6 b7C

While [redacted] and other VVAW personnel have mentioned their desire for no violence at the conventions, information has been received that some VVAW members are obtaining potentially lethal slingshots, while others are regularly discussing violent methods of protest. Acts of sniping and sabotage were reportedly discussed by VVAW members on one recent occasion; however, no definite plans for such activity are known to have been made.

Students for a Democratic Society (SDS)

At the Midwestern Conference of SDS in Chicago July 1-2, the major topic of discussion was SDS's "Anti-Racism Bill," which the organization plans to submit to the Democratic Convention for inclusion in the party's platform. Agreement was not reached on the exact wording of the proposal; however, the "bill" in general seeks enactment of laws to eliminate the "racist genocide" allegedly practiced in the United States.

SDS plans to daily leaflet Democratic Convention delegates to circulate petitions supporting the "Anti-Racism Bill." Some SDS members are reportedly considering methods to enter the convention and read the "bill" on the convention floor. No plans for violence are known to have been discussed.

Cuban Activities

A meeting of the Cuban Revolutionary Party (CRP), a Cuban exile group in Miami, was held June 29 to discuss convention activities. CRP leader Carlos Prio Socarras, former President of Cuba, personally approved of plans to peacefully demonstrate at both conventions in order to display opposition to any negotiations by either political party with the Castro government. The CRP has set a goal of 10,000 Cuban demonstrators at each convention and has gained the support of other Miami area Cuban groups.

National Student Coalition for America (NSCA)

b7C

Led by [redacted] who is reported to be a University of Miami [redacted] NSCA describes itself as a "national coalition of right wing student groups, hard hat unions, American Legion members, and Cuban exile organizations." The group plans to conduct demonstrations at the Convention Center during the days of the convention supporting "responsible patriotism." [redacted] has stated the NSCA-sponsored activities will involve 50,000-100,000 persons.

APPENDIX

"On to Miami!"

Although the underground press continues its insistence that nonviolent protest is preferred by the "hundreds of thousands" planning to descend on Miami, Florida, during the Democratic and Republican Conventions, it simultaneously implies that violence will be hard, if not impossible, to avoid.

Articles carry such provocative titles as "Wishes Well But Beach May Be Hot," "The Siege of Miami," and "Stormy Weather?".

The following excerpts from underground publications show the manner in which this medium is attempting to build a climate of tension and fear.

No Flowers In Your Hair

The "Berkeley Barb" of June 16-23, 1972, asks, "Is this going to be the biggest and bloodiest riot that I have ever seen?" The answer: "Few of us are pacifists. Some of us are proud of our reputations as rioters and street fighters. But...we are preparing for well-organized, orderly actions.... But lots of other people have their fingers in the pie, so nobody can say how things will turn out. So, don't expect trouble, but don't come down to Miami Beach with flowers in your hair."

Backlash Portends Trouble

The same issue of the "Berkeley Barb" carries an article which, discussing the possibility of unavailable campsites for the demonstrators, cautions: "As backlash crystallizes and organizes, the situation may grow very intense and the positive, constructive attempts being made to gain campsites...may be negated by the backlash, and nothing else. If young people are denied their right to be present, some trouble is likely."

"Another Chicago?"

An article appearing in the June 22, 1972, issue of the "Village Voice," published in New York City, states that "the whirring of the air conditioners seems to be whispering to nervous officials, 'Another Chicago?... Another Chicago?...Another Chicago?...'"

Cuban Refugees

Called a "bizarre aspect" of the Miami problem by the "Berkeley Barb" of June 9-15, 1972, the Cuban refugees in the Miami area are viewed by the underground press as a cause of possible violence. The "Barb" warns that since a number of military groups "composed of Cuban exiles exist in the area also, and street demos are held by the exiles whenever Fidel seizes a fishing boat--sometimes involving as many as 5,000 people--some hassles might come from this group, also."

If the young left wing demonstrators come to Miami Beach to demonstrate at the conventions in favor of one of the candidates, this should be of no interest to the Cuban exiles. If they demonstrate, however, with banners praising CASTRO and GUEVARA and advocating immediate withdrawal from Vietnam, this should not be considered political activity but communist activity. On July 6, 1972, the YIPs sponsored a demonstration at the LaGorce Country Club in which about 75 to 80 people participated, some of them Jewish. They carried numerous posters, which reflected remarks about discrimination. There was no violence involved and no arrests. They received good TV and press coverage and were pleased.

On July 7, there was a showing of a film "The Chicago Seven" on Miami Beach at one of the schools which film was sponsored by the Florida Atlantic University branch. ABBIE HOFFMAN was supposed to appear and speak, but it is not known whether he actually did appear or not.

At 11:30 PM, ABBIE HOFFMAN ran out of the Albion Hotel and said he was going to some kind of a meeting at the Fontainebleau. No other details. ABBIE HOFFMAN and JERRY RUBIN were both at Flamingo Park last night at the approved campsite and there were about 200 YIPPIES in the YIPPIE area.

TOM FORCADE and [redacted] were also at the campsite of the Zippie area and there were about [redacted] there. [redacted] b6 b7C was sentenced to 90 days in Municipal Court on July 6 as the result of disorderly conduct, his throwing a pie at [redacted] during a council meeting of the Miami Beach City Council in June.

TOM FORCADE and [redacted] still contemplate having the b6 parade and smoke-in on Sunday, July 9th. Turn-out not known. b7C

On July 11th, the YIPs are contemplating having some type of a YIP marriage ceremony with senior citizens. Plans now being made this will possibly be held at Flamingo Park.

ALLEN GINSBERG was over at the Flamingo Park campsite [redacted] There is to be a picnic on July 8, which is put on by the Democratic National Committee. This is called a Democratic Close Committee approved by Governor ASKEW primarily for senior citizens. It is contemplated some members of YIP may go to this. b6 b7C b7D

The Workers Action Movement has opened an office at 420 Lincoln Road, Room 403, and they are going for the 40-hours pay for 30-hours work. They figure on doing some picketing, but there are not very many in town at the present time and does not know where they will do this.

The phone freak convention is scheduled to take place and a YIP by the name of [redacted] is working on this. During the last day or two he had purchased a large number of whistles, which he intends to fill partly with glue in an effort to get a certain tone out of them. Then by blowing this whistle after he has the operator causes the telephone to switch over to an automatic line and then numbers are dialed. This is part of the system used to make free long distance phone calls all over. It is contemplated a large number of these phone freaks will be at Miami Beach for this phone freak convention and the YIPs plan on giving lessons on how to use these gadgets. The phone freak convention is supposed to take place on 7/11/72. b6 b7C

2,500 troops due for 'stand-by'

The Pentagon said today it is sending about 2,500 Army paratroopers and Marines to South Dade this weekend to stand by in case of trouble during the Democratic National Convention, which opens Monday at Miami Beach.

Pentagon spokesman Jerry Friedheim said the troops will begin arriving tomorrow at Homestead Air Force Base.

Friedheim said the troops will remain at Homestead and be committed only if disturbances grow too big for police and Florida National Guardsmen to handle. It will be up to the Justice Department, acting for the federal government, to decide whether to send the troops into Miami Beach.

During their stay, the soldiers will be quartered in temporary facilities erected at Homestead within the last few days.

The Army regulars involve a 2,000-man grigade from the 82nd Airborne Division at Ft. Bragg, N.C., which has the standing responsibility for dealing with any East Coast civil disturbances. The force also includes a battalion of Marines, about 500 men, from Camp Lejeune, N.C., who also have civil disturbance training.

In addition, Friedheim said, the Pentagon is providing a smaller number of personnel to the Secret Service to aid in the protection of candidates. The assistance to the Secret Service also includes some Army helicopters and transportation support which, he said, is already being used in Miami Beach.

Friedheim said any sightings of these helicopters over the convention area or similar ones operated by the Florida National Guard "won't necessarily mean the forces from Homestead are involved."

The troops will be returned to their bases after the convention, and are likely to be flown back in August for the Republican convention at Miami Beach.

Abernathy pitches tent, vows fight

By EARLE JOSIAH
Associated Press Writer

Rev. Ralph Abernathy pitched a one-man pup tent in Resurrection City No. 2 yesterday and vowed to carry his fight against racial injustice and hunger to the Democratic convention.

Abernathy, head of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, said he would sleep at Flamingo Park through the convention period in the tiny tent, the first of many the SCLC is erecting to handle an estimated 500 followers scheduled to arrive Sunday.

The SCLC and two other black groups reiterated their threat to crash the nominating convention if they are not provided 750 delegate seats for poor people after Larry O'Brien, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, offered them 60 seats.

Earlier, the SCLC head met with Yippie Jerry Rubin and leaders of other protest groups. They agreed to set up a "sort of peoples' government" at the camp area, and to prevent the presence of hard drugs and violence there.

Yesterday morning, about 50 Yippies picketed for about 45 minutes at La Gorce Country Club, chanting, "Racist golf course got to go," claiming the club was antiblack and anti-Jewish.

They demanded it be turned into a poor peoples' club, providing day care centers, free breakfasts and full social activities for poor people, blacks and Jews. They were joined briefly by a dozen Jewish senior citizens from Miami Beach.

A split surfaces at tent village

A philosophical split between factions of the Youth International Party has surfaced as demonstrators erect a tent village at Flamingo Park to await next week's Democratic National Convention.

Beat poet Allen Ginsberg took on the role of peacemaker and persuaded most protagonists to give up heated arguments and join him in full-cheeked chants of "Om, Om, Om" last night.

The park dispute centered around ground rights for tents.

But underlying it was a conflict pitting old-line Yippies led by Jerry Rubin and Abbie Hoffman against the Zippies, headed by underground media lord Thomas Forcade. Both claim to be branches of the Youth International Party.

"We want a party that has no superstars," declared Forcade, owner of the Underground Press Syndicate, which serves many counterculture newspapers. "We want a party that isn't dependent on how Abbie feels in the morning."

The Zippies portray Hoffman, 34, and Rubin, 33, as aging "ego freaks" who have lost touch with the youth movement, sold out to the establishment politicians and who are more intent on making money off their books. Rubin and Hoffman led demonstrators at the 1968 Democratic convention in Chicago.

The two were among the "Chicago 7" defendants convicted of conspiracy to cross state lines to incite a riot.

"Abbie has an agent who answers his mail," chides Patrick Small, 22, a Zippie. "Abbie has been living in the Virgin Islands, Jerry's into the Yoga thing. We didn't expect them to come out of retirement for the conventions."

The Yippies countercharge that the Zippies are a tiny minority with no youth following, and denounce Zippie antics as the work of provocateurs who've already angered Miami's vast Cuban population.

"This is just a power play," Rubin complained as he squatted under a coconut palm. "It's like the Zippies are two people and three or four hangers-on. Whenever I go to a college campus, 2,000 or 3,000 people show up."

Rubin conceded the Yippies have changed since 1968. The emphasis on youth has been dropped, he said, and even the name Youth International Party is something of an embarrassment.

"Age is in your head, not your body," said Rubin. "That name may be changed one day." Yippies are attempting to ally now with Miami Beach's vast elderly population.

Yippies have tried to drum the Zippies out of the movement scene on Miami Beach because of Small's pie-wielding stunt and since aborted plans for a "Che Day," which had enraged many of Miami's 200,000-plus Cuban refugees.

Yesterday Small was sentenced to 90 days in the Dade County Stockade for menacing City Councilman Harold Rosen with a pumpkin pie following a June 23 Council meeting at which Rosen voted against granting demonstrators campsites.

Yippie leaders claim their attempts to work for peace with the Cubans — who have talked of possible counter-protests — were almost ruined by Zippie vows to commemorate slain Cuban Communist Che Guevara.

"One Cuban leader called up and told us we were a bunch of Communist sympathizers who wanted to eulogize a murderer," said a Yippie. The Zippies later gave up the "Che Day" plans under pressure.

Rubin agreed that the Yippies' position this year is less radical than in 1968, but denied the Zippie charge that they have been co-opted by the forces of Sen. George McGovern.

"There are times in history when revolutionaries must unite with the liberals," he said. "It's not a copout. It's a matter of survival. We'll oppose McGovern one week after he takes office."

200 set up camp with 'people rule'

By ROBERT B. STULBERG
Miami News Reporter

As the number of protesters coming to town for the Democratic convention increased today, the "non-delegate" campsite at Flamingo Park in Miami Beach slowly began to take shape.

By noon, about 200 protesters — including civil rights leader the Rev. Ralph Abernathy and counter-culture poet Allen Ginsberg — had set up camp, pitching tents on the outfield grass of the Flamingo Park softball field.

The park located between Meridian and Michigan Avenues just four blocks south of the Beach Convention Center, was designated a "non-delegate" campsite by the Beach City Council at their tumultuous nine-hour session Wednesday.

By last night, the 10 protest groups in town for the convention had, by common consent, divided the campsite into separate areas.

Yippie leader Jerry Rubin said the groups had set up "a sort of people's government" to maintain order at the park and halt any hard drug traffic or violent outbreaks.

As the demonstrators began to arrange their tents, picnic tables and paraphernalia, Beach and Dade officials also began to do their part.

At about 10:30 a.m., a large truck pulled into the site with a 50-foot long portable toilet facility supplied by the county. In addition, a Metro fire truck was stationed at the south end of the campsite last night.

Beach City Manager City Manager Clifford O'Key said today that he had directed Police Chief Rocky Pomerance to set up rules and regulations for use of the site.

O'Key said the legal guidelines, drawn up yesterday after consultations with protest group leaders, probably will be promulgated by Beach officials later today.

So far, O'Key said, the demonstrators at the site have been conducting themselves in a peaceful, lawful manner and have not posed any problems for nearby residents or the city government.

Asked if conditions at the campsite were acceptable to the Beach, O'Key said, "I haven't heard anything to the contrary . . . All our reports are that everybody is orderly."

The city manager said the entire park will be available for camping during the convention and noted that campers will be allowed to pitch tents anywhere "so long as they don't interfere with anyone else wishing to use the park."

O'Key said he has not set a definite limit on the number of campers that will be allowed in the park. Protest leaders have said they expect Flamingo Park will be large enough to accommodate the expected crowds.

County officials said today that if additional sites are needed, Haulover Beach Park north of Bay Harbor and Watson Island in the City of Miami will be opened Sunday night.

The sites were deemed unacceptable as primary sites by protest leaders during weeks of negotiations that preceded the granting of Flamingo Park.

Most of the protesters who have arrived in town are young, white counter-culture adherents — anti-war activists, gay liberationists, anti-war veterans, feminists, Yippies, Zippies, pacifists.

Police to try 'low profile' approach by directing, guiding and assisting

By MARYLYN SPRINGER
Miami News Reporter

1972.

Will Chicago's violence happen again — on Miami Beach?

Miami Beach Police Chief Rocky Pomerance, in numerous recent speeches and interviews, has made it plain that he doesn't think so.

Faced with the anticipated arrival of thousands of demonstrators labelled "non-delegates," Pomerance has said he feels that "another Chicago" is not likely to occur here for many reasons.

One is the delegates themselves who, he feels, will be different than their 1968 counterparts.

"There will be more young people involved (in the convention itself), more minority groups, probably more women," he said. "It is my personal observations that when you give people the opportunity to speak out, allow for a wider representation among the citizens of this country, you remove some of the frustrations."

"I don't anticipate any violent demonstrations because I think they've peaked out. The American public has had it where violence is concerned.

"If nothing else, Chicago did that," he said.

But, the chief's greatest assurance that it won't happen again lies in the confidence he has in his 250-man force. He's convinced that they're prepared physically — and, to him, much more importantly, psychologically — for whatever may transpire.

He talks frequently about a "low profile," about "effective and humane policing of the convention."

For example, only one per cent of the $395,424 grant from the federal Law Enforcement Assistance Association went for hardware: plastic handcuffs, night-vision devices, gas grenades. The rest financed education, training and communication techniques.

Each man on the Miami Beach force received 90 to 100 hours of classes, conducted by Florida International University, to learn "an attitude of psychological evaluation of crowd control," behavioral psychology and crowd motivation.

"I would hate for our officers to look at every youngster in sandals and long hair and see a potential bomb thrower," he said.

Some of the sophisticated communications and surveillance equipment, to be purchased with the convention grant will be used to watch people from a distance, the chief said, and avoid any unnecessary personal inconvenience in screening of persons entering the Convention Hall area.

His goal, he has said, is to make sure the police force is not "an abrasive factor."

"As I see our role, it's supportive and helpful rather than repressive," he said. "I would like to present low-key, low profile policing.

"I think the key to this department's attitude is the insignia on our police cars: 'We protect, we serve.' Our theme is the effective and humane policing of a political convention.

"We must allow delegates to attain their objectives peacefully. Police will direct, guide and assist, not impede, he said.

"Our role is also to protect demonstrators. We are very conscious of the First Amendment rights of demonstrators. And we must protect the community."

Police stationed around the Convention Center reportedly will not wear helmets nor carry automatic weapons. Instead they will wear the traditional soft hats and carry only night sticks.

Demonstrators, the chief said, will have places reserved for them right in front of the Convention Hall. One is between 19th and 20th streets and the other between 18th and 19th streets. The two sites will "accommodate opposing demonstrations that might occur at the same time," he said.

Two ordinances passed in recent weeks give Pomerance the power to declare a state of emergency, to establish a curfew if necessary, and set up police lines and cordon off sections of the city to preserve order or prevent the spread of disorder.

Rocky Pomerance

The city council, which acquiesced to the chief's support of plans to let demonstrators camp out in Flamingo Park this week, can overrule the chief on the curfew if it chooses.

Meanwhile, thousands of National Guardsmen, troops, state, local and federal police are on hand for the convention and three of the nation's top police officers are here as advisor.

Reportedly police also plan to temper enforcement of minor misdemeanors during the convention.

They will not attempt to strictly enforce minor laws such as loitering, hitchhiking, trespassing and littering to avoid causing a confrontation that might spark major rioting and violence.

Poor People Take Hall, Demand Convention Seats

7-Point Proposal Rejected

By ROBERT D. SHAW
And WILLIAM R. AMLONG
Herald Staff Writers

More than 750 poor people marched through guardless doors and onto the floor of the Miami Beach Convention Hall Saturday afternoon and staged a 90-minute "spontaneous" sit-in to dramatize their demands for 750 seats at the Democratic National Convention.

"We have our seats, and we're sitting in them now," declared Jesse Gray, head of the National Tenants Organization which was one of the sponsors of the march. "We are going to sit here until (Party Chairman Larry) O'Brien and (Convention director Richard) Murphy give us these seats."

ONLY HOURS before the demonstration, which broke up on its own at 6:30 p.m., Gray had stormed out of a session with party leaders, saying they had no intention of giving his group the seats. He vowed to work against the party in November unless a settlement is reached.

The verbal fireworks and the sit-in marked the principal excitement in an otherwise quiet day as the Miami area geared up for next Monday's convention opening. Other events included:

● The arrival of 2,500 riot-trained federal troops at Homestead Air Force Base as well as an advance contingent of 125 Florida National Guardsmen who will be joined by 3,000 more today. See story, Page 6B.

● A tightly guarded, but thoroughly peaceful, rally that attracted 3,000 senior citizens to Flamingo Park to hear Sen. George McGovern and Miami Congressman Claude Pepper. See story, Page 2B.

● The establishment of an orderly — if somewhat stoned — community among counterculture drop-ins at Flamingo Park. See separate story.

Earlier in the day, Gray had stormed out of a session with party leaders, accusing the Democrats of "double dealing" and vowing that his coalition will fight the party in November if it snubs their demands.

"THEY HAD no intention of offering us any seats on the floor," complained Gray, who rejected an offer of 75 seats in the visitors' gallery, access to the hall's internal communications center and space in the convention newspaper.

Chanting "We want our seats," Gray's group had strolled through the convention hall's northernmost entrance on Washington Avenue shortly after 5 p.m. after Gray had rejected a party offer of 75 seats in the visitor's gallery.

The earlier meeting also included an offer of access to the convention's internal communications center as well as space in the convention newspaper. But Gray said the physical presence of his coalition was necessary to push for their eight-point program, that includes a $6,500 guaranteed annual income.

Although the group vowed at one point t ostay in the convention center, all night, they filed back out of the bunting-draped hall at 6:30 p.m. to go liste nto a speech by Sen. George McGovern instead.

"We've always felt that sit-ins are a major pressure," said Gray, whose NTO was joined in the march by the National Welfare Rights Organization and small numbers of the Students for a Democratic Society and the Workers Action Movement.

"But we have no plans for one here now," he continued, adding that the group would continue negotiations with party officials for the seats.

On Friday, after first rejecting the coalition's demand for seats, O'Brien had agreed to further discussion after 100 members swept past a guard and stormed a closed door meeting of the Arrangements Committee at the Fontainebleau Hotel.

ALTHOUGH THE marchers' six-block parade group along Collins Avenue from the Sharon Hotel was lined with police stopping traffic, no one tried to stop them from entering the hall itself.

In fact, the only official in sight was Miami Beach's ubiquitous Mayor Chuck Hall, who protested to reporters that he just "happened" to be sitting in a back row seat as the marchers came inside.

"I seem to be always where the action is," the silver-haired man deadpanned to the press. "I was just sitting here quietly when all of a sudden a thousand people walked in."

But Hall, who said he had just finished a tour of the CBS News studios inside the hall, drew resounding boos from the audience after he told them, "Talking is the best way to get what you want."

THE MAYOR was spotted by Gray and invited up to the first tier of the hall's two-level podium, where the press will sit when the convention opens Monday night. There, Gray introduced him as a delegate, a statement Hall quickly corrected.

"I figured I had enough trouble as mayor," Hall declared. Then, as he did at a Yippie march last week, the mayor declared his support for the demonstrators.

"In this country there shouldn't be any poor people," he said. "Your cause is just."

Later, but before the marchers left, Hall indicated to newsmen he had no intention of calling in the Miami Beach Police if the protesters persisted in their original vow to stay all night. It was the responsibility of the Democratic Party to police the hall, the mayor said.

AND JAMES McDonald, head of the Andy Frain usher service that is in charge of convention security, played down the demonstration and said he had no plans to tighten security until all work in the hall is complete.

"Many contractors are still working there," he said. "It would be silly to increase security."

The sit-in had begun as a scheduled march and demonstration outside the hall by the NTO and NWRO. The casually dressed crowd walked along Collins bearing signs reading "Roll Back Rents" and "No More Rats and Roaches" behind Gray and NWRO Executive Director George Wiley.

"I'm marching for the rights of all poor people," declared Mrs. Rebecca Perry, a 42-year-old mother of four from Sanford, Fla. Gray declared to the group, "We look forward to the day when it is people first and property second in this country instead of the other way around."

But once the marchers reached the open doors of the convention hall, they "spontaneously" decided to walk right in. And some obliging worker even turned on the lights in the nearly pitch black hall.

Security Force Reaches Full 6,500-Man Strength

By ROBERT D. SHAW JR.
Herald Staff Writer

An advance detachment of about 125 Florida National Guardsmen and 2,500 riot-trained federal troops moved into the Miami area Saturday bringing security forces for next week's Democratic National Convention to nearly full strength.

A total of 3,000 guardsmen, called out by Gov. Reubin Askew in what is billed as a special summer training exercise, will set up in five area schools today where they will remain for the next week.

Their arrival will swell the convention security forces to an estimated total of more than 6,500 men including the 1,000 Miami Beach, Miami, Metro and state law enforcement officers already on the scene.

"WE HOPE they're down there just to enjoy the South Florida sunshine and get some R and R (rest and relaxation)," said Col. Bill White, public affairs officer for Secretary of Defense Melvin Laird, from Homestead Air Force Base, where the Army units are quartered.

But he stressed, as did National Guard spokesmen, that the troops would be on call "at a moment's notice" if trouble breaks out on Miami Beach.

Meanwhile, top leaders of Miami's Cuban exile community of 300,000 called Saturday for a "massive demonstration" Tuesday at the convention.

Former Cuban President Carlos Prio Socarras, head of the Cuban Authentic Party which is sponsoring the march, said shuttle buses from the Orange Bowl would be used to move the hoped-for 5,000 demonstrators to the 5 p.m. march.

"THE MAIN purpose of the demonstration," Socarras said, "is to let the American people know that we are not here just like other immigrants, that we have kept our hope of returning to our country and to dramatize our anxieties."

However, other Cuban leaders are opposing the march, and one warned that it may damage the nonviolent image of Cuban refugees and put the participants on a collision course with protest groups such as the Yippies and Zippies.

Tomaz Cruz, a Bay of Pigs veteran and head of the Liberation Committee, said his members will pass out handbills to delegates about the "forgotten moral and written commitments" the United States has made with respect to Cuba.

Cruz, whose group plans to fly a Cessna up and down Collins Avenue during the week trailing a banner reading "Cuba Must Be Free," said he will also schedule a press conference to get the attention of the national press.

METRO RUMOR Control Center officials said Saturday they have instructed their telephone operators to "stop editorializing" in answering questions phoned in by residents to the county's information number, 358-7500.

Citizens Information Director DeWayne Little expressed concern that the county's convention rumor control service might have lost some of its credibility because of a Saturday newspaper report.

The Miami Herald story said the rumor controllers were not giving complete, accurate information about a minor incident on Miami Beach Friday.

Little said he had instructed his 20 operators to give out only the exact information they receive from Metro's field information team, and to leave interpretation to others. He still contended, however, that the information given out Friday was not inaccurate.

The Herald story had said the rumor controllers were saying, "There was no disturbance" even though reporters on the scene had described demonstrators pushing past the security guard and interrupting a closed-door meeting of the Democratic Arrangements Committee.

Metro officials said business was very slow at the center Saturday, with only a few requests for housing and other information.

RESURRECTION City II blossomed in Flamingo Park Saturday, with several hundred persons congregating in the non-delegate area of the park by late afternoon.

Southern Christian Leadership Conference members erected 55 pup tents by 2 p.m., and said they would work through Saturday and Sunday to finish the city, expected to have 250 tents. SCLC members also finished work on a "city hall" — a small shed — near the park's free speech area.

AS DEMONSTRATORS outside marched and chanted, four Students for a Democratic Society demonstrators by-passed security and crashed a Democratic cocktail party preceding a luncheon at the Eden Roc Hotel Saturday.

The youthful protestors, Greg Pilkington, Marcia Monestersky, Bonnie Blustein and Ira Helfand, handed out anti-racism leaflets, challenged Democrat - supported welfare and food programs and "raised quite a bit of hell," according to a Democratic National Committee aide.

During the demonstration outside, which attracted about 90 protestors at its peak, a large SDS banner appeared from a ninth floor window of the Eden Roc.

VIETNAM VETERANS AGAINST THE WAR (VVAW)

The VVAW is a veterans organization with a national clearing house located at 25 West 26th Street, New York City. Its first published objective is "to demand an immediate cessation of fighting and a withdrawal of all American troops from Indochina".

A source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that a flyer is being distributed in the Miami, Florida area captioned "NIXON Attacks Vietnam Veterans". This flyer related to a Federal Grand Jury convened at Tallahassee, Florida, regarding activities of the VVAW. Attached to the flyer is a "Resolution" which VVAW would like the Democratic National Convention to adopt. Also was a copy of a telegram to the U.S. Attorney General critical of the subpoenas issued to the VVAW members.

The source reported that the press conference mentioned in the flyer as scheduled at 4:00 PM on Sunday, was apparently cancelled and to his knowledge has not been re-scheduled.

NIXON ATTACKS VIETNAM VETERANS

In the last two years the Vietnam Veterans Against The War have been the pivotal group in awakening the American people to the horrors of the war in Southeast Asia. No other group has been able to expose, so well, the fraudulent nature of Richard Nixon's Vietnamization program. It is for this reason that their large support within Nixon's own constituency poses a substantial threat to Nixon's re-election. Because of this the Vietnam Veterans warrant the Democratic Party's strongest support.

Because of their unimpeachable credentials to speak out against this war, the Nixon-Mitchell forces have felt compelled b use the most desperate tactics in an effort to discredit the Vets.

Late Friday afternoon July 7th, between 20 and 40 Vietnam Veterans from around the country, many of whom have come to Miami to dramatize their opposition to this continuing war, were abruptly served by FBI agents with subpoenas to appear before a Federal Grand Jury in Tallahassee, Florida, on Monday morning, July 10th. The basis for the issuance of the subpoenas was an open Southeast regional planning meeting held by the Veterans in Florida more than a month ago to discuss plans for activities at both National Conventions.

Admitted FBI informers who have already surfaced make it clear that Mitchell and Kleindeinst have known about this meeting and the discussions there since the moment they occurred; yet no actions whatever were taken by the Justice Department until the eve of the Democratic National Convention. It is plain, therefore that this entire Grand Jury proceeding is nothing less than a blatant attempt by the Republican administration to harass, intimidate and discredit its most eloquent antagonists. It is nothing less than an effort to deny the men, who deserve it the most, their most elementary constitutional rights to peaceably assemble and express their grievances. By subpoenaing the Vets at this moment the Nixon administration sweeps them from the streets of Miami as affectively as would wholesale illegal arrests. The motives for such an attack are readily apparent. First, we relieve that the Nixon for[redacted], through the Grand Jury [redacted]e concocting another one of their preposterous conspiracy charges painting the Veterans as violent extremists in hopes of negating what will undoubtably be a powerful indictment of the administration's policy by these very Vets. Secondly, by tying them up in a protracted Grand Jury investigation with the threat of summary jailing for contempt Nixon hopes to physically remove his opposition from the streets of Miami when the Republicans gather here in August and if such jailing should provoke a confrontation by non-delegate forces gathered at the Democratic convention who support the Vets that will be another bonus for the President's re-election campaign.

This most recent outrage is but another attempt, through the abuse of the Grand Jury system to silence a peace movement, which despite the President's wishes will just not disappear.

As attorneys for the Veterans we call upon the Democratic Party to take immediate steps to bring this Grand Jury persecution to a halt. We are seeking a Federal Court order to quash the subpoenas served upon the Vets at least until after both national conventions are completed. This Party can support our legal efforts by announcing publicly its condemnation of this Grand Jury proceeding. A resolution to that effect, a copy of which is annexed hereto will be introduced on the floor of this convention; we call upon all delegates to support it. We ask that concerned delegates join with us in a press conference Sunday at 4:00 P.M. at the Algiers Hotel and to immediately send telegrams to Richard Kleindeinst, at the Justice Department in Washington, demanding that the Grand Jury proceeding be brought to a halt.

We cannot permit the men who fought and bled in this ugly war to be denied their rights to demonstrate to the American public their unyielding opposition to its continuance.

ATTORNEYS FOR VIETNAM VETERANS

RESOLUTION

The issuing of subpoenas to at least 21 leaders of Vietnam Veterans Against the War, directing them to appear before a federal grand jury in Tallahassee and deliberately timed to coincide with this Democratic Convention, represents an attempt by the Nixon Administration to deny to the Veterans their most fundamental constitutional rights to express their dissent and opposition to the War in Southeast Asia.

The Democratic Party strongly condemns this blatantly political abuse of the grand jury to intimidate and discredit a group whose opposition to the war has been particularly moving and effective.

We formally call upon the Justice Department to withdraw immediately the subpoenas served upon the Veterans so that they may stage their protests at the national political conventions free of harassment.

TO: ATTORNEY GENERAL RICHARD KLEINDEINST*

FROM:

WE DEPLORE THE ISSUING OF SUBPOENAS TO MEMBERS OF VIETNAM VETERANS AGAINST THE WAR DIRECTING THEIR APPEARANCE BEFORE A FEDERAL GRAND JURY IN TALLAHASSEE ON MONDAY. THE DELIBERATE TIMING OF THIS ACTION MAKES CLEAR ITS BLATANTLY POLITICAL INTENT -- TO PREVENT THE ACTIVE AND EFFECTIVE PARTICIPATION OF THE VETERANS IN THE DEMOCRATIC PROCESS AND TO DISCREDIT THEIR ORGANIZATION AND ITS ELOQUENT OPPOSITION TO THE WAR. WE DEMAND THAT ALL SUBPOENAS BE IMMEDIATELY WITHDRAWN AND THE GRAND JURY DISMISSED.

SUBJECT: DEMONSTRATION AT DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION, MIAMI BEACH, FLORIDA, JULY 10, 1972

[redacted] Special Agent from New York, telephonically advised at 9:50 p.m. that late in the evening approximately 1500 demonstrators gathered in the area of the North Gate of the convention complex. This was a rally primarily of the National Welfare Rights Organization and the National Tenants Organization. All of the speakers were Negro with the exception of one white individual.

He stated that at the end a Negro female spoke and excited the crowd and indicated they had to get into the convention, the purpose being to get 750 seats and to use the platform and the podium, and she kept repeating they had to get in there. The demonstrators proceeded to the southwest corner and stormed the fence and about a forty-foot section was broken down, but they were repelled by the police by the use of mace. Some rocks had been passed around but were not used and no arrests were made. They dispersed and started leaving. He stated that the demonstrators apparently were controlled and led by the Southern Christian Leadership Conference.

He described this Negro female as age 30 - 35, 5'6", 120 pounds, wearing brown polka-dot pants suit with white blouse. This woman indicated to [redacted] that she had arrived from New York City last night and [redacted] advised that this demonstration had been observed with Agents [redacted] and [redacted] and he was reporting for the group.

Abernathy Speaks To 3,000 At Rally

Only SDS Protest Mars Day

By WILLIAM R. AMLONG And ROBERT SHAW
Herald Staff Writers

With the biggest crowd totaling about 3,000, non-delegates to the Democratic National Convention kicked off their share of the week's activities Sunday with demands ranging from a guaranteed annual income to guaranteed weekly grass.

Marred only by about 150 members of the Students for a Democratic Society who attempted to block traffic at an evening Democratic dinner at the Playboy Plaza Hotel, the generally peaceful day included:

● A crowd of about 3,000 in Liberty City's Manor Park who heard black leaders call for poor people to unite behind demands for a $6,500 guaranteed annual income and attend a 5:30 p.m. rally and march on the convention hall tonight.

● A "Dump, Junk and Join the Attack Against Smack" march to the hall by about 300 Zippies that featured free marijuana and a brief public "smoke-in."

● A nose-to-nightstick confrontation between SDS demonstrators and about 230 local police and Highway Patrolman, a display of force that ended the SDS mill-in rapidly and peacefully.

THE SDS youths showed up at the entrance ramp to the Playboy Plaza, at 5445 Collins Ave., at 7:15 p.m., to block off the cars of big money Democratic contributors arriving at a black tie party.

Sen. George McGovern was at the Playboy earlier in the day but had gone before the SDA demonstrators arrived.

About an hour later, about a dozen of the demonstrators marched halfway up the entrance ramp, yelling, "We want to see Henry Ford." They were met by a closed formation of 18 Dade County deputies as another 150 Beach and Metro police stood by.

demonstrators were then moved by 30 carloads of Highway Patrolmen, who drove up the north side of the ramp and pulled to a stop behind the deputies. The troopers got out of their cars and, holding nightsticks in front of them, advanced down the ramp.

AS GUESTS clad in evening wear stared from the lobby, the protesters dispersed chanting "We'll be back."

The only casualty of the evening was the radio aerial on the rear of Beach Police Chief Rocky Pomerance's car, which was snapped off as he drove up the hotel's ramp. But the chief reacted calmly, alternately eying the shouting youths and smiling as he greeted hotel guests.

"The only thing that makes this different (from other demonstrations last week) is that they're blocking traffic," Pomerance said.

AT THE MANOR Park rally, sponsored by the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, there were speeches by such major national figures as SCLC head Dr. Ralph David Abernathy and Mrs. Coretta King, widow of Dr. Martin Luther King.

The mostly local crowd gave its loudest applause to George Wiley, executive director of the National Welfare Rights Organization, whose tenor voice cracked and broke as he urged the onlookers to come to tonight's rally and march to the opening session of the Democratic convention.

"Tomorrow we march to back our demands for (750 convention seats for poor people) and a guaranteed annual income," Wiley declared. He added that Georgia legislator Julian Bond, Chicago civil rights leader Jesse Jackson and black poet-playwright Imammu Amiri Baraka would speak at the Flamingo Park rally preceding the march.

FLAMINGO PARK Sunday also became the site of the Resurrection II tent city, nearly 100 two-man pup tents in all, as well as the starting point for the day's zaniest event, the Zippie march.

"We" declared Zippie leader A.J. Wetherman in an apparently deliberate parody of Wiley's group, "want a guaranteed weekly stash. We want to free our marijuana prisoners."

With that, the group weaved the 11 blocks up Washington Avenue to the convention hall, as obliging Miami Beach police stopped traffic and then disappeared as avowed vice presidential candidate Al Dziuk lit up a joint.

ONE ELDERLY man, watching from across the street, marveled, "I've never seen one of these marches before . . . it's very strange."

Responded his companion: "These people are crazy."

The black rally, at NW 12th Avenue and 50th Street, got behind schedule early when Abernathy, scheduled to speak shortly after 3 p.m., didn't get there until after 5. By that time, most of the spectators were grooving to the blaring rock of the Raw Soul Express or playing pick-up games at nearby basketball courts.

"The price of poor people in America has gone up," declared Abernathy.

"BEFORE THE Democratic Party pays its airplane bills for the last four years," he added, "they must pay their 40-year bills to black people who have supplied them with 20 per cent of their vote and let them survive as a party."

A seven-minute call for unity by Mrs. King, who also endorsed Senator McGovern, drew a muted response before the crowd dispersed, singing "We Shall Overcome."

Not everyone on the Beach was enthused over the Zippies. Two little old ladies wearing floppy hats and carrying a pink parasol were welcomed to Flamingo Park by a long-haired boy with no shirt.

"Glad to make your acquaintance," one of the women said. "Are you a boy or a girl?"

Law Forces Far Outnumber Non-Delegates

By FRED BARGER
Herald Staff Writer

What had been forecast as a flood of demonstrators pouring into the nation's summer political capital had been downgraded on the eve of the Democratic National Convention to a gentle drizzle.

By late Sunday, there were:

● Some 2,000 people in Flamingo Park — the officially designated campsite for "non-delegates" in Miami Beach — and many of them were not expected to spend the night there.

● Conflicting official estimates of the figure at which the influx of demonstrators would peak, but a general agreement that the figure is vastly lower than earlier predictions and that virtually all those planning to come for the convention are here.

● About 6,500 policemen, state officers, federal troops and Florida National Guardsmen in the area, plus an undisclosed number of plainclothes agents from 10 federal agencies.

If you add all these officers and troops and the remaining policemen in the county — who, although not directly policing the convention stand ready in case they are needed — the total is about 10,000 lawmen of various kinds. That is between five and 10 policemen, troops and agents for every demonstrator.

PERHAPS WEEKS ago, few people would have predicted that the number of official convention visitors would outnumber the protesters. But with 5,000 delegates and alternates, about twice that many members of the news media and at least an equal amount of other official conventioneers, that is exactly what has happened.

"I walked through Flamingo Park yesterday," said Miami Beach Police Chief Rocky Pomerance, "and I ran into a bunch of kids that knew me.

"They would say, 'Hi, Rocky,' and I would say, 'Where are you from?' They would say such places as Norland, Palmetto. . ."

Only 300 campers spent Saturday night in Flamingo Park, although there had been up to 1,000 persons there at times during the day.

County Manager Ray Goode, who predicted last Thursday that the convention would draw 5,000 to 8,000 demonstrators, conceded Sunday that even that figure — scaled down considerably from earlier estimates that ran to 10 times as many — might have been high.

HE SAID there are reports that about 2,000 visiting non-delegates are in the area and staying somewhere besides Flamingo Park — friends' homes, their own rented room, or crash pads in such areas as Coconut Grove.

That would represent a total of no more than 4,000 visible demonstrators who have come for the convention.

Even with Resurrection City II built, and even with the Rubins, Hoffmans, Dellingers, Davises, Abernathys, Ginsburgs and the rest, the hordes of travelers bent on protesting at the convention simply have not materialized.

Perhaps in part because of the small crowds, police said they already have seen scattered hitchhikers heading north — even before the convention — at which they apparently were coming to demonstrate — began.

And the same sources said that there appeared to be no large influx of demonstrators still coming.

Place For All

Flamingo Park was a place for everyone Sunday as a diverse group of non-delegates from the old to the young, the gay and the straight, poor people, women, and ethnics gathered for expression. Here Rabbi Lipskar, principal of Oholei Torah, says the morning prayers with David Son, 77, of North Miami Beach.

From Peanut Butter to Pot, The Beach Is Coming Alive

All Friday afternoon, two front desk officers at the Miami Beach police station were busy answering telephoned complaints that hippies were smoking marijuana openly, on television yet.

This was supposed to be happening up the road at Flamingo Park, where non-delegates in town for the Democratic National Convention had begun pitching camp the previous day.

"HOW DO you know it was marijuana?" one of the officers said into the phone. "Maybe it was just smoking tobacco."

If there was any marijuana being smoked at Flamingo Park Friday, it was smoked discreetly — either that or openly in professionally wrapped cigarets with filter tips.

Under a large shade tree, where about 30 young people were lying around killing time, there was a makeshift placard propped up against a duffle bag. It said "We smoke pot, and we like it a lot." The words were visible. The action was not.

Along towards dusk, Flamingo Park began coming to life. By that time 50 tents, ranging in size from pup to cabin, had been set up and the shady areas were full. And the hundred counter-culture youths on hand were augmented as the local elderly began drifting in to perform as curiosity seekers.

THEY PROVIDED a bear market for leafleteers who sold 10-cent copies of "New Left Notes" and gave out, for free, publications of the Socialist Labor Party, a newspaper called "War Bulletin" and a call to an anti-racism demonstration scheduled for 11:45 a.m. today at the Eden Roc Hotel.

They also provided an audience for a five-singer group (two of them playing guitar) that sang gospel songs in front of an ancient blue bus with the name of the Missionary Training Center at Pensacola painted on the side.

After about half an hour of that, 16 members of the Hare Krishna movement arrived on the other side of the encampment and began beating tomtoms and tiny cymbals and chanting the Eastern religious refrain that has become a familiar sound in downtown Miami and on the Lincoln Road Mall.

ship Conference will live there in a pup tent, not an airconditioned trailer, he said.

"I'm going to live at the park in the southern SCLC area at the park, and I'll be living in a tent just like the rest of the people," he said.

He said the rumor he would live in a 22-foot "Utopia" trailer apparently began because he had been invited by several groups to share their trailers during the convention.

THE YIPPIE-Zippie gap in the Youth International Party widened Friday over a proposed Zippie marijuana smoke-in.

Yippie leader Stew Albert accused the Zippie faction of spreading unfounded rumors that Yippie leaders Jerry Rubin, Abbie Hoffman and Ed Sanders planned to profit personally from a book about the convention.

Their bill was $18.40 from Miami International Airport to the DiLido Hotel, at 155 Lincoln Road at Miami Beach. They apparently went on a circuitous route that took them close to Hollywood.

A Yellow Cab spokesman promised the company would investigate the couple's allegation. There's no reason at all why the ride should have cost the Smilies more than $8.20, he said.

Albert denied the charge. He said the book was being written, but all rights would be owned by the party.

Albert also said the Zippies should sponsor their smoke-in outside of Flamingo Park in deference to other groups camped there.

Zippie spokesman Dana Beal said the marijuana demonstration would begin at 2 p.m. Sunday in the park, despite Albert's objections.

AMONG THE unhappiest persons arriving for the Democratic National Convention Friday were Mr. and Mrs. Elgin R. Smilie of Montgomery, Ala., who felt that they were given a "gouging" ride in a Yellow Cab.

Memorandum

TO : SAC, Miami (80-1353)(P) DATE: 7/11/72

FROM : SA [redacted] b6 b7C

SUBJECT: MIDEM

At 9:15 PM, 7/11/72, SA [redacted] reported that in a conversation with [redacted] he learned that this afternoon PCPJ, SCLC, VVAW, YIP and SDS had reached an agreement to march from Flamingo Park at 5:30 PM to the Convention Center and hold a rally with three speakers, after which they would march to Lumus Park where [redacted] would perform a marriage ceremony between two old people and two young people. b6 b7C

[redacted] stated that the march left Flamingo Park at 6:00 p.m. and when they arrived at the Convention Center, the Cubans were there. PCPJ wanted to prevent a confrontation with the Cubans, so they listened to the three speakers, not identified, and when they started to leave, SDS started demanding another speaker. An argument occurred between [redacted] VVAW, and an unidentified white male of SDS. [redacted] stated SDS had agreed to leave after three speakers and unidentified white male said SDS did not agree to anything. Some scuffling occurred and SCLC, PCPJ, VVAW and YIPS formed on Washington Avenue and left the site. Among the leaders who left were [redacted] and [redacted] with about 250 people about 7:30 p.m. b6 b7C

SDS [redacted] took control of the microphone at the Convention Center and SDS continued to hold a rally. The crowd started to drift off and approximately 350 remained. This crowd broke up about 8:45 PM. b6 b7C

There was also some scuffling between WALLACE supporters and an unidentified crowd, but [redacted] could not furnish any details. b6 b7C

DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION - DEMONSTRATION BY PARTIDO REVOLUCIONARIO CUBANO (CUBAN REVOLUTIONARY PARTY) (PRC) ON JULY ELEVEN, SEVENTYTWO

THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION WAS OBTAINED BY ON THE SCENE OBSERVERS ON JULY ELEVEN, SEVENTYTWO:

AT APPROXIMATELY FOUR PM CUBAN EXILES BEGAN TO ASSEMBLE AT THE ORANGE BOWL, MIAMI, FOR TRANSPORTATION VIA BUS TO A PARKING LOT NEXT TO BURDINES STORE AT ONE SEVEN STREET AND MERIDIAN, MIAMI BEACH. AT ABOUT FIVE THIRTY PM, THEY DEPARTED BY BUS AND PRIVATE CAR AND REASSEMBLED UPON ARRIVAL AT THEIR MIAMI BEACH DESTINATION.

AN ESTIMATED EIGHT HUNDRED TO ONE THOUSAND CUBANS, UNDER THE LEADERSHIP OF EX CUBAN PRESIDENT, CARLOS PRIO SOCARRAS REASSEMBLED NEAR BURDINES. AMONG THOSE IN ATTENDANCE WERE MEN AND WOMEN REPRESENTING THE PRC, A TRADITIONAL CUBAN POLITICAL PARTY HEADED BY PRIO, WHO SPONSORED THE DEMONSTRATION. ALSO PRESENT WERE MANY REPRESENTATIVES OF COOPERATING ANTI-CASTRO CUBAN EXILE GROUPS, WHO HAVE BEEN PREVIOUSLY IDENTIFIED.

THE DEMONSTRATION, SOME CARRYING PLACARDS, THEN MARCHED IN AN ORDERLY MANNER TO THE NEARBY CONVENTION HALL WHERE THEY DEMONSTRATED PEACEFULLY IN AN AREA ALLOTED TO THEM. THE PRINCIPAL PURPOSE OF THEIR DEMONSTRATION WAS TO OPPOSE PEACEFUL CO-EXISTENCE WITH COMMUNIST CUBA AND TO DEMAND FREEDOM FOR CUBAN EXILES TO FIGHT AGAINST CASTRO.

ALTHOUGH A SEPARATE CONTINGENT SPONSORED BY STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY (SDS) MARCHED TO THE CONVENTION HALL AREA FROM A SEPARATE POINT OF ORIGIN, THE POLICE DID NOT ALLOW THE TWO SETS OF DEMONSTRATORS TO CONFRONT EACH OTHER AND POSSIBLE VIOLENCE WAS THUS AVOIDED.

AT APPROXIMATELY SEVEN THIRTY PM THE CUBAN DEMONSTRATORS DISPERSED AND LEFT THE AREA. PRIO DISCLOSED THAT THE PRC WILL STAGE NO FURTHER DEMONSTRATIONS DURING THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION AND WILL AWAIT THE REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION FOR THEIR NEXT DEMONSTRATION WHICH WILL BE OF SIMILAR NATURE.

NWRO IS A NATIONWIDE ORGANIZATION OF WELFARE RECIPIENTS FORMED TO SEEK INCREASED GOVERNMENT SUPPORT.

SCLC, FOUNDED BY THE LATE REVEREND MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., IS HEADQUARTERED AT ATLANTA, GEORGIA.

THE PCPJ IS A COALITION OF OVER ONE HUNDRED ORGANIZATIONS AND USES MASSIVE CIVIL DISOBEDIENCE TO COMBAT RACISM, POVERTY, REPRESSION AND WAR.

VVAW IS A NATIONAL VETERANS ORGANIZATION OPPOSED TO U. S. INVOLVEMENT IN INDOCHINA.

ON JULY ELEVEN INSTANT, SIX RELIABLE SOURCES REPORTED THAT AT ABOUT SIX ZERO EIGHT P.M., AN ESTIMATED ONE THOUSAND TO FIFTEEN HUNDRED DEMONSTRATORS, COMPRISED MOSTLY OF SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE, VVAW AND SDS, AND OTHER GROUPS, DEPARTED THE FLAMINGO PARK CAMP SITE FOR THE CONVENTION COMPLEX.

SDS, ALSO KNOWN AS WORKER STUDENT ALLIANCE (WSA), IS A RADICAL REVOLUTIONARY ORGANIZATION, WHICH HAS BEEN THE LEADING NEW LEFT STUDENT GROUP.

ON ARRIVING AT CONVENTION HALL, VARIOUS INDIVIDUALS FROM THE THREE GROUPS, IDENTIFIED ABOVE, SPOKE TO THE DEMONSTRATORS. VVAW

AS A GROUP APPEARED TO BE WELL-ORGANIZED AND ON ARRIVING AT CONVENTION HALL POSTED PARADE MARSHALS ALONG THE FENCE THAT SURROUNDS THE CONVENTION COMPLEX. AT ABOUT SEVEN THIRTY P.M., A NUMBER OF VVAW MEMBERS LOCKED ARMS, FORMING A LINE ACROSS WASHINGTON AVENUE, WHICH IS LOCATED ON THE EAST SIDE OF CONVENTION HALL. THIS LINE MORE OR LESS SEPARATED THE ABOVE DESCRIBED GROUP FROM A GROUP OF CUBANS WHICH HAD ALSO ASSEMBLED AT ABOUT THE SAME TIME IN FRONT OF CONVENTION COMPLEX.

NO SERIOUS PROBLEMS DEVELOPED DURING THE DEMONSTRATION AND AT ABOUT EIGHT FORTYFIVE P.M. THE DEMONSTRATORS STARTED TO DRIFT TOWARDS THE CAMP SITE AT FLAMINGO PARK. THERE WAS NO ARRESTS OR INCIDENTS REPORTED.

On July 9, 1972, the YSA members visiting Miami Beach met at the Rendale Hotel, 3120 Collins Avenue, Miami Beach. The YSA people from New York City have Rooms 509 and 510 in this hotel. They are [redacted] b6 b7C [redacted] and [redacted] (LNU). The other visitors are [redacted] who is believed to be from Tallahassee, Florida, and [redacted] (LNU).

This group went to Manor Park at about 13th Street and 50th Avenue in Miami, where there was a rally held by a black group believed to be the National Welfare Rights Organization. At this activity, the YSA members sold copies of "The Militant," the newspaper of the Socialist Workers Party, and also a "truth kit" concerning Senator MC GOVERN, entitled "Everything You Always Wanted To Know about George McGovern."

At this rally, [redacted] pointed out several b6 b7C people whom he described as Communist Party members. He did not name any of them.

On the way to this rally, the group passed a building called the Jewish Cultural Center. [redacted] b6 b7C said that this center is not only a front for the Communist Party, but was built with that specific purpose in mind.

In addition to the people mentioned above, it was learned that there are two or more YSA members from Boston in Miami Beach for the convention. One of them is known b6 b7C as [redacted] (ph) and the other's name is not known. Also, another YSA and/or SWP member has arrived from New York. Her name is [redacted]

[redacted] said that there is no YSA chapter in Miami because there are only two YSA members in the area. She is one of them and the other is [redacted] She said [redacted] is an older man, about [redacted] years old, and [redacted] Among other things, she considers him [redacted] She mentioned that a couple of other people who might have become YSA members have moved away. b6 b7C

She also said that unless something very unexpected happened, she did not think that there would be a YSA chapter in Miami in the foreseeable future.

During the conversation among the above-described individuals, someone said that the rooms at the Rendale Hotel were rented in the name of [redacted] [redacted] member of the Socialist Workers Party who stays at the Rendale Hotel whenever he visits Miami Beach. b6 b7C

It was determined that [redacted] (LNU), who is believed to be from Washington, D. C., was staying at [redacted] This is the residence of [redacted] by the name of [redacted] b6 b7C

[redacted] who is from [redacted] is a new YSA member. He does not appear to understand the Trotskyist philosophy and needs a lot of education as to the ways of the YSA and the SWP. b6 b7C

UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

Memorandum

TO : SAC, MIAMI DATE: 7/11/72

FROM : SA [redacted] b6 b7C

SUBJECT: MIDEM

At 11:00 PM, 7/10/72, SA [redacted] b6 b7C advised that at 5:45 PM a group of demonstrators left the campground and started marching up Meridian. The group was led by SCLC leaders and contained members of Gays, VVAW, SDS, and YIPS. They marched in groups of fours to 15th Street and then turned up to Washington Avenue where they assembled on the grassy area.

[redacted] spoke about welfare and obtaining delegate seats. She stated they were going to get the seats one way or another. b6 b7C

Dr. SPOCK talked about the Peoples Party. [redacted] NTO, spoke on tenants problems. GLORIA STIENEN spoke on womens struggle. (FNU) [redacted] a black militant, stated that people had to take control through elections or if that failed by violence. Dr. ABERNATHY spoke about black struggle. [redacted] stated that apparently they were going to get the delegate seats, however, if denied seats they will use any means necessary. b6 b7C

An unidentified white male from VVAW spoke about power to the people. [redacted] spoke of injustice to veterans. b6 b7C

After this some of the people began moving around the fence and pushing on it. At this time at least one gate fell and the crowd of demonstrators started running backward instead of moving into the convention center. The security force used mace and breeched the gap. At approximately 9:30 PM the crowd began to break up and return to the campsite.

The unity rally sponsored by SCLC, NTO and NWRO started at approximately 3:00 PM on Sunday afternoon 7/9/72. It is believed there were over 2,000 present during the height of this rally with most of them being black. Among the speakers were RALPH ABERNATHY of SCLC, JESSE GRAY of the NTO, JESSE JACKSON of PUSH and an unknown speaker from the VVAW.

All of these speakers spoke against the war in Vietnam, the need for liberation to assist the poor people and to assist the tenants in their disputes with landlords.

The unknown speaker from VVAW stated the U.S. must get out of Vietnam without delay.

There were numerous leaflets and pamphlets passed out by all of the above groups. Also passed out were leaflets from the Farm Workers Union, 2827 NW 11th Avenue.

Another unknown speaker advised that blacks had good jobs in Washington, D. C. but the cost of living in Washington, D. C. was too high for these wokers to live decently. The speaker also encouraged those in attendance to support Senator MCGOVERN in his bid for the Democratic nomination, stating he was the only one who was for the poor people.

It was also announced that a march sponsored by the above-mentioned sponsors of the unity rally would march from Flamingo Park to the convention center at 5:00 PM on 7/10/72. They refer to this as the "Poor Peoples March".

There were no incidents during the above rally and it broke up at about 7:00 PM.

THE SDS IS A REVOLUTIONARY STUDENT ORGANIZATION.

THE SCLC IS A CIVIL RIGHTS GROUP HEADQUARTERED IN ATLANTA, GEORGIA.

THE VVAW IS A MILITANT NATIONAL VETERANS ORGANIZATION OPPOSED TO U.S. INVOLVEMENT IN INDOCHINA.

CUBAN EXILE ACTIVITY:

SEVERAL BUSES, VANS, AND PRIVATE CARS FILLED WITH CUBAN EXILES HAVE DEPARTED FROM THE ORANGE BOWL TOWARD THE STAGING AREA FOR THEIR MARCH TO THE CONVENTION HALL AT SEVENTEETH STREET AND MERIDIAN AVENUE. AS OF FIVE FORTY FIVE PM APPROXIMATELY TWO HUNDRED CUBANS WERE WAITING AT THIS LOCATION FOR THE OTHERS TO ARRIVE. NO ESTIMATE OF THE TOTAL INVOLVED IN THIS ACTIVITY IS AVAILABLE AT THIS TIME.

ORGANIZED MIGRANTS IN COMMUNITY ACTION: (OMICA):

THE OMICA GROUP PLANNING TO PICKET TONIGHT AT THE CONVENTION SITE HAS REPORTEDLY CONTACTED LEADERS OF THE CUBAN EXILE DEMONSTRATION IN AN ATTEMPT TO JOIN WITH THEIR DEMONSTRATION. THE RESPONSE OF THE CUBANS IS UNKNOWN.

~~NATIONAL WELFARE RIGHTS ORGANIZATION (NWRO):~~

REGARDING INFORMATION PREVIOUSLY REPORTED CONCERNING THE BLACK GROUP WHICH APPEARED IN THE LOBBY OF THE FOUR AMBASSADORS HOTEL, MIAMI, HEADQUARTERS OF GOVERNOR WALLACE, PRESS REPORTS SHOW THESE INDIVIDUALS WERE MEMBERS OF THE ~~NWRO~~ SCLC "POOR PEOPLES MOVEMENT". THEY TRIED UNSUCCESSFULLY TO SEE GOVERNOR WALLACE AND THREATENED DISRUPTION IF THEY DID NOT GET SEVEN HUNDRED FIFTY SEATS ON THE CONVENTION FLOOR. THE GROUP, MEMBERS OF SCLC's RESURRECTION CITY II, THREATENED TO BLOCK THE CAUSEWAYS BY LYING DOWN IN THE STREETS IF THEIR REQUESTS WERE NOT MET. THEY INDICATED THEY HAD FOUR THOUSAND CHICKENS WHICH MAY BE RELEASED IN FRONT OF THE CONVENTION HALL AS A PART OF THEIR DISRUPTIVE ACTION. THEY EMPHASIZED THIS ACTIVITY WAS TO BE COMPLETELY NON-VIOLENT.

~~THE NWRO IS A NATIONAL ORGANIZATION OF WELFARE RECIPIENTS FORMED TO SEEK EXPANDED GOVERNMENT SUPPORT.~~

THEY WOULD STAGE A "KNOW YOUR CANDIDATE PARADE" AND THE ENTIRE MARCH ROUTE WOULD CONSIST OF RIGHT TURNS TO HONOR GEORGE MC GOVERN'S RECENT "BACK PEDDLING" ON ISSUES. AT THE CONVENTION HALL THERE WOULD BE A "LAUGH-IN FOR MUSKIE," "A YAWN-IN FOR WILBUR MILLS," AND A "TOOK-IN FOR CHISHOLM," AND AN "EGG-IN FOR HUMPTY DUMPTY." EXPERTS WILL ATTEMPT TO PUT HUMPTY DUMPTY BACK TOGETHER AGAIN. THERE WOULD BE A "PUT TEDDY IN THE DRIVER'S SEAT BRIGADE" WHICH WILL DEDICATE THE MOAT ON THE NORTH SIDE OF THE CONVENTION COMPLEX AS THE "MARY JO KOPECHNE CAUSEWAY," AND SYMBOLIC STEERING WHEELS WILL BE THROWN INTO THE STREAM. A WALLACE WHEELCHAIR RACE WILL BE HELD AND PRESENT WILL BE

THERE WOULD BE A DISCUSSION ON PRISON REFORMS AND THE ZIPPIES SOLUTION TO THAT PROBLEM IS "DECLARE ALL AMERICA AS A JAIL."

THE ONLY ABOVE MENTIONED ACTIVITY WHICH REPORTEDLY TOOK PLACE WAS THE WHEELCHAIR RACE.

THE ZIPPIES ARE AN OFF-SHOOT OF THE YIP, A LOOSELY KNIT ANTI-ESTABLISHMENT, REVOLUTIONARY, YOUTH ORGANIZATION.

MISCELLANEOUS

ACTIVITIES AT THE FLAMINGO PARK CAMPSITE AND DEMONSTRATIONS AT THE CONVENTION COMPLEX ARE CONTROLLED PRINCIPALLY BY STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY (SDS), AND THE VIETNAM VETERANS AGAINST THE WAR (VVAW) WHO HAVE ASSUMED THE ROLE OF MARSHALS FOR MOST ACTIVITIES.

DURING THE EVENING OF JULY ELEVEN, SEVENTY-TWO, DID NOT OCCUR. ALTHOUGH MIAMI CP MEMBERS WERE PRESENT AND HAD LARGE QUANTITIES OF THE LITERATURE THEY DECIDED THAT IN VIEW OF THE LARGE NUMBER OF ANTI-CASTRO CUBAN DEMONSTRATORS ALSO IN THE CONVENTION AREA AT THAT TIME AND FEARFUL OF POSSIBLE CONFRONTATION WITH THESE CUBANS THAT NO CP LITERATURE WOULD BE DISTRIBUTED.

THE DISTRIBUTION OF CP LITERATURE HAS BEEN RE-SCHEDULED FOR APPROXIMATELY SIX P.M. ON JULY TWELVE, SEVENTY-TWO, IN THE AREA OF THE CONVENTION HALL.

"KICK THE BOSSES IN THE ASS, POWER TO THE WORKING CLASS", "WORKING CLASS POWER IS THE ONLY SOLUTION" AND "SMASH RACISM - BUILD INTERNATIONALISM".

ACCORDING TO THE LEAFLET, THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY IS USING A "LESSER EVIL" TRICK IN THE NOMINATION OF SENATOR GEORGE MCGOVERN WHOM IT SAYS TALKS ABOUT TAX REFORM, ENDING THE WAR AND UNEMPLOYMENT, BUT IT IS ONLY LIP SERVICE.

THE LEAFLET STATES THE ONLY REAL SOLUTION FOR WORKING PEOPLE IS TO ORGANIZE AND THROW OUT THE RULERS AND THEIR GOVERNMENT AND SET UP A GOVERNMENT OF THE WORKERS.

THE PLP WAS FOUNDED IN NINETEEN SIXTYTWO BY INDIVIDUALS EXPELLED FROM THE COMMUNIST PARTY, USA, FOR FOLLOWING THE CHINESE COMMUNIST LINE. ITS OBJECTIVE IS THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A MILITANT WORKING CLASS MOVEMENT BASED ON MARXISM-LENINISM AND MAO TSE-TUNG THOUGHT.

Miami, Florida [redacted] b7D

The following is a schedule of various movement groups in Miami for the next several days:

7/5/72

At 11:00 AM the Miami Women's Coalition will stage a demonstration at the Women's Detention Center.

From 1-5 PM the RCLC will have a dry run for its legal observers at St. Johns on the Lake.

At 2:00 PM, a meeting at Crest Motel among members of VVAW, PCPJ, SCLC, NWRO and NTO. Those expected to attend include [redacted] and representatives of the black organizations. Purpose is to discuss upcoming actions and a press conference to be held Thursday. b6 b7C

At 7:30 PM, an open cultural presentation at the Jewish Cultural Center on Miami Beach.

7/6/72

At 10:00 AM a press conference given by representatives from the five groups mentioned above to announce the Scenario for the Democratic Convention 7/10-13/72.

7/7/72

At 5:00 PM a Gay Fashion Show at the Lincoln and Washington Streets intersection in Miami Beach.

7/8/72

Opening of Resurrection City II.

At 3:00 PM, a march sponsored by the NTO from Ida Fisher Junior High School to the Convention Hall culminating at a rally at the Convention Hall.

A YIP picnic at Flamingo Park in the afternoon.

In the evening, McGOVERN will address the NWRO at the Dupont Plaza Hotel.

7/9/72

At 3:00 PM, a National Unity Rally sponsored by the five groups mentioned above and possibly others, depending on the outcome of meetings to be held before that time. The rally will be held in Manor Park and will include as speakers RALPH ABERNATHY, CORETTA KING, DAVE DELLINGER (expected to arrive here 7/8/72) and BARRY ROMO of VVAW.

7/10/72

At 5:30 PM, a poor people's march sponsored by NWRO, probably from Flamingo Park to the Convention Center with a rally at the Convention Center.

At 9:00 PM, an all-night vigil at the Convention Center sponsored by the National Council of Gay Organizations commences and is expected to last until 5:00 PM on July 11, 1972.

7/11/72

At 6:00 PM, a march against unemployment sponsored by VVAW and SCLC, the exact location not known.

Three VVAW sponsored conferences during the day and open to the public: 1) Drugs; 2) The Air War; 3) Veterans Administration.

Locations undetermined.

At 6:00 PM, a march and kiss-in at 21st Street on Miami Beach.

Sometime during the day, probably at Lummus Park, a YIP "marriage ceremony", a mock wedding between the young people and old people.

7/12/72

Two VVAW open conferences at undetermined locations: 1) Racism; 2) Repression. In all probability will be concerned with recent arrest of some local VVAW members.

"LBJ" Day sponsored by ZIPs. No details available.

A Drag Fashion Shop probably held in the South demonstration area sponsored by the Gay Organizations. Time undetermined.

7/13/72

From 3-4 PM a VVAW march from Flamingo Park to the Convention Hall in support of political prisoners, the seven point program and jobs for all.

Also on 7/9/72, at 10:00 AM, [redacted] BELLA ABZUG and others will address NWRO at the Coronet Hotel. b6 b7C

There is a good deal of dissention currently between MCC and the five groups mentioned above - SCLC, NWRO, VVAW, NTO and PCPJ. MCC people had prepared a scenario for the Republican and Democratic Conventions which was presented and soundly defeated at the recent PCPJ conferences in Louisville.

PCPJ then developed its own scenario agreed upon by the five groups and did not include any input from MCC, the YIPs, the Gays or the Miami Women's Coalition.

On 7/4/72 , MCC held a meeting to formulate a scenario for the Democratic Convention but decided that nothing could be really firmed up until they had met with representatives of the other organizations. They then called a meeting for representatives of all groups which was held on the evening of 7/4/72. When [redacted] arrived, he told the MCC people a scenario had already been agreed upon by members of the five groups and a rather heated, lengthy argument ensued. As a result, MCC is now trying to get together with its people and people from the YIPs, Gays and MWC to see if an agreement can be reached so that they can be included in the press conference scheduled for 7/6/72 and the National Unity Rally scheduled for 7/9/72. At the present time the outlook is for peaceful activities as long as McGOVERN gets the Democratic nomination. If someone else is nominated, a certain amount of trouble is expected from the young McGOVERN supporters in the area and could probably be aided and abetted by people from the various movement groups.

[redacted] of the PCPJ is attempting to gain control of all the movement groups currently in Miami Beach so that the PCPJ will be able to dictate policy decisions to the others. In attempting to do this [redacted] met with b6 b7C members of the Miami Conventions Coalition on July 5, 1972, and told them that their scenario was not acceptable and that a PCPJ scenario had been developed and approved by other groups such as the VVAW, the NWRO, the SCLC, and the NTO.

[redacted] realizes, however, that he needs the Miami Conventions Coalition on his side because there are not more than 8 or 10 PCPJ members currently in Miami Beach b6 b7C and, therefore, [redacted] needs the manpower represented by the MCC if he expects to engage in any noteworthy activity in connection with the Democratic Convention.

[redacted] is continuing his training in non-violence among the groups presently active in Miami Beach. [redacted] is [redacted] Another PCPJ member is [redacted] He is attempting to gain control b6 b7C of the day to day operations of the MCC on behalf of [redacted] The only other active members of the PCPJ are also working with the MCC in order to help the PCPJ gain control of the MCC. MCC will furnish two representatives for a meeting to be held later tonight with SCLC and other groups. The two representatives were chosen by the MCC steering committee and the purpose of the meeting will be to decide on a Scenario for the Democratic Convention. The two representatives are [redacted] and [redacted] b6 b7C

The Colony Theater has been reserved from July 10-13, 1972 for "Expose '72" for the entire twenty-four hour period each day. Films, poetry readings, et cetra, will be presented at the Colony. "Expose '72" plans also include using the Pier Park Band Shell during the evenings from July 10-13, 1972 for slide showings. Exhibits will be set up at Lincoln Mall and Lummus Park from 9:00 AM through 6:00 PM, July 10-13, 1972. Workshop in portable, inflatable rooms will also be held at Lummus Park. Each room will hold about 200 people. Plans are also being made for meetings with convention delegates between noon and 5:00 PM July 10-13, 1972 at the delegates' hotels.

[redacted] is still traveling on a fund-raising and support raising trip along the East Coast. b6 b7C

VVAW will present some "guerilla theater" on July 11-12, 1972 at the various delegates hotels. Also on July 11, 1972 from 9:00 to 11:00 AM they will sponsor a conference on "Drugs in the Army" at an undetermined location. At 2:30 PM the same date, they will sponsor a conference on Veterans Administration Programs.

There will be a joint SCLC/VVAW march on July 12, 1972 from 9:00 AM with unemployment as its theme and these two groups will also sponsor a "Conference on Repression" centering mainly on movement people who have been jailed. Also on July 12, 1972 there is a VVAW conference scheduled called "Racism in the Army".

On July 13, 1972, a march is scheduled jointly sponsored by VVAW, SCLC, and NWRO, the theme of which will be the Seven Point Program, Racism and Repression.

There is a great deal of tension between PCPJ and MCC concerning the Scenario for the Democratic National Convention (DNC). There was a meeting on this subject on July 4, 1972 attended by people associated with PCPJ, MCC, and the YIPs where it was decided that two representatives from these groups, plus the Miami Womens Coalition, VVAW, the Gays and other groups currently in town, should meet and form a joint Scenario. A meeting is scheduled for July 5, 1972 between the black groups and the MCC to determine the steps necessary in forming the coalition that will set up the Scenario. It was decided that the YIPs and the Gays would not be included in this first meeting because the black groups are very touchy about these two groups.

[redacted] is in town from New York and her name is [redacted] A trip to Paris has been organized by the Anti-War Union in Washington, D.C. These people will leave from New York City on July 19, 1972 and return on July 26, 1972. They will fly via Islantic Airlines to Luxembourg and travel by train from there to Paris.

SCLC - [redacted] RALPH ABERNATHY, [redacted] (a very big Negro male who is [redacted], and four or five others.

NWRO - one white male.

PEOPLES PARTY - One white female.

ZIPs - [redacted] (a white female with bleached blond hair) and TOM FORCADE.

The purpose of the meeting was to agree on ground rules for use of the Flamingo Park camp site. Agreement was reached on the following points:

1) No hard drugs would be allowed at the camp site.

2) The "Smoke-in" previously announced by the YIPs would not be held at the camp site area.

3) No activities would be permitted which would in any way jeopardize the camp site permit.

4) A "Peoples Government" would be set up consisting of one member from each organization for the purpose of dealing with camp site matters only.

5) A security program was established with representatives from each group and headed by [redacted] b6 b7C from SCLC.

FORCADE came in near the end of the meeting and began yelling and screaming, saying in effect he did not work with any group unless everyone publically apologized for calling [redacted] b6 b7C a police provocator. There was an immediage big hastle and the meeting broke up before all points had been considered.

[redacted] b6 b7C said that Lincoln Mall had been withdrawn by the Miami Beach City Manager as a site for "Expose '72" with no reason given. Lummus Park will be used instead.

PCPJ may try to participate in the Country and Western Affair being given for Convention delegates by the Florida Host Committee on Tuesday night. [redacted] b6 b7C said they would like to get some time in front of the microphone to talk to all present concerning why the various movement groups are in Miami. [redacted] also said that in the event any rightist groups showed up at the camp site the best policy would be to let Police Chief ROCKY POMERANCE handle the situation. b6 b7C

All the VVAW conferences previously mentioned will be held at the camp site area, but are still open to anyone who wishes to attend.

The following people have been seen working or hanging around at the MCC office on Alton Road: [redacted] former YIP member from Kent State; [redacted] (VVAW), both from Kent State; [redacted] PCPJ; [redacted] Negro male from Chicago, and two white males also from Chicago; [redacted] white female; [redacted] says he is from Colorado Springs and lives at Flamingo Park with another individual from Colorado State; [redacted] has been working with FPC but is from somewhere else on the East Coast; [redacted] (phonetic), says he is from Boston SDS and goes to University of Maryland; [redacted] with the Womens faction; [redacted] white male, who worked with Mayday Collective in Washington, D.C. and who thinks the MCC steering committee has too much power. b6 b7C

[redacted] said the other PCPJ people are furious with [redacted] because of some of his activities here and b6 b7C as soon as [redacted] arrives here he will probably be "trashed" and run out of Miami.

It was rumored around Flamingo Park and vicinity that some of the presidential candidates, including Senator GEORGE MC GOVERN, were going to speak at a gathering on the football field near Flamingo Park at 7:30 P.M., July 8, 1972.

At about this same time, there was a rumor going around the park area that a man carrying a rifle was seen in the vicinity. This was only an unconfirmed rumor and efforts to substantiate the rumor were unsuccessful.

Source advised YIP was sponsoring a free share feast with "The Senior Citizens, Non Delegates, and the whole community" to be held at 6:30 PM, Sunday, July 9, at Flamingo Park Baseball Field. It was stated there would be an "acre of watermelons sculptured as NIXON's face" for you to "devour". In addition, the ZIPS have decided to support the smoke-in which is to be held on late afternoon or evening of July 9. The smoke-in was primarily a project of the Zippies, the off-faction of the YIP, headed by TOM FORCADE and [redacted] b6 b7C Numerous members of ZIP were passing the hat at Flamingo Park on a continuous basis to try to collect money for the smoke-in. There will be a program at 10:00 PM on July 9, 1972, on the patio of Lummus Park Auditorium, at which ALLEN GINSBERG and ABBIE HOFFMAN will appear. At 6:30 PM in Lummus Park, there is what is referred to as the wedding of the generations, a symbolic joining of the old and the young. The Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) was put in charge of matters at Flamingo Park as far as rules were concerned by the Miami City Council. The "Outer Collective" of the YIPS had a meeting and indicated they would not sign any SCLC agreements. In addition, the Gay Activists Alliance, the Miami Women's Coalition, the Vietnam Veterans Against the War, and the Miami Conventions Coalition indicated they would not sign any agreements of SCLC. The YIPS don't want any "Jesus Freaks" preaching around the camp site.

Re: DEMONSTRATION PLANNED BY CUBAN EXILES ON JULY 11 AT DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION

Background

For several weeks, the Cuban Authentic Revolutionary Party (Partido Revolucionario Cubano Autentico - P.R.C.A.), through its top leader, Dr. CARLOS PRIO SOCARRAS, ex-president of Cuba, has been calling on the Cuban exiles and the revolutionary organizations, throughout the country, to appear on Tuesday, July 11, 1972, at 5:30 p.m., at the corner of Meridian Avenue and 17th Street, Miami Beach, to march to the Convention Hall where the Democratic Party Convention is being held.

Actually, very few revolutionary organizations have answered this call of the P.R.C.A. for this march. Most of them have not called on their members for this meeting; so it is expected that a few hundred Cuban exiles will be there, but it will not be a massive demonstration, nor will it be enthusiastic.

Further Information

There are listed below the revolutionary organizations which have supported this march of the P.R.C.A., with their top leaders. Also listed below will be a summary of the document which the P.R.C.A. and these organizations plan to send to the delegates at the Convention. There will also be a list of the organizations which have publicly come out against this demonstration.

Organizations Supporting the Demonstration

Partido Revolucionario Cubano Autentico - Dr. CARLOS PRIO SOCARRAS
Agrupacion Estudiantil Abdala - [redacted]
Brigada 2506 - JUAN JOSE PERUYERO
Movimiento Unitario Invasor - Dr. ALABAU TRELLES

b6
b7C

Federacion de Estudiantes Universitarios de Miami
Partido Accion Unitaria
Representacion Cubana del Exilio (RECE) - JORGE MAS CANOSA
Federacion Estudiantil Cubana Florida Atlantic
Juventud Autentica (belong to the P.R.C.A.)
Partido Liberal Alianza para la Libertad
Rotarios del Exilio
Partido Republicano Cubano
Movimiento Civico Militar 4 de Septiembre
Confederacion de Profesionales Universitarios
Movimiento de Cubanos Libres
Asociacion de Periodistas Cubanos Anti-Comunistas
Various Cities of Cuba in Exile (although not all)

As leaders of the demonstration, along with Dr. CARLOS PRIO SOCARRAS, there will be Drs. RAFAEL GUAS INCLAN, [redacted] b6 b7C

In the Latin press published in Miami, the following have supported the demonstration:

"El Triunfo" - directed by [redacted]
"Candilejas" - directed by [redacted] b6 b7C
"La Semana" - directed by [redacted]
"Prensa Medica" - directed by [redacted]

The rest of the Latin Press in Miami, Florida has remained neutral, with the exception of "Patria," directed by [redacted] has come out against the demonstration, and has even criticized and openly attacked Dr. CARLOS PRIO SOCARRAS for calling for this demonstration. b6 b7C

The two most important radio stations broadcasting in Spanish in Miami are divided. W.Q.B.A. (La Cubanisima) does not support the demonstration, whereas W.F.A.B. (La Fabulosa) is in agreement with the demonstration.

Among the organizations which have come out publicly against the demonstration supported by the P.R.C.A., are the following:

Comite Ejecutivo Libertador - [redacted] b6 b7C
Alpha 66 - [redacted]

The following are the four main points to be brought out in the manifesto, written in English, which the demonstrators at the march will give to the delegates at the Democratic Convention:

1. That they declare null and void the negotiation between President J. F. Kennedy and Khrushchev (both deceased) at the time of the October Crisis.

2. That they give complete support to the people of Cuba in their aspirations for liberty and self-determination. That they give the free Cubans economic and military support, not men, but the means to liberate Cuba.

3. That they give complete freedom of the international waters surrounding the Island of Cuba, which belong to no specific nation, remembering that the Americans entered World War I in order to assure freedom of the seas.

4. That they grant the status of belligerents to all the free Cubans, in accordance with existing treaties which set forth this status.

THE ARTICLE, WRITTEN BY RON SACHS, "MIAMI HERALD" STAFF WRITER, SET OUT THAT VVAW ATTORNEYS PLAN AN APPEAL TO U. S. THE VVAW ALSO, ACCORDING TO THE ARTICLE, WILL ATTEMPT TO HAVE A RESOLUTION INTRODUCED ON THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION (DNC) FLOOR, TUESDAY (JULY ELEVEN), DEPLORING THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT TIMING ON THE SUBPENAS AND ASKING POSTPONEMENT OF THE GRAND JURY PROBE.

THE JULY TEN, SEVENTY TWO EDITION OF THE "MIAMI NEWS", A DAILY MIAMI, FLORIDA, NEWSPAPER, CONTAINED ON PAGE SIX A, AN ARTICLE CAPTIONED "WAR VETS' LAWYERS SEEK TO STOP PROBE". THE ARTICLE, BY"MIAMI NEWS" REPORTER ROBERT B. STULBERG, SET OUT THAT THE NINE ATTORNEYS REPRESENTING THE ANTI-WAR VETERANS HOPED TO OBTAIN A TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER AGAINST THE GRAND JURY PROBE ON JULY TEN FROM U. S. DISTRICT COURT JUDGE DAVID MIDDLEBROOKS AT TALLAHASSEE. THE ATTORNEYS SAID THAT IF THEY WERE UNABLE TO PERSUADE THE JUDGE TO ENTIRELY QUASH THE GRAND JURY INVESTIGATION, THEY AT LEAST HOPED TO CONVINCE HIM TO POSTPONE THE PROBE UNTIL BOTH POLITICAL CONVENTIONS ARE COMPLETED.

THE ARTICLE NOTED THAT SUPPORTERS OF THE VVAW IN MIAMI ARE ATTEMPTING TO OBTAIN SUPPORT AMONG THE DNC DELEGATES FOR A DNC RESOLUTION CONDEMNING THE GRAND JURY PROBE. GUSTIN REICHBACH, ONE OF THE ATTORNEYS, SAID LAST NIGHT (JULY NINE) THAT ROBERT ABRAMS, HEAD OF THE NEW YORK STATE DNC DELEGATION, HAS AGREED TO PRESS FOR A DNC RESOLUTION THAT THE SUBPENAS BE QUASHED. REICHBACH SAID THAT DELEGATES FROM MINNESOTA, NEW JERSEY, AND CALIFORNIA HAVE ALSO AGREED TO BACK THIS RESOLUTION.

THE JULY ELEVEN EDITION OF THE "MIAMI HERALD" CARRIED ON PAGE TWENTY-TWO A, AN ARTICLE CAPTIONED "VETS AGAINST WAR ORDERED TO TESTIFY". THE ARTICLE WAS DATELINED TALLAHASSEE. IT SET OUT THAT U.S. DISTRICT COURT JUDGE MIDDLEBROOKS, ABOVE, HAD RULED THAT THOSE SUBPENAED MUST TESTIFY BEFORE A FEDERAL GRAND JURY AT TALLAHASSEE ON JULY ELEVEN OR RISK BEING HELD IN CONTEMPT OF COURT. VVAW ATTORNEYS PROMISED AN IMMEDIATE APPEAL OF THIS RULING TO THE FIFTH U. S. CIRCUIT COURT OF APPEALS, NEW ORLEANS, BUT THIS WAS NOT EXPECTED TO BLOCK THE JULY ELEVEN GRAND JURY SESSION.

THE SDS DEMONSTRATION AT THE MIAMI BEACH POLICE DEPARTMENT SCHEDULED FOR TWO P.M. TODAY WAS CANCELED. INSTEAD, THE SDS AND THE ZIPPIES AGREED TO JOIN IN A DEMONSTRATION AT THE DORAL BEACH HOTEL, HEADQUARTERS OF SENATOR GEORGE MC GOVERN. THESE GROUPS ISSUED A CALL FOR NON-DELEGATES AT FLAMINGO PARK TO PROCEED TO THE DORAL BEACH HOTEL FOR THIS DEMONSTRATION.

AT ABOUT TWO FIFTEEN PM, APPROXIMATELY ONE HUNDRED DEMONSTRATORS ARRIVED IN BUSES AND PRIVATE CARS AND AFTER ASSEMBLING, MARCHED UP THE ENTRANCE RAMP TOWARD THE LOBBY OF THE DORAL BEACH HOTEL. A CONTINGENT OF THEFLORIDA HIGHWAY PATROL TURNED THE DEMONSTRATORS AWAY AT THE HOTEL

On 7/12/72, [redacted] appeared at the Miami FBI Office and furnished the following information: b6 b7C

[redacted] stated he is in the Miami area attending the Democratic National Convention being held on Miami Beach. He stated from what he has observed there appears to be many people spying on the non-delegate factions around the Flamingo Park area. He stated these people appear to be amateurs when he has questioned them, but he has seen individuals being followed and feels that he, himself, has been followed. He stated his reason for appearing at the FBI Office was an attempt to determine if he, in fact, was being surveilled by the FBI. b6 b7C

[redacted] stated he is [redacted] and is at the Convention attempting to gather forces of the minority non-delegate factions. b6 b7C

[redacted] further advised he is planning on [redacted] and advised he has heard from local law enforcement organizations in Clearwater that he has a file with the FBI. He advised this file might prove to be an obstacle in his path [redacted] b6 b7C

[redacted] requested if there was, in fact, an FBI file, he wanted to know the procedure whereby he could make this file a matter of public record to the citizens in the Clearwater area, so there would be no doubt [redacted] b6 b7C

2,000 protesters outnumbered

By ROBERT B. STULBERG
Miami News Reporter

As the Democrats prepared to begin their convention, the widely predicted influx of protesters and other non-delegates took third billing to two other massive arrivals in Miami Beach.

First and second honors went to security forces and the news media. For the moment, at least, the reporters, writers and broadcasters seemed to outnumber everybody outside the Convention Center.

Only an estimated 2,000 protesters were in town. With the media representatives listed at 7,500, they enjoyed an almost 4-1 superiority in numbers.

With more than 6,500 local and state police, federal troops and the National Guardsmen on hand, the protesters were outnumbered there by more than 3-1.

Before the convention is over, the security forces are expected to swell to about 10,000 with the addition of plainclothesmen drawn from 10 different federal agencies.

That will give them a 5-1 edge over the protesters, unless the latter increase as the convention progresses.

Schedule of protests

Several protest organizations will sponsor rallies, marches and concerts today.

They include:

All Day — Protest and public exhibition on the U.S. air war in Indochina at Lincoln Road Mall and at Lummus Park.

All Day — Political workshops at Lummus Park, in inflatable arenas seating about 200.

Non-Delegates

All Day — United Farmworkers of Florida demonstrate at delegate hotels which are not observing the national boycott against lettuce picked by non-union workers.

All Day — National Student Coalition Against McGovern protests in the North and South Demonstration Area of the Convention Center until 4 p.m.

All Day — Yippie campaign to close area bars and liquor stores. Location not yet announced.

3 p.m. — Zippies "Know Your Candidate Parade" from Flamingo Park to the Miami Beach Convention Center.

5 p.m. — People's Party's "Eclipse Rock Concert" until midnight at the Lincoln Mall near Alton Road. Speakers include Dr. Benjamin Spock. People's Party candidate for president, and William Lehman, former head of the Dade School Board, who is planning to run for Congress.

6 p.m. The Black People's Coalition "Poor People's March" from Flamingo Park to the Convention Center. Speakers include Rev. Ralph David Abernathy of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, Jesse Gray of the National Tenants Organization, George Wiley of the National Welfare Rights Organization, Gloria Steinem of Ms. Magazine and Jesse Jackson of Operation Breadbasket.

9 p.m. — National Coalition of Gay Organizations all-night vigil in the North Demonstration Area outside the Convention Center.

300 participate in pot smoke-in

More than 300 young demonstrators led by the Zippie faction of the Youth International Party marched to the Miami Beach Convention Center for a marijuana "smoke-in" yesterday.

Chanting "We smoke pot and we like it a lot," the protesters lounged on the lawn outside the fence surrounding the Convention Center and openly smoked marijuana joints, demanding its legalization.

The distinctive sweet fragrance of marijuana wafted over the crowd outside the center as Zippie leaders tossed joints to the crowd, made up mostly of white counter-culture youths.

"Free pot," declared Zippie leader Dana Beal as the joints were thrown into the crowd. Some of the demonstrators reponded by shouting, "Yeh, light up! Light up!"

Miami Beach police — who had said before the protest that they would arrest only persons found selling marijuana or hard drugs — made no arrests during the course of the march or demonstration.

In fact, durint the entire protest, few police were on the scene and the few who were present kept their distance.

The demonstrators, who had marched from Flamingo Park to the center, had held another smoke-in earlier in the day on the infield sand of the Flamingo Park's softball field.

Zippie leaders did not distribute free joints at the earlier demonstration, but many young people — and an occasional oldster in the crowd — could be seen smoking marijuana during the event.

Before the smoke-in, one leading member of the Youth International Party-Yippies, the rivals of the Zippies, said his group viewed the smoke-in as "old hat, a 4-year-old action."

"Hell, those smoke-ins have been going on for years. Marijuana's not an issue anymore," he said. "Why, half the delegates at the convention will be smoking during the recesses, you know?"

Gay libbers at a dance

More than 100 gay liberationalists in town to demonstrate during the Democratic convention danced late into the night in a smoke-filled ballroom in North Miami Beach yesterday.

Male couples, females couples, and male-female couples danced to the music of a small rock band while red and blue spotlights played through dense smoke which was pumped by a machine into the main room of Unified Hall, 2300 NE 171st St.

Chuck Lamont, the 30-year-old leader of the National Coalition of Gay Organizations, the sponsor of the event, told the gathered crowd that the coming week of protests will have major significance for the gay liberation movement.

"This is the birthplace of gay politics on a national scale," Lamont said, noting that this week local gay groups from all over the country will unite for a national protest action for the first time.

Poor people's 'city' opens

Resurrection City No. 2, a poor people's encampment area sponsored by the Southern Christian Leadership Conference was officially opened yesterday at Flamingo Park.

The "city" has been modeled after a similar temporary encampment sponsored by SCLC in Washington, D.C., in May, 1968.

Constructed jointly by black activisits and young white protesters at the park, the "city" consists of about 100 small canvas pup tents set up in rows.

The pathways between the rows of tents have been marked with roughly hewn street signs, one reading "M. L. King Boulevard," after the late Martin Luther King Jr. and the other "R. Abernathy Street," after Rev. Ralph David Abernathy, the head of the SCLC who is planning to live in the tent city during the Democratic convention.

SCLC organizers said they expect about 300 to 400 followers, mostly blacks to arrive today from Alabama, Georgia, Mississippi and upstate Florida to occupy the tents in the city.

Blacks to press 'key delegates'

A leader of a coalition of black organizations pressing for 750 non-voting seats on the floor of the Democratic National Convention said last night his group will meet later today to pressure "certain key delegations" to back its demand at the convention proceedings.

Dr. George Wiley, executive director of the 220,000-member National Welfare Rights Ortanization and one of the leaders of the Poor People's Coalition, told The Miami News, "We'll be putting pressure on the key delegations such as New York and California."

But he cautioned that if the convention delegates did not respond to his requests by tomorrow night, when the Democratic Platform Committee meets, his group will stop working "within the system" and will instead apply "more direct disruptive tactics."

Wiley's comments came just one day after about 1,000 members of the Poor People's Coalition marched into the loosely guarded Miami Beach Convention Center and occupied the speaker's platform and a bloc of seats on the floor for a 90-minute demonstration.

The day before about 100 members of the coalition — which also includes the Southern Christian Leadership Conference and the National Tenants Organization — marched past three guards and interrupted a meeting of the Democratic Party Arrangements Committee to voice their demand for 750 seats.

Wiley's vow to continue to press his group's demand for seats for the "poor people's lobby" was echoed earlier yesterday by Dr. Ralph Abernathy of the SCLC and Jesse Gray of the NTO at a mass rally attended by nearly 3,000 at Manor Park in the northwest section of Miami.

For about four hours, the coalition leaders and several other civil rights and anti-war leaders — including Mrs. Coretta King, wife of the slain SCLC leader Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., addressed the huge crowd — the largest gathering for any protest event so far during the week of the Democratic Convention.

Wiley, who also was at the rally, gave the most emotional address of the afternoon, declaring that the Democrats must meet the black groups' demands or face defeat in the fall.

Protesters Storm Hall Fence; 2 Policemen Injured in Melee

By ROB ELDER
And JAMES SAVAGE
Herald Staff Writers

About 1,000 youths, most of them white, broke loose from a black-sponsored "Poor Peoples Rally" in front of Miami Beach Convention Hall Monday night, ripping down a section of the fence around the hall before dispersing 90 minutes later.

Though police reported scattered instances of rock throwing and two arrests, the protesters produced more noise than violence and failed to disturb the opening session of the Democratic National Convention.

County Manager Ray Goode reported two policemen suffered minor injuries in melees around the hall's $75,000 "hibiscus fence," but that both were minor. A third officer, Robert Hanlon of the Miami Beach Police, suffered a broken leg when his motorcycle skidded on rain-slick pavement while making a turn near the Convention Hall.

INJURED in the fracases were Miami Police Sgt. Larry Hoffkins, hospitalized for X-rays of rib injuries suffered when a 75-foot section of fence was flattened on the southwest side of the convention hall; and Beach Officer Joseph Spodo, 37, who was treated at Mount Sinai Hospital for a forehead gash caused by the falling fence.

Their injuries came at the high point of the 90-minute melee, as a crowd of screaming youths estimated at close to 500 pushed against and finally uprooted a section of fence at the hall's Gate 9 on 17th Street.

Other groups of 20-30 youths, chanting "Let's go in," tried unsuccessfully to open other gates at the convention complex, but were turned back each time by riot-garbed policemen on the other side of the fence.

But although 300 extra officers had been called in to reinforce the 500 already assigned to the compound, the end of the demonstration probably owed as much to marshals of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference and Students for a Democratic Society and a sudden shower as it did to a massive show of police.

BEACH POLICE Chief Rocky Pomerance, in command throughout the evening, blamed the demonstration on "some irresponsible people."

"I think," he added, "they were as surprised as our men when the fence came down."

The only demonstrator arrested was Ernest L. Herron, a 30-year-old Chicago black man wearing an SCLC T-shirt, who was booked into the Miami Beach City Jail on charges of breaking and entering with intent to commit a misdemeanor. He was apprehended by a plainclothesman and a uniformed Beach policeman as he clambered over the partially knocked-down fence.

Helron was booked at the Beach jail, while the other man was taken to the Dade County jail.

The 90-minute demonstration followed the conclusion of a two-hour march and rally sponsored by the SCLC to coincide with the first convention session Monday night.

IT ATTRACTED more than 2,500 people to hear such speakers as the Rev. Dr. Ralph David Abernathy, Gloria Steinem, Dr. Benjamin Spock and leaders of the National Welfare Rights Organization.

It had been called to dramatize the so-called Poor Peoples Coalition's demands for a guaranteed annual income of $6,500 and 750 seats on the convention floor. But the demands of the organizers were almost lost in the commotion that followed.

Throughout the evening, police stressed that neither clubs nor gas were used to move protesters back from the fences, where most of the gates had been locked several hours earlier in advance of the rally.

Though a few incidents of Mace were reported, the evening apparently passed with little or no violence, except to the fence.

Observers on the scene at 17th Street and Meridian Court, the spot from which the protestors finally dispersed, reported that the crowd broke up in response to appeals of its own.

SCLC marshals, SDS leaders and Allan Ginsberg appealed to the crowd to disperse. At 9:15, the drizzle that had been falling turned into a shower and the people moved on.

AS THE speeches ended at about 8 p.m., the still-peaceful crowd began to disperse, with Abernathy leading his 300 original black marchers and about 700 whites south on Washington towards Flamingo Park.

The remaining onlookers, about 1,000 in all, gathered around the speaker's platform, where members of the Students for a Democratic Society and the Workers Action Movement milled about.

By 8:27, the by-now almost all-white crowd began moving south on Washington, blocking the entire street. Suddenly, they split up, with half heading west on 17th Street. The remainder began shaking the fence gates at the south end of the hall's demonstration area.

But it was the first group, on 17th Street who police said were responsible for most of the trouble. At the first gate they approached, several youths began banging and climbing on it, despite efforts of SCLC staffer, the Rev. James Orange, one of a half-dozen SCLC marshals who worked feverishly to cool the situation.

"Keep chanting and walk. come on, let's go!" yelled Orange. The crowd obeyed, but stopped at each gate where riot police, reported The Herald's William R. Amlong, "appeared as if by magic."

AT THE first 17th Street gate, 75 Metro deputies raced up behind the fence with clubs. One gate down, Miami policeman opened a large plywood box and removed clubs and helmets.

It looked as if this routine would continue. But when the demonstrators got to the gate near the Washington Federal Savings and Loan, they came face to face with a squad of 35 Miami policemen commanded by Maj. Paul Denham.

As the demonstrators taunted the police, one officer standing inside the gate sprayed aerosol Mace at a girl in the crowd, Amlong reported. Two youths standing beside her were also affected by the spray, though not directly hit.

But no one got in, nor did they at the next gate that also flung open after several white youths kicked it. A Metro deputy, standing behind the fence, had the cigar knocked from his mouth.

And at 8:56, just west of the broken gate, the combined force of the 500 succeeded in ripping down about 70 feet of fence. A group of about 40 Highway Patrolmen, in helmets and plastic visors, rushed up and formed a human fence, their riot clubs held at waist level in front of them.

CRIES OF "Pig, Pig," and "fight back" rang out; rocks and a few bottles began to fly; the crowd got uglier, some moving within five feet of the silent troopers. But the and the protesters left.

At the intersection of 17th Street and Meridian Court, the group was joined by the second half of the rally leftover. Their efforts to get through the fence had been aborted early by about five SDS leaders, who had held a brief strategy meeting in the midst of the milling crowd.

One of the SDS leaders, Ernie Seavers, 21, of Columbus, Ohio, made a decision. "I don't think we should go through tonight," he told his friends. They agreed, and Seavers turned on his portable bullhorn in an attempt to get the crowd away from the gate.

"The next gate is open a little bit," he announced.

Almost instantly, the crowd moved to the next gate south, on the corner of 17th Street and Washington. Initially angry because it too was closed, the crowd's ire subsided when they discovered it was being picketed by five members of the Florida Association for Repeal of Abortion Laws.

BY NINE o'clock, the reunited crowd of about 1,000 filled 17th Street between Washington Avenue and Meridian Court. Shouts varied from "Let's go in" to "Everybody disperse."

Members of the Hare Krishna sect played bongos to the rhythm of "Get the pigs out. Get the pigs out." Radical poet Allen Ginsberg grabbed a bullhorn and told the crowd, "Stop screaming. Just relax and say Ommmmmm." But only about 20 people picked up on the Hindu chant; the others continued to mill around.

But both white and black speakers continued to circulate through the crowd. 'Let's go back," cried one. "We've got four nights. We don't have to do it all in one night."

And then the light drizzle, which had been falling throughout the demonstration, quickened into a shower, and by dozens and then by scores the crowd began to disperse. Most, though not all, headed for Flamingo Park.

AN IMPASSIONED Chicano protester and SDS spokesman manned a public address system in Flamingo Park after the Monday night fence-storming demonstration and persuaded at least 500 angry non-delegates to stay in the park.

The 500 campers had returned from the demonstration embittered by widespread but false reports of indiscriminate police use of Mace and other chemical weapons.

"If you storm out these gates, you're as good as electing Richard Nixon in November," said the Chicano, a member of the VVAW, who did not identify himself.

"Okay, let's get high!" someone yelled from the crowd. He drew cheers.

Members of all non-delegate groups camping in the park then assembled at an open session to plan demonstration activities for today.

ABOUT TWO hours earlier, a chanting, singing crowd of more than 2,500 led by a black saxophonist had marched up Washington Avenue to mass directly in front of the hall.

"What do we want?" came the call, calling up echoes of Selma and Meriden. "Freedom." came the answer. "When do we want it? Now." At one point, Abernathy was hoisted onto the burly shoulders of two SCLC aides as the march neared the Convention center. The mood seemed to climax at 6:19, as the marchers began slowly singing, "We shall overcome."

Clambering aboard a yellow truck that served as a portable stage, the speakers exhorted crowds leaning up against the hibiscus fence. Delegates arriving on foot stopped to gawk before heading for the northwest entrance and entrance to the floor.

EARLIER IN the day, the Beach had seen smaller demonstrations of chanting antiwar demonstrators, pie-carrying Zippies and feminists singing blue songs as the counterculture got its convention week underway.

The anti-war group, led by the Vietnam Veterans Against the War, trooped to the convention hall about 300 strong at 10 a.m. to rally support for a North Vietnamese peace plan and a larger turnout for President Nixon and the Republican Convention in August at the Beach.

The feminists, about 20 of them, joined the Vets on the way back to Flamingo Park for a burn-in of such "sexist" writings of Pythagoras, Pope Paul XII, St. Paul and also of the book of Job.

Down at the Miami Beach Municipal Courts below First Street, the Zippies held forth before about 80 unamused Highway Patrolman with a "Pie Power" rally for Patrick Small, Zippie who hit Beach Councilman Harold Rosen in the face with a pie two weeks ago.

Their ostensible reason for coming was a hearing at which Small was to appeal his $1,500 bond, but that was canceled when his attorney,

Louis Beller, notified the court he couldn't make it. So the 70 demonstrators simply took their Dutch apple and cherry pies . . . and ate them.

Networks Delay Fracas Reports

By WILLIAM MANSFIELD
Herald Staff Writer

None of the three major television networks showed their viewers the confrontation between police and 500 or more demonstrators outside Convention Hall Tuesday night while it was going on — although all three had crews covering the disturbance.

All three said the decision not to screen immediately the attempt by youths to break through the convention area fence was made because events inside the hall were more important.

Criticism of TV riot coverage during the 1968 Democratic had no direct bearing on the decision, spokesmen for all three indicated.

CBS's Walter Cronkite did mention the incident but did not go into detail.

NBC's David Brinkley made an indirect reference and indicated viewers would be shown the situation outside.

"There have been reports — not from us — that there's a riot outside," he said, adding that the network would take its viewers outside shortly.

That report never came. "Right after Brinkley said that, (Party Chairman Lawrence) O'Brien's speech started and we went to that," an NBC spokesman said.

George Merlis gave much the same explanation for ABC's failure to use film on the demonstration — even though one member of its crew was maced while getting it.

"We got the film, but it hasn't fit into the format," he said. "It was an editorial decision. . . . the magnitude of the demonstration really wasn't all that big."

Jim Byrne of CBS said his network felt the verbal mention was enough because the confrontation "wasn't of a scope to warrant wide coverage."

Fires investigated at Playboy Plaza

By MILT SOSIN and WILLIAM TUCKER
Miami News Reporters

The Democratic convention eve scene at Miami Beach produced little in the way of fireworks but it did produce a couple of mysterious fires.

Both broke out in the swank Playboy Plaza Hotel, scene of a dinner for big party campaign contributors and of the evening's only excitement bordering on a "confrontation."

Damage was confined to mattresses stored in a room adjoining the dining room of the hotel and to furnishings in a locked, unused room on the 17th floor. Miami Beach firemen still were investigating the origin of each blaze.

The dinner was for 1,400 guests, members of the Democratic Sponsors Club who were reported to have kicked in $1,000 each. That adds up to $1.4 million and the party struck the Students for a Democratic Society as a show of extravagence. About 200 of them marched in front of the hotel for two hours seeking to discourage the guests from entering.

"While millions of people in the United States and the world are starving, millionaires like Henry Ford are feasting at the Playboy Plaza," said Al Furst, an SDS member from Boston. There was no confirmation from dinner spokesmen that Henry Ford III was a $1,000 man or attended the dinner.

When they arrived, the SDS, marchers found about 50 members of the sheriff's task force arranged in phalanxes at each end of the curving hotel driveway. Erecting a barrier with their yard-long billy clubs, the deputies effectively kept away the demonstrators.

Although the situation remained under control, 36 Florida Highway Patrolmen who had been assembled at Collins Avenue and 46th Street as a backup force, moved up to the scene.

At that point, the fire broke out in the matresses on the first floor.

"When we pulled up, there were all these police," said Homer Goltzene, deputy Miami Beach fire chief. "I couldn't figure what it was all about, it was only a small fire."

Goltzene was filled in on the political overtones. Both Miami Beach Police Chief Rocky Pomerance and Walter Loughee, chief of the sheriff's police division, were at the scene.

A police spokesman said some of the demonstration leaders were removed by police bus, but were released three blocks away. No one was arrested.

Two hours later, firemen were back to put out the fire on the 17th floor.

'Mad' Reporter Seeks Convention High

BY MICKEY PORTER
Herald Convention Bureau

Jerry Rubin had applesauce clumped on the end of his scraggly beard and a maniacal look in his eyes.

"If George McGovern doesn't win the nomination, we are going to have Chicago right there on the convention floor," he vowed.

Rubin, a leader of the Youth International Party (Yippies), one of the Chicago 7 and correspondent for Mad magazine, continued: "Our goal is to get down there on the floor and get as many delegates as we can high on dope."

Why?

"Why not?"

This broke up Leslie Bacon, the 20-year-old Californian charged with bombing the Capitol a year ago and currently waiting trial, which, if found guilty, could bring her 80 years in prison.

Leslie, an alleged leader of the Weatherpeople faction of SDS, is Rubin's running mate at the convention, and the pair agreed to an interview in return for all they could eat in the Fontainebleau's Chez Bon Bon.

AND EAT they did. $16.94 worth.

"You've lost weight, Jerry," began Tom Fox of The Philadelphia Daily News, the other interviewer. "I hope it's cancer."

Rubin, five-foot-seven and down from 160 to 130, choked on his water. "I'm into yoga, man, and health foods. And I don't care if you are hostile as long as you're buying."

Told that the interviewers represented a big outfit with enough cash to handle the bill, Rubin ordered a steak, a health fruit salad, a double order of applesauce, three iced teas and a chocolate soda.

Biss Bacon, also about five foot seven but weighing in at maybe 150, settled for a Chef's salad with roquefort, and, when the waiter didn't bring the dressing, yelled in a voice that carried to the Eden Roc next door, "Where the xx is the roquefort?"

THE WAITER came on a dead run with a double order of dressing, and if somebody thought to drop the proverbial sin, you'd have heard it. This from the lips of a girl who looks like a Brownie Scout den mother.

Clear of complexion and as innocent-looking as the girl next door, Leslie Bacon, according to the FBI, is more notorious than Rubin. All he did was riot at the 1968 Democratic convention in Chicago and curse Judge Julius Hoffman.

Miss Bacon, according to the FBI, bombed the Capitol of the United States, causing $100,000 damage, the precise amount of her bond.

"She's the 'Mad Bomber,'" gloated Rubin. "Isn't she something?"

"You know, I was going to be a nun once," Leslie said, flashing her tooth-paste-commercial white teeth. "But I was thrown out of a Catholic high school for arguing with an 80-year-old nun over whether napalm harmed humans. She said it didn't, just defoliated jungles. Can you imagine that?"

LESLIE, who says she didn't bomb anything and has yet to come to trial, said about a dozen FBI agents "tore down my front door and hauled me right out of the shower when they first arrested me.

"And then when we got to their car, they called J. Edgar Hoover or somebody and said, 'We've got that little object we've been looking for.' He was talking about me."

"Well let's talk about me," interrupted Rubin. "You guys shut up and let me rap for awhile.

"First, I'm here to write a book about this and the Republican Convention."

"It'll be called 'A Roman Circus," Leslie said.

"No, no," said Rubin with more than a little aggravation. "Just shut up. It'll be called 'Vote!' with an exclamation point and me and Abbie Hoffman (Yippies and Chicago 7 and covering for Popular Mechanics) and Ed Sanders (lead singer of the Fugs) are writing it. We've got 25 agents out around the country digging up garbage on President Nixon and I guarantee you this book will be his seventh crisis and get his %$&+ beat."

"Beat his %$&-, then beat +$&+," chanted Miss Bacon, not sounding like the girl next door and drowning out everyone within 100 yards.

RUBIN GAVE her a hard look.

"This is serious," he said. "These guys are buying our dinner.

"Now then," he continued, "we're working hard for McGovern and if he doesn't get the nomination, Ted Kennedy better or you won't be able to give this place away when we're done with it."

Why not Humphrey? He's as liberal as the others.

"He's a liar," snarled Miss Bacon, looking positively menacing.

Rubin gave her another hard look. "We've got it on good authority — hell, McGovern's daughter is who — that if he's elected he'll drop the contempt of court charges against the Chicago 7. I face five years in the can, you know, and the appeals court should rule on our appeal any day now. I don't want to go to jail. Sure I'm for McGovern."

RUBIN WAS done eating by now, and a couple of TV camera crews were waiting for him.

"You guys done?" he asked.

"What's your vital statistics, sweetie?" Fox asked Miss Bacon.

She replied by upsetting a glass of iced tea in his well-coiffed and oiled hair. The tea trickled down his nose and he caught the ice cubes in his hand. Cat-quick, he dumped them down Miss Bacon's olive drab tank shirt. She was obviously bra-less and gave a loud yip.

What would you expect a Yippie to do, yap?

THE FOLLOWING IS A SUMMARY OF INTELLIGENCE INFORMATION RELATIVE TO PROTEST ACTIVITY AT THE CONVENTION, CURRENT TO NOON TODAY.

VIETNAM VETERANS AGAINST THE WAR (VVAW); STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY (SDS).

THE VVAW AND SDS HELD A MEETING EARLY THIS AM AT WHICH TIME THREE TEAMS WERE SELECTED. THE FIRST TEAM WAS DESIGNATED TO CONTACT DELEGATES AT THEIR HOTELS IN AN ATTEMPT TO OBTAIN PASSES FOR ENTRY ON TO THE CONVENTION FLOOR; THE SECOND TEAM IS TO CONDUCT GUERRILLA THEATER AT THE CAMPSITE THIS DATE; THE THIRD TEAM REFERRED TO AS THE COMMAND POST IS MADE UP OF SEVEN HIGHLY PLACED AND TRUSTED VVAW MEMBERS. THEY REPORTEDLY HAVE INSPECTED THE FENCE SURROUNDING THE CONVENTION COMPLEX FOR POSSIBLE POINTS OF ENTRY DURING DEMONSTRATIONS. THE THIRD GROUP HELD AN EMERGENCY MEETING AT TEN A.M. THIS DATE WHICH

END PAGE TWO

MEETING WAS RESTRICTED TO COMMAND POST MEMBERS ONLY; IT IS BELIEVED "HEAVY ACTION" WAS BEING PLANNED AT THIS MEETING FOR THE SDS-SPONSORED MARCH AND DEMONSTRATION COMMENCING FOUR PM THIS DATE.

PLANS FOR THE FOUR PM MARCH AND DEMONSTRATION CALL FOR PARTICIPANTS TO CARRY WOODEN COFFINS AND ON ARRIVAL AT THE CONVENTION CENTER, TO BURN THEM. PLANS ALSO CALL FOR THE FORMING OF A HUMAN CHAIN AT THE MAIN ENTRANCES TO THE CONVENTION CENTER ALONG WASHINGTON AVENUE IN AN ATTEMPT TO PREVENT ENTRY BY DELEGATES. SDS MEMBERS INVOLVED DESIRE THIS ACTION TO BE PEACEFUL UNLESS PROVOKED. VVAW MEMBERS DESIRE MORE MILITANT ACTION.

VVAW IS UPSET OVER THE LACK OF ORGANIZATION AT LAST NIGHT'S MARCH AGAINST THE CONVENTION CENTER. VVAW AND SDS HAVE NOTIFIED THE LEADERS OF THE SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE (SCLC) AND NATIONAL WELFARE RIGHTS ORGANIZATION(NWRO) WHO SPONSORED THE MARCH, THAT THEY WERE DISSATISFIED WITH ATTEMPTS TO ENTER THE CENTER THROUGH THE FENCE.

COME TO MIAMI

The Democrats are working hard to keep their convention calm and trouble free. A whole range of diversions aimed at taking their eyes off the demonstrations outside are being planned by the convention organizers. Already on the agenda: a black fashipn show, a delegates wives' tea, a "Nationalities Fair", and a Country and Western Concert.

And provided the passification program goes according to schedule, the climax will be a unity breakfast the morning after...

But outside the convention, groups ranging from Southern Christian Leadership Conference, National Welfare Rights Organization, United Farm Workers Organizing Committee, Gay Liberation, Women's Liberation to the Youth International Party will be in the streets. Thousands of demonstrators are expected, July 6th through 12th. Here in Chicago, the people likely to have the most up to date information on the Miami actions are the Chicago Peace Council 922-6578. In Miami, a Miami Conventions coalition has been formed and their phone number is 305-444-0962. (address 1718 Alton Road, Miami Beach.)

The Miami City Council is (shades of Chicago) holding back on the last minute as to the question of whether demonstrators will be given specific areas to camp and demonstrate. Miami is not exactly the least uptight city in the country. Women are picked up by police if found walking by themselves at night and will probably have to spend the night in jail if they don't have ID. Although it is not a law anymore, it might interest you to know that about ten years ago blacks were not allowed in Miami Beach after dark unless they had a special permit.

Gay people won an early victory in legally overturning a Miami law prohibiting men from wearing women's clothing. "Bring out the gowns!" was the cry. A National Coalition of Gay Organizations has been formed to organize for the convention. Their phone number in Miami is 373-0711 or 373-3697.

Women from different organizations that are centering abound the convention demonstrations have formed a group called the Miami Women's Coaliton. They don't have a specific center as of now (although there are plans for one) but you can contact them through the Miami Conventions Coaliton. 444-0962. They plan to make sure that an independent women's presence is felt at the conventions.

Organizing gay participation from Chicago in the convention demonstrations is J.T. Shiro-346-6540.

Other Miami phone number it might be good to have include SCLC 757-6377, United Farm Workers 633-7071, Vietnam Vets Against the War 247-2148 and the SWITCHBOARD 633-7507--the place where the most information will probably be concentrated---and they will be open 24 hours a day during the convention.

Demonstrators going to Miami face the possible prospect of confronting some of the thousands of Cuban refugees who infest the area.

Police plan to use Miami Stadium, located in the black, NW section of Miami, as a giant jail, similar to those used during Mayday and will probably turn to the Orange Bowl football stadium is more room is needed. In 1968, four black people demonstrating against the convention were shot to death in the streets of Miami--only you didn't see that on televison like you saw white kids being beaten courtesy of HIZZONER DA MAYOR here in Chicago.

The first day of the Democratic Convention, National Welfare Rights Organization and SCLC have called for a Poor People's March.

Demonstrations are not all that's happening there. For part of the Democratic convention and beginning about a week or ten days before the Republican convention there will be a humanized People's World's Fair, called Expose '72. This will be a expostion about the victims of imperialism--their lives and their struggles, the institutions and ideas which perpetuate this system and some visionary but practical alternatives. There will be exhibits, slides films, crankies, etc. By Black, Chicano, Native American, Asian, poor, gay people, women, youth and working people in this country as well as international exhibits about China , Cuba, Vietnam, Palestine, Africa and Latin America.

During the Republican convention, August 21-24) there will be massive nonviolent civil disobedience on the third day when Richard Nixon is renominated.

The Miami Conventions Coalition is attempting to do much of the groundwork--setting up a media center, arranging for camping, daycare, health, sanitary facilities, developing in more detail plans for the demonstrations. If you can help with any of this, give them a call. Money is also urgently needed to pay expected enormous expenses.

It is expected at this point that many more people will be going to the Republican convention rather than the Democratic one. (Nixon's the one dropping the napalm now--the Democrats haven't been in charge of that department for 3 years and couldn't possibly get their opportunity to burn and loot before January.)

So here in Chicago, people are getting together Friday, Saturday and Sunday, July 28, 29 & 30th for a training weekend in nonviolent direct action that can be used in Miami during the Republican Convention. People going to Miami are urged to attend. (A similar weekend will occur August 11, 12 & 13). There will be guerrilla theatre, role plays, situation analysis and a discussion of the problems we will be facing during the convention actions. Cost is $5 to cover food and training. AT: Lake Forest Friends Meeting House, Old Elm Road, west of Hwy. 41--call the Nonviolent Training and Action Center 922-8234 if you plan to participate or want more information.

WATCH FOR THE NEXT SEED--OUT AUGUST 4th with a report of what happened at the Democratic Convention and latest up-to-the-minute plans and information about Tricky Dick's upcoming festivities.

ON TO MIAMI!

DISSIDENT POSITION AND ACTIVITIES
DIRECTED TO NATIONAL POLITICAL CONVENTIONS DURING SUMMER, 1972,
AT MIAMI, FLORIDA, AS SET FORTH
IN EARLY JULY, 1972, ISSUE OF THE
"CHICAGO SEED". UNDERGROUND NEWSPAPER.
PUBLISHED CHICAGO, ILLINOIS

The Chicago Peace Council (CPC), mentioned in the article, is publicly described as an organization specializing in the formation of coalitions of Chicago area protest groups for demonstration and opposition activity against the war in Vietnam.

In regard to the "J. T. Shiro , 346-6540", identified in the article as "organizing Gay participation from Chicago at the conventions", it was determined by a Special Agent (SA) of the FBI that this is the number listing for the phone number of the Greyhound Bus Terminal in Chicago, Illinois, and that J. T. Shiro is identical with J. T. Schiro, Terminal Manager of the Chicago Greyhound Bus Terminal. On July 7, 1972, Mr. Schiro was interviewed, at which time he expressed great alarm at being identified with the Gay movement in Chicago or any place else and assured he was not aware of any aspect of Gay liberation, the Gay movement, or Gay activity. Mr. Schiro noted his name, misspelled as J. T. Shiro, had been listed in a pamphlet distributed by Gay activists, with about a dozen other Greyhound Bus Terminal managers throughout the country, as people who could arrange for bus transportation for an alleged Gay Bus Caravan, July 8 - 10, 1972, across the country to the National Democratic Political Convention in Miami Beach, Florida. Mr. Schiro advised he was not aware of any such caravan or how he became involved in the Gay movement plans. Mr. Schiro concluded the publishers of the "Chicago Seed" must have received a copy of the Gay pamphlet about the caravan with his misspelled name listed and in turn assumed he was responsible for organization of Gay participation from Chicago at the convention.

The Non-Violent Training and Action Center (NVTAC), mentioned in the "Chicago Seed" article, was identified by the first source as an organization associated with the Quaker religion, which opposes killing of human beings under any circumstances and advocates absolute pacifism relative to war. The NVTAC was characterized by the source as seeking radical change in the United States-Latin American policies, advocating that the United States support movements for social change and justice and end support of military dictatorships in Latin America.

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY (SDS)

THE DEMONSTRATION AT THE DORAL BEACH HOTEL CONTINUES. AT PRESENT ABOUT SEVEN HUNDRED DEMONSTRATORS ARE GATHERED IN THE LOBBY, MOST OF WHOM ARE MEMBERS OF THE SDS AND YIP. AT APPROXIMATELY EIGHT TWENTY PM, SENATOR MC GOVERN CAME DOWN FROM HIS HOTEL SUITE TO ADDRESS THE CROWD. HE WAS FINALLY ABLE TO ESTABLISH A DIALOGUE WITH THEM AFTER ABOUT FIFTEEN MINUTES OF SHOUTING BY THE DEMONSTRATORS. HE REASSURED THE CROWD THAT HE HAD NOT CHANGED HIS PLATFORM BUT MOST OF HIS COMMENTS WERE GREETED WITH SHOUTS AND JEERS. THIS DEMONSTRATION CONTINUES AT THIS TIME.

THE SDS, ALSO KNOWN AS THE WORKER-STUDENT ALLIANCE, IS A REVOLUTIONARY STUDENT ORGANIZATION.

MIAMI CONVENTIONS COALITION (MCC)

AS OF EIGHT FORTYFIVE PM, REPRESENTATIVES OF ALL OF THE GROUPS CAMPING IN FLAMINGO PARK HAD ARRIVED AT THE DEMONSTRATION AREAS IN FRONT OF THE CONVENTION HALL. THESE INCLUDE MEMBERS OF MCC, PEOPLES COALITION FOR PEACE AND JUSTICE (PCPJ), YIP, ZIPPIES, MIAMI WOMEN'S COALITION, VIETNAM VETERANS AGAINST THE WAR (VVAW),

THE MCC AND PCPJ ARE ENGAGED IN BUILDING A SIMULATED DAM AND DIKE NEAR GATE NO. TWO AT THE NORTH DEMONSTRATION AREA. BAGS OF SAND WERE CARRIED TO THIS AREA BY THE DEMONSTRATORS AND A TRUCK LOAD OF SAND WAS DUMPED IN THE AREA AT ABOUT EIGHT PM.

AT ABOUT EIGHT FORTYFIVE PM, A GROUP OF ABOUT TWENTY-FIVE VVAW MEMBERS CEREMONIOUSLY MARCHED THROUGH THE ENTRANCE GATE HOLDING THEIR HANDS ON THEIR HEADS AS IF THEY WERE PRISONERS OF WAR. THEY WERE ADMITTED TO THE CONVENTION HALL WITH PASSES WHICH HAD PREVIOUSLY BEEN FURNISHED TO THEM BY THE DEMOCRATIC RULES COMMITTEE. ONCE INSIDE THE FENCE, THE GROUPS GATHERED AND GAVE A CLINCHED FIST SALUTE TO THE DEMONSTRATORS BEFORE ENTERING THE HALL.

YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY (YIP)

THE ZIPPIES, A DISSIDENT FACTION OF YIP, CONDUCTED AN "LBJ DAY MARCH" OR "HEAVY HEART PARADE" FROM FLAMINGO PARK TO THE CONVENTION HALL, ABOUT TWO THIRTY PM. APPROXIMATELY ONE HUNDRED FIFTY TO TWO HUNDRED DEMONSTRATORS MARCHED TO THE NORTH DEMONSTRATION AREA OF THE CONVENTION HALL WHERE THEY THREW A LARGE PHOTOGRAPH OF FORMER PRESIDENT LYNDON B. JOHNSON OVER THE FENCE INTO THE CONVENTION COMPOUND. INDICATIONS ARE THE PHOTOGRAPH IS IDENTICAL TO THE ONE WHICH WAS STOLEN FROM THE CONVENTION HALL EARLIER THIS MONTH.

THE DEMONSTRATORS THEN MARCHED TO THE VICTOR HOTEL WHICH HOUSES THE HEADQUARTERS OF THE YOUNG DEMOCRATS/ THEY ENTERED THE BASEMENT AUDITORIUM WHERE THEY SEIZED THE MICROPHONE AND MADE DEMANDS TO MEET WITH SENATOR GEORGE MC GOVERN. THEY CONTACTED MC GOVERN HEADQUARTERS AND REQUESTED HIM TO COME TO THE VICTOR HOTEL BECAUSE OF REPORTS HE HAD MADE SOME AGREEMENT WITH ANOTHER CANDIDATE, SENATOR HENRY JACKSON AND BECAUSE THEY FEARED HE MAY HAVE YIELDED TO A "RIGHT WING" FACTION OF THE PARTY ON CERTAIN VITAL ISSUES.

THIS DEMONSTRATION WAS PEACEFUL AND NO ARRESTS WERE MADE.

END PAGE TWO

YIP MEMBERS ARE PLANNING TO DIG A LARGE HOLE IN THE GRASSY AREA OF THE DEMONSTRATION SITE IN FRONT OF CONVENTION HALL TO SYMBOLIZE A BOMB CRATER IN VIETNAM.

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY (SDS)

THE DEMONSTRATION OF SDS AT THE DORAL BEACH HOTEL CONTINUES WITH SEVERAL PROTEST GROUPS PARTICIPATING. AS OF THREE PM, THE FLORIDA HIGHWAY PATROL HAD MARSHALLED ABOUT FIVE HUNDRED DEMONSTRATORS INTO THE HOSPITALITY ROOM OFSTHE HOTEL. A SERIES OF SPEECHES WAS MADE AND THE DEMONSTRATORS VOICED CONCERN OVER THE POSSIBILITY THAT SENATOR MC GOVERN MAY HAVE CHANGED HIS STAND ON SOME ISSUES SUCH AS THE VIETNAM WAR AND TAX REFORM. SDS MEMBERS ALSO DEMANDED HE SIGN THE SDS "ANTI-RACISM BILL."

DUE TO LACK OF ROOM INSIDE THE HOTEL, ABOUT ONE HUNDRED DEMONSTRATORS REMAINED IN FRONT OF THE HOTEL. MANY OF THEM DISPLAYED VIET CONG FLAGS.

END PAGE THREE

SOME DEMONSTRATORS INDICATED THEY WOULD REMAIN UNTIL TEN PM OR UNTIL SENATOR MC GOVERN APPEARED TO SPEAK WITH THEM; HOWEVER, AT ABOUT FIVE PM, GROUPS BEGAN LEAVING TO GO TO OTHER PLANNED ACTIVITIES.

LOCAL POLICE HAVE REPORTED THAT DEMONSTRATION LEADERS STATED AT ABOUT FIVE FORTYFIVE PM, THAT THEY WOULD NOT BE RESPONSIBLE FOR ANY ACTS OF VIOLENCE IF SENATOR MC GOVERN DID NOT APPEAR WITHIN THE NEXT FIFTEEN MINUTES. ADDITIONAL POLICE WERE DISPATCHED TO THE AREA.

AT ABOUT FOUR FORTYFIVE PM, A GROUP OF SDS MEMBERS PROCEEDED FROM THE DORAL BEACH HOTEL TO THE CARILLON HOTEL, WHERE A DEMONSTRATION WAS ORGANIZED AGAINST THE DRIVER OF A CAR WHICH STRUCK A BLACK WOMAN SEVERAL DAYS AGO.

THE SDS PICKET OF THE MIAMI BEACH POLICE DEPARTMENT, SCHEDULED FOR FIVE PM, FAILED TO MATERIALIZE.

VIETNAM VETERANS AGAINST THE WAR (VVAW)

THE FIFTY VVAW MEMBERS WHO ATTENDED THE MEETING OF THE DEMOCRATIC RULES COMMITTEE AT THE FONTAINBLEAU HOTEL THIS AFTERNOON, REPORTEDLY LEFT THIS MEETING SATISFIED WITH THE RESULTS.

END PAGE FOUR

THEY HAVE BEEN FURNISHED TWENTYFIVE FLOOR PASSES FOR TONIGHT'S SESSION OF THE CONVENTION AND REPORTS HAVE BEEN RECEIVED THAT THEY MAY ATTEMPT TO CREATE A DISTURBANCE ON THE FLOOR DURING THIS SESSION IN AN EFFORT TO BRING THEIR CAUSE BEFORE THE CONVENTION. THEY ARE COMPLAINING ABOUT SUBPOENAS BEING SERVED ON THEIR MEMBERS BY THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT DURING THE TIME OF THE CONVENTION.

WORKERS ACTION MOVEMENT (WAM)

AT TWO PM, APPROXIMATELY TEN MEMBERS OF WAM CONDUCTED A PEACEFUL PICKET IN FRONT OF THE AMERICANA HOTEL, HEADQUARTERS OF AFL-CIO PRESIDENT GEORGE MEANY. THE DEMONSTRATORS WERE NOT PERMITTED TO ENTER THE HOTEL AND AFTER PICKETING FOR ABOUT AN HOUR THEY DEPARTED WITHOUT INCIDENT.

THE FOLLOWING IS A SUMMARY OF INTELLIGENCE INFORMATION RELATIVE TO PROTEST ACTIVITY AT THE CONVENTION, CURRENT TO 12:00AM TODAY.

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY (SDS)

THE DEMONSTRATION IN THE LOBBY OF THE DORAL BEACH HOTEL ENDED ABOUT NINE PM AFTER SENATOR MC GOVERN LEFT THE CROWD AND RETURNED TO HIS SUITE. DURING HIS DIALOGUE WITH THE DEMONSTRATORS, HE WAS ASKED TO SIGN THE SDS "ANTI-RACISM BILL" AND HE REFUSED TO DO SO, STATING THERE WERE SEVERAL POINTS IN THIS DOCUMENT WITH WHICH HE DID NOT AGREE. THE DEMONSTRATION ENDED PEASEFULLY AND NO VIOLENT INCIDENTS OCCURRED. THE MAJORITY OF THE DEMONSTRATORS DEPARTED THE AREA BUT ABOUT ONE HUNDRED REMAINED IN THE LOBBY OF THE HOTEL WATCHING TELEVISION. THERE IS NO INDICATION THEY PLAN ANY FURTHER DEMONSTRATIONS.

THE SDS, ALSO KNOWN AS THE WORKER-STUDENT ALLIANCE, IS A REVOLUTIONARY STUDENT ORGANIZATION.

THE NORTH DEMONSTRATION AREA. RATHER THAN PERMIT THE GROUP TO DIG IN THE GROUND WHERE THEY MAY STRIKE SOME TELEPHONE OR POWER CABLE, AUTHORITIES AUTHORIZED THE DELIVERY OF ANOTHER TRUCK LOADED WITH SAND, WHICH WAS UNLOADED ABOUT TEN FIFTEEN PM.

AN "OPEN MIKE" WAS SET UP IN THE NORTH DEMONSTRATION AREA AND VARIOUS PROTEST LEADERS AND UNIDENTIFIED DEMONSTRATORS HAVE SPOKEN. SPEECHES HAVE GENERALLY BEEN ANTI-WAR AND ANTI-NIXON ADMINISTRATION IN TONE. THE CROWD, WHICH INCLUDES MEMBERS OF OTHER PROTEST GROUPS, IS NOW ESTIMATED AT ABOUT FIVE TO SIX HUNDRED. SOME DEMONSTRATORS ARE CARRING SIGNS AND BANNERS WITH SUCH SLOGANS AS "SAY NO TO NIXON"; "STOP BOMBING THE DIKES," AND "SUPPORT THE POOR PEOPLES PLATFORM." THE DEMONSTRATION HAS BEEN PEACEFUL AND NO INCIDENTSSHAVE OCCURRED.

THE MCC WAS FORMED TO COORDINATE ACTIVITIES OF GROUPS DEMONSTRATING AT THE NINETEEN SEVENTYTWO POLITICAL CONVENTIONS.

THE PCPJ IS A COALITION OF OVER ONE HUNDRED ORGANIZATIONS WHICH USE MASSIVE CIVIL DISOBEDIENCE TO COMBAT RACISM, POVERTY, REPRESSION AND WAR.

END PAGE THREE

VIETNAM VETERANS AGAINST THE WAR (VVAW)

FORTY MEMBERS OF VVAW WERE ADMITTED TO THE CONVENTION HALL AND AFTER BEING SEARCHED BY SECRET SERVICE AGENTS, WERE SEATED IN THE GUEST SECTION IN THE REAR OF THE AUDITORIUM. ABOUT TEN FORTYFIVE P.M. THEY UNFURLED A LARGE BANNER READING "VVAW" BUT OTHERWISE THEY HAVE CREATED NO DISTURBANCE.

THE VVAW IS A MILITANT NATIONAL VETERANS ORGANIZATION OPPOSED TO U.S. INVOLVEMENT IN INDOCHINA.

MISCELLANEOUS

REPORTS HAVE BEEN RECEIVED THAT A NUMBER OF CARS HAVE BEEN LOADED WITH EQUIPMENT FROM FLAMINGO PARK AND MANY OF THE DEMONSTRATORS APPEAR TO BE LEAVING THE AREA.

THE FLORIDA NATIONAL GUARD REPORTED THAT ONE OF ITS HELICOPTERS RECEIVED TWO OR THREE ROUNDS OF SMALL ARMS FIRE WHILE FLYING OVER OPA LOCKA, A SUBURB OF MIAMI, AT ABOUT NINE P.M. NO INJURIES WERE SUSTAINED.

AT ABOUT TEN FIFTY P.M., THE MIAMI POLICE DEPARTMENT ADVISED THAT AN ANONYMOUS TELEPHONE CALL HAD BEEN RECEIVED AT THE SWITCHBOARD OF CHANNEL TEN TV TO THE EFFECT A BOMB WOULD GO OFF IN THE CONVENTION HALL AT TEN THIRTY AM ON JULY THIRTEEN NEXT.

AS OF ELEVEN FORTYFIVE P.M., THE SPEAKER'S PLATFORM IN THE NORTH DEMONSTRATION AREA WAS DISMANTLED AND MOST OF THE DEMONSTRATIONS APPEAR TO BE BREAKING UP. ONLY ABOUT SEVENTYFIVE TO ONE HUNDRED PERSONS REMAINDED IN THE AREA, INCLUDING A SMALL GROUP OF DEMONSTRATORS CONDUCTING A CANDLELIGHT VIGIL.

ABOVE INFORMATION HAS BEEN FURNISYED TO SECRET SERVICE AND THE CONVENTION INTELLIGENCE CENTER.

THE ZIPPIES DEMONSTRATION AT THE HEADQUARTERS OF THE YOUNG DEMOCRATS, VICTOR HOTEL, CONTINUED UNTIL APPROXIMATELY EIGHT FIFTEEN P.M., AT WHICH TIME THE GROUP LEFT TO DEMONSTRATE IN FRONT OF THE CONVENTION HALL. ALTHOUGH THERE WERE REPORTS OF DAMAGED FURNITURE AND DRAPES AS A RESULT OF THE ZIPPIES PRESENCE, THE POLICE WERE NOT CALLED.

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY (SDS)

THE DEMONSTRATION AT THE DORAL BEACH HOTEL CONTINUED, WITH ABOUT SEVEN HUNDRED DEMONSTRATORS GATHERED IN THE LOBBY, MOST OF THEM SDS AND YIP MEMBERS. AT APPROXIMATELY EIGHTY PM, SENATOR MC GOVERN CAME DOWN FROM HIS HOTEL SUITE TO ADDRESS THE CROWD. HE WAS FINALLY ABLE TO ESTABLISH A DIALOGUE WITH THEM AFTER ABOUT FIFTEEN MINUTES OF SHOUTING BY THE DEMONSTRATORS. HE REASSURED THE CROWD THAT HE HAD NOT CHANGED HIS PLATFORM, BUT MOST OF HIS COMMENTS WERE GREETED WITH SHOUTS AND JEERS.

The SBCU is a semi-civic organization, the goal of which is to bring attention to controversial issues in the Santa Barbara area. It is often sympathetic with the views of the counter-culture and has provided assistance to anti-war and other protest groups.

A third source advised that [redacted] is a member of the PC and has been active recently in anti-war protest activities in Santa Barbara.

The third source advised that [redacted] is a member of the PC and has been active in New Left groups [redacted] and has [redacted]

The third source advised that [redacted] is a [redacted] known contact of several Weatherman underground fugitives, and one of [redacted]

Weatherman, formerly a faction of Students For A Democratic Society, controlled the Students For A Democratic Society (SDS) National Office from June 1969 until its closing in February 1970. Weatherman then entered an underground status and adopted a tactic of "strategic sabotage," with police and military installations designated as primary targets.

SDS was founded during June 1972, at Port Huron, Michigan, and in the 1960s functioned as the leading New Left campus-based student organization in the United States. From an initial posture of "participatory democracy," SDS moved to a radical-revolutionary position, with debate centering on how best to create a revolutionary youth movement. Internal factionalism produced a split during the SDS National Convention in June 1969, which resulted in the following three Weatherman; Worker Student Alliance (WSA); and Revolutionary Youth Movement (RYM). The Weatherman and RYM are no longer affiliated with SDS. The WSA continues to use the name SDS and maintains its national headquarters in Chicago, Illinois.

WSA, a faction of SDS, was expelled from SDS in June 1969, by the then dominant Weatherman faction but continued to use the name SDS and opened an office in Boston, Massachusetts. WSA aligned ideologically with the Progressive Labor Party (PLP) and in February 1971, moved to Chicago, Illinois. SDS/WSA currently shares office space with the PLP in Chicago.

The PLP was founded in 1962 by individuals expelled from the Communist Party, USA, for following the Chinese communist line. Its objective is the establishment of a militant working-class movement based on Marxism-Leninism and MAO Tse-tung thought.

The RYM, a pro-communist revolutionary youth organization, was organized in 1969, first as a faction within the SDS, then as a separate group with headquarters in Atlanta, Georgia. RYM was unsuccessful in attracting support and by mid-1970 it was practically defunct.

THE PEOPLE'S CAUCUS

The December 3, 1970 issue of the UCSB campus newspaper, the "Daily Nexus", contained an article which stated that [redacted] recently [redacted] to [redacted]

A fourth confidential source provided the following information on [redacted]

b6

Registration for the PC conference was held at the [redacted] California, adjacent to the UCSB campus. [redacted]

Approximately [redacted] attended the [redacted] session of the conference, at [redacted] UCSB. The meeting was co-chaired by [redacted] (last name unknown), from Santa Barbara. [redacted] began by stating that the PC [redacted] San Diego Convention Coalition (SDCC) conference, held in Santa Barbara, [redacted] and thus the attendance at this conference was less than expected due to the failure in advertising it.

SDCC is a group comprised of representatives of various radical groups in San Diego, California It was formed for active opposition to the United States Government through "serious, determined, and long term social upheaval".

[redacted] stated that the purpose of this conference was [redacted] California during the Republican National Convention, in Miami. In addition, he hoped that [redacted]

[redacted] then called for each one present to introduce himself and state what group he was representing. During the introduction, the following groups were identified as being represented here: The PC, which accounted for about two thirds of those present; San Diego Railroad Committee,

THE PEOPLE'S CAUCUS

San Diego Indo-China Action Committee; Bay Area Anti-Imperialism Coalition; chapters of the Vietnam Veterans Against the War (VVAW) from Santa Barbara and San Diego; Los Angeles Indo-China Information Project; the Los Angeles November Committee; and the Los Angeles Peace Action Council (PAC).

The PAC is an umbrella organization which coordinates demonstrations and other forms of protests against American involvement in Southeast Asia.

The VVAW is an anti-war organization, which was organized in 1967, and is headquartered in New York City. Its published objective is "to demand an immediate cessation of fighting and the withdrawal of all American troops from Indochina."

The Indo-China Action Committee is a campus organization at the University of California at Los Angeles (UCLA), Los Angeles, California, which was formed to protest the war in Indo-China and to counteract the distorted picture of the war as presented by public media.

The San Diego Railroad Committee, also known as the Stop the San Diego Railroad Committee, was organized recently at San Diego State College to protest administrative action taken by the State College System to dismiss Professor Peter George Bohmer. Bohmer is publicly identified as a San Diego State Professor accused of harassing students whose political views were contrary to his own; and of having been previously arrested in Massachusetts in connection with a "sit-in" at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

THE PEOPLE'S CAUCUS

Following the above, the conference then decided to change the announced agenda and called for local reports and presentations and discussions of plans for state wide actions, for Friday night and points of unity on Saturday. The various groups then gave their local reports which consisted of very limited comments of what each group was currently doing as well as their plans. The best organized group present was the Indo-China Action Committee from San Diego, whose speakers were [redacted] b6 b7C b7D the latter identifying herself as with the Indo-China Action Committee. They proposed a state wide action for August 6, 1972, in San Clemente, California, and stated that this plan would be discussed in detail in the Saturday morning session.

This was followed by some general discussion by all present about the feasibility of organizing a caravan to go to Miami from San Clemente, California, for the Republican convention. Several unidentified individuals indicated that they were interested in going to Miami. Among those showing an interest in traveling to Miami were several unidentified members of the November Committee. One of the representatives from this group stated that they hoped to travel to Miami themselves, and offered their assistance in organizing along these lines if others were interested.

This movie was filmed at the 'Mother's Day Assembly of Another Mother for Peace' held May 9, 1970 in San Francisco, California. During this speech Mrs. GRANT exploded the Pentagon Myth of our 'National Security' revealing numerous companies involved in the war effort in Southeast Asia. She called these companies 'war profiteers.' Mrs. GRANT named the largest companies manufacturing household goods. These companies being Westinghouse, Zenith, and many more large manufacturers.

"After the movie, there was another guest speaker, Professor [redacted] Professor [redacted] was described as a white male, employed by [redacted] Professor [redacted] was introduced as being an experienced Selective Service and Military Counselor working in the Broward People for Peace movement as draft counselor. When Professor [redacted] addressed the audience he made it clear that his draft classification was that of a conscientious objector. Professor [redacted] made a short speech in reference to the counseling service offered by the organization. After this, a question and answer period was held, at which time Professor [redacted] answered questions in reference to draft laws.

"The Broward People for Peace also received a letter of thanks from Senator LAWTON CHILES for their backing in his bid for Senate."

On July 6 and 7, 1972, Lieutenant [redacted] Intelligence Unit, Hollywood Police Department, Hollywood, Florida, advised no information has come to his attention concerning the activities, objectives, or plans of captioned organization. TO : SAC, MIAMI (80-1353) DATE: 7/14/72

FROM : SAC, ATLANTA (100-9127) (P)

SUBJECT: MIDEM

Re Savannah airtel to Atlanta, with copy to Miami, 6/16/72.

Referenced airtel indicated that a [redacted] Officer, Ft. Gordon, Ga., furnished information to the Savannah Office, which he received from [redacted] Ft. Valley, Ga; reportedly [redacted] age [redacted] and [redacted] girl friend, [redacted] had disappeared from their homes and [redacted] reportedly was of the belief that they might have been influenced by several teachers from the Ft. Valley, Ga., school system [redacted] thought his son and his girl friend might be with these teachers. Also, that because of their background, these teachers might be in Miami to engage in some protest activity during the Democratic National Convention (DNC) in Miami, in July, 1972.

Atlanta was requested to contact [redacted] at Ft. Valley, Ga., and obtain any pertinent data regarding these teachers, and the possibility of their being in Miami for some protest activity.

[redacted] Ft. Valley, Ga., was contacted by SA [redacted] on 6/23/72, and he advised that his son [redacted] and [redacted] girl friend [redacted] are now home. His son was responsible for the girl becoming pregnant and the two ran off to get married. The two were not influenced by any former teachers or any group of persons in Ft. Valley to run away. He continued as follows:

When his son disappeared he became quite concerned and talked to a lot of people in Ft. Valley. He discovered his son's car had been left near the bus station in Macon. He then received a post card from his son postmarked Jacksonville. He learned that [redacted] and [redacted] who had taught in Ft. Valley and [redacted] had returned to Ft. Valley the same weekend his son disappeared. They had been seen in the company of a black teacher, [redacted] grade school coach and teacher. He learned the girls had told someone they were going to Florida and further that when he tried to call [redacted] he was told [redacted] had gone to Florida and would not return until about August 1, 1972. He was advised that these teachers were trouble-makers and had caused some of the students to disobey teachers and their parents. [redacted] of the [redacted] gave him some of this information. From this he assumed those teachers might be involved or the cause of his son running off. b6 b7C

He did not make the statement that any of these teachers were in Miami to engage in some dissident or protest activity during the Democratic Convention in July. He has no reason to believe any of them belong to extremist groups.

He no longer has any of the phone numbers called or addresses pertaining to the teachers he mentioned. He did call [redacted] in Columbia, S. C., and was told by a parent of [redacted] that it was none of his business as to where she was.

J. R. MULLIS, Sheriff, Peach County Sheriff's Office, advised that he has no reason to believe the above named teachers would be involved in protest activity during the Democratic Convention in July. He explained that the above named female teachers are white and the male teacher - coach is black. He stated that after a parade held in Ft. Valley during the past school year, the above named female teachers had a small party for some of the student workers, both black and white, and this caused a furor in the community. Sometime after this, the female teachers were dismissed for insubordination. He stated the teachers were very liberal but there was no indication they were members of any group or organization, extremist or otherwise.

School, on advised that he does not like any of the above teachers, however, he cannot say or furnish any information to indicate that they could be members of any extremist group, nor did he say they might be going to Miami to engage in protest activity during the Democratic Convention. Four Days That Didn't Change Beach

Comparing the Conventions

Chicago, 1968	Miami Beach, 1972
680 arrests 1,381 protesters, policemen and bystanders injured	2 arrests 2 policemen injured

By FRED BARGER
Herald Staff Writer

In retrospect, the Democrats' four-day soiree inside the hibiscus fence at Miami Beach Convention center may be remembered almost as much for what didn't happen as for what did.

For all the dire forecasts of confrontations between police and young protesters, there was but one demonstration-related arrest, and it was on a misdemeanor charge.

There were 680 arrests in Chicago during the 1968 Democratic National Convention.

THERE WAS no violence. Two policemen were injured Monday night when protesters ripped down a 75-foot section of fence. Neither was seriously hurt, the fence was repaired, and Beach Police Chief Rocky Pomerance remarked, "I think they were as surprised as our men when that fence came down."

There were 1,381 protesters, policemen and bystanders injured in Chicago during the 1968 rioting.

The most obvious question, in light of the success of the elaborate training and security plans for the Democrats this summer, is whether the Republican Convention in August will be as peaceful.

"I think," said Pomerance, "that the climate and the tone set this time will be a sort of a pattern for the next convention. And I still maintain that violence as a political tool is counter-productive.

"WE'VE SAID it all along, and I still feel that way. And I think that even the protest groups agree with that for the most part."

About the only similarity with Chicago is that, during both conventions, what was going on inside the convention arenas was not unrelated to what was going on outside.

One has only to look at the past week:

● There were two very tense confrontations that might have erupted into violence, but didn't. In one, when the fence came down, Florida Highway patrolmen quickly formed a human fence, and the lone arrest came when a single protester got inside. The rest of the 500 onlookers soon left the area.

In the other close call, patrolmen surged into the lobby of the Doral Hotel and started to clear it, without violence, of demonstrators led by the resurgent Students for a Democratic Society, upset over a statement on the war by Sen. George McGovern. McGovern's staff asked the officers to leave, and the crowd returned and got a dramatic visit from the candidate himself. They, too, left without causing any trouble.

● The week ended with protesters praising policemen — the "pig" rhetoric of earlier protests gone — and policemen praising the protesters. And officials were complimenting both.

● Communications were open. Demonstrators discussed their planned marches with police, got police escorts when they wanted them and assistance with traffic control, and they stayed closely to their schedules, in spite of a court-overturned parade permit law.

● Each side — the police and the counter-culture — marshaled its own ranks. Demonstrating groups had their own marshals, and the marshals moved into trouble spots and calmed them, such as when young, white radicals almost — but not quite — got involved with demonstrating Cubans a few yards away.

And officers were with their own commanders, who kept them informed of what was happening. An example was Thursday night, when police suspected there were cherry bombs and firecrackers among the demonstrators. Commanders moved along the ranks, telling their men not to panic if they heard small booms.

● Neither side overreacted. "At the gate Monday night, when that fence came down, we were worried that they (the protesters) might start taking their frustration at not being able to get in the hall out on motorists and stores," said a high-ranking Metro officer. "They didn't."

And the police reacted with restraint. On Monday night, during the exploratory attempts to test the security and to breach the fence, several more daring protesters managed to climb over it.

The police, unperturbed and even somewhat amused by the little game, helped the intruders gingerly back over the eight-foot fence. "We just threw them back like fish that are too small," one said later, smiling.

● The convention itself — the focal point of the demonstrations — did not shut protest out. Within the same hour that Sen. George McGovern was confronting the crowd at the Doral, a contingent of 40 Vietnam Veterans Against the War was entering the Convention Center — without incident — on passes they said they received from the McGovern forces.

Actually, things went so well during the week that the Beach had a decrease in reported crimes from 41 arrests during the same period last year to 31 from Sunday through Thursday. Major crimes were down from 59 to 49, and drunk charges decreased from 16 to seven.

A second arrest at the convention center during the week was not directly connected with the demonstrations, but occurred when a gay activist tried to kiss a police officer.

Sgt. Peter Corso, the Beach police public information officer, said the decrease in crime and arrests was not unexpected. "Who's going to make any scores or try to pull anything with so much police presence around?"

"The police were just beautiful," said Fred Wanerstrand, a member of the Peoples Coalition for Peace and Justice. "There would have been a blood bath, our blood, if they wanted to do anything."

AND OFFICERS praised many of the groups' leaders and their marshals. But another irony of the protests was that not only did the crowds not come, but few of the groups' leaders were visible in the streets.

Yippies Jerry Rubin and Abbie Hoffman were inside the convention with press credentials, Hoffman for Popular Mechanics and Rubin for Mad Magazine, and both of them were gathering material for a book.

Rennie Davis of the People's Coalition for Peace and Justice was behind the scenes — planning primarily for the Republicans.

Even the blacks, who had been expected almost from the outset to be a major force, arrived in fewer numbers than had been forecast by the Rev. Dr. Ralph David Abernathy of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference.

Flamingo Park turned out to be 88 tents and 150 people — about the size encampment one would expect from two Scout troops.

MEANWHILE, the 3,000 Guardsmen and 2,500 Army troops and Marines were languishing in makeshift encampments of their own — far outnumbering the non-delegates.

For the Guardsmen at six high schools and the federal troops at Homestead Air Force Base, the only battles were against boredom. And they are all due back during the week of the second convention.

For Pomerance and other police officials, the game plan worked well with a few exceptions. Each morning, Goode, Pomerance, Dade Public Safety Director E. Wilson Purdy and Miami Police Chief Bernard Garmire met in the Auditorium command post with William Reed, director of the Florida Department of Law Enforcement, and top officers from their departments.

They reviewed intelligence, the events of the previous day and plans for the coming demonstrations.

Among the others present was Ted Zanders, assistant chief of the Washington Metropolitan Police Department and a key adviser for the conventions.

Although all the brass was visible during the sessions and the demonstrations, they left the execution of the game plan largely to a few trusted assistants.

THESE INCLUDED Col. Larry Cotzin of the Beach, Chief Walter Lougheed of Metro and Assistant Chief Paul Denham of Miami.

Basically, the game plan they followed — and which they probably will follow next month — is that a low profile extends to the Convention Center fence, beyond which "minimum necessary force" is to be used to keep those out without proper credentials.

Outside the fence, the police were willing to give a little, to the point of playing it a little loose with cracking down on violations that they considered subordinate to the possibility of provoking a violent confrontation. But inside, there was the presence of concentrated manpower — a visible sign of where the profile got taller.

The key to the success of the game plan was that the uniformed policemen had to hold up under stress and fatigue. Part of the strain for Metro and Miami officers was sitting on a bus, getting off the bus and standing at the fence, then piling back on it.

To relieve the tedium, they hung signs on the MTA buses they had chartered: "The Old On the Bus, Off the Bus Gang," "General Patton," "F Troop," "Platoon 221," and "The Over the Hill Gang."

One squad of Metro motorcycle officers, on boring 12-hour shifts during which they sat in the Public Safety Building and waited for any trouble, was rescued by their brass, which got some films of highlights of the Miami Dolphins' 1971 Super Bowl season.

OTHERS TRIED to make the best of standing for hours by practicing fake golf swings with their yard-long nightsticks and accepting orange juice from a golf-cart that moved up and down their ranks.

Another vital part of the convention's success, most officials agree, was the Beach Council's late decision to grant the use of Flamingo Park for a campsite for demonstrators the Democratic convention.

A poll of the councilmen indicated that they are just as divided as they were when they voted 4-2 for the campsite.

As with the Democratic convention, no one is predicting yet how many demonstrators are likely to come next month. "We can't tell how many demonstrators will be here for that or what their plans are until they start chartering buses and we find out what they are up to," said Bill Reed.

"BUT AS OF now we don't have any reason to believe it will be different from this convention."

The only serious criticism directed at Pomerance and his colleagues came from some councilmen and others upset over reports of marijuana smoking and nude swimming at Flamingo Park.

Said Pomerance of such criticism:

"AMERICAN HISTORY will record that this was an extremely well-policed convention, and it will not go down in history that some young man skinny-dipped at two in the morning in a second-deck swimming pool. You have to really want to be offended to get up there.

"Throughout the whole event, we established priorities, and the highest priority was the public safety of the delegates, the citizens and the protesters. I would say that skinny-dipping was the lowest priority.

"From the very beginning, we took a very calm and rational approach while some of the public was screaming almost in paranoia about what was going to happen to the city," said Pomerance.

Pomerance is confident about the outlook for next month. "There are some crazies mixed in," he said, "but those are the same ones who would start a riot at a circus or a rock concert or the scene of an accident. Political philosophies have absolutely no bearing on it."

Police Kept Low Profile During Week

How peace was kept...

By BILL GJEBRE
Miami News Reporter

It was a safe and secure Democratic National Convention.

And it didn't just happen; it was planned that way. The factors leading to a peaceful convention included:

- Cooperation between police and leaders of non-delegate groups.
- Police intelligence reports combined with communication equipment, keeping police headquarters informed on crowd location for deployment of men where needed.
- A general support of presidential nominee George McGovern by non-delegate factions.
- The decision of major protest groups that they would use the Democratic convention as a "dry run" for the Republican convention next month, when they plan their greatest mobilizations and more militant protests.
- Apparent police intentions of not enforcing some violations committed by the non-delegates.

From the beginning, it was not expected that the demonstrators would cause any serious disruptions during the Democratic convention this past week.

Nevertheless, said Nicholas Valeriani, director of community relations for the Miami Beach Police Department, close contact was maintained with protest leaders.

The best example of that cooperation was shown Tuesday evening. Non-delegate leaders and Cuban leaders agreed to a plan calling for Cubans to leave the convention site protest area just as anti-war demonstrators were arriving.

This warded off a possible street clash between opponents and supporters of the Vietnam War.

And when leaders were present and in charge of demonstrations, things generally remained under control just outside Convention Hall.

An example was Wednesday night, when forceful leaders maintained good control over about 1,500 protesters during the longest rally of the week.

It lasted 4½ hours and included significant speeches by non-delegate bigwigs such as Rennie Davis and David Dellinger, two of the Chicago 7 defendants.

The major test of the overall security system came Monday, although the Doral Hotel sit-in Wednesday night culminating in confrontation with McGovern, was the most dramatic event on the unofficial convention calendar.

The Monday night incident came at the end of a rally when the regular leaders left and members of Students for a Democratic Society and unaffiliated protesters moved into the vacuum and galvanized the crowd into action.

In the ensuing fray a handful of demonstrators in the crowd of about 1,000 managed to pull down a section of the chain-link fence ringing the convention complex. None actually exploited the opening, and helmeted and riot-equipped emergency police units quickly moved in to seal the breach.

About a dozen demonstrators were sprayed with the chemical Mace, four policemen suffered minor injuries and only one arrest was made. Both sides displayed the kind of restraint which has characterized convention week.

Contrary to earlier fears, the non-delegates created few serious problems — or none publicly noted by police authorities — within their temporary encampment at Flamingo Park.

There was skinnydipping in the evenings and the air was filled with the aroma of marijuana. But authorities apparently avoided enforcement to prevent a clash.

Asked about this, Beach Police Chief Rocky Pomerance hedged, saying his interest was "in preserving public safety."

The Flamingo park pool is on second-floor level, and a person could be offended by the nudity only if he were declined comment on the laxity of enforcement on marijuana smoking.

Pomerance said Monday's fence-ripping incident was minor. It hardly tested the effectiveness of the security force of 1,400 Miami Beach, Miami, Metro and state police officers, 3,000 National Guardsmen and 2,400 Marine and Army troops.

Perhaps the best indication of what happened — or didn't happen — is the confrontation box score.

Chicago, 1968 — 680 arrested, 1,381 injured.

Miami Beach, 1972 — one arrested, four injured.

Rocky's trust pays off

A sigh of relief shook Police Chief Rocky Pomerance's great bulk as he checked the camp and found all was well.

"Thank heaven we trusted the young people," he said. "It might have been a different story had there been a confrontation."

On the final night of the Democratic convention, Pomerance drove his car around the tent camp in Flamingo Park where many demonstrators already were packing their bedrolls to leave.

Against the sentiments of many of his fellow Miami Beach officials, Pomerance had urged that the camp be provided.

When it appeared just before the convention that a campsite would be denied and some protesters slept on the city golf course in defiance, Pomerance ordered that none be arrested.

Today, Pomerance said, "all along our department has worked for an effective and humane marshalling of the convention. It has paid off.

"The last thing we want to do is to create the image of a tough cop. The guys have done an admirable job of keeping their cool."

Pomerance's policy, implemented by 4,000 officers from many agencies in the convention security force, will be tested again — and apparently more severely — during the Republican convention in August.

Protest leaders called the demonstrations this week "a good dry run for August." Rennie Davis of the People's Coalition for Peace and Justice said only 1,100 protesters showed up for the Democrats.

"It was decided months ago that our greatest mobilization would be concentrated on the Republican convention," Davis said. He predicted that "tens of thousands" of young people would come to "display our anger and resistance to President Nixon."

The August demonstrations will be more militant, Davis said, but "we feel we can force our demands without being violent."

Protester kisses off convention

Two final demonstrations by the Zippies and Vietnam Veterans Against the War, involving a total of 400 marchers, went off peacefully last night — except for a bussing incident.

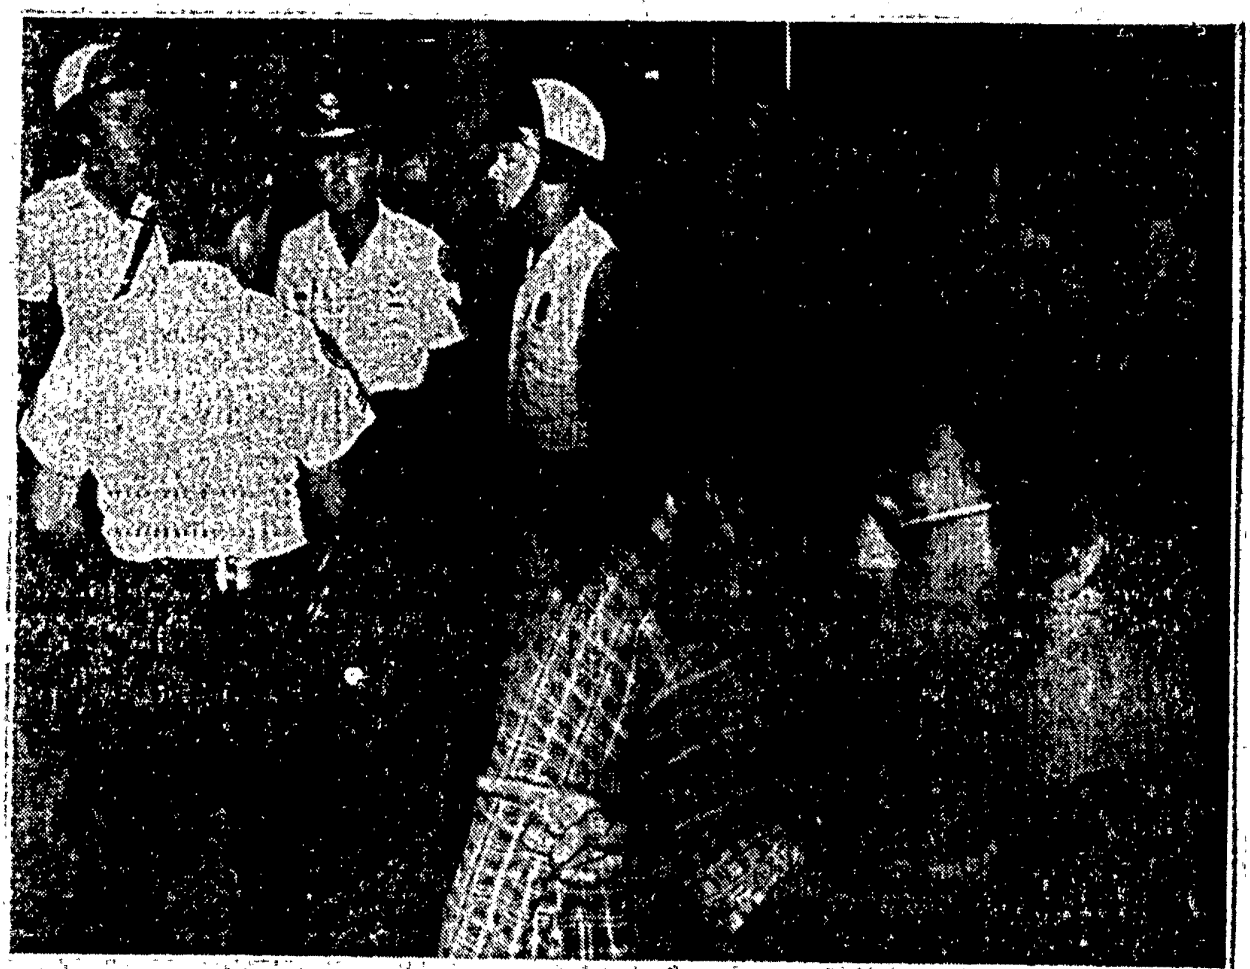
Shortly before 8 p.m., Miami patrolman Neal Nydam sought to check the credentials of a man trying to enter Gate 9X at the convention center.

"He grabbed me by my shoulders and attempted to kiss me," Nydam reported. He arrested the man, identified as Curtis S. Bryant, 28, on charges of assault and battery on a police officer.

Small roving groups tossed a few firecrackers over the east fence and a few small smoke bombs over the north fence.

Things had gotten so dull at the Miami Beach police information center that Sgt. Richard Tobin brought in a waffle iron. A public relations girl provided batter, which she mixed in the ladies room, and two Secret Service men brought knives and forks and syrup.

Hitchhiker, sign at ready, naps before leaving



Non-delegate and non-confrontation

Police ignore the whole thing as one demonstrator restrains another from going at the group of officers posted outside the Miami Beach Convention Center. The demonstrator, pointing finger, was blocked from creating an incident yesterday at the Meridian Avenue entrance to the complex, where the Democrats were meeting.

Overplanning Was Goode's Strategy

By FRED TASKER
Herald Staff Writer

The title "Master Overplanner" rests easily this weekend with County Manager Ray Goode, the man the governor named to oversee all local security measures during the Democratic National Convention.

Goode spent the week in a secret command, surrounded by generals and majors from local state and national security forces.

But the man whose responsibility it would have been to ask the governor to send in the National Guard in a crunch, instead spent his time ordering in such things as extra snacks for complaining policemen and extra sanitary supplies for the campers at Flamingo Park.

"WELL," GOODE said, "We said beforehand that we were probably overplanned, but we knew we would be more comfortable that way."

Goode said he will hold hours of critique sessions during the next couple of weeks with all security forces involved, but that he expects few major changes will be needed for the Republican National Convention in August.

"We're not expecting the tremendously larger (non-delegate) crowds, then that some people have been talking about," Goode said. "But we expect that in general there will be a more hostile mood among some of the individuals and groups, for both philosophical and political reasons."

No estimate of how much the Democratic Convention cost Dade County will be possible until mid-week, Goode said. This is partly because many of the supplies — salt pills, medical supplies, and blankets, for example — are on consignment from the U.S. Army or other sources, and need not be paid for unless used.

But Goode said the local area has applied for about $2.2 million in federal funds to help pay for such things as medical supplies and police overtime. If all this comes through, and Goode said federal officials are encouraging, it might be possible to keep the county's contribution close to the $100,000 authorize by Metro commissioners.

FEDERAL officials "have been very cooperative in trying to reduce to an absolute minimum the use of local tax money," he said.

Goode said the biggest change in security plans that had to be made during the Democratic Convention was the beefing up of uniformed police forces inside the Convention center fence after youthful demonstrators broke down a section of the fence Monday night.

More non-uniformed police were also added inside the fence so officials could watch for trouble approaching from all directions at once.

Goode said the Metro Command Post and the Metro Rumor Control Center closed down Friday and that county officials were not planning to "give it another thought until Monday."

During the evening of July 12, 1972, a demonstration was held on Washington Avenue, Miami Beach, Florida, in front of the Convention Center. [redacted] b6 b7C introduced the speakers during this demonstration and these speakers included RENNIE DAVIS. DAVIS stated that during the Republican Convention to be held in Miami Beach during August, 1972, there would be tens of thousands of persons demonstrating against President NIXON. He said that on the day on which NIXON is to be nominated, the street on which the delegates travel to the Convention Hall would be lined with demonstrators who would try to cause the delegates to feel shame for such situations as the war in Vietnam. Later on the same evening there would be a march to the Convention Center, during which demands would be made that the Seven Point Peace Proposal of the Provisional Revolutionary Government of South Vietnam be accepted and that a guaranteed annual income of $6500 for a family of four be provided to persons in the United States.

DAVIS said further that on the day President NIXON is to deliver his acceptance speech there would be a march to the Convention Center to show unacceptance of Mr. NIXON and the demonstrators would "drive NIXON into the sea."

DAVIS' remarks evoked loud applause from the crowd.

During the DNC, [redacted] members of the WTG were used in overt capacities. [redacted] because of their appearance, were used in semi-covert assignments.

All of these Agents were on the scene in appropriate dress during all demonstrations for the purpose of identifying Weatherman fugitives. All semi-covert Agents, including [redacted] above mentioned, were thoroughly briefed and knowledgeable concerning the identities and backgrounds of the Weathfugs and their support personnel.

Hundreds of excellent photographs were taken of the various demonstrators present in the convention area by our photographic lookout. These photographs were immediately processed, and each morning the photographs were minutely examined by the members of the WTG in an effort to make identifications. On several occasions, "look alikes" were detected by the WTG among demonstrators, either from the photographs or during their on-the-scene presence at the demonstrations; however, in each instance, these persons were eliminated as being identical with the Weathfugs or their support personnel.

No information was developed by the WTG or the semi-covert Agents indicating that leadership or demonstration activity was being conducted from any site other than the headquarters of the organizations involved, or that clandestine meetings of which we were not aware, were being held at any point separate from the known headquarters of the organizations involved.

As instructed in retel, close liaison was established with interested law enforcement agencies in this area, photographs and fingerprints of the Weathfugs being made available to all. An Agent, [redacted] was specifically assigned to the arrest center at the Dade County Jail [redacted] of all persons arrested during the course of the DNC. He had available to him the Identification Orders of all the Weathfugs in order that our interest could be immediately protected in the event an identification was made. b6 b7C

Although none of the Weathfugs or support personnel were known to be, or were detected in this area during the DNC, it is generally believed that these persons would more likely surface during the RNC.

It is believed that the WTG served its purpose during the DNC, and should be available again during the RNC.

The [redacted] Agents used in overt capacities returned to their offices of assignment.

The [redacted] semi-covert Agents of the WTG, SAs [redacted] of the Los Angeles Office, have not yet returned to Los Angeles. These [redacted] Agents, because of their appearance, blend excellently with the movement people who remain in Miami. It is recommended, therefore, that they stay here until the termination of the RNC.

[redacted] also known as [redacted] a female who is currently [redacted] who was in Miami with [redacted] activists, has permanently returned to [redacted] where she is now living at [redacted]

The above individuals, along with YIP activists from Wisconsin previously reported as being in Miami, plan to stay in that city for the rest of the Democratic National Convention (DNC) and all of the Republican National Convention (RNC). It is possible they may return to Wisconsin for unscheduled visits with friends; however, other than Ungemact, it is believed they will not permanently return to Wisconsin until the RNC is over. It is not known where the Wisconsin people will reside in Miami.

[redacted]

The above-three individuals are convicted defendants of the so-called Conspiracy Seven Trial held in Chicago in the period September 24, 1969 - February 18, 1970, having been earlier indicted for violation of the Federal Antiriot Statute, as a result of their actions surrounding the August, 1968, Democratic National Convention in Chicago. At the conclusion of that trial, each was also cited by the trial judge for contempt of court as a result of their actions in court during the trial.

They are currently on bond pending appeal of their substantive Antiriot Law convictions, and awaiting a re-trial on the contempt citations.

As one of the conditions of this bond, they were ordered by the Seventh Circuit U.S. Court of Appeals, Chicago, to advise the United States Marshal (USM), Chicago, of all travel outside their respective states of residence. In this regard, [redacted] maintain permanent residences in [redacted] while [redacted] resides in [redacted]

Set forth hereinafter is travel information regarding these three individuals for the most part in relation to the Democratic National Convention, July 10 - 14, 1972, in Miami Beach, Florida.

Radicals aim big guns at GOP parley

By Tony Fuller
Staff Writer

MIAMI BEACH — As the doors to the 1972 Democratic National Convention were swinging shut Friday, a mimeograph machine in an office a few blocks away was whirling off copies of a "scenario" on tactics.

The Miami Conventions Coalition is organizing a "gauntlet of shame" for delegates to the Republican National Convention, which opens Aug. 21.

The coalition, which includes some of the most seasoned and successful organizers from the ranks of radicals, promises to produce a protest army for the GOP convention far greater than that which came to the Democratic meeting.

THE COALITION completely ignored the Democratic convention, choosing to focus on the Republicans for these reasons:

- Its leaders believe President Nixon is a war criminal, whereas the Democrats came ready to nominate Sen. George S. McGovern, whose antiwar records they consider far superior.
- The Democratic convention this year was more open than any in history to youth, minorities and women, thus making it difficult to focus on as a symbol of protest.

The coalition is led by Rennie Davis and David Dellinger, both members of the "Chicago 7." The two were convicted for crossing state lines with the intention of inciting riots at the 1968 Democratic National Convention in Chicago.

"Richard Nixon and his policies must be confronted. We hope it will be a peaceful confrontation," Davis has said.

The demonstrations that occurred at this year's Democratic convention were poorly organized and for the most part leaderless.

The groups participating had no central office and they lived in Flamingo Park near the convention hall, sometimes scrapping among themselves.

THE COALITION, WHICH opened its office here July 3, appears to be a crack squad of protest by comparison.

It has issued a detailed schedule of events for convention week and Bob Lamb has been named press co-ordinator, a duty he performed for the "Chicago 7."

On nomination day, the coalition plans to have a "gauntlet of shame" down Collins Av., the main route to convention hall.

"It will be a street without joy. All the people will gather one after another, block by block. We will wear death masks and show them their crimes, from My Lai to Attica," Lamb said.

The coalition has a Poor Peoples Platform and a Seven Point Peace Platform, and they plan to send a delegation carrying the two proposals to Mr. Nixon's headquarters hotel and demand a meeting with the President.

Mr. Nixon's headquarters will be at the Doral Hotel, as were McGovern's.

Other planned events include a mass rally in front of the hall on the night of Mr. Nixon's acceptance speech and a memorial service for slain San Quentin prisoner George Jackson.

THE MOST IMMEDIATE problem to law enforcement officials is whether the Miami Beach City Council will again grant the use of Flamingo Park.

It was turned over to the militants at the Democratic convention only after Police Chief Rocky Pomerance pleaded with the council.

"We are confident that some reason will prevail. That after some success with the Democratic convention, Miami Beach will not seek another Lincoln Park," Lamb said.

Yippies Abbie Hoffman and Jerry Rubin, also "Chicago 7" members, say they will participate in the demonstrations. The two left the Democrats pretty much alone and Rubin supported McGovern, in his fashion.

"Hundreds of thousands will be here, all waiting for the boogey man (Nixon)," Hoffman said.

Dear Rocky:

We have reviewed our activity vis-a-vis the other agencies and the nondelegates during the Democratic Convention, and are making a number of changes which we hope will improve our service to you and your people.

In this connection, we have also received information from our informants and infiltrators which may be of interest to you in connection with the Republican Convention. I have enclosed on a separate sheet this information for whatever use you see fit.

I will send a copy of it to the other appropriate agencies who are assisting us in maintaining security.

Dear Ray:

As a result of several debriefing sessions with our sources of information, we have formulated certain changes in our operational set-up in anticipation of the Republican Convention. We feel that these changes will prove even more effective, and will increase our effectiveness in support of your efforts to maintain the peace.

In this connection, a number of suggestions and observations were made which more directly affect local law enforcement, and I have set them forth in the enclosed memo.

These are being furnished by separate cover to Miami Beach, Miami, and Dade County Public Safety Department for their use.

Before closing, I would like to compliment you and through you the efforts of the above-enumerated law enforcement agencies who did such an outstanding job during the Democratic convention. It is my sincere hope that we will have similar good fortune during the upcoming Republican convention.

RE: DEMONSTRATIONS AT THE
REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION
AUGUST, 1972

The Republican National Convention (RNC) is scheduled to be held at Miami Beach, Florida, August 21-24, 1972.

I. ORGANIZATIONS PLANNING PROTEST DEMONSTRATIONS

A. MIAMI CONVENTIONS COALITION (MCC)
PEOPLE'S COALITION FOR PEACE AND JUSTICE (PCPJ)

The MCC was formed at a national meeting in Washington, D. C. during May, 1972, as a coalition of groups planning protest activities at the Democratic National Convention (DNC) and RNC, including the Florida People's Coalition (FPC) and the San Diego Convention Coalition (SDCC).

The FPC is a state-wide organization established as a pressure group to demonstrate at the DNC, Miami Beach, Florida, July, 1972.

The PCPJ is self-described as a coalition of over 100 organizations which are using massive civil disobedience to combat racism, poverty, repression and war.

The SDCC was formed to organize demonstrations at the RNC at San Diego, California. This organization was dissolved when the site of the RNC was changed from San Diego to Miami Beach, Florida.

It has been previously reported the PCPJ would make an effort to merge with the MCC. It was not certain whether the MCC would remain autonomous.

The New Orleans branch of the MCC in a mailing during May, 1972, announced a series of actions would be held during the RNC to express anger and distrust with United States foreign policy, particularly in Indochina. The objective of these actions will be to show the RNC that the re-election of President NIXON or continuation of his policies will cause continual resistance and confrontation throughout the United States.

On the day he is nominated the street used by the delegates who travel to the convention hall will be lined with demonstrators who will try to cause the delegates to feel shame for situations such as war. This objective would be reached mainly through guerrilla theaters, photographs and movies.

A Southern Regional Conference of the MCC will be held at Tallahassee, Florida, July 21-23, 1972, to work together on a program for confronting the RNC. Massive civil disobedience at the convention center and surrounding area

July 14, 1972

It was previously reported in June, 1972, that the underground newspaper "University Review" published in New York City and Washington, D. C., would be the principal publication used by the MCC and the PCPJ for organizing on a national basis and that "University Review" would possibly publish a Miami edition under another name.

On July 9, 1972, a meeting was held at the MCC office on Alton Road to discuss a newspaper that MCC and PCPJ are planning to have printed. In addition to PCPJ leaders RENNIE DAVIS and DAVE DELLINGER, among those present was the editor of the "University Review". The newspaper was mostly completed and only last minute changes were to be considered. DAVIS said the newspaper would be out by July 12, 1972, and that 50,000 copies would be printed.

MM T-4
July 10, 1972

The above newspaper, named "Unconventional News", was distributed in Miami on or about July 12, 1972. It contains 12 pages devoted principally to propaganda favoring the North Vietnamese and opposing United States policies in Vietnam. Among its articles are the following:

"Messages From Vietnam", containing a propaganda message from Madame NGUYEN THI BINH, delegate of the Provisional Revolutionary Government (Viet Cong).

RE: DEMONSTRATIONS AT THE REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION

"Journey to the East", by DAVE DELLINGER, describing his trip with anti-war activists RENNIE DAVIS and TOM HAYDEN to Paris to meet with the North Vietnamese and totally devoted to propaganda in favor of North Vietnam.

"Street Without Joy", by anti-war activist DANIEL BERRIGAN, describing plans on August 22, 1972, to line a street leading to the Miami Beach Convention Hall with protesters in "death masks" and with other "admissible evidence against war criminals" to consist of artifacts of war, photographs of burning children, etc.

"Summer Soldiers", purportedly written by a member of Vietnam Veterans Against the War (VVAW), describing their forced service in the "male chauvinist American military" and in the "genocidal policies of the American Government", as well as the "effects of American imperialism".

"Survival", containing suggestions for making life more pleasant for non-delegates in Miami Beach.

"Expose '72", describing plans for an exhibition in Miami Beach from August 18, 1972, to August 23, 1972, of "life forces and their struggle against United States domination".

"Scenario", setting forth a proposed scenario of events during the RNC as follows:

August 18-23, 1972
"Expose '72", an exhibition described as a "People's World's Fair"

August 20-21, 1972
Welcoming activities and demonstration by Miami Women's Coalition

August 23, 1972
A representative delegation, including senior citizens and Vietnam veterans, to present the "people's demands" to President NIXON at the Doral Hotel, after which his reply will be presented to a mass rally at Flamingo Park. Thereafter, a march and demonstration to be continued at the convention hall.

At a press conference on July 18, 1972, the MCC presented a press release in which it was stated that "Despite an initial setback to our plans by the change of the convention site, a coalition of forces is pooling together that will have the power and imagination to make a significant impact on the election year process. Instead of many groups protesting as there were during the Democratic Convention we expect to see one coalition and one overall stragedy."

RE: DEMONSTRATIONS AT THE
REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION

It was stated a major effort in Miami Beach would be made to tell senior citizens about "our purpose and our program". Residents will be invited to a public hearing where they can hear from Vietnam veterans, women, welfare mothers, farm workers, and other constituent groups. Expose '72 will display exhibits from hundreds of communities and organizations in an attempt to answer questions of the community as to why non-delegates are coming to the convention. It is hoped millions of Americans will be educated to the long history, culture and spirit of the Vietnam people. As the convention opens thousands of citizens will assemble to hear JANE FONDA, who will have just returned from North Vietnam, as well as many Vietnamese students studying in the United States.

MCC representatives said the bombing of the dikes in North Vietnam would probably be the most immediate and compelling reason for thousands of people to come to Miami. "NIXON's convention is going to be turned into a platform for the American anti-war movement instead of NIXON's re-election."

It was reported the MCC will present the NIXON "regime" with some very simple demands, including the acceptance of the Vietnamese seven point peace plan, as well as the acceptance of the poor people's platform which provides a guaranteed annual income of $6,500.

It will be made known through non-violent confrontation that the Republican foreign and domestic policies are unacceptable. MCC representatives said the pledge of non-disruption made during the DNC will apply to all days of the RNC. They said, "We are making a complete commitment to non-violent tactics", but, "While we will be thoughtful and disciplined in our actions we are not going to allow the Republican Convention to ignore our vast presence or what we represent in this country."

RE: DEMONSTRATIONS AT THE
REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION

It was stated the anti-war movement was responsible for the nomination of Senator GEORGE MC GOVERN by the Democratic Party. All the issues presented by the anti-war movement at the DNC will be raised at the RNC. It is their intention to keep the pressure on and to continue building an enlightened responsible people's movement.

A flier captioned "Outline of Scenario and Tactics for Protest Demonstrations at the Republican National Convention" was distributed during this press conference. This outline planned activities as reported in the "Unconventional News".

MM T-6
July 18, 1972

The MCC meeting on July 18, 1972, was attended by representatives of several groups including the Youth International Party (YIP). It was decided that participants would be divided into several task forces each to work on specific projects.

It was announced that all organizations have pooled a list of their planned events with the expectation this list will be expanded. Efforts will be made to further these plans and to coordinate the events.

The list of plans and events as of July 18, 1972, included the following:

1. A GEORGE JACKSON memorial service to be held on the anniversary of his death, August 21, 1972, with consideration of inviting ANGELA DAVIS to participate.

GEORGE JACKSON was one of the three Soledad prisoners on trial for murder of a guard. He was killed during an attempted escape from San Quentin Prison August 21, 1971.

ANGELA DAVIS is a self-admitted Communist Party member.

2. "Viet Cong Day", to popularize Viet Cong culture and music.

3. "Street Without Joy", as described in the "Unconventional News".

4. "Day of Unacceptance", as detailed in the "Unconventional News".

5. "Expose '72", as detailed in the "Unconventional News".

6. A pre-convention program designed to build momentum for convention activities.

7. A land committee to deal with services at the camp site, establishment of a government at the camp site, to settle disputes and lay out of group sites.

8. A solidarity committee made up of people traveling to Paris to speak to the North Vietnamese representatives to the Paris Peace Talks. On their return to the United States they will travel throughout the country making speeches and attempting to encourage people to come to Miami Beach.

9. Out reach committee to produce radio and news propaganda.

10. A committee to negotiate for permits.

11. A fundraising committee to organize rock concerts.

12. A committee to run an MCC office at the camp site.

13. A committee to organize local youth.

14. A coalition building task force.

B. YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY (YIP); ZIPPIES

The YIP, also known as Yippies, is a loosely-knit anti-establishment revolutionary youth organization formed in New York City in January, 1968. Following a factional dispute in May, 1972, the YIP divided into two factions, the Yippies, headed by a YIP Collective, and the Zippies, headed by THOMAS KING FORCADE, a member of the Underground Press Syndicate.

The YIP was not planning any violent action for the DNC and probably will not do so for the RNC as they feel they are being watched too closely.

MM T-8
July 11, 1972

The YIP started planning for the RNC as soon as the DNC was completed. Indications are as far as the YIP is concerned there will be many more people and more actions during the RNC than during the DNC.

MM T-7
July 17, 1972

YIP leaders wish that all action during the RNC be aimed at making President NIXON appear as a "right wing" fascist. They feel efforts should be made to make Senator GEORGE MC GOVERN appear to be the "center of the road" candidate and not as if he is isolated to "the left".

MM T-7
July 18, 1972

The YIP has arranged for the "Jefferson Airplane", a popular rock group, to appear at a fundraising concert. The date and location of this concert are unknown. They also are arranging for other popular rock groups to hold similar fundraising concerts.

MM T-7
July 18, 1972

The YIP National Collective has ceased to exist as a functioning unit although it will continue as an administrative group handling YIP finances. The Collective has been replaced by a 25-30 member "task force".

MM T-7
July 18, 1972

A Zippies proposed scenario announced on July 16, 1972, included the following:

> August 20, 1972
> "Dishonor America Day", featuring a "urine-in" with American flags; apple pies will be tossed at a blown up picture of MARTHA RAYE, who represents "mom". A sunrise to moonrise "second coming of Jesus Christ" with the idea to tie in the complacency of the right wing of the church with the right wing of the Government.

RE: DEMONSTRATIONS AT THE
REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION

August 21, 1972
Women's Day, using a moon over Miami theme and featuring an anti-Pope march pointing out the Pope is anti-women by virtue of his position on abortion and birth control.

August 22, 1972
Honor NIXON Day, featuring a celebration of death. The idea is to have a sarcastic series of guerrilla theaters with the idea of supporting NIXON is supporting war, repression and racism.

August 23, 1972
Cooperation with other groups in a "mass civil disobedience day".

August 24, 1972
Zippies will call a YIP Congress to rid the YIP of its current leadership.

A flier prepared by the Zippies and captioned "Republican Convention Plans" has been distributed. This flier contains the following:

Sunday, August 20, 1972
"Dishonor America Day". The Zippies will present "The second coming"; Jesus in a Zippie T-shirt will descend and lead a march on the convention hall burying a cross with BILLY GRAHAM on it. At the hall there will be a "piss-in" on objects of honkie culture. A "welfare cadillac" will be destroyed. Apple pies will be thrown to running dogs, flags burned, and other activities. A free marijuana rally will be held at the camp site.

Moonrise, August 20, 1972, to Moonrise, August 21, 1972
This will be a day in support of Women's Day. Zippie free women will ridicule the theatre and march against leading male chauvinists of the time, including the Pope and NIXON among many others.

Monday, August 21, 1972
Repression rally and march. Issues of repression such as the youth community, prison reforms, computer files, police brutality, free speech and assembly, will be accentuated.

Tuesday, August 22, 1972
Abortion reform rally and march against NIXON and the Pope.

Wednesday, August 23, 1972
"Imperialism Day". Protest rally and massive march against imperialism and American colonized countries.

Thursday, August 24, 1972
"Celebration of Death". After NIXON's nomination a Zippies march for NIXON will be held which will include burning of United States identification cards and filling out alien registration forms listing Zippies as residents of "free nation".

The flier ended with the paragraph captioned "Non-violent Pledge", which states "YIP-Zippies again vow to oppose mass violence as a tactic. Violence will only reactivate the law-n-order issue, which can only help NIXON. Miami Beach is bad tactically as well. Old people would be hurt. The Zippies cannot bear the heat and cost of mass arrest situations. Fight back and stay free!"

Miami Prepares for Fun and Games

by Chip Berlet

The Miami Beach City Council Tuesday voted 4-2 to grant a campsite to protestors during the Democratic convention.

The permit was apparently issued to the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) who now can grant camping rights to any groups they choose. The site is Flamingo Park where SCLC proposed to construct Resurrection City II. Yippies, Zippies and other groups in the Miami Convention Coalition will have to negotiate with SCLC for space. The compromise move may not satisfy the demands of several groups but tensions, which had built to a peak during the tumultuous City Council meeting, were vented by the decision. Flamingo Park is just to the south of the massive Convention Hall.

The Council's decision came after several days of protests which began one week ago with a Thursday afternoon march in support of campsites for thousands of non-delegates expected for the Democratic Convention.

The mile-long march in 95 degree weather heralded a return to street theatre by groups which had grown restless after several weeks of fruitless negotiations with city officials.

The mile-long march in 95 degree weather heralded a return to street theatre by groups which had grown restless after several weeks of fruitless negotiations with city officials. Jerry Rubin, attired in red underwear and seen carrying a "FREE MARTHA MITCHELL" sign, was in the vanguard of the march when Miami Beach Mayor Chuck Hall arrived in his gleaming Rolls Royce. Hall joined the march for several blocks but was escorted to the center of the throng by friendly Yippies after members of the crowd complained, "We're not going to follow the Mayor, no matter how nice his is."

The mayor finally left the ranks after the familiar "1-2-3-4, we don't want your fucking war" chant offended his politically delicate ears. He reappeared at the Par 3 Golf Course where over 100 senior citizens were awaiting the arrival of the demonstrators. the senior citizens carried homemade signs reading, "Welcome Non-delegates," and "Send Our Sons Home—End The War Now."

YIPPIES IN HOLE THREE

Yippie organizer Stew Albert, who carried a placard reading, "Martha Mitchell Needs Chicken Soup," spoke to the crowd about solidarity with the Vietnamese and Yippie Ed Sanders, dressed up as General Creighton C. Blackmarket, passed out small packets of a powdery white substance bearing the legend, "CIA Heroin."

Rubin announced plans for a Monday night, July 3rd sleep-in at the Par 3 Course to protest the rejection of that site by city officials. As the rally broke up several Yippies and senior citizens wandered off to "Shoot a few holes of golf and blow some minds."

The Monday night sleep-in was cancelled to avert a confrontation and although 15 Zippies camped out at the course with a small tent, a large portion of the crowd spent the night in the social hall of a local synagogue. A last minute meeting between Yippies, city officials and Police Chief Rocky Pomerance resulted in a phone call by Pomerance to Rabbi Meyer Abramowitz of Temple Menorah who agreed to the use of his facilities.

Yippie leaders felt city officials were scared enough by the thought of a confrontation so soon to offer some real concessions on the campsite problem. To prevent a situation which would terminate meaningful negotiations the Yippies decided to move to the Temple. The 15 Zippies who remained on the course raise doubts however as to what segment of the protestors the Yippies actually represent. This thought is behind many officials' actions.

NOT PANIC BUT HYSTERIA

The prevalent fear in Miami is—no matter how smoothly negotiations with various groups go, there is no way to control thousands of drug-crazed anarchists in the streets. There were only 8,000 protestors in Chicago but they turned the '68 Democratic convention into a side-show for their street theatre. Although there are still few protestors visible in Miami, crowd projections for the conventions run from a minimum of 5,000 to enough demonstrators to push the island several inches under the Atlantic Ocean.

In preparation for this onslaught, city fathers have reacted with a paranoia which could only be engendered by fanciful Yippie propaganda of yesteryear.

The city has welded down every man-hole cover over the sewer system (perhaps to deal with the Weather Underground) and the access ladders have been cut from the seven water storage tanks. In case Augusta Stanley Owsley is secretly training shock troops with climbing ropes to scale the tanks bearing pounds of pure LSD-25, the city is conducting water purity tests every six minutes.

Apparently the city is afraid one morning the delegates will rise, drink a glass of water, and find 700 mikes of acid cruising through their veins before they can even finish devouring their poached eggs. The President of the Miami Beach Chamber of Commerce, James J. McConnell, has admitted, "It's not a panic yet, but it is a hysteria."

As shopkeepers board up their windows, hundreds of Gay protestors are boarding buses for a Gay Caravan leaving Los Angeles, Chicago and New York tomorrow. The caravan, which will arrive in Miami July 10th, has the slogan "Go Gayhound, and Leave the Driver to Us."

The Hog Farm is also enroute to the convention with their candidate for President, a rock from Mount Arrat, the site of Noah's Ark. The Hog provided the Yippies with Pigasus, a Presidential candidate in '68. The rock is described as being "very heavy" and negotiators will represent it since it "is too stoned to care."

MOSQUITOES AND GUSANOS

One thing many Miami visitors will immediately notice is the weather. Even without the forecast of threatening hurricanes (the worst in the decade are forecast for Florida this summer) Miami's normal weather will suffice for even the most hardened masochist. Temperatures run in the 90's and the humidity is high enough to turn your body into a matzo ball.

The sun will parch your skin and turn it a gleaming scarlet with rays so intense it is impossible to walk barefoot on sidewalks. As you lie motionless recovering from sunburn and heat-prostration and waiting for the salt tablets to compensate for your dehydration, you can pause to examine one of Miami's seventy-quadrillion mosquitoes as it engouges itself on your ever-weakening blood.

Mosquitoes are not the only life forms after your blood in Miami Beach. The sandy soil of Southern Florida is the home of thousands of exiled Cubans called "Gusanos". Gusanos are strong supporters of President Nixon, despite his liberal tendencies, and are prepared to physically defend their adopted homeland from the communist-led hoardes descending on Miami Beach.

The majority of Cubans in the Miami Beach area are settled down and probably won't initiate trouble. There are some militant Cuban groups however, seeking a confrontation with protestors who they feel represent a Communist threat to this country. If these groups succeed in creating a disturbance they will be backed by the more moderate fellow exiles. The situation is explosive enought to have prompted Vietnam Veterans Against the War (VVAW) to issue a statement saying they "are prepared to defend demonstrators against physical attacks from the outside elements."

LAW AND ORDER

Other groups are ostensibly interested in protecting "the constitutional rights and public safety of all persons," as a recent Justice Department press release put it. In that release the Justice Department announced that it would express its concern by arranging for the "prepositioning of military forces in the Miami-Miami Beach area." Federal troops and National Guard units will supplement a specially trained state police riot control group in case "there is trouble in the streets."

Undercover agents and operatives from every conceivable government agency will be on hand in Miami including bomb control experts, agents from the Bureau of Narcotics and military intelligence officers.

Local laws have some idiosyncrasies as well. It is illegal to leave your car unlocked in parking lots, for instance. Or, especially for women, there is a law against their walking unescorted at night. Women might find some solace in that until recently Blacks weren't allowed in Miami Beach after dark without a special permit. Jaywalking is strictly enforced with a three dollar ticket for first offenders.

If violence does erupt there will be plenty of laws to cover most contingencies. One problem faced by demonstrators is mass arrest. Miami Beach is an island connected to the mainland by five causeways.

To prevent a recurrence of the Grant park debacle in '68, where thousands were bottled up and gassed by police, some organizers are seriously considering a people's armada of small boats to carry demonstrators off the island. University of Miami medical students are preparing for the worst in their medical aid tents.

One Miami organizer fears that violence is inevitable. Tony Hardeman, now working with the Military and Draft Counseling Center in Denver was a VVAW organizer in Florida until three weeks ago. He lists three reasons why violence might erupt:

The Gusanos and their loathing for anything suspected of being "communist"; the mere presence of so many law enforcement groups both uniformed and undercover; and tension in the Black community resulting from the recent "frame up" conviction on arson charges of a community leader named Al Featherston.

THE BEACH BLANKET STRUGGLE

Tony doesn't have much respect for the two most vocal organizing groups in Miami: "The Zippies are just a bunch of people down there for fun and games," says Hardeman, and he thinks the Yippies led by Abbie Hoffman and Jerry Rubin have "copped out." He claims the most constructive group in Miami is the Miami Liberation Front led by Tom Turner, an old bodyguard of Hoffman's. The Front maintains the Tribal Rangers who patrol rock concerts and other youth-oriented events to prevent trouble. "Tom Turner was in Chicago in '68 and he doesn't want that to happen in Miami," says Hardeman who compares the Liberation Front with Denver's Institute Mountain West.

The Yippies are also trying to avoid a street fighting scene in Miami Beach, especially during the Democratic convention. In a statement issued June 15th they announced a change in emphasis and a decision to focus on the Republican convention in August.

"Our work here leads us to believe the Republicans would welcome a chaotic situation which would discredit the Democratic Party. Disorder would not serve the demonstrator's goal of a peaceful end to war, and it would endanger our grandparents' generation which lives here." The statement stressed that Yippies do not support a single candidate or even believe the "Democratic Party or electoral process alone" can bring the needed changes in our society. They did say "we will resist the Republican scheme to use us as scapegoats to promote a repressive society."

In the joint Zippie/Yippie publication Beach Blanket Struggle (published by the Annette and Fabian collective of the Underground Press Syndicate) a statement pleading with demonstrators to leave Miami between the conventions was issued. Organizers feel they cannot cope with crowds for the month between conventions. Beach Blanket Struggle, a colorful tabloid, will publish daily during the conventions to keep up with the events planned.

Some of the events scheduled by groups for the Democratic convention include a July 9th Independence Day Smoke In and Smack Attack, a Monday night poor people's march, and a People's Worlds Fair called EXPOSE '72.

The protests are billed as a "Celebration of Change—10 Days to Change the World." Organizers add that the change is by "any means necessary." Miami Beach is certainly going to be lively.

REPORT AND ANALYSIS OF PROTEST ACTIVITIES INVOLVING THE DEMOCRATIC AND REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTIONS, MIAMI BEACH, FLORIDA, JULY AND AUGUST, 1972

The following information was provided by a source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, who was in attendance at Miami Beach, Florida, during the Democratic National Convention (DNC) in that city July 10-14, 1972.

Source observed that among the various groups involved in protest activity at the DNC, there was little or no type of organization apparent. Most of the groups involved had exclusive and many times antagonistic goals; the only issues about which the groups agreed upon was a dislike of the war in Vietnam and a stronger dislike for President Nixon. Had it not been for these two overriding factors, the groups would never have held together throughout the five days of the DNC.

Source noted that the protest groups represented at the DNC could be roughly divided into three large categories, as follows:

First was the group which did not desire any open violence. This group formed itself into the committee known as the "Coalition" and consisted of the Vietnam Veterans Against the War (VVAW), Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) and the National Welfare Rights Organization (NWRO).

The VVAW is a national organization composed of veterans opposed to the war in Vietnam who have sponsored demonstrations against the United States Government's participation in the Vietnam war.

The NWRO is a nationwide grassroots organization of welfare recipients and other poor people. The NWRO claims to be fighting for the goals of adequate income, dignity, justice and democracy for welfare recipients. In the conduct of demonstrations and protests, NWRO members and supporters have frequently caused disturbances which have resulted in mass arrests and property damage.

A second group was composed of those organizations and individuals which preached violence but who agreed to forgo violent tactics at the DNC for various political and tactical considerations. The organizations involved with this second group included the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), Youth International Party (YIP), its dissident faction ZIP, as well as various women's liberation and gay liberation groups.

Worker Student Alliance (WSA), a faction of SDS, was expelled from the SDS in June, 1969, by the then dominant Weatherman faction but continued to use the name SDS and opened an office in Boston, Massachusetts. WSA aligned ideologically with the Progressive Labor Party (PLP) and in February, 1971, moved to Chicago, Illinois. SDS/WSA currently shares office space with the PLP in Chicago.

The PLP was founded in 1962 by individuals expelled from the Communist Party, USA, for following the Chinese communist line. Its objective is the establishment of a militant working-class movement based on Marxism-Leninism and MAO Tse-tung thought.

The YIP, also known as Yippies, is a loosely knit, anti-establishment, revolutionary youth organization formed in New York City in January, 1968.

A third group was that composed of the many people who came to Miami Beach because they felt the activities there would be in the nature of a big party. Although there were both violent and non-violent individuals in this final group, it by and large consisted of non-political people out for a good time.

The following are the source's observations as to the goals and attitudes of some of the above-mentioned groups with regard to activities of the DNC:

SCLC-The group appeared mainly interested in bettering the lot of poor people in the country. No instance was noted where SCLC advocated the use of violence in connection with achieving its aims.

NWRO-mainly advocated raising the scale of welfare payments to a family of four to the $6500 figure per year. No instance was noted by source in which representatives from NWRO advocated the use of violence to achieve its goals.

VVAW concerned itself mainly with issues relating to the war in Vietnam and working for the release of 23 of its cadre recently subpoenaed by the Grand Jury in Tallahassee, Florida. VVAW made no statements noted by source which indicated they intended to incite violence at the convention. Activities of VVAW included attempts to get certain anti-war planks in the Democratic platform, security duty at Flamingo Park and work with members of SCLC and NWRO for peaceful demonstrations and marches.

SDS, while using the issue of racism as the hub of its argument, still followed the old PLP/WSA line of workers and students as the vanguard of the revolution. While SDS did advocate the use of violence in achieving its aims, the language used was so rhetorical as to leave some doubt as to their sincerity.

YIP appeared mainly to be advocating the line "dope makes the revolution." While individual members advocated violence, the general tone of YIP was definitely non-violent.

The ZIP group came closest to becoming involved in violence at the DNC. ZIP cadre were continually advocating militant actions and on a number of occasions only vigorous opposition from other groups stopped ZIP from going to the streets.

Source further observed that in his opinion, in the final analysis of the events at the DNC, the demonstrators kept their word, that is, there was no violence of an organized nature. The main reason the DNC was so different from the 1968 Democratic Convention in Chicago was the action of the police. The police at the Miami DNC, unlike the Chicago police, ignored minor infractions of the law and used the right amount of force in handling more serious ones. An atmosphere was achieved in which neither side desired a serious confrontation with the possible exception of ZIP.

With regard to the forthcoming Republican National Convention (RNC), source noted that he constantly heard such phrases as "wait until August" with reference to violent activity. Demonstrators were told to [redacted] b7D the RNC [redacted] The following are source's observations as to how violent demonstrations might be averted at the RNC:

1. A 23-page pamphlet captioned "A Program For Peace, Jobs, and Justice, The 1972 Election Campaign Platform of the Communist Party, USA"

2. A two-page leaflet captioned "Workers' Action!" containing the proposed amendment to the United States Code to establish the 30-hour week with 40-hours pay, published by the Workers Actin Movement, 222 West 37th Street, Room 1503, New York City

3. A two-page, 11½"x 17½" leaflet captioned "An Open Letter to McGovern Supporters From Linda Jenness" published by the Socialist Workers Party, 706 Broadway, 8th Floor, New York, New York

4. A four-page leaflet captioned on front "Women's Liberation and the Socialist Workers Campaign" and on the back "Vote Socialist Workers The Women's Liberation Campaign" published by the Socialist Workers Campaign, 706 Broadway, 8th Floor, New York, New York

5. A one-page blue leaflet captioned "Nixon and the Dikes, Nuremburg - 1972" from the Youth International Party and Miami Convention Coalition. The leaflet urges delegates to the Democratic National Convention to mandate the Party to light of all the American pilots based in Thailand, Guam, and on the ships in the Tonkin Gulf, and remind them of their obligation to Nuremburg principles where following orders was not considered a valid defense

6. A four-page pamphlet captioned "Out Now, Vote Socialist Workers" published by the Social Workers Campaign Committee, 706 Broadway, 8th Floor, New York, New York

7. A four-page leaflet captioned "Young Socialists For Jenness and Pulley" on the front page and on the back page "Make Your First Vote Count. Vote Socialist Workers in '72" published by Young Socialists For Jenness and Pulley, 706 Broadway, 8th Floor, New York City

8. The July 1972 issue of "Movin' Together" of the Peoples Coalition for Peace and Justice, 156 5th Avenue, Room 527, New York, New York

9. A two-page undated anti-war supplement of the "Daily World" captioned "Peace Needs Action Now"

10. A two-page leaflet captioned "A Democratic Society or a Police State in America, Which Will it Be?" prepared by the National Committee Against Repressive Legislation, National Office, 555 North Western Avenue, Los Angeles, California

11. A two-page large leaflet captioned "Nixon is Giving Labor the Shaft" prepared by the National Coordinating Committee For Trade Union Action and Democracy, 343 S. Dearborn, Room 602, Chicago, Illinois. This leaflet contains a referendum ballot on voting whether in favor of organized labor calling a one-day nationwide work stoppage to force Congress to repeal the law allowing wage controls

12. A 12-page newspaper captioned "Unconventional News, Miami, August 20-23" prepared by the Miami Conventions Coalition, 1718 Alton Road, Miami Beach, Florida, and the Youth International Party, 1674 Meridian Avenue, Miami Beach. This issue details activities to be conducted by non-delegates during Republican National Convention in August 1972.

13. A two-page leaflet captioned "Angela is Free" and "Free All Political Prisoners" published by the Angela Davis Southern Committee to Free all Political Prisoners, P.O. Box 4643, Memphis, Tennessee

14. A 22" x 16" poster containing the same nine pictures of President NIXON in light and dark form captioned "The Nomination Day" at the top and at the bottom "Republican National Convention, Miami Beach, August 22, 1972" At the bottom is the Miami Conventions Coalition, 1718 Alton Road, Miami Beach, Florida, telephone 305-672-0122

15. A one-page leaflet captioned "Sunlight to the End" from the Christian Information Committee of Miami Beach, telephone 673-0326

16. A one-page leaflet of the Peoples Party of Florida, 1410 20th Street, Room 209, Miami Beach, Florida, issuing an invitation to the Southern Regional Convention on July 16-17, 1972 at Bayfront Park Auditorium, 5th Street and Biscayne Boulevard, Miami. This convention is a prelude to the Peoples Party National Convention to be held in St. Louis, July 26-30

17. A one-page leaflet from the United Farm Workers, 2827 Northwest 11th Avenue, Miami, telephone 633-7071, urging a boycott of on eating lettuce

18. A one-page leaflet captioned "The Daily Forever News", R. G. BRYANT, Editor, 1452 Northwest 36th Street, Miami, containing Christian religious events.

Racism at the Convention...

HUMPHREY BIG SHOT RUNS DOWN POOR BLACK WOMAN

On Sunday night a black women was seriously injured by a speeding car at the corner or 15th and Alton Ave. The car was driven by E. C. Ravenholt, top administrative assistant to Sen. Inouye of Hawaii. Ravenholt is now on loan to the Humphrey campaign. The woman is at Mt. Sinai hospital suffering with at least a fractured pelvis.

The women was crossing the street and on impact was thrown over ten feet into the air. Five people witnesses this incident. The skid marks left by Ravenholt were 52 feet long indicating a speed of about 50 m.p.h. in a 30 m.p.h. zone.

The cops arrived in a few minutes and interviewed the driver of the car and the passengers. However they did not want to talk to the five witnesses, nor would the cops reveal their names when asked, and they took off their badges. No alcohol test was given to the driver.

In 15 minutes Ravenholt drove off scott free. THE POLICE CHARGED THE WOMEN FOR CROSSING AGAINST THE LIGHT. This is racism--- another case in which the rich and powerful treat poor black people like dirt, and the police help to cover up the evidence.

S.D.S.(Students for a Democratic Society) has an Bill Against Racism which is being brought up on the convention floor and many people have signed the anti-racism petition. We intend to fight for the Anti-Racism Bill not only on the convention floor but also also against acts of racism such as a big shot in the Humphrey campaign hitting a black woman and then driving off.

We will not stop fighting until she is fully compensated. WE DEMAND THAT RAVENHOLT PAY ALL MEDICAL BILLS AND COMPENSATION FOR INCOME LOSS.

WHY WE ARE HERE

b6

FARMWORKERS HAVE NO VOICE INSIDE THE POLITICAL PARTIES WITH VERY FEW EXCEPTIONS.

WE ARE HERE FOR THESE IMPORTANT REASONS:

(1) WE EARN LESS THAN 10 YEARS AGE WITH NOT ENOUGH MONEY TO FEED OUR FAMILIES BUT WE PICK AMERICA'S VEGETABLES.

(2) WE ARE KEPT OUT OF ALL PROGRAMS FOR FARMWORKERS - WE HAVE NO VOICE.

(3) WE ARE LOSING OUR JOBS TO MACHINES DEVELOPED BY STATE AND FEDERAL AGRICULTURAL AGENCIES.

HERE ARE THE FACTS ABOUT WHY WE ARE PICKETING RUBIN ASKEW.

FLORIDA HAS A CORRUPT JOB TRAINING PROGRAM FOR MIGRANT WORKERS. BIG FARMERS WITH LOTS OF MONEY ARE AGAINST US AND THEY CONTROL ASKEW. NO MIGRANTS EVEN HAVE A VOICE IN RUNNING THIS PROGRAM IN FLORIDA.

FLORIDA IS THE ONLY STATE WHERE MIGRANT GROUPS OR PRIVATE PUBLIC SERVICE GROUPS HAVE BEEN INTENTIONALLY EXCLUDED FROM DEVELOPMENT OF A JOB PROGRAM TO HELP MIGRANTS INSTEAD OF SERVING LARGE FARMERS BY GETTING THEM CHEAP LABOR.

THE NIXON ANTI-LABOR DEPARTMENT FUNDED MIGRANT GROUPS TO DEVELOP JOB TRAINING PROGRAMS IN EVERY STATE PROGRAM EXCEPT FLORIDA.

EVEN THE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR'S SPECIAL REVIEW STAFF FOUND THE FLORIDA EMPLOYMENT SERVICE TO BE RACIST AND GROWER CONTROLLED. IT WAS FOUND TO SUFFER FROM SUCH THINGS AS: RACIAL SEGREGATION IN LABOR CAMPS, WOMEN GETTING SLAVE LABOR PAY, AND A TOTAL LACK OF SERVICE TO WORKERS. THE SAME LUNCH IS NOW GIVEN CONTROL OVER OUR JOB PROGRAM.

ASKEW IS A TOOL OF THE FARMERS. EVEN NIXON'S MEN SAID FLORIDA'S MIGRANT LABOR PROGRAMS ARE RACIST AND GROWER CONTROLLED. WE MUST HAVE THIS ENDED.

WE ARE AGAINST THE "LAST YELLOW BUS" RETRAINING PROGRAM AS RUN BY FLORIDA'S AGRI-BUSINESS CONTROLLED STAFF FROM LT. GOV. ADAMS, AND OTHERS. MIGRANT GROUPS AND OTHER SERVICE GROUPS (SUCH AS. AMERICAN FRIENDS SERVICE COMMITTEE-QUAKERS) WERE KEPT FROM

BIDDING FOR THESE FUNDS BECAUSE ASKEW'S FLUNKIES AND NIXON'S ANTI-LABOR DEPARTMENT HAS A CLOSED BIDDING PROCESS AND OUR PROPOSAL (THE UNITED FARMWORKER JOB PROGRAM) WAS NOT EVEN CONSIDERED. THE GOVERNMENT ANTI-MIGRANT POWER BOSSES VIOLATED THE LAW (THE CONSTITUTIONAL, STATUTORY GUIDELINES AND DEPARTMENT OF LABOR REGULATIONS) BY NOT GIVING US ANY VOICE IN THIS PROGRAM.

ASKEW REFUSES TO MEET WITH US IN AN OPEN MEETING.

WE HEREBY DECLARE THAT WE WILL OPPOSE ANY RACIST AND GROWER CONTROLLED PROGRAM AND ASK ASKEW TO MEET WITH US TONIGHT IN AN OPEN MEETING TO END RACISM IN FLORIDA MIGRANT PROGRAMS.

MIGRANT HOUSING HAS NOT IMPROVED UNDER ASKEW. NO NEW MIGRANT HOUSING HAS BEEN BUILT IN 4 YEARS IN PALM BEACH COUNTY, BROWARD COUNTY, AND DADE COUNTY.

AND NO FARMWORKER OWNED OR CONTROLLED HOUSING EXISTS IN ASKEW'S FLORIDA.

WE ARE NOT SLAVES - WE DEMAND OUR RIGHTS.

WE NEED HOUSES, NOT PROMISES FROM THE CORRUPT ANTI-LABOR BOSSES IN FLORIDA GOVERNMENT.

EVERYONE JOIN OUR CAUSE FOR HUMAN DIGNITY AND EQUAL JUSTICE FOR AMERICA'S HARDEST WORKING, LOWEST PAID LABOR FORCE:

FARMWORKERS WHO HARVEST AMERICA'S FOOD, BUT SLEEP WITH RATS, HAVE NOT ENOUGH TO EAT AND ARE SERFS OF THE LAND.

MARCH AGAINST RACISM

Acts of racism and Genocide are being committed daily in this country with the U.S. government either condoning these acts or actively taking part in committing them. This racism must be fought with the Militant unity of black, brown and white. The SDS ANTI-RACISM BILL would outlaw specific oppressive and repressive measures now being carried out in this country. It would end the racist wars against the people of Asia and Africa.

WE ARE GOING TO MARCH ON THE CONVENTION HALL TO DEMAND THAT THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY ADOPT THE ANTI-RACISM BILL AS ITS PLATFORM. THEY ARE GOING TO BE DECIDING ON THEIR PLATFORM ON TUESDAY AND A MASS MILITANT DEMONSTRATION COULD FORCE THEM TO MEET OUR OUR DEMANDS.

ANTI-RACISM BILL

Acts of racism and genocide are being committed daily with the US government either condoning these acts or actively taking part in committing them. This racism must be fought with the unity of black, latin, and white, workers and students: with militant struggle, every single day. This is the only way it will ever stop. We charge the government with genocide in this country and absolutely abominable genocide in SE Asia and Africa.

After the Nuremberg Trials the United Nations had a Convention on Genocide. There, they defined genocide as "any of the following acts committed with intent to destroy, in whole or in part, a national, ethnical, racial, or religious group as such:

a) Killing any members of the group; b) Causing serious bodily or mental harm to members of the group; c) Deliberately inflicting on the group conditions of life calculated to bring about its physical destruction in whole or in part; d) Imposing measures intended to prevent births within the group; e) Forcibly transferring children of the group to another group."

Article III of the Convention provided that "The following acts shall be punishable: a) Genocide; b) Conspiracy to commit genocide; c) Direct and public incitement to commit genocide; d) Attempt to commit genocide; e) Complicity in genocide."

The bill follows. It is now being passed around and signatures are being gathered as support. Come to Miami and build this campaign to end racism and genocide in the US.

I. U.S. out of S.E. Asia, Africa, Latin America and the Mid-East.

II. A. NO FEDERAL TROOPS shall be sent to ghettoes to suppress demonstrations or rebellions against racist treatment.

B. ANY STATE, LOCAL OR FEDERAL POLICEMAN or other state, local, or federal government official who murders a person, especially a black, latin, asian or native american person, shall be deemed to have committed a federal offense punishable by life imprisonment.

C. ANY STATE, LOCAL OR FEDERAL POLICEMAN or other state, local or federal government official who assaults a black, latin, asian or native american person, shall be deemed to have committed a federal offense punishable by not less than ten years imprisonment.

D. ANY ONE ON TRIAL for any offense shall have his or her choice of a lawyer. The government shall pay all fees.

III. A. RESCIND THE TALLMADGE AMENDMENT. (Amendment forces welfare clients to work at below minimum wage)

B. THERE SHALL BE A GUARANTEED ANNUAL INCOME of $6,500 for a family of four, available to anyone with no legal exceptions.

IV. A. REPEAL THE RACIST IMMIGRATION CODES.

B. PEOPLE RESIDING IN THE US and born in other countries shall not be deported or harassed.

V. NO COLLEGE OR UNIVERSITY, PUBLIC OR PRIVATE SCHOOL, WHICH EMPLOYS officials who commit acts of racism against students, faculty or other employees, or which uses texts that propagate the view that black, latin, asian or native american people are culturally or genetically inferior shall receive any federal aid.

VI. A. MEDICAL RESEARCHERS WHO EXPERIMENT ON MINORS SHALL be deemed to have committed a federal offense punishable by not less than ten years imprisonment and with a maximum of life imprisonment.

B. MEDICAL RESEARCHERS WHO EXPERIMENT on black, latin, asian or native american people without their full consent shall be deemed to have committed a federal offense, punishable by not less than ten years imprisonment and with a maximum of life imprisonment.

C. ANYONE WHO PRACTICES FORCED STERILIZATION or lobotomies shall be deemed to have committed a federal offense punishable by life imprisonment.

D. CAPTIVE POPULATIONS such as prisoners shall not ever be experimented on or medically abused. Anyone who commits this crime shall be deemed to have committed a federal offense punishable by not less than ten years imprisonment depending on the severity of the offense.

WHERE DO the DEMOCRATS STAND on RACISM?

On Saturday July 8 the Democratic National Committee will be served luncheon at the ritzy Eden Roc Hotel. They are the top leaders of a party which claims to serve the interests of the people. But while they dine at the Eden Roc, millions in this country go hungry. There are no jobs, especially if you're black or brown. Prices go up while wages are frozen. Welfare gives you almost enough money to starve on. Now the Tallmadge Amendment allows states to welfare recipients to work at slave-labor for their checks.

The Democratic National Committee dines at the Eden Roc behind heavy guard. Their headquarters at the Fontainebleau is practically an armed camp. Thousands of cops will surround Convention Hall. Meanwhile, every day black, brown, and Asian people are haressed, assaulted, and murdered by the police. Federal troops are called in to suppress rebellions against the conditions of ghetto life.

WHAT DOES THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL COMMITTEE HAVE TO SAY ABOUT ALL THIS?? DO THEY STAND SIDE BY SIDE WITH THE REPUBLICANS??

The Democratic Party supported the wage-freeze.

Senator Tallmadge is a Democrat.

New York and Chicago, where the new slave-labor welfare plans are being tried out, have democratic mayors.

A Democratic President first sent US forces to Vietnam, and another Democrat escalated the war.

The Democrats supported the Long provisions of the 1968 "Civil Rights" act, which provides heavy penalties for the leaders of ghetto rebellions.

WHERE DO YOU THINK THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL COMMITTEE STANDS??

The SDS Anti-Racism Bill would outlaw acts of racism and genocide like these. It is part of our continuing struggle to unite black, brown, and white students and working people to fight against racist oppression. WE DEMAND THAT THE ANTI-RACISM BILL BE ADOPTED AS PART OF THE DEMOCRATS' PLATFORM. We demand that the Democratic National Committee respond to these issues.

SAY NO! TO THE RACIST & SEXIST WELFARE SYSTEM

We support the struggles of the women and men in WElfare Rights Organizations who are fighting to get a living annual income from the U.S. government. Right now welfare is at almost starvation level- not enough money for food or for decent housing, and in many states no special allowances for furniture or school clothes for children.

Now with the newly instituted Tallmadge Amendment, welfare mothers are forced to work for 95¢ an hour to get welfare. Aimed mainly at black and latin women who are first to be unemployed anyway, this is the government's way of reinstituting racist slave labor. Besides all the degrading racist and sexist bureaucracy women on welfare have to go through, this Tallmadge Amendment is the last straw in the fight for a decent welfare system with a decent annual income.

We support the fight of poor and working people to get into the Democratic Convention to press their demands. Democrats and Republicans alike have supported racist welfare laws. Join us in standing with the National Welfare Rights Organization in the fight for $6500 a year and no slave labor.

RE: DEMONSTRATIONS AT THE
REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION
AUGUST, 1972

The Republican National Convention (RNC) is scheduled to be held at Miami Beach, Florida, August 21 - 24, 1972.

I. ORGANIZATIONS PLANNING PROTEST DEMONSTRATIONS

A. MIAMI CONVENTIONS COALITION (MCC); PEOPLE'S COALITION FOR PEACE AND JUSTICE (PCPJ)

The MCC was formed at a national meeting in Washington, D. C. during May, 1972, as a coalition of groups planning protest activities at the Democratic National Convention (DNC) and RNC, including the Florida People's Coalition (FPC) and the San Diego Convention Coalition (SDCC).

The FPC is a state-wide organization established as a pressure group to demonstrate at the DNC, Miami Beach, Florida, July, 1972.

The PCPJ is self-described as a coalition of over 100 organizations which are using massive civil disobedience to combat racism, poverty, repression and war.

RE: DEMONSTRATIONS AT THE

The Zippies is an off-shoot of the Youth International Party (YIP).

The YIP, also known as Yippies, is a loosely-knit anti-establishment revolutionary youth organization formed in New York City in January, 1968. Following a factional dispute in May, 1972, the YIP divided into two factions, the Yippies, headed by a YIP Collective, and the Zippies, headed by THOMAS KING FORCADE, a member of the Underground Press Syndicate.

The [redacted] the MCC was held in [redacted] with the purpose of [redacted] RNC. The conference was attended by representatives of the MCC and PCPJ, as well as the YIP, homosexual groups, women liberation groups, and other small local organizations. Other than the people who came from Miami, Florida, who had been involved in DNC activities, there were people from Tallahassee, Florida, Tampa, Florida, Atlanta, Georgia, New Orleans, Louisiana, and Montgomery, Alabama. b6 b7C b7D

The scenario which has previously been published by the MCC was discussed as well as a Vietnam Veterans Against the War (VVAW) sponsored march from Fort Pierce, Florida, terminating at Miami Beach, Florida, on August 21, 1972.

The VVAW is a national veterans organization with a national clearinghouse located at 25 West 26th Street, New York City. Its first published objective is "to demand an immediate cessation of fighting and a withdrawal of all American troops from Indochina".

The black community of Miami must be educated to participate in the GEORGE JACKSON memorial service to be held on August 21, 1972. Attempts were being made to have either ANGELA DAVIS or BOBBY SEALE speak at this service.

GEORGE JACKSON was one of the three soledad prisoners on trial for the murder of a prison guard. He was killed during an escape attempt from San Quentin Prison on August 21, 1971.

ANGELA DAVIS is a self-admitted Communist Party member.

RE: DEMONSTRATIONS AT THE
REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION

BOBBY SEALE is a Black Panther Party (BPP) leader.

The BPP is a black extremist organization started in Oakland, California, in December, 1966. It advocates the use of guns and guerrilla tactics to bring about the overthrow of the United States Government.

Expose '72, a new innovation, may very well be widely used in the future. It will set a tone and give a political focus for the entire MCC scenario.

A press statement was drawn up that included the following:

1. A condemnation of President NIXON.

2. Support for the Poor People's Platform.

3. Support for VVAW members indicted at Tallahassee, Florida.

4. A demand that a date be set for withdrawal of all American troops in Vietnam.

5. The end of backing for the current South Vietnamese rulers.

6. A refusal to support any Presidential candidate.

7. A call for support of activities in Miami Beach during the RNC.

Attempts are being made to have the Jefferson Airplane present their concert on August 20, 1972, from a barge anchored off Lummus Park, Miami Beach. Admission is to be free.

There is to be an "Honor America Day" to be held on Miami Beach on August 20, 1972, and one of the reasons for the free concert to be held that day is to keep the "freaks" away from the "Honor America Day" activities and

D. STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY (SDS)

SDS was founded during June, 1962, at Port Huron, Michigan, and in the 1960s functioned as the leading New Left campus-based student organization in the United States. From a stance of "participatory democracy", the SDS moved to a radical-revolutionary position. It maintained a national office at 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois, until February, 1970. Internal factionalism during 1969 produced three main factions: Weatherman, Revolutionary Youth Movement (RYM), and Worker Student Alliance (WSA). The Weatherman and RYM no longer consider themselves associated with the SDS. The WSA faction continues to use the name SDS.

WSA, a faction of SDS, was expelled from SDS in June, 1969, by the then dominant Weatherman faction, but continued to use the name SDS and opened an office in Cambridge, Massachusetts. WSA aligned ideologically with the Progressive Labor Party (PLP) and, in February, 1971, moved to Chicago, Illinois, where it opened the SDS National Office at 1225 South Wabash Street.

The PLP was founded in 1962 by individuals expelled from the Communist Party USA for following the Chinese communist line. Its objective is the establishment of a militant working class movement based on Marxism-Leninism and Mao Tse-tung thought.

On [redacted] the SDS people in Miami started [redacted] members for SDS and participants in SDS activities at the RNC. This will be a continuing project for an indefinite period of time.
